Good afternoon everyone and a warm welcome back to Goldington Road as we prepare for one final fixture before Christmas by hosting Worcester Warriors.

We are very pleased to welcome everyone associated with our visitors back to Goldington Road for the first time in a decade and hope all their travelling delegation and supporters enjoy the hospitality we're very proud to offer here.

It's at times like these where we begin to reflect on the year as a whole, and certainly the headline should be that 2025 has been a very successful one for Bedford Blues, both on and off the field.

Mike and the team have played some brilliant rugby again this year, concluding last season in second place and currently on a similar trajectory this campaign in third. This has been helped by a strong sequence of unbeaten performances, including two one-point victories in recent weeks.

Off the field, it's been fantastic to see Goldington Road as a hub of activity throughout December, hosting Shared Christmas Parties and a whole host of private events.

At the start of the month we held our annual AGM, this year a poignant one in celebrating our 25th meeting since the club was officially saved by its supporters and Bedford Blues Ltd was registered.

It really has been another positive year for Bedford Blues and that's down to the unwavering loyalty of our #BluesFamily – everyone has played their part in making sure this club thrives in the current climate.

Your support never ceases to amaze us, and we are delighted to be contesting a sellout Boxing Day fixture against Richmond next Friday, following today's Christmas Cracker against Worcester, in front of another strong crowd.

Check out the club website for all the details on everything that's to come in 2026, but first we look to sign off 2025 in the best possible way in our two remaining home fixtures.

All that's left for me to say is on behalf of the Bedford Blues Board of Directors, we wish you all a very Happy Christmas and New Year.

Come On You Blues...

Good afternoon everyone and welcome back to Goldington Road for our penultimate fixture of the calendar year, and final game before Christmas, as we host Worcester Warriors for the first time since 2015.

We extend a warm welcome to Matt Everard, Tom Cruse, their coaching team, players and supporters who have travelled to be with us and hope to put on a suitable show in what is second vs third in Champ Rugby.

Worcester have brought a lot to the league already since their return this season and we are under no illusions that this will be one of the most difficult tests we'll have throughout the campaign. They will know a lot about us with Cruser, plus Billy Twelvetrees, Alfie and Jake Garside having all spent time at Goldington Road.

The boys have fronted up to every challenge they've encountered so far this season and I'm sure this afternoon will be no different. They've had to show a lot of character in recent weeks, especially to grind out a superb win at Pirates last weekend, and they're excited to be back out there again today.

There's always a buzz around the place for fixtures such as this, and we're hoping to have a strong showing from our #BluesFamily to try and help us over the line.

Your support never ceases to amaze me, and it was again humbling to see so many people supporting us in Penzance last weekend. We were delighted to put in the sort of performance that you all deserved to see, playing the Bedford way and scoring some really nice tries.

There'll be moments in the game today where we'll really need you – Worcester have threats all across the pitch and your pride and passion will be crucial to helping us with that extra one percent that could make all the difference in the end.

On behalf of the entire team here, I'd just like to finish by wishing you all a very Happy Christmas and hopefully we'll see you again on Boxing Day for the sold out battle with Richmond.

Come On You Blues...

WELCOME FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE

A THRIVING CHAMP RUGBY

It's hard not to acknowledge my overriding bias having spent 16 seasons in this fantastic league, but as the festive spirit sets in, can we sprinkle some of that merriment and positivity onto what is shaping up to be a very exciting chapter of Champ Rugby.

Don't mistake me, there are lots of remaining challenges and some difficult hurdles ahead, but with a new brand, a broadcast rights deal, increased exposure and play-offs returning; there's plenty to celebrate.

This league has always produced superb rugby, talented players, proud clubs and real supporters. It's about time we took pride in those accomplishments.

It seems like a good time to reflect on such achievements as we face league new boys, Worcester Warriors. Many of our supporters will remember our several tussles with the Sixways club, and whilst their re-introduction to the Champ caused widespread debate, they have added value to our competition.

