Luxury

Whether you are a couple looking for romance or a family looking for fun and excitement, a trip to the Indian Ocean has it all. Amazing sea food, spices, fruits and cultural dishes influenced by its Asian and African coasts, wherever you choose to stay will make sure each meal is packed with flavour. Blue lagoons surrounding the island give you the chance to snorkel and see some of the most beautiful settings, golf courses on the island of Mauritius for those who prefer to stay dry, beaches that stretch for miles for those relaxation days that everybody needs.

Whilst the Maldives, Seychelles and Mauritius have a reputation for being couple's escapes, there's plenty of room for family adventures, with kid's clubs and entertainment to suit all ages. For the special holidays, treat yourself to a pool suite or villa near the beach... and for that extra bit of luxury, visit one of the many spas for a wonderful treatment. Sri Lanka, Seychelles, Maldives, Mauritius, La Reunion are a few examples of beautiful countries you can head to on your Indian Ocean retreat.

No more are the days where a family holiday meant busy pools, simple food and cringey entertainment. You deserve nothing more than to treat yourself and your family to a beautiful, luxury holiday, living your best lives with those you love the most. Stunning restaurants, amazing surroundings, superior entertainment, all in the most incredible destinations. Luxury isn't just for the upgraded family holidays though, an indulgent couples break to the Caribbean, Asia, Indian Ocean or Canaries is also a must. 5-star, All Inclusive, sand between your toes, crystal clear waters and of course the glow of the sun...

How could it get any better? With so many luxury holiday destinations to choose from, you'll never be restricted to just visiting the same place over and over when you want that something special. The white-sand beaches in the Maldives, Chic hotels and sand dunes in Dubai, Waterfalls of Mauritius, Spa hotels in Thailand, natural wonders in Bali and Sri Lanka. Or if you want to stay closer to home... Greek Islands and the Canaries have some amazing luxury hotels to offer for experiences you will never forget!

Or even set sail on a luxury cruise and see the oceans from your private balcony with a glass of champagne! Check out our 'Indian Ocean', 'Weddings & Honeymoon' and 'Cruise' sections for more details of where you can head to on your luxury break!

Sports Travel

Travelling to watch and play sport is one of the main reasons Kelly and Karl started their respective businesses before they merged. Karl organised his son's football team trip to play in a tournament in Spain and Kelly, (with her Mum and Dad's help), has taken thousands of Rugby League fans to see Hull play in France, providing matchday transport from and to Spain over the Pyrenees.

We have access to all the sporting events, covering both codes of Rugby, Football, Formula 1, Cricket, Tennis, Snooker, Darts, US Sports and any other sporting event taking place. Perfect for going solo, or any size group, with corporate hospitality packages available too. If you have a sporting group who want to travel to train, or compete abroad, let us take the time and hassle out of finding the best rates and organising all of the paperwork.

THE CHANNEL ISLANDS ARE CALLING!

Rail

Watch the changing landscape right outside your window as it twists and turns as you make your way through towns, villages and cities. Rail holidays provide you with comfort and space as you travel between destinations, no traffic jams, just relaxation as the scenery passes by. There are so many iconic rail trips to choose from...

The Rocky Mountaineer, Orient Express, Bullet Trains in Japan, Blue Train in South Africa are just a handful.

Usually only needing to be at the station 30 minutes before departure, you have more time to relax over breakfast or in your hotel, or even squeeze another museum or walk down the river in before its time to leave! Europe has around 216,900km of rail track, connecting so many cities, villages, ports and mountainous areas, the opportunities for exploration are pretty much endless and you can combine numerous destinations in one holiday.

Weddings & Honeymoon

Have you always dreamed of a private, romantic wedding, surrounded by your closest family and friends, or even just the two of you? Getting married abroad is the perfect way to do so... Increased intimacy, stunning settings, amazing weather and the wonderful taste of local foods. What's not to love?

Whilst you can't guarantee the weather anywhere, countries like Italy, Spain and Greece will supply you with enough sun for that perfect beach wedding in the summertime! You're not restricted to summertime only when wanting some sun whilst tying the knot abroad though... The Caribbean, Australia, The Canaries and Mexico are just a handful of countries that are warm throughout our winter!

We take all the hassle out of organising by planning with your personal wedding co-ordinator in your chosen destination, as well as handling all of the legal terms for you.

Your Honeymoon is the trip of a lifetime, giving you time to enjoy each other and the things you both love, with all the stress of wedding planning behind you. Whether you are adrenaline junkies, relaxing on a beach with a cocktail people, foodies or city folk... there are amazing places, near and far, to satisfy your idea of romance and fun. Australia, Mexico, Fiji, Maldives and Bahamas for sun, sand and luxury. Bali, Costa Rica, Thailand and South Africa for the wildlife and adventure seekers. Vietnam, India and the Amalfi Coast for culture lovers. New York, Las Vegas, Paris, Copenhagen and Iceland, perfect for those city lovers wanting to see iconic monuments on your journey. The choices are endless, the memories are forever, and the best thing? You're doing all this with the person you love the most!

They aren't super expensive either, they're actually very good value for money, often being around 30% less expensive than doing it all yourself! Private transfers, seeing the best of a country, meeting new people, learning everything there is to know about the culture, religion and traditions whilst being in the safety of a group and making incredible memories, group holidays couldn't get much better.
