Itinerary HIGHLIGHTS

- Whittier: Just 60 miles from Anchorage, Whittier is a secluded town surrounded by mountains and the Passage Canal. Once a WWII military base, it now offers access to Prince William Sound, rich with wildlife and outdoor adventures like hiking and scenic boat tours.
- Hubbard Glacier: The Hubbard Glacier, North America's largest tidewater glacier, stretches 76 miles and towers 400 feet high. Its stunning turquoise face and massive icebergs awe visitors, while nearby wildlife like eagles, seals, orcas, and whales make the experience unforgettable.
- Icy Strait Point: Icy Strait Point, where "the north wind doesn't blow," offers wild adventure and stunning scenery. With wildlife outnumbering people, it's perfect for nature lovers. Cruise from here to explore Alaska's beauty and enjoy thrilling excursions with Norwegian Cruise Line.
- Juneau: Known as "Alaska's peak experience," Juneau offers stunning glacier views, including Mendenhall Glacier, Tracy Arm Fjord, and Glacier Bay. Enjoy kayaking, flightseeing, gold panning, or exploring historic downtown in this unforgettable destination.
- Skagway: From 1896 to 1897, Skagway boomed from tents to 20,000 gold seekers. Today, visitors explore its historic boardwalk and Gold Rush-era charm along the Inside Passage.
- Ketchikan: Ketchikan, named Kach Khanna or "spread wings of the eagle," is surrounded by lush wilderness. With abundant rainfall and rich wildlife, it's a prime spot to spot bald eagles atop Sitka trees during your Alaska cruise to Ward Cove.
- Cruise Inside Passage: Get ready for amazing views and wildlife like nowhere else as you sail through the islands of Alaska's Inside Passage.
- Vancouver: Nestled between the North Shore Mountains and the Pacific Ocean, Vancouver combines urban sophistication with small-town charm. Visit Queen Elizabeth Park, a 130-acre arboretum featuring sculptures by Henry Moore.

Must try EXPERIENCES

Anchorage Land Tour

Anchorage, with temperatures ranging from 40°F to 60°F (4°C to 16°C) in late April to early May, offers the perfect mix of outdoor adventure and urban charm. Experience nearly 17 hours of daylight, ideal for hiking in Chugach State Park, biking along the Tony Knowles Coastal Trail, or fishing at Ship Creek. Explore the city's rich history at the Anchorage Museum, or enjoy local wildlife at the Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center. With fewer crowds, it's an excellent time to explore before your Glacier Discovery Train journey. Anchorage is your gateway to experiencing the best of Alaska's natural beauty!

Glacier Discovery Train

Embark on the Glacier Discovery Train for an unforgettable Alaskan adventure. Departing from Anchorage, this scenic route visits Girdwood, Whittier, Portage, Spencer Glacier, and Grandview, offering unique experiences like wildlife viewing, glacier hikes, and rafting. Enjoy breathtaking views of Bartlett and Trail Glaciers, alpine meadows, and the Placer River Valley. Onboard amenities include Adventure Class seating, a snack bar, and wheelchair access. The Glacier Discovery Train offers a perfect mix of adventure, stunning landscapes, and flexibility—your gateway to Alaska's remote wonders!

NCL Excursions

From breathtaking glacier tours and wildlife expeditions to cultural immersion and thrilling outdoor adventures, our excursions showcase the best of America's last frontier.
