

SILK ROAD BY PRIVATE JET

OCTOBER 23 - NOVEMBER 8, 2026

Featuring Venice, Almaty,
Samarkand, Bukhara, Tbilisi and Istanbul

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Retrace the footsteps of ancient traders on an extraordinary private jet journey across the legendary Silk Road—a route where East and West once met in a vibrant exchange of goods, knowledge and culture. This meticulously curated itinerary invites you to experience the richness and diversity of Central Asia and the Caucasus with uncommon ease and exclusivity, traveling across remote and storied landscapes aboard a private jet.

More than a means of transportation, your private jet becomes an essential part of the journey—eliminating logistical challenges and lengthy layovers, and instead offering seamless connections between destinations that would be difficult to reach on a traditional tour. With a dedicated flight crew, in-flight fine dining and generous seating, every flight is a relaxing experience that allows you to reflect, rejuvenate and prepare for the next remarkable encounter. It's a rare opportunity to cover vast distances in comfort, all while maintaining a cohesive and immersive narrative of this historic route.

Along the way gain deeper insight through the guidance of an accompanying Silk Road expert, who will illuminate the fascinating intersections of history, religion and art that defined this ancient trade network. Whether wandering through medieval madrasas in Uzbekistan, admiring the ingenuity of observatories and mausoleums or witnessing the living traditions of master artisans, each moment connects past to present in unforgettable ways.

This is more than a tour—it's a thoughtfully designed experience where the marvels of the Silk Road unfold in rich detail, paired with elevated accommodations, exclusive access and cultural encounters that would be nearly impossible to replicate independently.

This aircraft is limited to 58 lie-flat reclining leather seats. We recommend reserving early and sharing this unique opportunity with family and friends who may be interested in exploring the Silk Road by private chartered jet at an exceptional value.

To reserve visit tulane.orbridge.com or call (833) 672-6727.

Jvari Monastery | Svetitskhoveli | Uplistsikhe | Georgian National Museum

Jvari Monastery, meaning “Monastery of the Cross,” was built in the 6th century on the very site where St. Nino erected a wooden cross in the 4th century. The monastery attracted believers who came to see the miraculous cross thought to have had healing and protective powers.

According to legend, Svetitskhoveli (which is a Georgian phrase meaning “the Life-Giving Pillar”) is the burial site of Christ’s robe worn during the crucifixion.

Continue to Uplistsikhe, an ancient rock-hewn city and a significant archaeological site. This remarkable settlement dates back to the 1st millennium BCE and was a thriving political, religious and cultural center for nearly 2,000 years.

The city features a labyrinth of caves, tunnels, pagan temples, a royal palace, wine cellars and even an ancient pharmacy.

Those who are interested may join an optional visit to the Georgian National Museum to peruse intriguing exhibits that highlight local craftsmanship and cultural traditions. Proceed to the Hagia Sophia, a UNESCO World Heritage site and architectural marvel that has served as a church, mosque and museum over the centuries.

After lunch continue to the Grand Bazaar to stroll its sprawling network of more than 4,000 shops. Historically this art of marbling was only transferred to paper but now these glorious patterns can be transferred to many kinds of surfaces including leather, glass, furniture and book covers.

Pera, Galata and Cukurcuma Tour: Pera and Galata are two of the oldest neighborhoods in Istanbul. These districts became important cultural centers in the late 80's and 90's.
