

Grassroots glory shone bright as Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA honoured its local football legends at Doncaster Rovers’ Eco-Power Stadium.

The England Football Grassroots Awards brought together more than 150 guests to celebrate the volunteers, coaches, referees and clubs who keep the game alive.

BBC Sheffield’s Adam Oxley hosted the night, with Doncaster Rovers Belles boss Amanda Greenslade praising the “heartbeat of football” before handing out trophies.

A record-breaking 350 nominations saw 12 winners crowned and 10 highly commended across categories from coaching to community impact.

The event also raised £300 for Prostate Cancer UK, while LensGo Visual Media captured every moment for a special highlights video.

County FA Chair Brian Coddington hailed the heroes: “We can never take for granted the tremendous work grassroots volunteers do year in, year out.”

STORY AND MORE PICTURES - Pages 4, 5 and 6

Brian Coddington, Chairman of the Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA, has been honoured with an outstanding contribution to football, recognising his exceptional contribution to football over five decades.

The award was made at the Grassroots Awards and Brian is pictured here receiving the award from Paul Holmes, treasurer of the Sheffield & District Referees Association.

Brian began his refereeing journey in the early 1970s and quickly rose through the ranks, enjoying a distinguished 30-year career in the professional game. He officiated in the English Football League and the Premier League, with career highlights including serving as assistant referee for the 1996 League Cup Final at Wembley and conducting a pitch inspection for the EFL Trophy Final, a moment that filled him with pride.

Beyond the pitch, Brian has been a cornerstone of football governance and development in South Yorkshire. A member of the Sheffield Referees’ Association since 1971, he has held key roles such as secretary, vice-chair, and chair. In 1996, he became a representative to the Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA, later serving as council member, board member, and ultimately Chairman, a position he continues to hold with distinction.

His leadership has helped shape grassroots football, championing initiatives for diversity, safeguarding, and facility development. Under his guidance, the County FA has achieved national recognition for its work in disability football and safeguarding standards.

Brian’s unwavering dedication has left an indelible mark on the game, inspiring countless referees, volunteers, and players. His award is a testament to a lifetime of service, passion, and commitment to football.

Drum Roll, Please! Hallam FC Begs for a Beat at Sandygate

Hallam FC, proud custodians of the world's oldest football ground, are making an unusual appeal to their fanbase: they need a drummer – and fast.

The call went out on social media from the Shed End faithful, the vocal heart of Sandygate, where the atmosphere is legendary but currently missing its rhythmic backbone. “We are desperate,” the post pleaded, urging any regular with a decent sense of timing to step up and bring the noise.

Drumming has become a hallmark of non-league fan culture, adding energy and intimidation in equal measure. At Sandygate, the tradition has been sporadic, but when the beat kicks in, it transforms the terrace into a cauldron. Now, with Hallam battling in the Northern Premier League Division One East, supporters say the team needs every ounce of backing they can muster – and that includes a steady drumbeat behind the chants.

The Shed End, a covered terrace behind the goal, is where Hallam’s most passionate fans congregate, creating the kind of raw, authentic atmosphere that modern football often lacks.
But without a drummer, the noise has been missing that extra punch.

So, if you’re a Hallam regular with rhythm in your veins, this is your moment.
Grab your sticks, head to Sandygate, and help keep the oldest football ground in the world rocking like never before.

Friday Night Frolics for Local Clubs

Friday night football is back this week with three important games.

At Sandgate, Hallam host Pontefract Collieries (full preview see Hallam FC report on Page 8).

Meanwhile, there are two top local derby clashes at the top of Northern Counties East League Division One.

Dearne & District face Worsbrough Bridge Athletic in what promises to be a pivotal clash in the promotion race. Dearne & District had been flying with ten straight league wins, but their momentum was checked last time out in a 4-2 defeat to Wakefield. Earlier in the season, Dearne came out on top with a 2-0 victory away at Worsbrough Bridge, a result that underlined their attacking strength and gave them an early edge in the rivalry.

Worsbrough Bridge,

currently third but with games in hand, remain unbeaten in their last nine league and will see this as a chance not only for revenge for the early season defeat but also to close the gap on the leaders. Both sides have title ambitions, and with Dearne's attacking trio still dangerous and Worsbrough's resilience, this should be a high-intensity battle. Goals look likely given both teams' recent form, and the atmosphere at Dearne's ground should be electric - Dearne have scored in their last 29 league games; Worsbrough have scored 32 goals in their last 9 games, scoring three or more in 8 of them.

Armthorpe Welfare host Club Thorne Colliery in another Friday night fixture that could shake up the promotion mix.

Armthorpe, sitting seventh, and Club Thorne, in tenth, both have games in hand and know a win could push them closer to the play-off spots.

Armthorpe come in with a strong scoring record, netting five against Nostell recently, while Club Thorne have shown resilience with three draws in their last five. Their previous meeting ended 1-1, and with both sides capable of goals but also prone to tight contests, this could be cagey early on before opening up late.

Armthorpe's home advantage may play a role, but Club Thorne's counter-attacking threat makes this unpredictable. Armthorpe have only failed to score in the League once this season and have scored in each of the last 17 league games. Club Thorne have only lost two of their last 12 league games.

Local Football Heroes Honoured in Style

Grassroots football took centre stage as Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA rolled out the red carpet for its community champions at Doncaster Rovers’ Eco-Power Stadium on Friday, November 21.

More than 150 guests packed the venue for the annual England Football Grassroots Awards celebration, hosted by BBC Sheffield’s Adam Oxley. The night belonged to the unsung heroes who keep the beautiful game alive at local level – from tireless coaches and referees to dedicated volunteers and thriving clubs.

Guest of honour Amanda Greenslade, First Team Manager of Doncaster Rovers Belles, delivered an inspiring speech on how grassroots volunteers shaped her career before helping present the awards. “These people are the heartbeat of football,” she said.

This year smashed records with over 350 public nominations flooding in. After careful deliberation by an independent panel, 12 winners and 10 highly commended recipients were announced across categories recognising excellence in coaching, refereeing, league organisation, and community impact.

The evening wasn’t just about applause – it also raised £300 for Prostate Cancer UK, the County FA’s chosen charity. Headline sponsor LensGo Visual Media captured every moment, including a special video tribute to the winners.

County FA Chair Brian Coddington summed up the spirit of the night:

“This is our chance to recognise the many grassroots volunteers in our region who are changing lives through football. Every nomination came from someone who felt that person went above and beyond. We can never take for granted the tremendous work they do year in, year out.”

The awards highlighted the sheer scale of commitment behind local football – countless hours given freely to ensure players of all ages and abilities can enjoy the game. It’s a reminder that while the spotlight often shines on the professional stage, the soul of football beats strongest in parks, pitches, and community clubs.

