Message from ACTING VICE-CHANCELLOR

Wey

Bula vinaka and warm greetings to all prospective students!

I would like to begin by thanking you for considering the Fiji National University (FNU) to pursue your academic aspirations. As Fiji's national university we have provided learning, teaching and research opportunities to our local, Pacific and international students since 2010. However, our place in the educational landscape in Fiji and the region is deeply rooted and dates back to the 19th century through our former national institutions that were merged to form FNU. We continue to build on this strong foundation to provide accessible, affordable and quality education for all.

FNU envisions itself and strives to be the leading dual-sector university in the Pacific, with a mission to serve the people, the economy and society of Fiji and the wider Pacific region.

Our vision and mission is reflected in our Strategic Plan 2021-2026, which guides the University's commitment to providing education and training for employability, with an excellent student experience; carrying out research with real-world impact aligned to national priorities and with global relevance; engaging proactively with stakeholders, in our communities, nation and region; and demonstrating leadership in sustainability.

In all areas of University life and learning, FNU seeks to uphold our values of Care, Honesty, Accountability, Service and Excellence in everything we do.

Dual-sector university

Staying true to our heritage as a dual-sector institution, FNU offers technical and vocational education and training (TVET) and Higher Education (HE) streams of learning that is suited to students' interests, entry pathways and career aspirations.

Welcome TO THE FIJI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

For generations, our colleges, academy and centre have educated the country's doctors, dentists and nurses, its teachers, creative artists, accountants and lawyers, its engineers, plumbers, tile layers and seafarers, entrepreneurs, quantity surveyors and architects, land surveyors, tourism, culinary and hospitality specialists, computer scientists, mechanics, carpenters and electricians and agriculture, fisheries and forestry experts.

As our global community recovers from the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic – which has influenced how we live, play, work, study and grow – choosing a suitable tertiary education and career pathway is a crucial step that requires research and planning.

Diverse study programmes

As you browse through the FNU 2022/2023 Prospectus, I'm confident that a few study programmes from our wide range of courses will pique your interest and hope you will be able to finalise one that will be the perfect fit for you.

I'm pleased to mention that our programmes range from Certificate III to PhD level and are tailor-made in close collaboration with our industry stakeholders to ensure our curricula are relevant and meet the current and future market demands.

In addition to having industry-qualified academic staff and the compulsory industrial attachment component to our programmes, FNU provides support services to assist students with their in-person, blended and online learning journey. This allows our students to become workforce-ready graduates.

Our commitment to UN SDGs

As the national University of a country at the forefront of climate change, FNU recognises its position of playing a leading role in practising and promoting sustainable initiatives and solutions. This resulted in FNU being ranked for the first time in the Times Higher Education (THE) Impact rankings.

The THE Impact rankings measure an institution's research, outreach, teaching and stewardship against the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). FNU was one of 1,525 institutions across 110 countries/regions worldwide to participate in the impact rankings for 2022.

This was made possible through our FNU family of students and staff, and those who join our University will also be part of our mission to empower sustainability champions in our classrooms, homes and communities.

Our facilities

Students who join FNU will also enjoy the high-speed free WiFi available at all our campuses, digital infrastructure that is on par with universities in Australia and New Zealand, our support services and campus life activities, a digital library collection and the new Sports and Wellness Centre at our Nasinu Campus for those who live or study in the Central Division.

In addition to the Sports Complex, we have also invested in physical infrastructure such as a new home for the College of Business, Hospitality and Tourism Studies (CBHTS) and the recently-opened Naduna Campus in Labasa. Our new campus in the North is an exciting venture for the University as it provides a significantly enhanced learning and teaching environment for Vanua Levu students and enables FNU to expand its provision into new areas that meet local labour-market needs, such as catering and hospitality.

Student activities

With this in mind, all our students can remain connected through the Fiji National University Students' Association (FNUSA) and its ten campus-based branch associations. FNUSA provides a range of cultural, social and sporting events to complement your studies, which gives students a holistic and enriching student experience while at FNU.

I am certain that choosing FNU as your university of choice will be the start of a fulfilling and rewarding life.

On behalf of the whole FNU family of staff, students, alumni and supporters, I wish you every success in your chosen programme, and I look forward to welcoming you to FNU!

Dr William May
Acting Vice-Chancellor

Message from FNUSA PRESIDENT

Bula!

Choosing the right university that will propel you towards your career pathway is an important decision that will mold your personal and academic aspirations.