They are under completely different management, have sizeable repayment terms to financially compete in this new era and have given additional narrative to a league craving some headlines. Let's also not forget our history, saved from oblivion after the mistrust of abject ownership, only to rightly take our place back in the second tier.

Here we are, over 25 years later, and in a relatively strong position, having just announced another positive set of accounts and remaining a very sustainable professional rugby business.

Part of that success is down to a very busy December on and off the field, Christmas events have been at an all-time high, and three home matchdays across the month is an added bonus! Games over the festive window are always great occasions, with increased attendances and commercial opportunities.

We remain supportive of the continual development of this league and driving higher standards to hopefully attract bigger attendances, grow central commercial revenues and create a structure that engages clubs, players and supporters alike.

Back to today, we're excited to renew old rivalries with the added spice of it being 2nd v 3rd in the table. I'd like to extend a welcome to my counterpart, Stephen Vaughan, and everyone from Worcester who's made the journey.

Thank you for your continued support #BluesFamily, we wish you all a Merry Christmas and look forward to seeing you all back at Goldington Road on Boxing Day.

BEDFORD JUNIOR BLUES

IN FOCUS - U8s

The U8s have enjoyed a great start to the new season, which is their last season of tag rugby.

With a huge membership of 63 players, the future is looking bright for this team along with their army of volunteers.

Last weekend, some of the team had the chance to visit Cinch Stadium at Franklin's Gardens and cheer on Northampton Saints in their European Champions Cup clash against Vodacom Bulls.

The children also got the opportunity to participate in a pre-match festival, enjoying some action-packed games in the shelter of the Saints High Performance indoor training centre.

A half-time pitch walk allowed everyone to wave to the crowd and cheer on the Saints, who came through with a convincing victory. A fantastic experience to top off a bright first half of the season.

BEDFORD BLUES WOMEN

TOP OF THE TABLE AT CHRISTMAS

Bedford Blues Women will spend Christmas & New Year atop of their NC1 East table after a stunning 26-15 comeback victory over Colchester Iceni last weekend.

Eddie Rennell's side didn't make things easy for themselves when falling behind to the 15-point deficit inside the opening 18 minutes, but they picked themselves up off the canvas to secure what could be a monumental five points in the title race.

Billed as first v second before the game, it had all the hallmarks of a game with so much riding on it, played in a great Christmas spirit, and exactly what community rugby is all about.

On a weekend when the men's side had to come from a losing position against Cornish Pirates, it seemed that falling behind was contagious after an extremely sloppy opening.

But once Claire Cranfield had reduced the arrears, Blues really got up ahead of steam and worked their way back into the contest through grit and endeavour. Lucy Middleton added the second try, and was unbelievable off the tee and from ball in hand, to give the team so much impetus.

A cracker from Jess Watson, her first try for the club, had the team in-front for the first time, then Berri Clarke wrapped up the bonus point late on. Five points clear heading into 2026.

TODAY'S OPPONENTS

WORCESTER WARRIORS

An historic first meeting with Worcester Warriors for more than a decade as the Midlands based club head across to Goldington Road for a second vs third Champ Rugby battle in the final round of action before Christmas.

Certainly excitement around the league when it was confirmed Worcester would be taking a spot in the division for the current campaign and they've handled that pressure pretty well in the first half of the season to be Ealing Trailfinders' closest challengers at the top of the table.

They look fallible away from home, however, which is what Bedford will try to exploit. They've looked a class above at their Sixways home ground, getting crowds as high as 9,000 already this season, but have suffered defeats to Hartpury and Doncaster Knights on the road.

Make no mistake about it, they'll be up for this game to try and consolidate themselves in a table position that would dictate a home semi-final come the end of season play-off structure. Tom Cruse heading back to his old stomping ground, a squad containing Billy Twelvetrees and the Garside brothers among others – they'll certainly know a lot about Goldington Road before arrival.

