INDELIBLY CRAFTED, LLC

We are on a mission to bring awareness to the auto-pilot survival states most of us typically REACT from by teaching you how to rewire your nervous system towards a more calm, clear and harmonized place. We have created gemstone intention bracelets to represent the work you want to do, encouragement oil blends that help you embody the state you want to seek instead and then we include a simple breathing practice that connects it all and helps you rewire your nervous system.

FOR THE LOVE OF TEAS

We are a mother and daughter cottage shop located in South Florida. We began our tea journey when my daughter discovered her love for teas. She was but 5 years old when she had her first tea party in the form of Alice in Wonderland birthday. From that day on she fell in love with tea.
