WITH SUE FERGUSON

Classic's own Sue Ferguson recently returned from the slopes in France, where she revisited some of her favorite mountain resorts. From the legendary Courchevel to the chic retreats of Chamonix and Megève, these destinations bring alpine luxury to life with world-class skiing, après-ski indulgence, and breathtaking scenery. Sue shares, "I'm especially excited about our Mountain portfolio, I've skied at every property and love them all. We've also just begun working with the Barrière collection, and I'm thrilled about their beautiful hotels, especially in Normandy. I can't wait to share more once they're live on our site."