They've worked extremely hard to get into this position. Expected to do well, yes, but to put a new squad together and get them firing on all cylinders is credit to the coaching staff. You only have to look at a similar scenario with Morecambe in football's National League, and you'll see an example of how it doesn't always pan out the way you anticipate with such short timescales.

There's a bit of history up for grabs should Bedford be able to take it. They have never beaten Worcester in league action, and have in-fact only beaten them once altogether, that coming in a British & Irish Cup Semi-Final back in 2010/11.

As always, we hope everyone associated with Worcester Warriors has a fantastic afternoon on what, for many, will be their first visit to Bedford's premier sporting club.

WORCESTER WARRIORS

TWO TO WATCH

FORWARD

Thabo NdimandeBACK ROW*

An imposing and destructive ball carrier, Thabo Ndimande has been a mainstay in the Worcester Warriors matchday squad this season, featuring in all ten Champ Rugby games so far ahead of the visit to Goldington Road.

The wealth of riches available to Worcester, particularly in the back row, make it one of the most competitive units on the pitch. To be so involved in every game is a huge testament to Ndimande's ability, particularly when the options available for rotation are so strong.

Prior to this spell in Worcester, his first taste of rugby in England, Ndimande spent his entire professional career with the Peacock Blues, having joined them straight out of the Varsity Cup, where he represented the Shimlas.

He has played for South Africa at youth level, representing the junior Boks on a tour of Georgia.

BACK

Will ReedFLY HALF / FULL BACK*

Another to have featured heavily for Worcester throughout the entirety of the 25/26 campaign, young fly-half Will Reed has made a cracking start to life at Sixways with 61 points through tries and off the boot from his 10 appearances.

Equally adept at full-back, where he has featured in recent weeks, Reed came through the ranks in his native Wales at United Rugby Championship outfit, Dragons Rugby.

Having come through the Academy set-up at the Gwent region, Reed made his senior debut for Dragons in March 2022 and went on to score 167 points in 50 appearances.

A fantastic opportunity for Reed to learn off experienced players such as Billy Twelvetrees and Tiff Eden, the 24-year-old seems to be reinventing his career at Sixways with some notable performances.

SAFETY MATTERS

All persons attending fixtures at Bedford Rugby Club in possession of tickets for the Eagle Stand should note that in order to comply with the conditions of the Club Safety Certificate certain restrictions have to be imposed on occupants of seats within this stand:

No smoking is permitted in any part of the stand. No bottles, cans or glasses can be taken into the stand.

OTHER AREAS

In addition to the above it should be noted that bottles and glasses are not permitted in any part of the ground except inside the bars, therefore drinks will continue to be served in plastic containers on matchdays.

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

All spectators should note that in the unlikely event of an evacuation becoming necessary, an announcement will be made over the public address system immediately preceded by a warning klaxon sound, informing them of areas that are to be evacuated. As this announcement is being made stewards will open emergency exits and gates, all of which are clearly indicated. Safety stewards will then direct spectators as to which route they should use to leave the ground. In order that any evacuation is conducted as quickly and safely as possible all spectators are requested to comply with the instructions of Safety stewards.

Match tickets should be retained in the event of an evacuation should the game be rescheduled for another date.

BEDFORD BLUES SUPPORTERS CLUB

A VERY HAPPY CHRISTMAS FROM BBSC

Good afternoon everyone and welcome back to all those from Worcester Warriors... it's been a while!

May I begin by paying tribute to our former Chairman of The Followers (as we were formerly known) Martin Sharpe who has sadly passed away. He was a keen Blues supporter, attending games home and away when his health allowed. On behalf of the Bedford Blues Supporters Club, we send our condolences to Martin's family.

I'm sure many of you will have streamed the Pirates game on Clubber - yet again, another nail biter but we'll take that to secure all five points.

Several supporters posted on our Facebook group to say they were watching the game on TV, but it was apparent far more Blues supporters had made the long journey down to Cornwall - respect to them all, that's true dedication!

