Navaratri

Festival of the Goddess

14 - 28 October

Coming home to the Harmony Centre, a sanctuary for the soul

Navaratri is an ancient annual Goddess festival. It celebrates the inevitable defeat of darkness and dullness, ignorance and pain by the vastness of Divine love and wisdom. In the wonderfully evocative way of the Sages of India, there are stories to delight our hearts and inspire us in our own lives, to bring forth victory of the soul over ego, love over fear and wisdom over ignorance and delusion.

Each day during Navaratri there will be sessions where we can be together online and in person at the beautiful Harmony Centre in Cooranbong. There will be opportunities for ceremony and community through the entire 10 days and nine nights of Navaratri, this year our festival extends beyond the annual 9 nights and 10 days to include our Mission Day weekend. Come for a big lift and shift; an intensive awakening. Or, come to what you can. Many sessions will be recorded if you would like to catch any of them later.

Sacred Music & Mantra

Chanting is a great way to raise your vibration, so at times we use the power of sacred sound to 'lift and shift' blockages in our conscious and unconscious landscape.

Sound is energy and our system responds to the sounds and vibrations of Sanskrit chants. Listening to these sounds has a rejuvenating effect on the body, mind and spirit.