For those inspired to get involved, volunteering opportunities and full details of the Grassroots Football Awards can be found at www.SheffieldFA.com.

Rosso Ready for Vase Glory Showdown

Rossington Main will make history this weekend as they host West Didsbury & Chorlton in the FA Vase Third Round – the furthest the South Yorkshire club has ever gone in the competition.

For Greg Young’s side, this is more than just a cup tie; it’s a chance to showcase their progress and ambition on a national stage.

Rossington’s journey has been nothing short of dramatic.

Their path to the third round involved a penalty shoot out victory over Litherland REMYCA in the first qualifying round, before a derby victory against Dronfield Town in the second qualifying round.

After a convincing 3-1 win over Crowle Colts in the First Round, they produced a stunning comeback away at Carlisle City in Round Two.

Trailing 2-0 late on, goals from Dylan Mantle and Archie Micklewaite forced penalties, where Main held their nerve to win 6-5 in the shootout. That victory sparked jubilant scenes and underlined the resilience in Young’s squad.

West Didsbury & Chorlton, meanwhile, arrive with pedigree. Quarter-finalists four years ago, they eased past Brigg Town 2-1 in the previous round and currently sit third in the North West Counties Premier Division, boasting one of the most potent attacks at Step 5. Their recent Vase record includes big wins over Silsden (5-1) and Stockport Town (2-0) last season, showing they know how to navigate these knockout ties.

Rossington’s league form has been patchy, but cup competitions have brought renewed confidence. They are unbeaten in five in all competitions, scoring freely and showing defensive grit when needed. Key figures for Rosso include captain Mitch Langton, who brings leadership and defensive steel, while Ross Hannah and Jack Watson offer attacking flair and goals. Dylan Mantle and Archie Micklewaite have already proved their worth in clutch moments, and their energy could be vital again.

West, by contrast, have been flying – only three defeats in 90 minutes all season and a forward line featuring Jordan Lazenbury, fresh from a hat-trick against Silsden, and winger Victor Abadaki, whose pace and creativity can unlock any defence. Lewis Billingsley adds another dimension with assists and goals in recent rounds, making them a formidable attacking unit.

Rossington boss Greg Young was understandably proud after the Carlisle heroics:

“To come back from two goals down and win on penalties says everything about this group. They’ve made history for the club, and now we’ve got a massive home tie to look forward to. We know West are a top side, but we’ll give everything to keep this run going.”

West Didsbury & Chorlton manager Chris Rowley stressed the importance of momentum:

“We’re delighted to be through. It wasn’t our best performance, but we found a way to win. That’s what cup football is about – and we want to keep that going.”

The winners will pocket £1,125 in prize money and move into the last 32, edging closer to the dream of Non-League Finals Day at Wembley. Expect a bumper crowd at Kal-kut’s Community Stadium and a fiercely contested tie. Rossington’s spirit versus West’s firepower – this one has all the ingredients for a classic.

NON LEAGUE FOOTBALL

ADAM ALLCROFT

Well, that wasn't meant to happen.

This game was meant to be Stocksbridge kicking on. It was meant to be using the confidence gained from beating Ilkeston Town, no matter how ugly that game was, to go on a run that could see the Steels climb out of the bottom three. But no, it didn't work out like that as Lancaster City made the visit to Stocksbridge.

The hope the home fans had for the game was gone within a matter of minutes. It was all so simple, the ball being pinged around to stretch the Steels defence before putting to the edge of the box. Bobby Bjork was there and he smashed it into the bottom corner. You'd wouldn't have finished a song on the radio before Lancaster were ahead.

Stocksbridge certainly had the ability to fire back, but Lancaster made sure that wouldn't be a problem by quickly getting a second. Frustratingly, it was similar to the first. A ball played around the box and then Christian Sloan was able to get a shot off. It seemed to take a deflection, wrongfooting Ben Townsend, and it flew into the back of the net.

A thrilling game could have easily been set up as Stocksbridge finally decided to get going now that they were down two goals to nil. One break saw James Morris easily speed past his defender and go one-on-one with the goalkeeper. He tried to round Brad Kelly but with an outstretched arm, he was able to prevent Morris getting past it and it remained 2-0.

Minutes later, the match was pretty much over. It felt like Lancaster could pass with ease through the Stocksbridge box and so it happened again with the ball going across the box to find Steven Yawson, who duly tucked the ball in to send the travelling support into sheer delight. Yawson had helped create the two goals that came before, so if anyone deserved to be on the score sheet, it was him.

Again, Stocksbridge did have chances at the other end. Lancaster certainly had gaps in their defence and the Steels came very close to exploding them. A little slip ball had let Luke Rawson in but his finish was saved by Kelly, who was matching his forwards in having a brilliant game.

Before 30 minutes was on the clock though, it was 4-0. Again, it was a goal similar to what had come before. Stocksbridge's defence was found lacking, allowing Lancaster to advance and put dangerous balls into the box. And like with the last goal, Yawson was the man ready to score and finish the game before half an hour had elapsed.

The second half went as you'd expect. Lancaster knew they'd be returning to the red rose county with all three points barring an almighty collapse and so they played comfortably. No high pressing, no risks taken. This allowed Stocksbridge to have more of the ball but less chances than they had in the first half, with the Dolly Blues defence remaining rigid.

But at the very least, Stocksbridge did get a goal. Substitutes Alfie Bradshaw and Tommy Marshall had impressed since coming on, and it was their link up play that was rewarded. They moved the ball quickly between each other down the right hand side of the pitch before Marshall's effort was saved by Kelly. The ball fell to Morris who was then able to score his 7th of the season with his poacher's finish.

It would be the only bright moment in a miserable day only made worse by the weather, with Stocksbridge's only real hope being a downpour waterlogging the pitch and getting it abandoned. However, the weather would not give an assist on this occasion. Stocksbridge would have to go back to square one to get their form going again.

On Wednesday evening, Steels travelled to Hillsborough to take on Sheffield Wednesday's U21 Development side in the third round of the Sheffield & Hallamshire CFA Senior Cup.

The Wednesday side included Northern Ireland international Pearce Charles and Steels came within a whisker of pulling off a famous upset but bowed out after a dramatic 4-3 penalty shootout defeat.

In a pulsating contest that finished 3-3 after 90 minutes, the Steels showed grit and quality to twice fight back from behind and take the tie all the way to spot-kicks. Luke Rawson's late equaliser capped a superb display from the visitors, who matched their professional hosts stride for stride.

Wednesday struck

first through Cole McGhee's close-range finish from a corner, before Devlan Moses doubled the lead on the half-hour mark. Stocksbridge responded immediately, James Morris rising highest to head home from a set piece and give the Steels hope before the break.