It's been wonderful to see our hard work paying off with new members joining and traveling with us on the Supporters Coach to away games this season - we really couldn't have asked for a better start to life as the BBSC.

Please remember you don't have to live in Bedford or travel with us on the coach to away games to become a member of the Bedford Blues Supporters Club! Although... if you've never travelled with us, please think about giving it a try in 2026! It's fantastic value at just £12 for Members (£17 Non-members).

We have two away games in January (Chinnor on Sat 3, then Hartpury University on Sat 31) and both coaches are kindly sponsored by FJ Taylor Properties Ltd.

The BBSC Committee are also in the early stages of planning a BIG DAY OUT... so keep an eye on our social media channels for all the details in the coming weeks.

On paper, today's match should be a cracker with just 3 points separating the teams. There should be some decent head-to-head battles - let's hope it lives up to expectations!

I wish you all a Happy Christmas and will see you back here on Boxing Day.

COME ON YOU BLUES!

THE GILBERT BIG INTERVIEW

TOM PRICE

Let's start by talking about today's game, Tom. What are you expecting from Worcester Warriors?

We know what Worcester are going to bring, there's plenty of experience within their squad both in the Championship and at Premiership level. For me, that's really exciting because when I was looking at coming to Bedford, the fact that Worcester were in the Champ was a massive thing.

I grew up watching a lot of the Champ with Bristol, often against Worcester, so it's a fixture that I'm definitely looking forward to, and I know a lot of the boys feel the same. To have that opportunity to play against Worcester is an exciting challenge.

They will want to control the tempo of the game and the challenge for us is to put our game on the park and try to flip it into our favour.

Worcester have looked incredible on home soil, but have lost twice away from Sixways. How much hope does that give the squad of having a chance today?

A big factor will be that they've got a huge fanbase at home and that's something which will help. But actually, flip that on its head, and it's a massive weapon for us today at Goldington Road, having our supporters behind us.

There's a lot of people who are passionate about Bedford and they get behind us. We want to try and make Goldington Road a bit of a fortress, much like Sixways is for Worcester.

No one really knew what to expect from Worcester ahead of this season because a new team, lot of players with experiences at different clubs and we didn't know what they'd offer as an outfit.

Week by week we're having conversations and my brother was in the Hartpury side who beat Worcester earlier in the season so that's a decent bit of intel because it's one thing to watch the video, but knowing how he felt in the game itself is a big tool for how we approach things.

Games around Christmas always bring in larger attendances. After the sellout against Northampton in pre-season, how much are you relishing the atmosphere today?

It makes a massive difference, especially for myself because these are the games that you want to play in. Saints in pre-season was absolutely brilliant in terms of the number of people, and also the atmosphere.

If that's something we can replicate in the next two games that'll be brilliant; there'll be moments in the game where the crowd does have an impact – they can help you find that extra edge that comes out in the performance.

Today is second vs third in Champ Rugby. How pleased are you with the start to the season so far?

I think this weekend will tell us a lot about ourselves. It's been a really good period for us at the moment with some really good performances, and close wins. To come back and draw with Nottingham was also really important for us.

This game is a marker. Are we able to compete against a team at the top, and are we able to stake a claim in these big games?

It's been a few months since you arrived at Goldington Road. How are you finding things?

I'm enjoying the experience. Getting used to having to work again, which is something I've done previously in my career, is a little bit of a transition because I was full-time in Italy last year.

My work away from rugby is still very much focused around sport and it's within coaching and running my own business. It's just getting back used to that slightly different environment and really looking forward to coming into training.

In terms of what we do when we're here at Goldington Road, we're really not far off that top level with the training we cover – there's a brilliant S&C department who tick those boxes, on field training is definitely a high level.

When we look purely at the training, we are at that elite professional level. It's probably the little 2% things we miss out on with those connections – if you're training and playing every day with people, you will build that higher level of connection. But we're aware of that here and we identify it, therefore we try and do those things away from rugby.

