The Masters Returns to Augusta

Every April, the golfing world turns its eyes to Augusta National — and in 2026, the stage is set for the 90th edition of The Masters, taking place from 9–12 April.

Steeped in tradition, The Masters remains one of golf's most iconic tournaments. From the blooming azaleas to the drama of Amen Corner, Augusta has produced some of the sport's greatest moments — from Tiger Woods' record-breaking win in 1997 to his unforgettable comeback victory in 2019.

As the first major of the year, the tournament always attracts the world's best. This year's field is expected to feature defending champion Rory McIlroy, alongside top contenders like Scottie Scheffler, Bryson DeChambeau, Justin Thomas, and a strong international presence including LIV Golf stars.

However, one of the biggest talking points leading into this year's Masters is the absence of five-time champion Tiger Woods. Woods has officially withdrawn from the tournament as he steps away from golf to focus on his health following a recent incident, with Augusta National expressing full support for his decision.

While his presence will undoubtedly be missed, The Masters continues to evolve — blending history, prestige, and a new generation of stars ready to chase the coveted Green Jacket.

As always, Augusta promises drama, precision, and moments that will live long in golfing memory.

Ladies are doing it for themselves!!!

Victoria Country Club was proudly represented this past Monday as our ladies took to the fairways in the KZN Senior Ladies Golf event hosted right here at VCC. Competing alongside players from across the region, our members brought both style and substance to the course, showcasing the strength and spirit of ladies' golf.

But the momentum doesn't stop there. Every Tuesday, our ladies' competition keeps that same energy alive — a wonderful mix of camaraderie, competition, and plenty of laughs along the way. It's not just about the scorecard; it's about connection, confidence, and enjoying the game together.

Whether you're a seasoned golfer or just starting out, there's a place for you in ladies' golf at VCC. So why not join in? Because at Victoria, the ladies really are doing it for themselves — and doing it beautifully.

The stage is set for one of the biggest events on the VCC calendar — the Thirsty Club Champs, taking place from 9–12 May