That belief grew early in the second half when Paul Iggulden curled a stunning effort beyond Charles to level the scores at 2-2. The Owls regained the advantage with a spectacular long-range strike from Jarvis Thornton, but Stocksbridge refused to lie down. Rawson showed composure inside the box to make it 3-3 and send the travelling fans into raptures.

With no extra time, penalties decided the tie. Despite confident conversions from Reece Johnson and Joe Emery, the Steels were left heartbroken as Wednesday edged the shootout 4-3, thanks to a key save from substitute keeper Jack Phillips and Harry Evers' decisive kick.

It was a night of pride for Stocksbridge, who left Hillsborough with heads held high after a performance full of character and attacking intent. The Steels may be out of the cup, but they proved they can mix it with the best.

Frustration as Weather Forces Abandonment

HALLAM

Hallam FC’s trip to Dunston UTS on Saturday ended in frustration as their Northern Premier League East Division clash was abandoned at half-time with the score locked at 1-1. Torrential rain and a rapidly deteriorating pitch forced referee Michael Denton to call a halt after 45 minutes, leaving both sides to rue what might have been.

The game began under ominous skies, but the opening exchanges were lively. Dunston carved out the first real chance when JJ O’Donnell tried his luck with a lobbed effort from distance, narrowly missing the target.

Hallam responded through Wil Shaw, whose low strike was well saved by Hugo Warhurst.

Dunston broke the deadlock on 37 minutes.

A delicate ball over the top from Phil Turnbull found Chris McDonald, who rifled home from close range to give the hosts the lead.

Hallam, however, showed resilience and hit back almost immediately.

A sweeping move down the left saw Leon Howarth deliver a teasing cross that Brodie Litchfield converted, restoring parity just before the interval.

As the players headed for the dressing rooms, the heavens opened.

Standing water began to pool across the pitch, and after a lengthy consultation with both managers, the referee abandoned the game.

It was a sensible decision, but one that left Hallam disappointed after a spirited first-half display.

Craig Denton, Hallam’s manager, summed up the mood:“It’s frustrating because we were right in the game and looked strong after equalising.

“But player safety has to come first. The pitch was becoming dangerous, and continuing would have risked injuries.

“We’ll regroup and be ready when the fixture is rearranged.”

The abandonment leaves Hallam still searching for momentum after a mixed November, but attention now turns to a fixture that has generated real excitement among the fanbase.

This Friday evening sees Hallam host Pontefract Collieries under the floodlights at Sandygate (kick-off 7:45 pm) in what promises to be a lively occasion.

The decision to stage the game on a Friday night follows growing calls from supporters for more evening football at the world’s oldest football ground.

Fans have long argued that Friday fixtures create a special atmosphere, drawing bigger crowds and giving locals a chance to start their weekend with live football.

The club has listened. Friday’s match is being billed as a showcase of what night football at Sandygate can offer: a historic setting, passionate support, and the chance to make memories under the lights.

Social media has been buzzing with anticipation, with many fans hoping this experiment becomes a regular feature.

On the pitch, Hallam will be looking to make home advantage count against a Pontefract side sitting just above them in the table.

Previous meetings have been tight, and with both teams eager to climb toward the play-off spots, this game could be pivotal.

Pontefract bring attacking threat through Bailey Thompson, while Hallam will rely on the creativity of Leon Howarth and the work rate of Brodie Litchfield to break down a disciplined Colls defence.

Craig Denton is relishing the occasion:

“Friday night football at Sandygate is something special. The fans have asked for it, and we’re delighted to make it happen. It’s a big game against a strong side, and we want to give our supporters a performance to match the atmosphere.”

After Pontefract, Hallam face North Ferriby at home on December 20 before a Boxing Day trip to Blyth Town.

Despite Saturday’s setback, Hallam FC are embracing the buzz around Friday night football. With community engagement at the heart of the club’s ethos, Sandygate under the lights could become a tradition that defines the Countrymen’s future.

As Denton summed up:

“We’ll dust ourselves down and go again. There’s plenty of football left to play, and we’re determined to finish the year strong.”

Wakefield Firepower Downs Dearne in Thriller

MATT JONES

Friday night under the lights brought drama in Division One as Brigg Town muscled their way into the play-off positions with a hard-earned 2–1 victory at Club Thorne Colliery. Jack Barlow’s opener on 21 minutes gave the visitors the edge, and though the game remained tight, Lewis Shillito’s strike in the 88th looked to have sealed it. Club Thorne refused to go quietly, Luke Williams converting a stoppage-time penalty to spark late hope, but the clock was against them and Brigg held firm to take all three points.

Saturday’s Premier Division action delivered storylines across the board, starting with Albion Sports slipping deeper into trouble after a 2–0 home defeat to Knaresborough Town. The first half was cagey, but the visitors found their rhythm after the break. Slater Barkham-Barnes broke the deadlock on 70 minutes, and Ben Gelder’s late strike wrapped up a deserved win. Albion now find themselves staring at the relegation places, their season in danger of unravelling.

Eccleshill United, by contrast, showed their strength with a commanding 3–1 triumph over Penistone Church. Joseph Storey was the star of the show, netting twice in the 11th and 74th minutes, while Cole Roberts added another to underline Eccleshill’s dominance. Penistone had briefly levelled through Luca Defalco, but the hosts were relentless, ensuring the points stayed home.

Handsworth and Parkgate battled to a 1–1 draw in a contest defined by grit rather than flair. Liam Tomlinson struck early for Parkgate, giving them the advantage on 17 minutes, but Josh Nodder’s equaliser midway through the second half restored parity. Neither side could find a winner, and the spoils were shared after a bruising encounter.

Horbury Town produced one of the weekend’s most stirring comebacks, overturning a half-time deficit to beat Thackley 4–2. Trailing 2–1 at the break after goals from Hass Champion continued their hot streak with a ruthless 4–0 demolition of Pickering Town. Ben Grech-Brooksbank, Shay Muirhead, Paddy Sykes, and Ewan Gregson all found the net in a display of attacking variety and confidence. Pickering had no answers as Champion ran riot, further cementing their reputation as one of the division’s form sides.

Rossington Main endured late heartbreak in their 2–1 defeat to Bottesford Town. Scott Matthews and Jack McMenemy, from the penalty spot, had put Bottesford in control, and though Ross Hannah converted a late penalty to give Rossington hope, it wasn’t enough to salvage a point. Bottesford’s resilience kept them ahead until the final whistle.

Division One’s round-up brought its own share of drama. Crowle Colts eased past Nostell Miners Welfare with a 3–0 win, Dec Bacon bagging a brace and Henry Cook adding a third to complete the job. Goole AFC looked set for victory after Nathan Perks gave them the lead, but Athersley Recreation refused to fold, Jamal Mahmood striking in the 90th minute to snatch a point and silence the home crowd.

