Dear Alumni and Friends,

Welcome to an exceptional journey through China and Tibet, curated to offer a seamless blend of cultural depth, refined comfort, and unforgettable discovery.

Your journey begins in Beijing, where imperial grandeur comes to life through visits to the Forbidden City, the elegant Summer Palace, and the legendary Great Wall. Continue to Xian, home to the extraordinary Terracotta Warriors, before travelling onward to Chengdu, where you will encounter the beloved giant pandas and enjoy the region's rich cultural traditions and renowned cuisine.

The experience reaches new heights in Lhasa and the Tibetan plateau, where spiritual heritage and dramatic landscapes create a truly rare atmosphere. Explore iconic landmarks such as the Potala Palace and Jokhang Temple, and gain meaningful insight into centuries-old traditions through curated visits and local encounters.

Your journey concludes in the cosmopolitan elegance of Shanghai, where striking modern architecture meets timeless cultural treasures. Stroll along the historic Bund, explore classical gardens, and enjoy a memorable farewell evening that perfectly reflects the sophistication of this remarkable city.

This itinerary has been meticulously crafted to deliver a refined, effortless experience, allowing you to travel with ease while fully immersing yourself in the beauty, history, and spirit of each destination. Get ready for an inspiring and truly memorable journey.

Sincerely,

Timothy Tsung
Director of Sales and Product Development
