

The Unwinding of the Medicaid Continuous Coverage Requirement

Estimated number of people losing Medicaid between March 2023 and May 2024¹
(based on disenrollment rate)

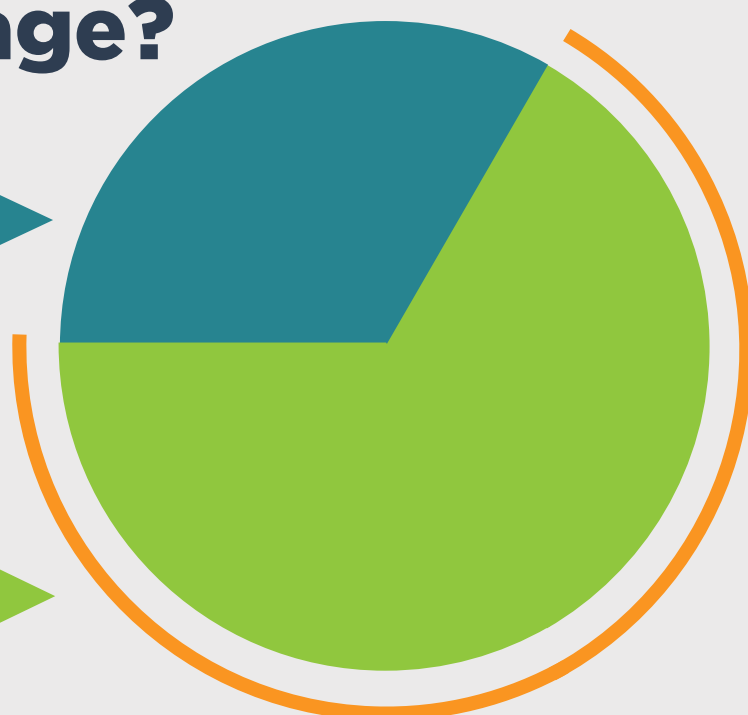

Who is at risk of losing Medicaid coverage?

NO LONGER ELIGIBLE

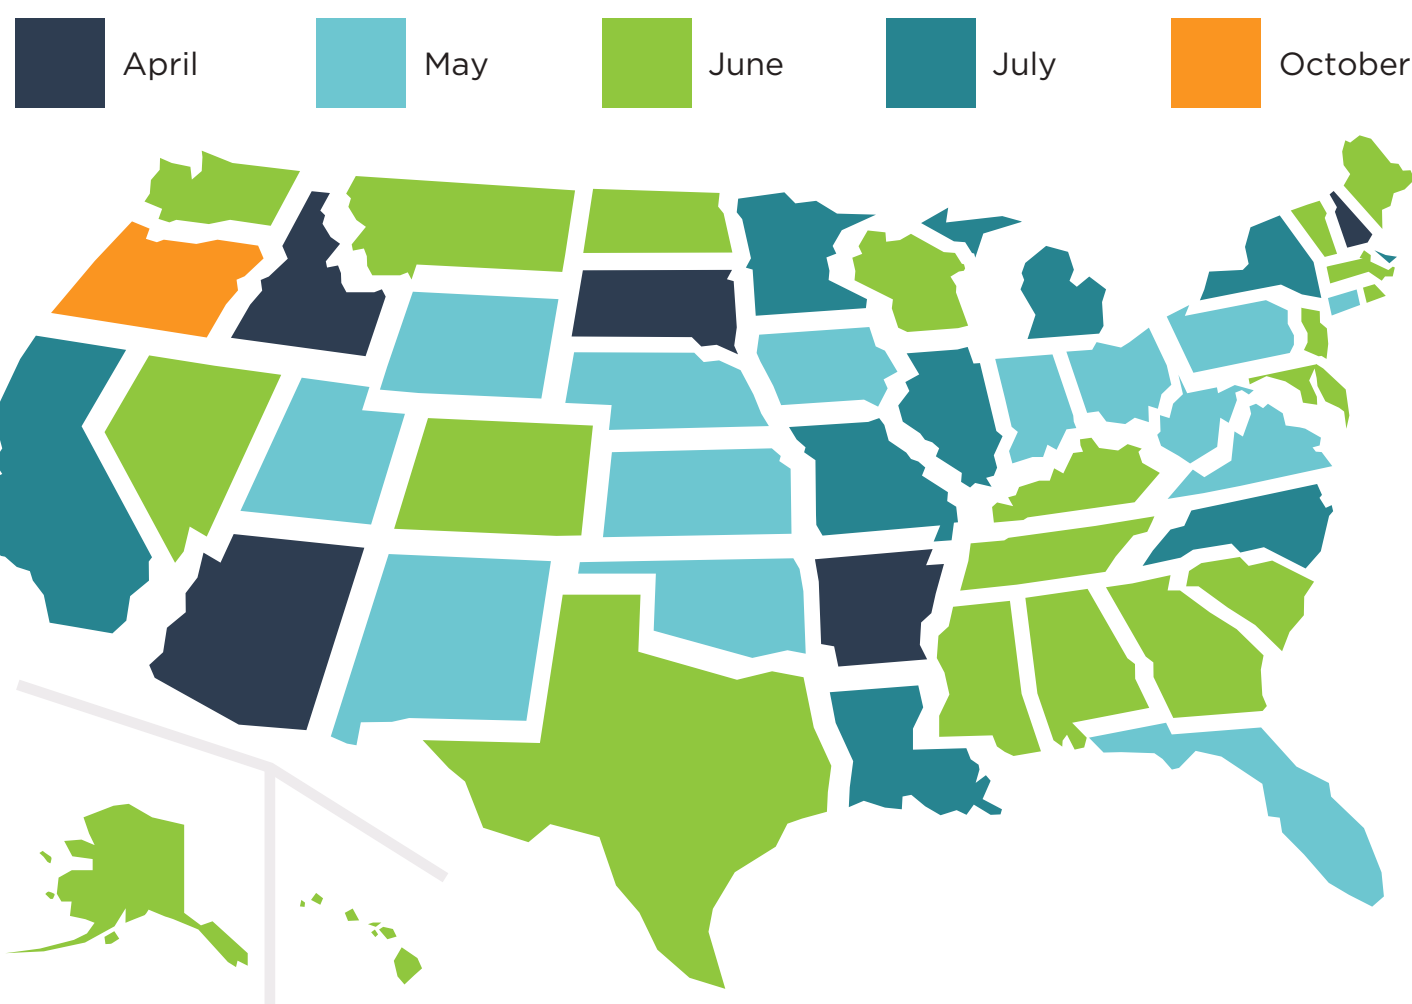

- People whose earnings now exceed the maximum threshold

STILL ELIGIBLE

- People who have not received notices about renewal due to a change in address
- People who didn't return the renewal form in time
- People of color and children are much more likely to lose coverage for procedural reasons

Effective Date of First Anticipated Terminations for Procedural Reasons²

SOURCES:

1. Burns, A., Williams E., Corallo B. and Rudowitz R. (2023). "How Many People might Lose Medicaid When States Unwind Continuous Enrollment? KFF. Retrieved at <https://www.kff.org/medicaid/issue-brief/how-many-people-might-lose-medicare-when-states-unwind-continuous-enrollment/>
2. Alker, J. and Gardern A. (2023). first round of Medicaid Disenrollment Data Is In Quickly: What We Know and Don't Know. Georgetown University Health Policy Institute Center for Children and Families. Retrieved at <https://ccf.georgetown.edu/2023/04/06/-first-round-of-medicare-disenrollment-data-is-in-quickly-what-we-know-and-dont-know/>