Gorji and Toby Marriott, Horbury roared back with strikes from Abdulrahman Asamoah, Joe Jagger, and Luke Playford, plus the bonus of an own goal. The turnaround lifted Horbury out of the relegation zone and gave their supporters a performance to savour.

Ilkley Town and Doncaster City served up a six-goal thriller that had fans on the edge of their seats. Ilkley’s Mark Hoban and Jonas Ndombasi both struck, joined by a Sanchez Payne own goal, but Doncaster hit back through Billy Grimshaw and a Benjamin Dyer double to make it 3–3. Neither side could find a decisive blow, but the spectacle was one of the weekend’s highlights.

And then came the headline act: Wakefield AFC’s 4–2 victory over Dearne & District, a clash that lived up to its billing in front of a big crowd. Wakefield’s attacking firepower proved irresistible, with Akeel Francis bagging a brace and further goals from Thomas Hinton and Calum Nicell. Dearne fought valiantly, Adam Baskerville and Jack Harrison finding the net to keep the contest alive, but Wakefield’s relentless forward play ensured they stayed in control. The atmosphere was electric, the goals flowed, and the home side’s quality shone through when it mattered most.

It was a weekend that showcased the full spectrum of football drama: late penalties, stirring comebacks, relegation battles, and attacking masterclasses. Brigg Town’s rise into the play-off spots, Albion’s slide into danger, Horbury’s fightback, and Champion’s ruthless streak all added to the narrative, but it was Wakefield’s firepower that stole the headlines. Their 4–2 thriller against Dearne summed up everything fans love about grassroots football—passion, unpredictability, and the sheer joy of goals.

In the midweek games Golcar United were denied Premier Division victory at the death as Tadcaster Albion snatched a late equaliser in front of 237 spectators. George Doyle’s strike on the stroke of half-time gave the hosts the advantage, but Desmond Okoro struck in the 89th minute to earn the visitors a share of the spoils. Horbury Town produced a stirring second-half comeback to beat Knaresborough Town 3–1. Daniel Thirkell had put the visitors ahead on 39 minutes, but Samuel Awty levelled on 63 before Carlos Rodrigues struck twice in quick succession (66, 72) to seal the win for Horbury in front of 112 fans. Barton Town claimed an impressive 3–1 away victory at Rossington Main. Joel Shepard opened the scoring after just eight minutes, and late goals from Ali Aydemir (78) and Harry Fenton (90) ensured the points despite George Noble’s 84th-minute reply for the hosts. Bottesford Town edged past Eccleshill United 1–0 thanks to Luke Ayris’s decisive strike on 62 minutes after a goalless first half.

In Division One, Crowle Colts impressed with a 3–1 home win over Louth Town. Matthew Steeper struck inside two minutes, Jordan Welch doubled the lead on 21, and Alfie Fudge added a third on 65. Harley Thompson pulled one back for Louth seven minutes later, but the hosts were already in control. Club Thorne Colliery earned a narrow 1–0 victory at Nostell Miners Welfare courtesy of Alexander Peterson’s 23rd-minute goal, with Nostell unable to find a way back despite creating chances. Maltby Main came from behind twice to defeat Appleby Frodingham 4–2 in a lively contest. Joshua Fraiwald scored both goals for Appleby (23, 56), but Maltby responded through Basile Zottos (31), Philip Oguejiofor (49, 72), and Adam Watson (65) to turn the game around.

In the NCEL League Cup third round, Handsworth stormed into the quarter-finals with a commanding 4–1 win over Harrogate Railway Athletic. Brandon Bagley (17), Jordan Hines (22), Fernando Tavares (43), and Harry Jessop (65) put the tie beyond doubt before Harris Eggleston netted a consolation for Railway on 74 minutes.

Home Heartbreak for Dronfield Town

Dronfield Town’s re-turn to action after a two-week weather-enforced break ended in disappointment as they fell 3-1 at home to Radford FC, despite a spirited late fight-back.

Town started brightly at Stonelow, forcing an early save from Radford keeper Edward Cooper when Callum Mawbey’s cross found Max Rhodes inside three minutes. Four corners from Charlie Stewart kept the pressure on, and Jack Bancroft fired over after Luke Walker’s clever flick.

But Radford’s lively front three were a constant menace. After Lewis Naylor denied them at one end, the visitors struck at the other. On 29 minutes, Abdul Bakare was brought down by Liam Vardy, who saw yellow, and Bakare coolly converted the penalty for 1-0.

The pace never dipped after the break. Rhodes almost set up Arran Bovill for an equaliser, while Harry Goddard went close for Radford. Then came the killer blow: on 69 minutes, Naylor’s clearance rebounded off Bakare, gifting him a second and Radford a 2-0 cushion.

cross found substitute Arthur Pashley, who glanced home on 78 minutes to make it 2-1 and set up a tense finale. Rhodes again tested Cooper, but deep into stoppage time Musa Jawara broke clear, rounded Naylor, and sealed the win at 3-1. Dronfield remain 13th and now head to fifth-placed Stapleford Town on Saturday, determined to avenge October’s 5-0 home defeat and prove it was just a blip.

It was another postponement for Swallownest, their game at Pinchbeck United becoming their latest to fall victim to the rains. They will be hoping for better luck on Saturday when they play host to South Normanton Athletic.

LOCAL LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Weather Wreaks Havoc, South Yorkshire Shines

