CEO Message

LUCKY IMPEX has experienced a remarkable evolution in the past sixty-eight years of the company's history. We have pursued our vision to become the country's leading textile organization and contribute heartily to Pakistan's economy. Now, by the grace of Almighty, Lucky Impex is a renowned and trusted name in the Textile Industry.

It was our management's principle to build strong commitments to the company's valued customers in providing the best quality products with firm commitments and new innovations by the grace of Almighty; in return, we have earned our valued customers' trust and confidence by far and large.

I would like to thank our visionary management and hardworking employees who proved their presence with active and essential participation in the company's growth.

We shall continue to strive towards the vision of industry leadership and achieve goals in the years ahead.

Thank you for your ongoing interest in Lucky Impex and your support.

Sincerely
KHALID TABBA

Director Message

Lucky Impex has been in the field of textiles since 1955, with now the third generation in charge of management and operations. During this journey, we have managed to achieve multiple awards. While being an industry leader in hospitality products along with other segments such as bed linens and garments, we have always worked towards newer innovations and efficient production techniques. Our facility has state of the art setup and machines along with all the required certifications, they are a prerequisite in the current market. Our aim has always been to put quality and our customers first and work with them to fulfill their needs in the current ever-changing environment.

The steady growth of our company and our customer base assures us of satisfied customers and our efforts in providing them quality products every time while standing behind our product.

I am very proud to say that we have one of the best facilities and teams to help achieve our goals and targets.

I look forward to serving you better every time.

Sincerely
SHOAIB TABBA
