Publisher's Note

If there's one thing we discovered when publishing Miracles of the Prophets (the best-selling prequel to this book), it was that young Muslim kids LOVE learning about the timeless stories of Islam. That's especially true when we achieve the perfect mix of engaging, authentic, yet succinct storytelling, coupled with entertaining illustrations charged with emotion and detail.

The Miracles of the Prophets stopped short of covering the life of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. For these special stories, we just had to dedicate an entire book for children to discover, love and take lessons from the miraculous life of Allah's final Messenger ﷺ.

In this book, we've carefully crafted the stories to follow the chronology of the Seerah, so kids get the added benefit of seeing the bigger picture of the life of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ through the lens of his miracles.

There's so much meaning, wonder and iman-elevation packed into this book. It was a beautiful experience for our team to bring this book to life, and we pray to Allah that the blessings that come from learning about Allah's beloved Messenger ﷺ reach you and your children, too.

The Army of Elephants

A looooooong

time had passed since Prophets Ibrahim and Ismail عليهما السلام built the Ka'bah in Makkah. It was a place to worship Allah alone.

The ground trembled
as the army got closer and closer.

People panicked and ran from their homes
to the hills in fear.

Now, no one could stop Abraha.
Or so they thought...

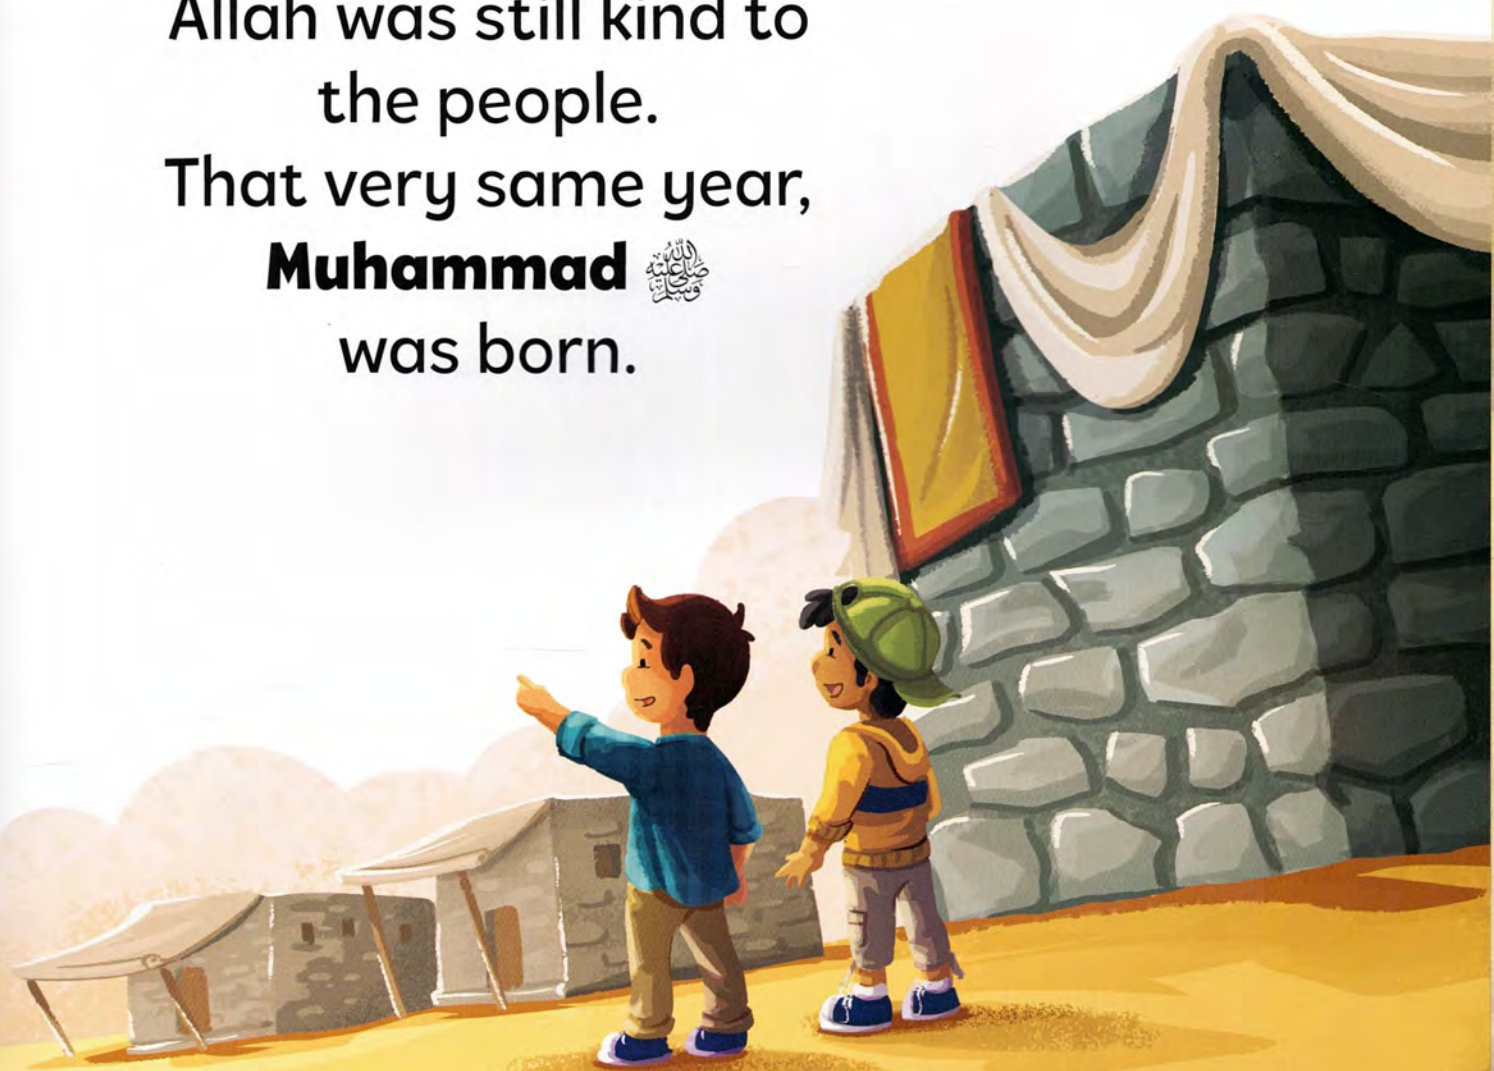

One by one, Abraha's soldiers fell, and NEVER got up again. The Ka'bah was saved!

It was a MIRACLE
from Allah!

But the people thanked the idols instead of Allah.

Allah was still kind to the people.
That very same year,
Muhammad ﷺ
was born.

One day, Allah would make Muhammad ﷺ a Messenger to remind the people to worship Allah alone.

Meet the Miracle Messenger!

Children naturally dream without limits. That's why they LOVE miracles. And when the stories of miracles are from the life of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, they carry an extra iman-nurturing power.