RICHARD LANE

The relentless rain claimed yet another hat trick of postponements across the Premier Divisions, leaving frustrated fans with more empty terraces than action. But where the weather failed, South Yorkshire's clubs delivered drama, grit and goals in abundance.
Brodsworth Main produced the comeback of the weekend, overturning a two-goal deficit to stun Harworth Colliery 3-2. Harworth looked in control after Billy Stafford's penalty and Cory Goodwin's strike gave them a commanding first-half lead. Yet Brodsworth emerged from the interval transformed. Liam Williams struck within two minutes of the restart, sparking belief. Harworth's hopes were dented further when they were reduced to ten men for a last-man offence. Callum Stockton levelled on 68 minutes, before 16-year-old Caleb Fajolu stole the headlines with a dramatic winner three minutes from time. The teenager's cool finish not only sealed the points but also underlined Brodsworth's growing credentials in the chase for the division's frontrunners. Burngreave United also made their mark, dispatching AFC Bentley 3-1 with a trio of well-taken goals. Christian Nduegoe, Jamal Yussuf and Hasan Mohammed all found the net, their pace and power proving too much for Bentley. Haris Diabagate grabbed a consolation deep into stoppage time, but by then Burngreave had already stamped their authority on the contest. Elsewhere, Staveley Reserves kept South Yorkshire pride intact in the Buckingham Insurance League Cup. Their clash with RHP Sports was a rollercoaster, the visitors racing into a two-goal lead inside ten minutes. Staveley, however, refused to buckle. Oliver Cooper's brace, supported by strikes from Alex Coates and Charlie Bingham, turned the tide. With RHP's bench empty and legs tiring, Staveley's relentless pressure told late on, two goals in the final minutes securing a 4-3 victory and passage into the third round. It was a performance full of resilience, the kind of fight that keeps cup dreams alive. Linby Colliery also advanced, seeing off Mayfield 2-0 thanks to second-half strikes from Harry Thorne and Ben Stanley. Though not a South Yorkshire side, their progress added to the weekend's narrative of clubs battling through adversity to keep competitions alive despite the weather chaos. Beyond the county, FC Sunnyhill edged Cromford & Wirksworth Town 4-3 in a Friday night thriller, while Borrowash hammered Bakewell 5-0 to close in on Selston at the top. Yet for South Yorkshire supporters, the spotlight rightly fell on Brodsworth's teenage heroics, Burngreave's commanding win, and Staveley's cup fight-back. In a weekend where the skies did their best to drown the fixture list, South Yorkshire's clubs proved that determination and drama can still shine through the storm. Rain may have been the headline act, but it was the grit and glory of local football that stole the show.

Village Victorious, Brookes Treble Sinks Southey

KEITH FIRMINGER

Loca and Crookes join Mosborough Reds in Round 4 after convincing wins, but Baby Shark's game was postponed for a third time. Loca brushed Rotherham League AFC Lord Nelson Reds aside netting eleven time with an Oli Grady hat-trick, doubles for Jamal Otmani and Callum Spencers, with one each for Logan Liggins, Michael Meggison, Keith Eaton and Cameron Evans.
Crookes made it 29 goals in the three rounds with a 6-1 victory over Barnsley's Common Miners. Dylan Murphy gave Crookes the lead after just two minutes and it was one-way traffic after that. Cameron Ronksley headed a second, Oli McQuillin made it three with a terrific free-kick and his brother Mason made it four before the break. Ronksley netted his second soon after half-time and although Miners pulled one back, Crookes had the final say with a Henry Curry strike at the back post. Baby Shark will have to try again after their tie against Darton Tap was postponed for a third time. Royal Earl's place at the top of the table has come under increasing threat after third place Eckington MW ended Earl's unbeaten home record with a 3-0 victory and became the first team in over 4 years to prevent Earl from scoring in a home game. Eckington took an early lead when a cross was headed home by Owen Ryan to score in his fourth consecutive game. Eckington doubled their lead on the half hour when Aiden Horspool tapped home from close range. The final goal came 12 minbutes from time when Dan White was put through and he slid the ball home. Stannington Village moved level on points and with a game in hand by beating Nailmakers 5-2. Village took the lead when a Luca DeFalco cross has headed home by Aemad Gadour at the back post and they doubled it when Niall Loughlin was felled in the area and Charlie Hobson scored from the spot. An own goal saw Nailmakers pull one back before half-time and Jay Glover scored to bring Nailmakers level. Village took the lead again when Joel Purkiss and Leo Higgins set DeFalco up to score and they made it 4-2 when Purkiss crossed for Higgins to score. Harley Scholey completed the scoring with an exquisite chip over the keeper. Boynton Sports moved up to fourth as a Ty Brookes treble helped them to a 3-2 victory at Southey Social. Southey had the first chances with both Jack Hawkes and Byron

Mullen wasting good opportunities. They were made to pay when Brookes stabbed home his first from close range and only a great save by Harrison Lee in the Southey net stopped them falling further behind. The second half started with Brookes netting his second from distance, but Southey got back into it when Todd Guest flicked home a long throw at the near post. They equalized when Carlton Carty cut inside to score from the edge of the area, but it was Boynton that went home with all three points when Brookes completed his hat-trick with just 3 minutes remaining. Wickersley CC lost ground after their 3-1 home defeat by Wadswley Bridge Sixers. Wickersley dominated the first half and took the lead with a great finish from Bailey Wright, but just before the break Sixers equalized with a long range shot from George Utley. George Rudd put Sixers ahead on the hour mark and Chris Belshaw wrapped up the points with Sixers third 5 minutes from time. Jubilee Rangers eased their relegation fears with a 2-1 victory at Woodman Intake. Woodman have been something of a bogey side to Jubilee and it looked like it might happen again after Jubilee missed a few good chances, but just before hal-time Josh Reaney crossed for Sam Phillips to give Jubilee a half-time lead with his weaker foot. Woodman responded and Elliott Coles brought them level, but just as time was running out it was Jubilee that netted the winner when a quick free-kick by Luke Campbell allowed Phillips to net his second. Wisewood missed the chance to go level with the leaders in Division one when they were soundly beaten 4-0 by in-form Mosborough Reds. Reds pressed from the start and only a double save by the keeper kept them out, but even he couldn't stop Jamie Damms heading home from a Kurt Ward corner. Matt Ellis then got on the end of a clearance to double Reds lead and a great through ball allowed Ryan Greaves to make it three before half-time. The second half started with Will Hotchin netting Reds fourth and even when Wisewood were awarded two penalties, they were both saved by Reds keeper Luke Fogg. Kelham Island moved out of the bottom three by coming from behind to beat Norton Oaks. It was Oaks that led at half-time after a corner form Sam Hoche was headed in at the back post by Will Carlisle. After the break it was Kelham that claimed the points with goals from Alex Simmons, Callum Bethel and Jack Herold from two long throws and a deep cross.

Form Book Shredded As Swinton Storm Third

MEXBOROUGH SUNDAY
SHAUN BEST

Swinton Athletic turned the form book upside down with a comprehensive 3-0 victory over Division One league leaders Hickleton Harriers. Joshua Bennett, Brandon Harris and substitute Lewis Terry got the goals which moved Swinton into third place. Second placed Denaby United failed to take full advantage of Hickleton dropping points, as they were held to a 2-2 draw by Cross Keys Wath. Connor Ellis and Patrick Swift netted for the hosts, but Jamie Oliver and James Windle ensured a share of the points for the visitors. Elsewhere, a Tyler Murray hat-trick helped Highgate WMC to a 3-0 victory against Court-yard. The win saw the hosts leapfrog their beaten opponents into fourth place. White Hart Wadworth picked up a second straight victory with a 4-1 win at struggling Barnburgh WMC. Aiden Goodwin, Paul Ssali, Ben Clark and Tom Doherty netted for Wadworth, while Jayden Merrill registered for Barnburgh. A Darren Birkett double and Jordan Cutts strike saw Queens Head Hoyland win 3-1 at bottom side Mexborough Knights, who had Jordan Flint on the score-sheet. Over in the Premier Division, Gym Bar closed the gap at the top after their 6-1 victory at Pocket. Owen Moule and Tom Worley each bagged a brace, with further strikes added by Harry Emptage and Bayley Lowe. Pocket's goal came from Stephen Elsey.

