Tjaart van der Walt SC is a senior member of The Maisels Group of Advocates in Sandton. He was admitted as Advocate of the High Court of South Africa in 1995. His practice comprises general commercial arbitration, adjudication, mediation and litigation with a focus on the law of construction, contract, delict, company law and the law of property in contentious and advisory context. His court appearances over a period of more than 35 years include the High Courts, Supreme Court of Appeal and the Constitutional Court of the Republic of South Africa and the High Courts of neighbouring Southern African states including Botswana, Namibia, and Swaziland. The judgments in 13 of his litigious matters have been reported in the SA Law Reports, the All SA Law Reports and the Commercial Law Reports. He has accepted acting appointments as Judge of the High Court of South Africa. His involvement in International Commercial Arbitration commenced in 1995 with substantial coal terminal construction arbitration proceedings in Walvis Bay, Namibia. He has since accepted instructions and appointments on a full-time basis over more than 30 years as Arbitrator, Adjudicator, Mediator, Party Representative and Advocate in domestic and international commercial arbitrations, adjudications, mediations, and litigious matters predominantly arising from the construction and engineering industries. His industry specific exposure includes construction, civil engineering, petroleum, coal- and gold mining, agriculture, food and beverage, telecommunications, aviation, road- and rail transport, insurance, pension funds, environmental- and water law, company law, forestry, saw milling and banking law.

Van der Walt is the Chairperson, a Director, a Fellow, and a Member of the Rules-, Nominations- and Management Committees of the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC, a Fellow and Full Faculty member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK), a Life Member of the Society of Mediators (UK) and a President's Panel Member of the South African Institution of Civil Engineering (SAICE). He is a Fellowship- and Construction Specialisation Course Tutor and Examiner for the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC, an accredited International Arbitrator, Adjudicator and Mediator of the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK). Van der Walt is an internationally accredited Mediator and Conflict Manager, certified to mediate and manage construction, contractual and general commercial disputes. He is certified as a court-annexed Mediator and Conflict Manager by the Civil Mediation Council (UK), the Society of Mediators (UK), the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK).

After matriculating from the Potchefstroom Gimnasium in 1982, Van der Walt read law at the Potchefstroom University for Christian Higher Education (now, the North-West University) where he served on the Student Representative Council, various student bodies and the editorial boards of the University newspaper and the Law Faculty newspaper. He attained the B Iuris and LLB degrees in 1985 and 1987 respectively. Prior to his admission as Advocate of the High Court of South Africa, his earlier professional experience included practising as an Attorney of the High Court of South Africa and employment as Public Prosecutor, Legal Advisor and Part-time Academic. Van der Walt has and still fulfills leading functions on and for various professional bodies including the Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC, the Management Committee of the Maisels Group of Advocates, and various Committees of the Johannesburg Bar Council.