The Fiji National University is the ideal place to launch yourself into the real world. You will receive affordable, timely and relevant education from the qualified teaching staff in a multi-cultural and diverse environment. The academic and support services that the University offers us, the students, is truly invaluable. As the Fiji National University Students Association (FNUSA), our purpose is to facilitate the interaction between the University and students. We work closely with the University management and the University governance.

The FNUSA is made up of a National Students Representative Council (Governing Body) and the National Executive Board (Executive Committee). The Association has ten branch Associations present in all major campuses of the Fiji National University. Each Campus Branch is responsible for their individual campus student life activities through the organisation done by their Branch Executive Committees. The FNUSA Head Office is based at Nasinu Campus and looks after general administrative work and national level activities and advocacy for students. This includes initiatives such as Sustainable Development Goals Projects, Workshops, Trainings and Consultations. FNUSA also represents all students at national or University-level committees where students' voices need to be heard.

Our mission is to unite the voices of the students by accommodating, facilitating, assisting and promoting the holistic development of students at Fiji National University. We strive to be a student body that values the importance of our students, to recognise and represent student interest, needs and welfare within the University, to support the diversity of students in their cultures, religion, and free expression of views, opinions and interests, to promote the general educational welfare and to enhance the Academic benefits offered by the University.

We also started many new projects and initiatives to help facilitate the integration and involvement of new students into the University. The FNUSA National Student Representative Council and the National Executive Board consists of a dynamic team, focusing on key student requirements and interests. For this reason, all members have specific, assigned tasks such as: Planning, Management, Student Support, Student Welfare, Events, Projects, Public Relations, Communications, Administration and Policy Advocacy and Development.

We host monthly meetings in order to have updated feedback from the events which we organise on a regular basis to ensure that all students have a chance to participate. Based on the evaluation, we continue to enhance our events and activities to ensure that our students receive a conducive and enriching student experience at FNU. We also host student forums where students are able to ask questions on University operations and activities.

Throughout the year, we organise many events, ranging from welcome functions to workshops and cultural events. The work we have done so far can always be strengthened and as such we strongly encourage all students to join the Student Council so that they can add their creativity and ideas in making this University an even better place for everyone.

I look forward to seeing more new students on campus.

Welcome to Fiji's own National University.

Thank you.

- ✿ Research with Real-World Impact
- ✿ Student Experience
- ✿ Financial Sustainability
- ✿ Our Environment

The Fiji National University (FNU) was established in 2010 with the objectives that it shall promote scholarships, research, free inquiry, academic excellence, and trade competence. Through this process, the institution would create, disseminate, maintain, and advance knowledge and productivity by teaching, training and other means, for the welfare and needs of the communities of Fiji and abroad. The University serves those who may wish to receive technical and vocational education and training and higher education that is consistent with international standards of teaching, research, and other academic activities in institutions styled as institutions of higher learning.

The functions of the University are:

- ▶ To provide for, and encourage the creation, advancement and dissemination of knowledge, through scholarship, research and teaching to the standards acceptable by the University Council.
- ▶ To provide courses of study or instruction, at the levels of achievement the Council considers appropriate, to meet the needs of the community, including technical and vocational education and training.
- ▶ To confer higher education awards and awards at other levels as determined by the Council.
- ▶ To provide, arrange for or regulate the appropriate training of persons or classes of persons, whether by way of apprenticeship or otherwise, to assist such persons or classes of persons in connection with employment.
- ▶ To assist and contribute towards the cost of training, and the promotion of training, of any person or class of persons.
- ▶ To participate in community discourse through the application of knowledge generated and advanced at the University to society, industry, and government in an environment where the rights of all are respected.
- ▶ To perform other functions given to the University under Section 6 (1)(a) to (g) of Fiji National University Act 2009.

A walk through time

Fiji National University has a long history of relevant education dating back to more than 130 years ago to the origins of its component Colleges. These were institutions were established according to national needs and aspirations over the decades.

1954 Fiji College of Agriculture

The Fiji College of Agriculture was established in 1954 to meet the human resource needs of the country in all areas of agriculture. The College has developed into the University's College of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry (CAFF) at the Koronivia Campus.

1893 School of Nursing

The School of Nursing is one of the oldest nursing education institutions in the Pacific and has been in existence since 1893. It is now part of CMNHS and offers programmes for local and regional students.