Rangers Rampage, Red Rose Run Riot!

MEADOWHALL SUNDAY
MARTIN GILMOUR

The winter weather once again played havoc with the Premier Division schedule, leaving fans with just two fixtures to savour. Sheffield Rangers sent shockwaves through the league with a merciless 9-2 thrashing of Stocksbridge Park Steels Yellows, a result that fires them two points clear at the top. Rangers were relentless from the first whistle, Kai Reet stealing the show with a clinical hat-trick. Daniel Spence chipped in with two, while Thomas Stokes, Ieuan Toner, Jake Widowson and Joseph Ellis all joined the party. For the Yellows, Ryan Oxley and a Rangers own goal were scant consolation on a day they'll want to forget. The other Premier Division clash was a tale of grit and determination. Staveley Miners Welfare Blues crushed Dinnington Town 6-1 in a fiery encounter that saw both in the second half to edge Handsworth FC Blacks 3-2 in a thriller. Alfie Gascoyne sparked the fightback, Jensen Blogg levelled, and Munenyasha Paradzayi sealed the comeback with a cool finish. It was a statement win for Staveley, who showed they're not out of the title conversation just yet. Division One delivered drama and goals in equal measure. Worksop Boys tightened their grip on top spot with a commanding 7-1 demolition of Worksop Town Yellows. Alex Phillips was the hero with a hat-trick, while Oliver Whitmore, Taylor Cover, Blake Morris and Elliot Unwin added gloss to a dominant display. Abbey Lane staged a spirited second-half fightback to snatch a 2-2 draw against Penistone Church B, with Mapenzi Ebamba and Archie Rodgers cancelling out earlier strikes from Jake Scholey and George Thompson. Elsewhere, Staveley Miners Welfare Blues crushed Dinnington Town 6-1 in a fiery encounter that saw both sides finish with nine men after a flurry of red cards. Taylor Russell's hat-trick headlined the win, supported by Jakub Krakowiak's brace and Jack Lenton's strike. Cameron Fanning grabbed a consolation for Town, but the disciplinary drama overshadowed their efforts. And then came the day's biggest talking point: Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915's jaw-dropping 13-2 annihilation of Stocksbridge Park Steels Blues. It was a goal fest of epic proportions, leaving fans and pundits alike scrambling for superlatives. Red Rose were ruthless, clinical, and utterly unstoppable—a performance that will echo through the season. With weather chaos thinning the fixture list, these games delivered enough drama, goals, and controversy to keep the league buzzing. Rangers and Worksop Boys now sit proudly atop their respective divisions, but with performances like Staveley's comeback and Red Rose's goal avalanche, the chasing pack is far from done.

Gate Inn Triumph in Beesley Cup Showdown

The Brian Beesley Cup delivered a heavyweight clash as the top two sides in the Rotherham & District Sunday League went head-to-head. League leaders Gate Inn, boasting a perfect league record, showed their class in cup action with a 3-1 victory over Brinsworth DC. Goals from Jack Harrison, Morgan James and Nathan Walsh sealed the win, while Harry Day struck the reply for Brinsworth. Our correspondent was away this week, but Alex Roebuck's pictures capture all the drama from this high-stakes cup encounter.

Belles Horror as Keeper Knockout Halts Game!

A serious injury to Doncaster Rovers Belles goalkeeper Scarlette Slater-Rowley caused their FA Women's National League Division One North fixture at home to Norton & Stockton Ancients to be abandoned with play having just entered the game's final quarter.

Slater-Rowley, who was knocked unconscious in a collision with Norton's Ruby Forster, was taken to hospital for an MRI scan with Belles reporting that she had regained consciousness. Belles physio Lydia Wade and her Norton counterpart along with Norton's Erin Green, now a qualified doctor having played in Belles' youth ranks, attended to Slater-Rowley before an ambulance arrived.

Norton were leading 2-1 at the time of the abandonment, Belles having scored via a direct free kick by Jodie Gregory shortly before play was halted. Norton had opened the scoring in the first minute and were 2-0 up at the interval with Bianca Owens having scored her almost inevitable goal in games against Belles against whom she netted in all three meetings last season. Norton also hit the woodwork twice before half time.

With York City winning 3-0 at Blackburn Rovers in the clash of the bottom two and Durham Cestria winning 1-0 with a late goal at start of day leaders Cheadle Town Stingers, it meant Belles dropped two places to the higher of the two automatic relegation spots.

Barnsley Women failed to score for the third successive game in Division One Midlands when beaten 1-0 at home by Northampton Town who started the day in a relegation place. It was one of those "what if?" games for Barnsley who had the chance to go ahead shortly before the interval through a spot kick by Helen Lynskey, but she was denied by the woodwork.

Town scored several minutes into the second half through Hannah Samuels and they were indebted to keeper Katie McLean who made a fine save to prevent Amber Sewell levelling from a penalty in the closing stages.

It meant a first home defeat of the season for Barnsley who remain the Division's second highest scorers with 25 goals (bettered only by leaders Peterborough United who have 37).

Barnsley, who had drawn 0-0 in their previous two games, at Worcester City and then at home to Peterborough, have lost ground in the bid to ensure a top two finish. The champions gain automatic promotion, while the runners up have the chance of going up via a play off against the Division One North runners up.

Sheffield FC made it ten points from their last four games, drawing 0-0 at home to Notts County. It was Sheffield's third clean sheet from five home games, matching the division's best by Peterborough. County moved level with Barnsley with three clean sheets in away games. Imogen Burnley and Nat Shaw were on target for Brunsmeor Athletic who suffered an 8-2 defeat at North East Regional League Premier Division leaders Bradford City who have maximum points from their seven games and seem destined to finish as champions.

Handsworth were 3-1 home winners over Millmoor Juniors in the Southern Division where they have 15 points from six games, three points behind leaders Leeds Modernians who have maximum points from their six games. Mya Carnall, Dani Pinder and Abby Watkinson were on target for Handsworth. Lacey Simmons was the scorer for Millmoor who get the chance for quick revenge this weekend when they are back at Oliver's Mount, this time for a League Cup tie.

Lauren Breen is certainly making an impact following her return to Rossington Main. She has scored in all three of her League games and her hat trick contributed to a 3-2 win at Lower Hopton, while keeper Faith Hodson also made a significant input with several fine saves as Rossington moved six points clear of bottom team York City Development.

