

An open letter from CEO...

Hello Family,

First and foremost, thank you all for your kind support. We have worked hard, and it is starting to paying off. I wanted to give you all an update on what is happening at ArchieNeko. Even though, I try my very best to reach you all, sometimes the messages get knocked away.

❑ ARCHIE TOKEN Staking dApp

Staking was stopped on October 7, 2022 and have asked no one to re-stake by adding an extra message on the dApp and by social media. Unfortunately, there are people that missed it. Being with ArchieNeko, you are in good hands, and I will go through each wallet and air drop your tokens that you have send to staking wallet after October 7. People who are in the staking pool prior to it, please unstake by hitting "-" in the dAPP. If you are only able to see "EW" then you have staked after October 7, and wait for me to send you the tokens.

❑ ARCHIENeko NFT Holders

For those who bought ArchieNeko NFT prior to November 28, 2022, you were offered ArchieNeko NFT at the current price of .27 Eth. In order to receive that, you supposed to buy $20 worth of archie token ($ARCHIE) in a new wallet and send me the wallet address to jp.archieneko@gmail.com. Some of you did, and some of you haven't. Since, I have been really busy and don't have the actual date for the Everest Casino launch (which I will talk about later on), I haven't really pushed it. PLEASE EVERYONE, STEP IT UP ON THIS BECAUSE, I AM ABOUT TO START DROPPING THOSE NFTs to those who already done.

❑ HACHI NFT White Listed

Those who are waiting for the Hachi NFTs, it will be dropped this coming week as well. If you have changed your original wallet address, please send me the new wallet address to jp.archieneko@gmail.com.

❑ PRIVATE BUYERS

You were offered a FREE ArchieNeko NFT for your support for this project from the beginning, those will be dropped this coming week as well to the original wallet. Any changes, please email to me at jp.archieneko@gmail.com

Now we want to talk about what is happening at ArchieNeko now...

What's ahead of us..

We are ready to launch our Dream Project of ArchieChain, Layer 1 Block Chain, with lots of benefits to our holders. More information can be found in the pdf below.

Along with ArchieChain, we will have our own DeFi Exchange, ArchieSwap, and our own explorer, ArchieScan.

ARC Coin ($ARC) is stable coin of ArcieChain and WARC COIN ($WARC) is the wrapped ARC to be launched on other chains. We will be launching on three blockchain together. Maximum Supply of ArcCoin will be 10,000,000,000 (10 Billion)

- ✓ Some of the Benefits of Arc Coin:
- ✓ Near Zero Fees
- ✓ Low Supply 10 Billion
- ✓ Staking Options to be a Validator with 100k Coins
- ✓ Staking Options on our own dApp
- ✓ Vested Dev/Team Coins

Native Token of ArchieChain (ARC)

- a) Used as Gas for Archie Chain
- b) To deploy other tokens
- c) To create liquidity for other tokens that are deployed on ArchieChain
- d) Coin of ArchieMeta Projects
- e) Coin of NFT Market Place to be released Q3 2023

What else...

Everest Casino

Currently the everest casino is under review by the auditor and waiting for the online licensing agency to approve us. We are hoping to receive a favorable answer before the end of the month, I will definitely keep you informed.

Archie Token

We have been talking about this for a while now. We have the contract and audit ready to go and waiting on the right time to launch Archie Token. For current holders, we are marketing heavy and working hard to raise our charts. After about three weeks from the launch of ArchieChain and ArcCoin, we will be launching Archie Token on our own ArchieChain.

I will announce ahead of time, and you will have the choice to either sell current Archie Token or wait for us to AirDrop our new token.

Archie Token will not be available for Pre-Sale or Private Sale. Current holders of Archie on Erc 20 will be the first one to be on the new Archie Token on ArchieChain.