1963 Fiji Institute of Technology (FIT)

The former Fiji Institute of Technology (FIT) is now part of the FNU College of Engineering, Science and Technology (CEST) and is the University's Derrick Campus in Samabula, Suva. It was originally established in 1963 to train students in technical and vocational disciplines to meet the human resource needs of Fiji and the region in the fields of engineering, information technology and sciences.

FIT was also a starting point for the College of Business, Hospitality and Tourism Studies (CBHTS), which is now located at various centres, including the new Nadi Campus in the heart of Fiji's Tourism industry. The main administration centre of Fiji National University, including the hub of its extensive teacher training faculty, is located at Nasinu Campus. This was once Fiji's prestigious Queen Victoria School (known as "Vuli-Ni-Tu") in the early 1990s.

1907 Fiji College of Advanced Education

The Fiji College of Advanced Education established in Nasinu and the Lautoka Teachers College (LTC) has become part of the University's College of Humanities and Education (CHE). LTC is now FNU's Natabua Campus.

1973 Training and Productivity Authority of Fiji (TPAF)

The Training and Productivity Authority of Fiji (TPAF), formerly known as the Fiji National Training Council (FNTC), was established in 1973 by the Fiji National Training Act. TPaf became part of FNU in 2011 as the National Training and Productivity Centre [NTPC] to run the University's short courses that are designed to meet the local industries needs.

2010 Fiji National University

Formally established in 2010, FNU now has campuses at 10 locations throughout the country, running a total of more than 260 (exact number is 267) different programmes registered under Fiji Higher Education Council (FHEC) with a staff complement of more than 2000. As a new and dynamic institution, yet one with an illustrious history within its parts, FNU is daily developing, innovating, and expanding to provide Fiji and the region with the education and training that they most need.

Located 6km away from Lautoka City. The Campus provides programmes of study for the College of Humanities and Education (CHE), College of Business, Hospitality and Tourism Studies (CBHTS) and College of Engineering, Science and Technology (CEST).

The Campus is renowned for its performances of choral music by the students. Previously home to the Lautoka Teachers College, the Natabua Campus has the most extensive lecture theatre in Fiji, with a seating capacity of 680 people. The theatre is appropriately named “Na WereLevu” (The Big House) and recognises the language of the traditional landowners of Lawaki.

The Campus provides an eventful environment for its students year-round with activities such as sports days and talent quests, environmental awareness weeks for the Go Green initiative with weekly clean-up campaigns, and the practice of social responsibility through its outreach activities, including community clean-ups and visiting the senior citizens and disabled.

The Campus has well-equipped teaching and learning spaces, including a modern Library, ITS Labs, Math Help Kiosk, Campus UniClinic, and a multi-purpose court on Campus. The Campus has its choir group, which actively participates in all College events. Trainee teachers in this group take time to sing to children at the Lautoka Hospital and the senior citizens at Golden Age Home. This prepares our aspiring teachers to better serve their community through continuous learning and development.

The Nasese Campus was instituted in 1975 to meet the hotel and catering requirements of hotels and resorts in Fiji. The Campus has evolved to a modern setup and is fully equipped with ITS facilities (Internet, projectors with screens and PCs). It comprises six lecture rooms, one executive room, a fully-functional computer lab and library, and a training kitchen and restaurant. Students apply their theoretical knowledge during practical classes at the training kitchen & restaurant to perfect their skills and knowledge. The training restaurant is also open to the public and other corporate organisations for functions.

This helps students become industry-ready and helps increase their confidence when they graduate and enter the workforce. In addition, the number of programmes offered at Nasese Campus has evolved from Certificate to Bachelors programmes.

Located at the junction of Golf Link Road and Jerusalem Road, Nabua. The Campus provides programmes from the College of Engineering, Science and Technology (CEST) and National Training and Productivity Centre (NTPC).

Since its establishment, the Campus has provided a skilled workforce for the nation's development. One of the significant features of our Nabua Campus is that it is located in a peaceful environment surrounded by nature, which helps in effective learning. The Campus caters for about 100 students. Students also have access to the Fashion Incubation Centre, with two sewing machinists who deal with everyday customer orders with different garment designs.

The standout features include the canteen where students are treated to delicious and healthy meals, a Library for research and ICT room where one would always find students exploring the internet and researching, laboratories, tutorial rooms and the main lecture room with a capacity of 100 students.