Sheffield Wednesday

have scored four times in winning each of their three away games, but it is their home form which is preventing them making a concerted title challenge. Goals from Rachel Nosworthy, Nicole Shaw and Imogen Yeardeley gave them their best home tally of the season, but it was not enough to avoid a third defeat in four home games, visitors Ilkley Town edging the encounter by the odd goal in seven.

Rotherham United's short trip to face SJR Worksop in the East Midlands Regional League Premier Division was postponed because of a waterlogged pitch. A particularly key result saw leaders Chesterfield draw 1-1 at Mansfield Town.

Chesterfield have 20 points from nine games and are four points ahead of both Loughborough Foxes Vixens and Rotherham, while Mansfield have ten points from five games. Rotherham's title hopes would best be described as very much that of an outsider, but if they were able to take maximum points from their remaining seven games, then they might just sneak top spot in the final table.

Dronfield Town remain unbeaten in Division One North where they finished 5-3 home winners over bottom place Chesterfield Community Trust. Ruby Burns opened the scored via a spot kick and her second gave Dronfield a 2-0 interval advantage. Chesterfield halved the deficit early in the second half, but a brace by Krissy Humble all but settled matters. Chantelle Oxborough's first goal for Dronfield with just under 15 minutes to go made it 5-2 and victory took Dronfield on to 13 points, five behind leaders Grimsby Town Academy who have maximum points from six games.

With the number of teams in the Sheffield & Hallam Women and Girls County League at an all time high, there has been a significant change to the League Cup which this season will be contested by just the teams in Divisions One and Two. The Shield, previously contested by teams losing in their initial Cup tie, will now be contested by teams from Divisions Three and Four.

The outstanding performance in the League Cup belonged to Dinnington Town who trailed to a goal by Courtney Kaye at Division One leaders Frickley Athletic, but hit back to progress 3-1 thanks to a hat trick by Amber Elliott.

Barnsley Women Reserves were 5-0 home winners over Hands-worth Reserves thanks to goals by Jess Jones 2, Amy Caddick, Zoe Laughton and Mia McDonald. Oakwell-based Barnsley Ladies won 7-0 at home to SJR Worksop Development. Both Charli Hayward and Molly Waite bagged hat tricks with Ruby Whelan also on target to provide the goals in the day's highest score.

Louise Talik was Kiveton Park's scorer in their 4-1 home defeat to Millmoor Reserves.

Megan Hammond netted twice early for Sheffield Wednesday Reserves who finished 4-0 winners at home to Brodsworth. Ellie McHugh, who made it 3-0 shortly before the interval, completed the scoring in the second half.

Jenna Bramley, Millie Guest and Sophie Vickers were on target for Rossington Main Reserves who advanced as 3-1 winners at Penistone Church for whom Alice Norman scored. Hollie Lee 2 and Rosie

James netted for Brinsworth Whitehill who won 3-2 at Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves.

Hannah Green and Kristina Ponder were the Worksop Town scorers as they won 2-0 at Brampton United in the Shield. Eve Allen's hat trick saw Wickersley Youth progress as 3-0 winners over West End Terriers. Kiveton Park Reserves had an away walk-over in their tie against Edenthorpe reserves.

The day's only penalty shoot out saw Scawthorpe Scorpions win through 4-3 following a 3-3 draw in 90 minutes. Lyssa Brearley, Ruby Burke and Grace Cook scored to give Scorpions a 3-1 lead after trailing at FURD, Football Unites, Racism Divides who took the tie to a shoot out when they levelled from a spot kick in the closing stages.

Rebecca Hague, Elisha Jones and Lucy Tindle were on target for Wombwell Town who won through 3-2 after trailing 1-0 at the interval at home to Bramley Sunnyside whose goals came from Lydia Gregory and Olivia Miller.

In the League, the intriguing Division One clash between YP Women and Stocksbridge Park Steels, the two teams yet to drop a point, fell victim to a waterlogged pitch. Huddersfield Town Under-23s were 1-0 home winners over Sheffield United Community. The Division's only other game to yield just a single goal also featured Town.

Dionne Lawton, Alice Maleham and Codi Melia were the Oughtibridge War memorial scorers in their 3-1 home win over Rotherham United Under-21s whose goal was scored by Georgia Dean.

Lauren Kerry gave Edenthorpe the lead away to Socrates in the only Division Two fixture. Zoe Barnes levelled with her first goal for Socrates whose winner came from Carly Armsby. Sophie Shemeld came on as a substitute for her first appearance following two years out due to injury for Socrates. Their all time leading scorer with 50 before sidelined, Shemeld needs three more to draw level with Becky Hargreaves who has taken over her mantle.

Kara Whittlestone netted four times and Imogen Bruerton once for Barnsley Women Under-21s, but it was not enough to prevent a 6-5 home defeat to Chesterfield Town in Division Three.

The all University of Sheffield tie in BUCS (British Universities and Colleges) saw the 1s advance as 4-0 winners over the 2s. Keira Mistry bagged a hat trick with Livvi Bennett also scoring.

Jemima Jarvis netted both for Hallam 1s who were beaten 7-2 by Northumbria 3s. Amber Daniels was the scorer for Hallam 2s who lost 4-1 in their tie at Lancs 1s.

Rain Wrecks Plans – Wharfedale Next!

Another week-end, another washout! Sheffield’s re-arranged clash with Scunthorpe was postponed yet again thanks to relentless rain, leaving fans frustrated and players itching for action. Will the top v bottom game ever take place? All eyes now turn to Abbeydale Park for a big

December opener. This Saturday, Wharfedale come to town as National 2 North rugby returns to Sheffield. The game is set for Saturday 6th December at Abbeydale Park with kick-off scheduled for 2:15pm. It’s the perfect chance for the home crowd to shake off the gloom and roar the team on. Wharfedale have had a mixed bag so far this season. After an impressive campaign last year, finishing 6th with 70 points, they’ve slipped into mid-table territory this time around. Sitting 9th out of 14, they’ve managed four wins against seven defeats – solid, but far from spectacular. Still, they’re a side that knows how to scrap, and Sheffield will need to be sharp to take the points. Last season’s meetings between the two clubs were evenly split, with each side claiming a win. Sheffield stormed to a 43-20 victory at Abbeydale in November, but Wharfedale hit back in March with a 36-21 triumph on their own turf. Expect another tight contest this week-end as both teams look to build momentum heading into the Christmas period. For Sheffield, this is more than just a fixture – it’s a chance to shake off the frustration of recent postponements and remind the league what they’re capable of. The home support will play a huge role, so get down to Abbeydale Park, bring the noise, and let’s make it a December to remember!

HOCKEY

Sheffield Men March On, Ladies Heartbreak

HOCKEY CLUB
MARK BEAVIS

Sheffield Ladies first team travelled to Didsbury Northern for a must win clash last Saturday. Northern were bottom of the National League North Conference, but only two points behind Sheffield. Neither side had won a game all season and both sides knew that if they wanted to survive relegation, winning this game was a must.

