A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of four animals in a cozy indoor setting. In the center, a large orange and white cat with blue eyes sits on a red and orange striped mat. To its left, a small blue elephant with pink ears and trunk sits on the same mat. To the far left, a small brown and white dog with floppy ears sits on the mat. To the right of the cat, a small brown goat with blue eyes and small horns stands on the mat. The background features a dark blue wall, a window with warm light, a shelf with vases and books, and a potted plant. A rainbow-colored cushion is visible on the right.
