

ID & SECURE DOCUMENT NEWS™

BUILDING A SECURE IDENTITY COMMUNITY

Get The Inside Track

ID & Secure Document News™ (IDN) provides a unique source of news, analysis, and commentary on the design, manufacture and use of physical and digital secure identity and credentials. It combines independently researched journalism from Reconnaissance's in-house editorial team with authoritative contributions from industry experts, technology providers and issuing authorities worldwide.

What ID & Secure Document News Covers

■ Identity document and system programmes

- New and redesigned passports, ID cards, residence permits and national ID systems, with emphasis on substrates, datapages, security features and issuance architectures
- Civil registry and population-register upgrades; links between civil registration, ID credentials and service delivery

■ Digital identity and mobile credentials

- Government digital ID schemes, mobile IDs and wallets, including UK, EU and global pilots
- Mobile and digital driving licence deployments and standards.
- Resilience of digital ID, offline fallback and hybrid architectures

■ Substrates, security features and secure printing
