Rob Appell

Rob Appell Designs

Hi, my name is Rob Appell. I'm a California native, and it shows—surfing, hiking, and playing the guitar are at the top of my list, when I'm not behind a sewing machine. I have an awesome, supportive family. My wife and two kids are the center of my world.

I love teaching people to sew and I'm jazzed to share my passion with you! If you're wondering how I got started quilting, it all began when I was working in my mother's quilt shop. I caught the quilt pox and there was no cure! I taught myself to quilt and my personal style emerged.

Quilted seascapes became my trademark. After a few years, I started designing fabric for Free Spirit. Not much later, I was designing quilts for Michael Miller's new fabric releases too. After that I spent four years as the host of Missouri Star's Man Sewing channel.

Now I'm on to new adventures with Stitchin' Heaven in Quitman, TX. I am creating content on their Youtube Channel - Check it out! Sew Well with Rob Appell. It's been amazing to reach out to all of you and share my love of sewing and quilting.

Thank you for being a part of this wild, creative journey!

MACC

M A COUTURE CRAFTING

I am MACC which is a play on my name's initials. I'm married to the coolest man in the whole world and am Step-Mother to three amazing daughters. I live in sunny Los Angeles, California where I'm surrounded by all types of inspiration. I love all things Disney and can be found hanging out at the Disney theme parks. I am a couture crafter specializing in quilting and paper crafting.

M A Couture Crafting was established when I married my love for fashion and makeup with my love for Crafting. My favorite part of being a makeup artist was blending eye-shadow colors together — especially weird color combinations.

Why Couture? I do EVERYTHING by hand just like Fashion Designers hand sew beads to Couture gowns. I think the crafting community should receive the same respect as fashion designers for doing luxurious couture work. My Goal is to show there is diversity in the crafting community and help inspire Creators to Create!

Blending colors together to create unusual combinations is my thing so, you can expect to see vivid colors, ombré blends, and rainbows in virtually everything that I produce. Full tutorials are always available on my YouTube channel M A COUTURE CRAFTING.

Elizabeth Spannring – La Center, WA

Elizabeth began her crafty journey knitting socks, sewing costumes, and decorating cakes. When a sewing friend presented her with a rotary cutter and a bag of scraps, another enthusiastic quilter was born. Entering her first international competition in 2000, she's won numerous awards at major international, regional, and local shows across the US. After attending the Northern California Quilt Council Judges Training in 2002, she pursued her interest in judging and, in 2006, completed the NQA Certified Quilt Judge program. In 2011, she fulfilled the training and coursework to become a certified quilt judge with the Canadian Quilters Association/ACC. She has served as a judge and juror for numerous competitions and exhibitions throughout the US and Canada. For over three decades, she has had the opportunity to contribute to the quilting world as a pattern maker, show organizer, judging floor coordinator, instructor, juror, and judge. Appreciating that each quilt is an expression of the maker, she strives through concise and constructive comments to recognize the creativity and skill of each individual quilter. Currently, she is the secretary for the National Association of Certified Quilt Judges (NACQJ).

Eileen began sewing as a little girl at her grandmother's side but didn't start quilting until 2010. She studied quilting through a wide range of professional and informal workshops and seminars over the years, entering quilts at Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show, Oregon State Fair, Mid-Valley Quilt Guild (MVQG) Quilt Show, Northwest Quilters Festival, and other venues. Eileen served as MVQG President (2021-23) and has been active in many guild committees and events. She is also a current member of Northwest Quilters, Portland Modern Quilt Guild, and Ladies of the Lake Quilt Guild (Longview, WA).

In addition, Eileen has been longarm quilting since 2012 and is a quilting artist and owner of CYB Designs Longarm Studio (www.cybdesigns.com) in SW Washington. She is currently enrolled in the Judges' Certification Program through the National Association of Certified Quilt Judges (NACQJ). Eileen worked as a volunteer at the 2021 and 2023 Oregon State Fair Quilt Exhibitions and co-chaired in 2022. She also chaired the Quilt Judging Committee at the 2023 MVQG Quilt Show, served as a volunteer judge at the 2024 Oregon Quilt Festival, and is the author of a quilt show manual for the Oregon State Fair.

Quilt show judge, Dianne Nordyke

I began quilting over 50 years ago when we used sheets for a backing and an old wool blanket for batting. My general is from paper piecing to realistic art quilts and almost everything in between. I am also a free motion longarm quilter.

Guest Speaker

Lynn Blevens has spent the last 26 years in the education profession as a teacher and most recently as a principal. She brings with her a love of learning and teaching, expert organizational and classroom skills, and a great interest in all things textile to her new path as a Handi Quilter National Educator. Lynn owns and loves her HQ24 Fusion® and HQ Pro-Stitcher® machines, and recently added an HQ Sweet Sixteen® to her collection. She enjoys exploring all that is possible with Handi Quilter machines, and is happy to share her experience and discoveries with quilters everywhere. Lynn and her husband have had many life-changing events in the last few years, including getting married, embracing two little dogs, and adopting a foster boy from Lynn's previous school. They reside in southwest Washington (or Vancouver) just across the river from Oregon.

CHRIS MARCHINI

Chris Marchini is a quilt pattern designer putting his own unique twist on this timeless artform. After watching quilting videos on YouTube for years, he decided to make a quilt for his mother-in-law for Christmas... that led to him making additional quilts for more family members as gifts. After not being able to find a pattern to match with an idea for a quilt, he started drafting his own patterns. Chris has gained popularity online, growing a large audience on TikTok and Instagram where he posts short videos ranging from how-to tutorials to fabric pulls for upcoming projects and recently created a quilt entirely at random with fabrics sent in from all over the world and the blocks were decided by the roll of the dice. You can follow him on social media @RoseCityOriginals and purchase his quilt patterns at RoseCityOriginals.com

Quilts of Valor®

Quilts = Healing!

Salem Star Valor Quilters

The Salem Star Valor Quilters of Oregon is a local Quilts of Valor group started in 2019 by Jeff and Mary Williams owners of Will~n~Bee'z Quilt and Coffee Shop in Salem. We started with 4 people, and we have grown to over 50+ people. Our group has been very active in the last few years giving away over 871 quilts to deserving Veterans. You can contact the shop to find out how to request a quilt for your Veteran. It is an honor for our group to award these quilts. Every Veteran is deserving of a quilt, we know they sacrificed much for our freedom.

Our group works strictly off of donations, and our own personal fabric stashes to make this happen. As the leader of the group I am especially proud of their dedication to this service.

And more to come.