The Postgraduate (PG) Diploma programmes in Environmental Science and the Postgraduate Diploma in Food Sciences have attracted most of our FNU alumni back for further studies at this Campus.

The Campus has six NTPC departments based at the Campus, which are; Department of Automotive and Mechanical, Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Department of Construction Industry, Department of Apprenticeship and Trade Test, Department of Community Based Non-Formal Education and Training, and Department of Customer Service, Research and Promotion. The Campus also caters for the Department for Graphics which is from the College of Humanities and Education.

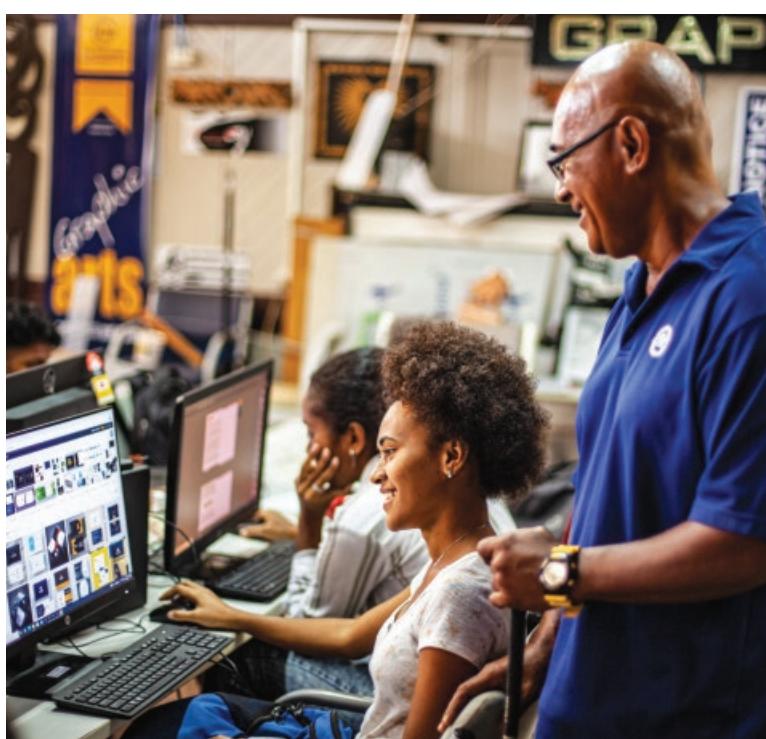

Narere Campus is the headquarters for NTPC which is located in one of the historic buildings that was once the Fiji National Training Council (FNTC). NTPC provides training to equip students with the knowledge and practical skills to meet the dynamic industry needs and expectations.

The Campus provides a peaceful environment which enhances students' learning. The canteen is where most students take breaks and spend time with their peers. One would always find students sharing notes, studying, and catching up with their friends in the great recreational facilities provided. The Campus has a library that can cater for up to 50 students. The Campus also has a spacious lecture theater, ITS Lab, and workshops for practicals, including machines and working on the actual vehicles that are part of their assessment and learning. Every year, close to 2,000 students undergo upskilling programmes at the Narere Campus.

Life

LIVING ON CAMPUS

Finding your way around campus, getting to know new people, and discovering something to do on Campus might all seem a little overwhelming when you first start University. Which is why, we are here to guide you to have a smooth transition from your high School to begin a new journey in your university life. You can participate in sporting activities, join a club of your choice, get fit, or even take part in cultural events hosted at the University.

ORIENTATION DAY

We at FNU ensure that our first-year students are well versed with the campuses, locations of key learning spaces and support services. Orientation is held at the beginning of both Semester One and Two, which provides an opportunity for students to meet their College Dean's, Head of Schools, lecturers and connect with their peers. The day includes campus tours by Student Leaders and college staff and activities around the Campus.

CAMPUS SPORTS

Enhance your university experience, participate in Inter-campus sports events and a chance to represent FNU at the FUSA games (inter- tertiary games). FNU has been the champions at FUSA games for the past two years and these games include volleyball, netball, futsal, touch rugby and soccer. Other sporting activities are also available for students, such as the Oceania Sports Education Program (OSEP), Coaching Clinics, First Aid Training and Disability Sports. This provides a platform for students to gain greater leadership and teamwork quality and are recognised through awards nights.

