modern picture books

Small independent publishers are known for the care and devotion they dedicate to their books. Usually these are small works full of inimitable sweetness and tenderness. We carefully chose among the titles, reviewed their work, listened to the stories behind the creative process. And selected the books we had fallen in love with. Albatros Media therefore proudly presents MIMOTO – a selection of titles from Czech and Slovak publishers. They were just patiently waiting to be introduced to the whole world. Enjoy.

My Little Red Book

Written and Illustrated
by Lenka Blaze

Dedicated to all women and girls at their monthlies, including those on the way there. A hand-written, hand-drawn picture book full of lightness and humour.

Menstruation is a natural process, but people keep quiet about it and suffer in silence. Can it really be interesting, inspirational, even funny? With this little book, one will learn interesting things from history and our own time. Although this book is dedicated to all women and girls "at their monthlies", men will enjoy it too.

Sensitive

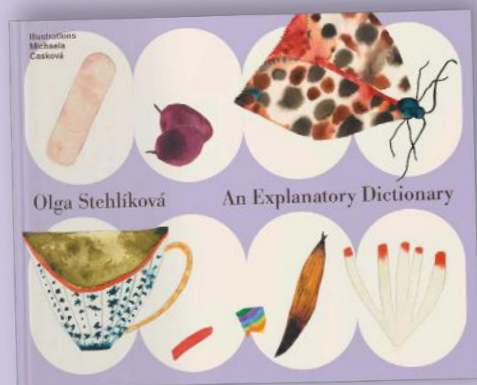

Written and Illustrated
by Lenka Blaze

Are you an introvert or a sensitive type? If not, then someone close to you surely is. Why is it great to be one, and why the world badly needs them, is explained in this illustrated book about the journey to acceptance of one's fragility and otherness.

An Explanatory Dictionary

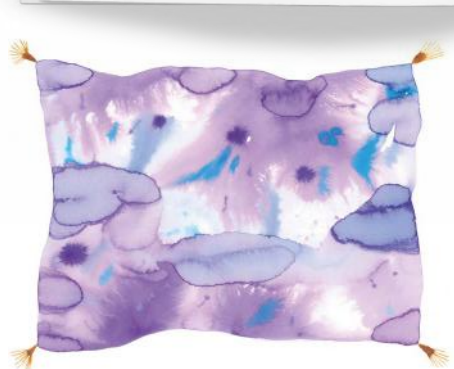

Written by Olga Stehlíková
Illustrated by Michaela Casková

age 3+

Specification

HOST, size 233 x 187 mm, 96 pages, hardcover with dust jacket

What do words like home, snow, or teddy bear really mean to a child? This beautifully illustrated dictionary explores childhood through simple words, each paired with a poetic definition that captures its emotional depth. Some entries spark nostalgia, others invite reflection, but all encourage children and adults to see the ordinary in a new light. With every page, readers uncover the beauty of language, memory, and the little moments that shape us.

Frostina

Written by Kateřina Čupová
Illustrated by Zuzana Čupová

age 6+

Specification

HOST, size 165 x 235 mm, 56 pages, hardcover

Molly's world is full of possibilities—where others see a pile of snow, she sees a magical ski resort or a giant ice cream mountain. But the most magical discovery of all? A tiny frost fairy named Frostina, living right inside the freezer! As Frostina shares stories of icy landscapes, melting winters, and disappearing frost, Ellie begins to see the world in a new way. Inspired by The Snow Queen, this beautifully illustrated story is perfect for young readers who love winter, fantasy, and a touch of magic.

As Frostina had really enjoyed the ice cream, she began to tell her story. Usually, it's the one who does all the talking, but when a real frost fairy is telling a tale, it's up and down.

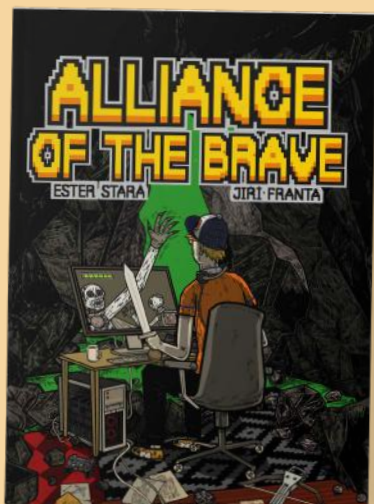

So now I will tell you the story of Frostina, the fairy born on an ice floe near the North Pole. And while you're listening, why not have some ice cream?

Frost fairies live all over the world, but only where it's extremely cold. Frostina lives far up in the north, where there's so much ice that they use it to build ice cities that have several stories above water and several below. Frostina lived in an ice tower on a large ice floe.

She lived there with her father, Grand Fairy Frost, and her cousins. Lots of frost fairies live on ice floes drifting across arctic seas, but Frostina's mother doesn't. She only visits her family now and then. That's because she is a lady-in-waiting to the Ice Empress.

The court of the Ice Empress is never in the same place. The sovereign has palaces at the North Pole and South Pole, and she loves travelling. Her empire is anywhere there is snow and ice. And she travels with her servants, aides, ladies-in-waiting, courtiers, and nobles, in fact, her whole great ice entourage.