Unfortunately, Sheffield were on the wrong end of a 2-1 scoreline and dropped to second bottom and a relegation spot. The game couldn't have started and worse for Sheffield after they conceded after just two minutes. Kirsty Walker slotting home a neatly taken field goal.

Alex Buskwood (pictured below) pulled the sides level with just six minutes remaining, enough at the time to keep Sheffield outside of the relegation zone. However, with just two minutes on the clock, Disbury captain, Becci Ousby slotted home a penalty corner to break Sheffield hearts.

The men's first team were also away at Didsbury Northern and were hoping to make it a second victory over them this season, having won 2-1 on the opening day of the season.

In the first game, there had been a nail biting final few minutes as Sheffield hung on for the victory. This time, Sheffield were in complete control from start to finish. Matty Oades (pictured above left) scored two cracking field goals either side of half time to put the visitors two up.

Disbury hit back on a rare foray forward through a Robert Trem penalty corner strike but shortly afterwards Sheffield restored their two-goal advantage. It was skipper Dylan Lim Hon, with his first goal of the season, who settled any nerves with a neat strike on 59 minutes to make it 3-1 to Sheffield. Sheffield now sit comfortably in fourth at the mid-season break, two points ahead of local rivals Doncaster.

Sheffield ladies' second team made the trip to Wakefield last Saturday and started really well, with lots of slick passing around the back and some dominant midfield play. All this was rewarded after just five minutes when Sandie Chatterton took a quick free hit and fed the ball to skipper Marcie Dubar who went for a shot at goal. The ball was intercepted by the home defence, but Naomi Cokell (pictured below right), managed to steal it off a defender and slot it into the goal.

Unfortunately, Cokell was hit on the hand from close range twenty-five minutes into the game, so was unable to take any further part in the game. Sheffield were up against it with captain Dunbar very much under the weather and unable to play to her full potential. With twenty minutes to go, the home side equalised after a scramble in the circle.

Shortly after this the umpires gave two of our players green cards within 30s of each other meaning Sheffield were forced to play with just nine players on the field. Goalkeeper, Katie Dunn, made some amazing saves to keep Sheffield in the game and it during a nail biting end to the game. Both sides had chances but in the end a draw was a fair result.

The Sheffield men's 2nd team welcomed Stokesly to Abbeydale last Saturday in a bid to maintain their unbeaten start to this seasons campaign

After just minutes, the visitors took advantage of an award of penalty corner and were able to slot the ball between the legs of Sheffield skipper, Laurie Wildman in the home goal.

Ffinlo Dyde responded with a drag flick of his own from a Sheffield corner to pull the home side level.

Stokesly retook the lead with some tute one counter attacking, a neat strike putting them 2-1 up.

Simon Kidgell then orchestrated a good corner routine, playing the ball to the back post to find Morgan Simpson (pictured above right) who turned home to make it 2-2 at Half time.

The goal that turned out to be the winner was a second penalty corner drag flick from the man who had scored the first for Sheffield. With pace off, Dyde's flick eluded the visitor's defence to make the final score 3-2 to Sheffield. The team remain top of Yorkshire and North East Division One, eight points clear of York.

SCHOOLS

Tapton Goal Machine Powers Sheffield Schools Glory!

It was a busy month of November for school sport, with football teams flying high in the national cup with a number going through to round 5, with local schools extending their wings with fixtures further afield than the South Yorkshire boundaries. In cross country, the race is on with one race remaining in the league with the title at stake. The basketball leagues are well underway, with teams competing for the semi final placings before the finals in January for a place in the national cup knockout.

In the football national cup competitions Sheffield still has teams in the different age groups, with Tapton School enjoying further success at years 7/8 and 11, Meadowhead in year 9 and King Egbert Girls at both year 9 and 10 age groups.

Tapton Year 7s are scoring goals for fun without conceding in the first four rounds and scoring 21 goals. After beating teams from Rotherham, Mansfield and Chesterfield they now face Huddersfield at home in the next round for a place in the last 32.

At year level 8, not to be outdone, their goals tally is 59 goals in four games! They have won in outings to Chesterfield, Rotherham and Oldham. Their next fixtures sees them take on Calderdale which already looks likely to be a goalfest.

The year 11s have been a little more conservative in their goal scoring but still achieved round 5 status with wins more local against three Rotherham schools and a local derby in Sheffield. Their next venture is against a school from either Scunthorpe or Grimsby.

What an exciting time in school for these three teams.

Meadowhead are quietly progressing with impressive performances against Rotherham, Chesterfield and Doncaster schools, but their biggest scalp in the last round was beating the current Sheffield champions to gain a place in the last 64.

In the girls competitions, King Egbert are going strong at year 9 and 10 level. The year 9s have had trips against Burton, Mansfield and Chesterfield schools so far and their next fixture seems them take on Rotherham school Wick-ersley in the next round. The year 10s are enjoying their cup runs with victories against Amber Valley, Oldham and Blackburn schools, with a trip to Spen Valley awaiting them in round 4.

As always there are a few casualties in knockout football but hopefully the Sheffield Flag will stay flying for more rounds to come and the Tapton goal machine will still be firing.

Cross Country heads to Castle Dyke this weekend with all age groups in the race for titles.

After the Bradfield fixture everything is to play for in the league for our schools. Silverdale year boys remain dominant at the top and look unbeatable at the moment.

The year 7 girls title will be between Mercia and Bradfield, year 8 boys sees Silverdale and High Storrs in the hunt for gold, whilst in the girls High Storrs should reach the podium position.

Tapton year 10/11 boys have made a late surge but Silverdale a force to be reckoned with, whereas the girls event is between Newfield and King Edward VII. Overall Bradfield school remain in a prominent position with their high numbers, dedication and reliability coming to the front of the battle for top school.

With the deadline for the round robin leagues closing in, the places for the basketball semi final spots are being taken up at Year 9 and 11 age groups.

At year 9 Notre Dame, Silverdale and All Saints are heading towards the semi final with strong performances. In the girls event no results are in so a busy time lies ahead. The years 10/11 competition sees All Saints in the semi final with a strong High Storrs closing in on the second spot. In the girls event both All Saints and Tapton School have 100 per cent records and are track for a final date in January.

Sheffield Federation for School Sport Annual Award night takes place next Thursday (December 11) at the Town Hall in Sheffield where awards will go to pupils, staff and volunteers for their contribution to school sport in 2024-2025. We will bring you the news of the winners in future updates, as well as the outcome from this weekend's National schools Cross Country Team Finals to be held in Rugby.

Good luck to all teams competing.