SPORTS FACILITIES

We care about your fitness and well-being at Fiji National University. Students have access to a wide range of sports facilities at our campuses, including our new and state-of-the-art Sports and Wellness Centre, so you can thrive during your time at University. Getting physically active can help boost your energy, mental health and academic performance. The University organises various workshops for students to engage into and one of those being Oceania Sports Education Program (OSEP) Workshop, where you can qualify as Sports Administrator at your Campus.

JOIN A CLUB

Learn how to engage with diverse groups of people and join a club!

Learn how to engage with diverse groups of people and join a club! The university hosts many clubs in collaboration with the FNU Student Association (FNUSA) to enhance your studies, such as the inter-campus Debate Club. Joining a club also gives you the opportunity to meet other students with similar interests, as well the chance to take part in events and activities on and off campus. You can choose to be a part of either the Disability Club, Environment Club or Sports Club to develop your soft skills.

LET'S CONNECT

Make friends and share unforgettable experiences!

CONNECT Talks serves as a place for the FNU community (students, College and staff) to have constructive and courageous conversations in a conducive and supportive space. The 'Let's Connect through CHASE' programme provides FNU students a platform to engage and connect across campuses by sharing their experiences, journeys and success stories. It aims to highlight FNU student champions that have excelled and emitted the five core values of FNU – Care, Honesty, Accountability, Service and Excellence. Take part in employability workshops and small group career conversations.

FIELD TRIPS

Reinforce your classroom material!

Field trips boost students' lifelong success and FNU provides this platform to students for hands-on experience, giving meaning to learning. Each field trip experience that a student participates in contributes to their enhanced understanding of the world. Field trips are embedded in your programme of study where some of the best university memories are captured. When you leave university life, you are able to connect with the real world.

CULTURAL EXPERIENCE

Diversity makes us all special!

Colleges stage cultural events to display the diverse backgrounds of their students by hosting events such as Food Festivals. Island delicacies are a must-have! We also coordinate Sports Festival for our Regional students and facilitate round-the-island tours.

FNU STUDENT ENVIRONMENT AMBASSADOR

Looking for a new way to get involved on Campus?

Students can express their interest to become an Environment Ambassador for their Campus and lead their student body in promoting and implementing sustainability practices at their campuses. This is for all FNU registered students interested in environmental conservation and prevention. All student environment ambassadors will be provided badges and undergo training and mentoring provided by organisations and stakeholders that promote and advocate environmental sustainability.

With Environment Sustainability being an all-encompassing theme of the institution's Strategic Plan, students also play a leading role in developing cost-effective and achievable sustainable initiatives. Through the Office of the Registrar's Department of Student Support Services, the FNU Student Environment Ambassador's scheme identifies students from each Campus to be a Student Environment Ambassador. The students lead and champion sustainability activities at each of our 12 campuses and recruit and train other students who wish to join their campus' Environment Champions Club. The student ambassadors undergo an induction programme and training workshops in collaboration with external stakeholders.

STUDENT SUPPORT

We are here to help!

A central place for you to access support services and resources to support your day-to-day well-being and find answers to your common queries.

Student Support Services such as Residential life, Student Health and Wellness, Career Services, Student Disability Services, Counselling and Uniclinic contribute to an exciting student experience at FNU. The Unit also conducts awareness activities on the FNU Child Protection Policy and Student Anti-Bullying, Harassment, Discrimination and Victimisation Policy. Students can also provide their feedback through the FNU Student Complaints Portal.

Students can also utilise the FNU Text Free platform on 857 for Vodafone/Ink users for admission, enrolment, examination queries and other academic services.

The University is dedicated to providing a complete learning environment for all of its students. The residential life programme at Fiji National University is likewise based on the notion that hostel living will give the students a unique opportunity to gain various experiences that will complement and supplement the formal classroom.

STUDENT HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Secure, clean, and comfortable facilities are also necessary for the residential life programme.

Moreover, the programme promotes cultures that value individual and community decision-making responsibility, mutual respect, care, collaboration and sharing, and students' empowerment to become committed and contributing members of their residence halls and local communities.

Being a university student is both rewarding and challenging. We recognise the importance of students maintaining a healthy lifestyle, especially when juggling the various responsibilities of university education.

The Student Health and Wellness Unit is committed to helping students achieve wellness in all aspects of their lives, including their emotional, academic, social, and spiritual well-being.

