DIRECTOR'S FOREWORD

Welcome to Art Vancouver as we celebrate our 10th Anniversary Edition – a decade of artistic cultural excellence, exchange, and creative innovation.

Over the past ten years, Art Vancouver has grown into one of Canada's foremost contemporary art fairs, attracting distinguished galleries, visionary artists, and discerning collectors from around the world. This milestone reflects our commitment to presenting works of art and cultivating a platform that elevates artistic voices while celebrating the transformative power of creativity.

Vancouver's remarkable natural beauty and vibrant cultural landscape provide an inspiring setting for the fair, positioning the city as a premier destination for international collectors, cultural travellers, and creative engagement.

This anniversary edition is a tribute to the passion, dedication, and vision of the artists, galleries, sponsors, partners, volunteers, and audiences who have contributed to our growth over the past decade. Your support has helped shape Art Vancouver into a leading platform in the contemporary art world.

As we reflect on the past ten years and look toward the future, I hope this year's fair inspires new connections, meaningful dialogue, and lasting appreciation for the power of art to transform communities.

Warm regards,

Lisa Wolfin

The poster features a dark blue background with vibrant, abstract shapes. A large, multi-colored sphere (orange, pink, purple) is positioned in the upper center. Below it, a thick, yellow-green ribbon-like shape curves across the bottom. In the lower right, another smaller multi-colored sphere (blue, purple, pink) is visible. The overall aesthetic is modern and artistic.
