About Event

The Session 101: Exploring The World of Rhymes Through Songwriting, led by acclaimed artist Venomous2000, offers a 5-week journey for youth to unleash their creativity through songwriting. With a focus on social-emotional learning, the program provides a safe and supportive environment for students to explore their emotions, express themselves, and connect with their inner artist. Through interactive workshops, personalized guidance, and hands-on activities, students learn song composition, lyric writing, and melody creation, gaining essential skills in the art of songwriting. The program also emphasizes interdisciplinary connections, incorporating elements of language arts, music, and emotional intelligence. Participants benefit from professional instruction, access to industry insights, and opportunities for self-expression, boosting their confidence and nurturing their artistic talents. The Songwriting Program is a unique and impactful experience that empowers youth to create, communicate, and connect through the power of music, leaving a lasting influence on youth culture.