65. POLE, size 215 x 280 mm, 68 pages, hardcover

Seventh-grader Thomas Malcolm is a hero in his favorite computer game but struggles in real life—especially with bullies constantly on his case. When the boundaries between his digital world and reality blur, he faces challenges unlike any he's encountered before. As he searches for the mysterious Creator and fights to survive, he also discovers new strengths within himself. Can he change his fate in both worlds? This gripping story, told through a mix of text and comic-style illustrations, is perfect for gamers, adventure lovers, and anyone who has ever wished life worked like a video game.

Outnumbered

Why is life so cruel? mused Thomas, as he shuffled into the living room. He felt like he'd been attacked by the desert.

An Illustrated Guide to the World of Monkeys

Written and Illustrated
by Eva Horská

Intelligence is their most important characteristic. For their body size, they have a large brain – a gift that makes them quick to learn new things. They can work together and perform complex tasks. Humans are known as the intelligent ones in the animal kingdom. But we're not talking about humans. Welcome to the world of the MONKEY. We belong to the order of primates. So, what do we have in common with our animal cousins? And how do we differ from them?

Versatile Vertebrates

Written by Tom Velčovský,
Marie Kotasová, Adámková
Illustrated by Barbora Idesová

Who am I? Where did I come from? What am I doing here? These are questions we all probably ask at some point. This book doesn't answer those specific questions, but it does address similar ones.

You might be shaking your head in confusion, thinking I'm just trying to fill space. But shaking your head is a sign that you are a vertebrate. And vertebrates are what this book is about. All the vertebrates within these pages are related to you and me. If that isn't clear yet, this book will explain it all. Now, I'm truly out of space, so open the book and read on!

The Big Book of Peeing

Written and Illustrated
by Jakub Plachý

A cartoon encyclopaedia of peeing for young and old.

A unique, playful, and educational booklet in a very useful pocket format which introduces peeing from all the perspectives. It begins with an explanation of the basic principles of urination and its history, before returning to contemporary styles and techniques. Humorous hyperbole full of myths, facts and half-truths.

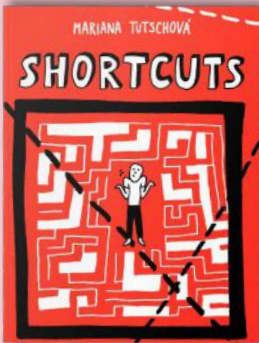

Shortcuts

Written and Illustrated by
Mariana Tutschová

This book will help you improve the quality of your life!

A funny, illustrated pocket guide for pupils, students and adults who suffer from procrastination. By using shortcuts, we gain time that we usually waste later on. Fortunately, this pocket book will offer you tips on how to use your time most effectively. For better orientation, the tips are listed according to the time saved: from two seconds to time that can't be caught up. The author studied graphic design and this is her debut.

Bridges

Written by Magda Garguláková

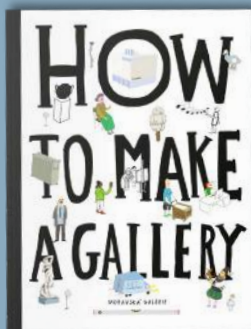

Illustrated by Jakub Bachorík

Large, small, old-time, modern, ordinary, world-changing. The bridge. An ingenious invention that shortens journeys, saves on effort and provides great views. Some straddle a deep valley, some a raging river, some a busy road, some a vast stretch of sea. People have been building bridges since a tree first fell across a river. Why do we need bridges? How have they changed through history? Which are the most famous? Which are the strangest? How is a bridge built? We'll answer these questions and many more.

Everything you need to know about bridges in one book!

I Shall Awaken

Written by Kateřina Šardická
Illustrated by Štěpánka Coufalová

This young adult mystery horror takes us to a remote borderline village in an intentionally unspecified place and time where people still live by their own rules and still believe in old gods.

Twelve years ago, four children suddenly disappeared without trace. Now during the winter solstice, three of them returned out of nowhere as adults with no memory of what happened to them. What happened to them and where is the fourth missing child? – Astrid's brother Max. Twelve nights after the winter solstice is the most dangerous time of the year as the border between human world and underworld is thin. And the kids—now adults—will discover that the ghosts from their nightmares are real and waiting for them.

We're Off to the Forest

Written and Illustrated by
Katarína Macurová

Autumn is here. The forest is awash with colour. Leaves flutter to the ground, where they rustle underfoot. It's getting colder.

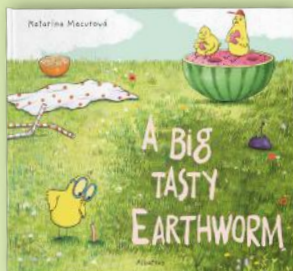

The animals are preparing for winter. A daddy squirrel and his son go to the forest every day – for stores, and for something else. Shh ... Do you hear that?

A story is coming your way. A story tender and warm, about an ordinary, extraordinary forest, ordinary, extraordinary treasure within it, and how even little things can change the big, wide world.
