

NAMES OF GOD

NAMES OF GOD

DAILY DEVOTIONAL

This booklet is devotional guide to accompany the Name of God sermon series preached at Redeemer in September 2024.

Each week has a 5-day Bible reading plan and devotional guide based on the themes from the sermon.

Our hope is that this will fuel your devotion, affection and worship.

Be blessed!

JEHOVAH-NISSI

THE LORD OUR BANNER

The Lord is my Banner

EXODUS 17:15

WEEK 1

DAY 1: THE LORD OUR BANNER

READING: EXODUS 17:8-16

God reveals Himself as Jehovah Nissi - the Lord our Banner. Just as Moses held up his staff and the Israelites prevailed, we too can lift our eyes to God in our daily battles. When we feel overwhelmed, remember that God is our rallying point. He provides strength when we are weak and victory when we feel defeated. Today, identify an area in your life where you need God's banner over you. Pray for His presence and power to be evident as you face this challenge.

DAY 2: IDENTIFIED WITH CHRIST

READING: EPHESIANS 1:3-14

As believers, we are marked with the seal of the Holy Spirit. This spiritual "banner" identifies us as belonging to Christ.

Reflect on what it means to carry God's mark in your daily life. How does this identity shape your decisions and interactions?

Consider ways you can more boldly display your allegiance to Christ, not hiding your faith but letting it be a clear banner for others to see.

DAY 3: SUBMITTING TO GOD'S LEADERSHIP

READING: JEREMIAH 29:11-13

When we declare "The Lord is my banner," we're not just claiming His protection but also submitting to His leadership. God's plans for us are good, even when circumstances seem challenging.

Think about an area of your life where you're struggling to trust God's leadership. Surrender this to Him today, acknowledging that His wisdom surpasses our understanding.

Ask for the faith to follow His banner, even when the path is unclear.

DAY 4: PROCLAIMING GOD'S VICTORY

READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 15:54-58

Christ's death and resurrection are the ultimate banner of God's victory over sin and death.

As His followers, we're called to proclaim this triumph to the world. How can you share the hope of Christ with someone today?

Remember, in every challenge you face, the battle has already been won. Stand firm in this truth, allowing it to bolster your courage and strengthen your witness.

DAY 5: RALLYING TO THE CROSS

READING: COLOSSIANS 2:13-15

The cross of Christ is our supreme rallying point. When life feels chaotic or we lose our way, we can always look to the cross to reorient ourselves. It reminds us of God's love, our redemption, and the defeat of evil.

Today, spend time meditating on the cross. How does this central truth of our faith provide hope and direction for your current circumstances?

Let the reality of Christ's victory on the cross be a banner over your life, guiding your steps and filling you with confidence in God's unfailing love and power.
