Welcome from NMAA Executive Director

Sally Marquez
NMAA
Executive Director

I was recently watching a news story entitled, “It is the way the game is supposed to be played so, why is it such a big deal?” The story took place in June of 2016 at the Indiana State Baseball Championships, during which a player from the winning team went onto the mound to console the losing pitcher, who was laying on the ground visibly upset, rather than embarking in a celebration with his teammates.

At the end of the story, the newscaster made a point to say, “The actions of the player reflected on the coaches and the parents of the kid. Somebody is doing something very right.” Adults in the player’s life, leading by example.

When the newscast finished, I pondered about why the story made the news. I was happy that the actions of the boys made national headlines, but saddened that acts of sportsmanship are not the norm. The realization that stories like this are highlighted because they are seen as something special and extraordinary was disheartening to me.

Throughout this year, the NMAA and our member schools are focusing on the importance of sportsmanship by coaches, players and spectators. When you attend a game as a spectator, remember that you too are setting an example for the kids on the court or field and for the individuals around you. Remember that it takes just one person to make a difference and the way you act can set an example for your community.

Be mindful of the example you set in whichever role you play in interscholastic athletics – as a coach, a parent, a player or a spectator. Be POSITIVE and support your team, without being negative towards opponents or contest officials. We need to all be a part of changing the culture of interscholastic athletics so that doing what is right is no longer newsworthy. Competing with Class should be the rule, not the exception.

Let us all band together and lead by example. Show the youth of today that sportsmanship matters. Show our student-athletes the proper way to win and lose. Show our “leaders of tomorrow” that their character far outweighs their performance. In New Mexico, our news story should always read, “It is the way the game is supposed to be played so, why is it such a big deal?” In New Mexico, let good sportsmanship and positive behavior always be the norm.

Sincerely,

Sally Marquez
NMAA Executive Director

2019 State Spirit Championship Notes

“Legend of Spirit” Kim Buie

The New Mexico Activities Association proudly recognizes Kim Buie as the 2019 Varsity Spirit State Championships “Legend of Spirit”.

“Cheerleading is fun! It’s good stuff!” That’s how this year’s Spirit Legend feels about what has filled up countless hours of enjoyment in her life. Kim Buie has been associated with cheerleading in New Mexico for decades.

Kim was born in Alaska, but her family moved to New Mexico when she was young. She went to elementary school in Cloudcroft and later moved to Mississippi and attended Tupelo High School. Kim was a cheerleader for the Golden Wave, as well as being involved on the volleyball team and writing for the school newspaper. “We had two sets of cheerleaders,” explained Kim. “We had a very good basketball program and I cheered for the basketball team.” Why basketball instead of football? “I’d rather be inside,” she joked.

Kim eventually worked her way back to the southwest, specifically El Paso. Kim worked for Southwest Airlines and married her husband, John, in 1991. Kim and John moved back to Alamogordo and she has been a fixture in the community ever since. “In 1991 when I moved here, I was on a list as a judge for cheerleading,” she explained. “They were looking for a drill team coach. I knew nothing about it, or very little, but I said ‘Sure, I’ll do that.’ I was the drill team coach for three years.”

Kim transitioned from drill team to cheerleading, first as the freshman coach and an assistant to help with the co-ed squad. She eventually became the varsity coach, “on and off” for 15 years. “I tried to retire in 2004, but a couple years later I went back.” In her time with Alamogordo High School, Kim was a part of three state titles (1996 as an assistant and 2002 and 2004 as the head coach).

Kim’s commitment to the cheerleading community wasn’t limited to just the high school level. She also served on the coaching staff at New Mexico State University for three years. With her passion for cheer, it is no surprise Kim has been very active with Varsity Spirit. “I’ve worked for Varsity for years,” she said. “I was the southern New Mexico uniform rep for eight or nine years. After I left coaching in 2015, I was a camp manager for Varsity for two summers. The job became available for state Director for Training and Education and now I cover New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.”

Her passion for sports is what keeps her involved in cheerleading. “I enjoy all sports. As a family, we all enjoy it. We love watching the Olympics or anything sports-related. Sports teach you so much about teamwork and perseverance and dedication and discipline. But, what I enjoy most, is that I love the kids.”

Kim and John have three children - Dustin, Morgan and Blair.

Let’s get to know a little bit more about our spirit legend, Kim Buie!

How did you get the opportunity to coach at the collegiate level?

It was a really cool opportunity! Jessica Covington (the NMSU coach) is from Hatch. I’d known her since she was a kid. She lost her assistant and asked if I’d be interested. I said, ‘I’ve never done college before.’ She said, ‘I want somebody with a different perspective.’ The first year was a big learning curve, but I enjoyed it very much. I commuted for three years (back and forth between Alamogordo and Las Cruces) and we practiced at night, which made traveling back and forth very difficult to continually do and, with my job at Varsity, it was too much to do both.

You said the first year was a learning curve. How so?

The skills (in college) are different than what kids can do. We have so many rules for safety reasons. I kind of learned a little bit here in Alamogordo. I had very specific duties. I was the lead assistant. She would give us each particular duties and then we all coached the team. I was in charge of all the appearances. If there was something in the community or the University, I was responsible for that. We did a lot of community service here in Alamogordo, but it was a whole different scale. I got to travel. All three years, the men's and women's basketball teams made the NCAA tournament. Each year, they played in the WAC tournament. We were going to national competitions and collegiate tournaments, which are totally different than high school.

How is cheerleading now different than when you first got involved?

It's becoming much more athletic. The kids truly are athletes to do what they do. I have a special fondness for cheerleaders. You're not average. You cheer all year long, you have to keep your grades up and most have to participate in your community. With trying to promote sportsmanship and everything, it's nice the cheerleaders can provide some positive energy.

Is there a mentor that helped you along the way or gave you some memorable advice?

I have the utmost regard and respect for Lawrence Johnson, the former athletic director at Alamogordo, and former varsity basketball coach Ron Geyer. They both taught me the importance of building a great program, not just a great team each year. They both told me that if I paid attention and took care of our athletes from middle school all the way through high school, I would have successful teams each year. They were so right!

You've coached so many kids through the years and had such an impact on students. Is there one that made an impact on you?

The first year I was the varsity coach in 1997-98, a member of the team, Tito Ramirez, and his mother Maria Flores, were killed in a head-on collision with a drunk driver right in front of Oate High School. They were returning home from the Alamogordo-Gadsden football game that October. Tito's little sister, Angelica Flores, was seriously injured. She was a member of our freshman team and was so very talented. It was a terrible time for our kids, school, community and program. It was a memory I don't talk about as much any longer, but it had a profound impact on the coach I later became.

After all the years you've been involved in cheer, is there one memory that stands out?

I have so many memories. My 2004 state team was not the most talented of all the groups I've coached; that was 2003, when we finished fourth at state. Those kids from the 2004 team told me at the beginning of the year 'We're going to win state!' I told them to go and do their best.

All year long, they kept saying, 'No, no, trust us. We're going to win.' Then they went on to win.

It was an amazing experience! The 2004 team was such a surprise. The stars lined up, we got some breaks and finished on top. I've enjoyed it so much!

How long do you see yourself staying involved with Varsity sports and the cheer community?

I joke now that I am closer to 60 than I am to 50. At 60, I'm going to be done because this really is for young people. It makes you feel young, but things are changing. That new, young perspective is so important. The young people need to get their time in. It brought a lot to my life.
