Eclipse Innovation + Development

Designing the perfect home is easy. Taking it from concept to construction to finished product is not. Eclipse is your single source for the home building process. Owning the entire building process eliminates the finger-pointing that homeowners typically face during the construction phase, so they can have their dream home for a lifetime.

Why Choose Eclipse?

It's the quality of construction that gives a home the ability to last a lifetime. Quality comes in using extras – things that most people do not think of when envisioning their dream home – extra insulation, higher grade of lumber, all the things you don't see that makes a difference over the lifespan of the house. We put in the extra effort to make sure our homes last.
