Monthly newsletter of Cassio Road Dental Practice

Welcome to the January 2022 edition of Grin N Share It

Welcome to our first edition of our 2022 newsletters. We hope that you all had a restful Christmas break and are looking forward to a more positive start to the new year. With the covid restrictions remaining unchanged for the time being and rumours circling about how we perhaps now need to start learning how to live with Covid-19, it is our hope that we can get to see many more of you in the year ahead.

JANUARY 2022

Practice News

Our biggest news for the immediate future is our upcoming Invisalign Open Day on Saturday 29th January 2022. If the new year is the time for you to realise your dream of a new smile, then sign up today! Book Now!

In other news – we now also have free WiFi around the practice for our patients as we were aware that for some of you it was difficult to complete the medical history forms without it. We hope that this now eases any internet access challenges for patients.

We are also acutely aware that there is a long waiting list for hygiene appointments at present. We are continuously looking at ways to increase capacity for you whenever possible.

Best Wishes - The Team at Cassio Road Dental Practice