Students can participate in one of the following programmes:

- ▶ Zumba workouts;
- ▶ Health and Wellness Awareness Week

COUNSELLING

Counseling services allow people to discuss and examine the challenges and difficulties they face daily. Our counsellors are experts in providing counselling, guidance and advice relating to relationships, loneliness, anxiety, sadness, sorrow, academic obstacles, emotions, and self-esteem.

Students will be given a secure, comfortable, and private setting where they can speak freely and be heard with compassion, respect, and understanding. This free walk-in service is provided at all three divisions (Central, Western and Northern).

UNICLINIC

Whilst students pursue their academic ambitions at the university, it is important that they maintain their health and well-being to avoid stress and other illnesses. Whether students feel unwell, need some medical advice or sexual health and/or general counselling, the physician and nurses at the University Clinic (UniClinic) are here to help you.

As a student at the Fiji National University, you are welcome to use the UniClinic as your primary health care facility for the duration of your time at the University.

We offer free doctor's consultations to all students. Apart from the dispensation of a few basic medications, all other medications will need to be purchased by you at an outside pharmacy. The UniClinic does not have laboratory or radiological services.

The UniClinic organises screening programs such as Wellness, HIV and STI Screenings and Breast and Cervical Cancer Screenings annually. The two University Clinics are located at the Nasinu and Natabua campuses.

CAREER SERVICES

Show employers you have what they are looking for!

Students are assisted in their career preparation by Career Services counselors. We are dedicated to ensuring that our undergraduate and graduate students are well-prepared to transition from students to working professionals.

The Career Services Unit helps students improve their soft skills and enhance their chances of finding work through the career placement initiative.

The career and placement team provides the following services:

- ▶ Job seekers and businesses can register for online placement portals;
- ▶ Workshops on CV Writing;
- ▶ Practice Interviews and
- ▶ Careers Fair and Employer Chat Sessions.

Student DISABILITY SERVICES

Equal access to education!

We are committed to creating an inclusive education system with a hospitable, supportive, and empowering environment for students with special needs at the Fiji National University. The University has provisions for student to receive equal access, social inclusion, and appropriate accommodations for their academic endeavors. We facilitate support services, making reasonable academic accommodations, raising disability awareness in the University community, and ensuring people with special needs are fully assisted in achieving their goals.

For students with exceptional needs, the Disability Centre advocates for equal access to learning. This entails creating a user-friendly environment with specially developed amenities to make learning more accessible.

The Disability Unit offers the following services:

- ▶ Pre-enrolment assistance and enrolment assistance;
- ▶ Note-taking services, academic helpers, and sign interpreters;
- ▶ When dealing with accessibility concerns, lecture and tutorial locations are moved;
- ▶ Access to assistive technology;
- ▶ Disability Sports & Wellness session;
- ▶ Consultation with academic personnel concerning acceptable accommodations and
- ▶ Consultation with students with disabilities to establish appropriate accommodations that meet their needs for integrated campus life activities.

LEARNING SUPPORT

The Centre for Learning and Teaching Enhancement (CLTE) offers the following services to support FNU students succeed in their academic endeavours.

Math Help Hub (MHH) - a service that offers students of various disciplines, mathematical and statistical support and advice.

English Language Hub (ELH) - a flexible tutoring service that includes workshops, open and free English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, and a variety of resources.

Peer Assisted Learning (PAL) - PAL provides free structured study sessions led by peer students (PAL Leaders), who have a strong academic record and have successfully finished the courses firsthand.

Learning to Learn Online (LTLO) - a free online course that introduces students to online learning and their role as online learners.

Guide to Effective Learning (GEL) – a collection of self-help guides designed to assist students make the most of their time at FNU and beyond. These guides provide useful ideas for improving academic and personal skills

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE

Succeed@FNU - an online course that assists students to assess their academic potential, familiarise themselves with FNU's requirements and regulations, become aware of the support networks available at FNU, and understand the value of self-care.

FYE Mobile APP – an app developed to help students get the most out of their first semester at FNU. The First Year Survival Guide is a comprehensive guide to practically everything a student needs to know about University and what to expect if they attend FNU.

FLEXIBLE AND E-LEARNING

FNU's online delivery of learning and teaching allows students to study at their own pace from home, work, or at any location convenient to the student. This is known as E-Learning and Flexible Learning. Through Moodle, FNU's official learning management system, the Centre for Flexible and E-Learning (CFEL) collaborates with the colleges to develop courses and programmes for Online and Blended (Online + Face-to-Face) modes of learning.