It might not be sat in loads of meetings talking about rugby together, but actually can we get together in a social setting and build those relationships that way.

And finally, looking ahead... what remain the targets between now and the end of the season?

From a personal perspective, it's try and play as much as I can. This season so far, I've had some good involvements and there's been others where I haven't played a massive part, which is something I understood when I joined the club. So it's about trying to improve every week and when I do get an opportunity, hope that I can make an impact for the squad.

As a squad goal, we haven't been shy in saying that the goal is to make play-offs, and that very much remains the goal now. We're breaking that down week by week, working out how we're going to get to that... but it is the end goal and who knows what can happen in May, it's a different game when you get into the play-offs.

/// We want to try and make Goldington Road
a bit of a fortress, much like Sixways is for Worcester. ///

MATT WORLEY

WING / FULL BACK

2018-2025. 116 APPEARANCES, 50 TRIES.

Matt is already one of Hong Kong's most prolific try scorers since making his international debut in 2022, with 17 from 15 games.

Matt played for Bedford Blues for seven seasons. He was a very popular try-scorer, and his speed and skill with the ball in hand earned him the name of 'Magic'. I have to add that the speed with which he answered my questions and followed my guidelines was also 'magical!'

Matt writes:

It isn't that long ago since I was waving goodbye to the fans at Goldington Road at our last home game of the 2024-25 season, against Chinnor, which we won 61-26 to secure a second placed finish in the league. As I write these words, it's the 10th of November, and I feel it is a great privilege to be asked to contribute to the matchday programme and share a little of my background and an update on life now.

I was born in Plymouth and moved to Hong Kong when I was about five years old. I was first introduced to rugby while still in the UK, where my parents would take me to watch either Plymouth Albion or Devonport Services at the weekends. My parents were, and still are, my biggest supporters. They introduced me to rugby and were present at every one of my games when I was growing up.

My rugby journey started to progress when I was a teenager. At 17, I was fortunate enough to be sent on a commercial partnership trip with one of my best friends to Racing 92 in France for three weeks. Both my club and Racing were sponsored by the French bank Natixis. Three weeks turned out to be three years in the French capital, where I gained invaluable experience playing in the Espoirs League and rubbing shoulders with some of rugby's 'all-time greats' such as Dan Carter, Joe Rokocoko and Ronan O'Gara, to name just a few.

Due to new league eligibility rules, I found myself needing to leave France and a return to Hong Kong beckoned. However, I was picked up by Northampton Saints. Like many young Saints players who have recently worn the Bedford shirt, I was sent on loan during the 2018/19 season. After eight games on loan and experiencing Goldington Road on a match day, I made the permanent move and had some of my most enjoyable rugby-playing years.

Bedford became home for my partner, Shayin and myself. I won't lie, we had never heard of Bedford before and wouldn't have imagined us settling down there for over six years. We endured some tough times. For example, when COVID hit, having to transition to landscape gardening during the pandemic and continuing with it afterwards, wasn't in my original plan. Chris Ashworth and his wife Carole were life-savers to me and several other members of the squad. It opened my eyes to what work and life outside rugby can be like. It also meant I had to work with Joey Conway for a few years and listen to him talk about his days at Munster!

I was able to make lifelong friends at the club. I am most grateful to Mike Rayer, the squad and staff for helping me to do so. Being able to see Deano become a father was one of my off-field highlights.

Other notable memories include our Jersey trip team social, every away day bus trip back from Cornish Pirates and when we beat Bristol at home in February 2025.

