Rethink how you let

Deposit Free Renting

Landlords, there's now an easier way to manage deposits.

Our branches use a deposit replacement service that allows you to let deposit free, offering extra protection, faster lets, quicker payouts and fewer void periods.

Here's how it works.

Instead of paying a deposit, tenants can join a deposit replacement scheme and pay for any charges at the end of their tenancy.

You'll also receive up to 10 weeks' of protection with free recovery for any additional costs. Traditional deposit schemes offer protection for only 5 weeks.

This provides lower upfront costs for tenants and faster payouts for established charges, helping you re-let properties quicker. ***

Thank you to Sharon & Alison for your exceptional service and support. You explained the process in detail from the onset and you were prompt in response to all my queries at all times and very professional in handling all issues raised. You made the letting journey seamless for us and we feel confident that we are in good hands. I will recommend Hunters agency to all.

Landlord: Esther Agunbiade Branch: Hunters Sutton Coldfield

We have recently moved into a new house and I have to say that the support and personalised professional customer service was amazing. Charlie Torrance was very professional and prompt during the whole process from the viewing to the move-in. Would highly recommend Hunters.

Landlord: Ruby & Mark Peacock Branch: Hunters Harrogate

5 stars all round for Hunters! Everyone who I've had contact with have worked so hard for me and they got me a great result! I would highly recommend them. They really do care, and will absolutely go the extra mile and then some, to get the right mortgage, the right tenant and the right guidance and advice when you need it.

Special mention for the excellent Lewis Newbould who got me a deal when absolutely no one else could, and got me out of a really tight spot with his dedication and professionalism, and to the Lettings team, who all created a real buzz around my property and made sure it was let to the right people as quickly as possible. Absolutely brilliant! Thank goodness for Hunters - they are fantastic!

Rent protection

Your rent, covered

With the rising cost of living, there may be a time when your tenants can't or won't pay their rent on time.

As a landlord, this puts you in a tricky position - especially if you have to keep up mortgage repayments or other expenses.

Our partners offer complete peace of mind for landlords, with rental protection packages covering:

- Your total monthly rental income - no matter how many tenants you let to.
- Vacant possession - limits apply.
- Legal expenses and eviction costs.

Ask your letting agent about the types of rent protection packages on offer.

* See website for full terms and conditions.

With something as important as this,
it makes sense to bring in the experts.

Hunters are specialists in compliance

For you, this brings the peace of mind that comes from knowing your let is protected against any changes to legislation, now and always.

Our strong ties with the Government will ensure that you're the first to know about new regulations, giving you time to make the necessary changes to your let.

There are

168 specific laws

for landlords. Next year, there may be even more...

You choose how we work with you

Questions to ask your letting agent

- How do they find reliable tenants?
- On average, how long do tenants remain in one of their lets?
- How do they manage property maintenance?
- What is their plan if your property is vacant for four weeks or more?
- Will they be your agent throughout the process and are they based locally?
- What type of contract do they use and what fees do they charge?
- How will they communicate with you, and how often?
- How will I receive my rental income from tenants?
- How do you handle deposits?
- Do you offer any type of protection for rent arrears?
- What sort of checks can you do on prospective tenants?
- What is the best type of inventory?

Put us to the test. Ask your local Hunters agent any of these today and we're sure you'll like what you hear.
