The Return of Print, Done Intentionally

By Anesa K. Chastain Jones - Advertising Insights with Anesa
Oklahoma's Choice Weekly

It's time to share something important.

Oklahoma's Choice Weekly will be returning to print with a monthly edition.

Not because we're going backward. But because we're moving forward strategically.

Here's the truth: print still carries authority in a way nothing else does. When a business appears in print, it signals permanence. Stability. Commitment to the community. But marketing today cannot rely on print alone. Attention lives online daily. So instead of choosing one lane, we're building both.

Beginning with our upcoming monthly print edition, Oklahoma's Choice Weekly will combine:

- A high-impact, end-of-month print release
- Ongoing digital editions throughout the month
- Social media amplification
- Online visibility across platforms

This creates something stronger than a weekly paper ever did. It creates layered exposure.

Your business will benefit from:

- Authority (Print)
- Frequency (Digital Editions)
- Reach (Social + Online)
- Consistency (Month-Long Visibility)

That's not scaling down. That's building a smarter media engine. For advertisers, this means opportunity. The first print edition back will carry weight. It will be read, shared, and talked about.

If you want premium placement, now is the time to secure it.

Print builds credibility.

Digital builds momentum.

Together, they build position.

And position is what drives revenue. We are not just bringing back print. We are strengthening Oklahoma's Choice Weekly as a full media platform.

If you're ready to be visible where it matters, let's talk.