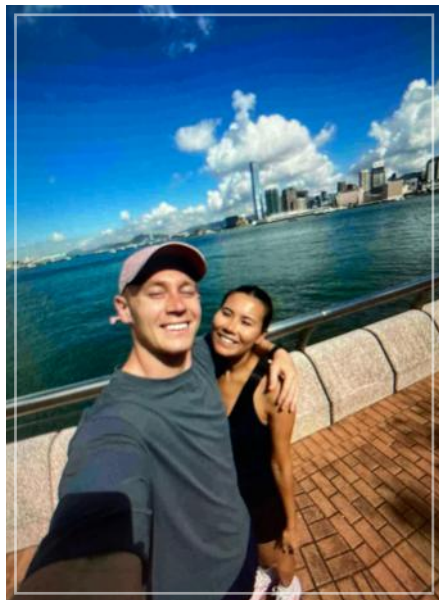

Memorable games for me are Boxing Day v Jersey in 2021, beating Ealing away in 2022 and playing in my 100th Bedford game v Bristol at Ashton Gate.

Shayin and I have settled back nicely in Hong Kong. We are a lot further away from family, so Shayin is my biggest support system. We've rekindled old friendships, met lots of new faces and made new memories together. I am now centrally contracted to the Hong Kong China Rugby Union and back in a full-time environment. At present, we are preparing for the 2027 Rugby World Cup where we have been drawn to face hosts Australia, New Zealand and Chile.

Moving forward, I am hoping to represent Hong Kong in 7s and take part in the Asian Games before focusing on the World Cup in 2027.

Wishing Blues all the best for the rest of the season and I will be keeping a close eye on the results.

Bedford Blues made it five successive victories on the Cornish coast with an impressive display on their final away outing of the calendar year.

Blues went years without a win in Cornwall before this sequence, Pirates are extremely good at home, so you have to enjoy these moments as the good times carried on rolling thanks to a nail-biter at Mennaye Field.

George Worth's purple patch of form continued with the opener, Rory Ward added another to his tally, before two Dean Adamson crackers secured the full five points.

Will Maisey, on the night he broke the 2,000 career points barrier, nudged a 78th minute penalty to take the spoils. A second one-point victory in as many games.

STATS CORNER

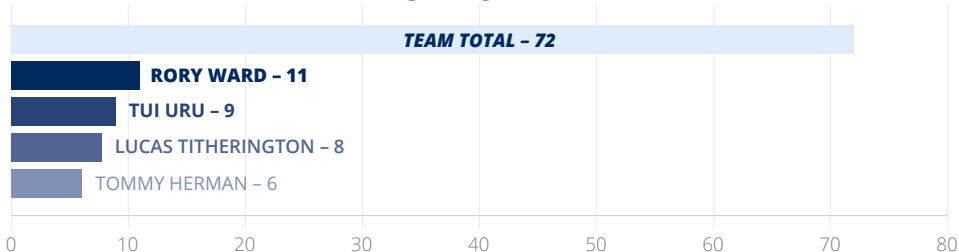

A performance full of character, heart and desire as Bedford Blues secured a fifth successive victory on the Cornish coast by edging a nail-biter in their final away fixture of 2025.

It was a real showcase of Champ Rugby as both sides fought tooth and nail for the full 80 minutes before Bedford eventually prevailed to secure the maximum five points, showcasing all facets of their game to earn a remarkable away victory.

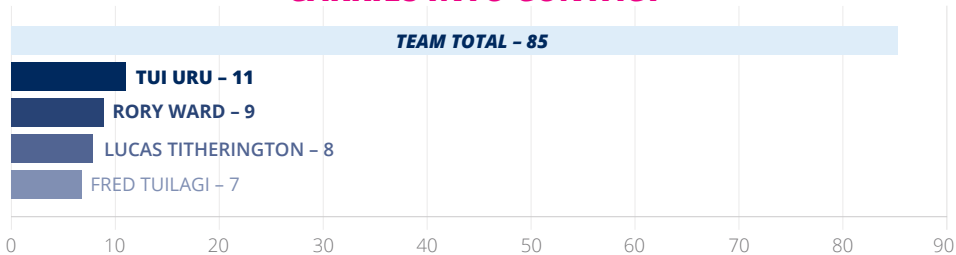

Here's what we learned last time out on The Mennaye Field...
