

ВИДАВНИЦТВО
РАНОК

Imagine that!

(add to p. 77 SB)

Verb + -ing / infinitive

We sometimes use 2 verbs together.

I enjoy reading fantasy books.

I Decided to visit the places from my favourite films.

don't mind, enjoy, finish, imagine

-ing

I don't mind going to the cinema. / She doesn't mind helping us.

We enjoy eating ice-cream.

They will finish cleaning the house at 2 p.m.

Imagine living without gravity!

agree, decide, forget, hope, need, want,
would like

to + infinitive

I won't agree to do that!

Don't forget to call me!

He hopes to pass the exam.

I would like to buy that phone.

continue, hate, like, love, prefer, start

to + infinitive

-ing

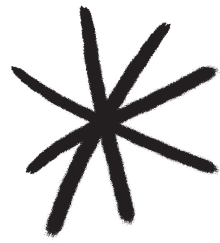

He continued to sing. = He continued singing.

I hate sitting at a cafe alone. = I hate to sit at a cafe alone.

I prefer to watch a comedy film. = I prefer watching a comedy film.

The baby started crying. = The baby started to cry.

Some verbs can take either the -ing form or the infinitive form, but the meaning is different.

don't mind, enjoy, finish, imagine

-ing

agree, decide, forget, hope, need, want,
would like

to + infinitive

continue, hate, like, love, prefer, start

to + infinitive

-ing