Fundraising Ideas

The theme of CrossReach Sunday is light.

In one way or another, most of the people who come to CrossReach for help and support have found themselves in a dark or difficult place, physically, emotionally or mentally. CrossReach works to help bring light into each of these situations.

You Can Be The Light

Bring light into the dark by raising funds on CrossReach Sunday to support CrossReach services all over Scotland. You can be the change in someone's life.

Light The Path

The national fundraising event for CrossReach Sunday.

Will you and your church or group walk together to welcome the light of dawn?

A fun and exciting fundraising challenge that many congregations and communities will enjoy.

Where?

Any location of your choice. Pick a route that finishes outside the church or an important local landmark

How far?

Again that's up to you. Depending on who's taking part we suggest anywhere from 2-5 miles which should take between 40 mins and 1.5 hrs

When?

Start at 6.30 or 6.45 on CrossReach Sunday while it is just still dark. The sun will come up during your walk.

Raise funds on your walk by getting sponsored online (add QR code to campaign) or collect donations on the day.

Have breakfast together between the walk and your morning service (for a suitable donation of course).

How to fundraise?

Scan the QR code to set up your online Just Giving page. Share with family, friends and on social media to encourage donations and post pictures of your walk. For offline fundraising, you can find a printable sponsorship form in our fundraising resources as well as a poster you can personalise and use to recruit walkers in your area.

Other ways of fundraising

Coffee Morning

Brew a cup of hope this CrossReach Sunday - why not host a coffee morning with friends, family, or after your 'Be the Light' walk? Every cup poured and every cake shared helps support CrossReach's vital work across Scotland. Turn coffee and conversation into real change!

Bake Sale

What better way to encourage donations than to offer sweet treats in exchange? Get your baking gloves on and encourage others in the community to do the same. Set up a stall and display your bakes for all to admire and purchase.

Arts & Crafts Drive

Use the skills and talents of your community to make handmade crafts, cards, or artwork created by the congregation or local artists. Display and sell the incredible work in aid of CrossReach.

Soup & Sandwich Lunch

A welcoming, and low-cost way for a community to gather after worship while raising funds. The idea is to provide a modest meal of homemade soup and sandwiches, prepared by volunteers, and invite everyone in the church family (and beyond!) to stay, share food, and donate.

Come up with your own!

Fundraise your way and create an idea that is unique to you. Whether it's a community event, a workplace challenge, or a new way to bring people together and spread the mission of CrossReach Sunday while raising vital funds.