Flexibility is provided for the type of assessments taken and its completion timeline. Through Moodle, students will be able to access course materials, participate in discussion forums, communicate with teachers and classmates, submit assignments, and take online quizzes and exams. Students can also create and submit electronic portfolios for assessment via Mahara, as well as check their assignments electronically to assess for plagiarism and improve their writing via Turnitin.

Flexible and e-learning is a viable option for students who cannot be physically present on Campus or can only be present in a limited capacity. Contact cfel@fnu.ac.fj for more information.

NOQUBUDDY

The Taukei word "noqu" means "mine." As a result, noquBuddy signifies "My Buddy." This programme is designed to help our local and international first-year undergraduate students adjust to FNU smoothly. This short-term programme runs from week one to week seven of the semester and allows first-year students (noquBuddy Mentees) to connect with a second-year or above full-time FNU student (noquBuddy Mentor). The mentors will assist the first-year students in adjusting to university life and successfully overcoming any obstacles in order to make their first-year university experience an amazing one.

Student FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO UNLOCK YOUR TALENTS

FNU BURSARY SCHEME

The Fiji National University's Student Bursary Scheme provides financial assistance to local full-time private students who have enrolled into any undergraduate Bachelor's Degree programme or Postgraduate Studies programme at FNU in 2022/2023.

Who is eligible to apply?

Entry is open to all enrolled students at FNU who have paid the mandatory enrolment fees and enrolled in a bachelor's degree programme or a postgraduate programme with a full course load (60 credit points).

To be considered, the applicant must have applied to the Student Bursary Scheme and met the following conditions:

- ▶ Be a Fiji Citizen.
- ▶ Must be fully vaccinated (two doses).
- ▶ Must have obtained a high school passing mark (Year 13) and have a minimum of 60% pass in each subject aligned to the respective discipline.
- ▶ Continuing students to have obtained an average of B pass.
- ▶ Postgraduate students should have a minimum average GPA of 3.0 and above in their undergraduate degree programme.
- ▶ Must not receive any other scholarship at the time of application and during the study.
- ▶ Combined household salary of less than $30,000.
- ▶ Applicant should not have any disciplinary cases.
- ▶ Applicant should not have any outstanding fees or fines.

SCHOLARSHIP VALUE

$2000 Tuition Assistance
will be distributed in Semester 1 and Semester 2
to each student.

At Fiji National University, we recognise the importance of making high-quality education accessible to all. With this in mind, we provide the country's most affordable tuition fees and financial assistance to our students through scholarships and support packages. This enables our students to complete their studies effectively.

STUDENT FINANCIAL AID SCHEME

The FNU Council has a Student Financial Aid Scheme (SFAS) that supports the recruitment of quality performing students, to promote and reward academic excellence, and to allow students who are financially challenged but academically deserving to access higher education.

For further information please visit the link <https://www.fnu.ac.fj/study/student-support/financial-support/>

OPTIONS/ MODE OF PAYMENT

Flexible fee Payment Plan

FNU allows students to pay their tuition in whole or participate in a flexible fee payment plan with the University's Finance Office. Tuition payments may be postponed and divided into instalments to be paid on specified dates at the start of the semester, trimester, or quarter.

Payments must be made on time and in accordance with the University's payment agreement. The entire Payment Plan must be completed two weeks prior to the final exam. The obligation to make all payments under the Payment Plan does not necessarily end with the cancellation of registration.

For further information please visit the link
[https://www.fnu.ac.fj/study/
student-support/financial-support/](https://www.fnu.ac.fj/study/student-support/financial-support/)

The scholarship will be held by the student for a term of three years. To be eligible to continue to receive allocation in the second term, students must maintain a full course load, be enrolled and have an average of a B grade pass. The scholarship may be terminated if the student withdraws, has disciplinary issues, or does not meet the criteria.

THE OFFICE OF LEARNING AND TEACHING [OLT]

The Office of Learning and Teaching is developing its objective to undertake staff and student mobility through various exchange opportunities available at the regional and international levels. The OLT will ensure that effective policies and guidelines are in place to promote partnership development with key partners and enhance learning and teaching opportunities both locally and abroad. A more targeted and specific focus will be on partnership development, internship opportunities with overseas universities, governments, NGOs and funders to finance an internationalised student experience. This strategic partnership development will also ensure that FNU is recognised in both regional and international educational landscapes, with a greater focus on increasing regional representation and student enrolment.

Graduation

OVERVIEW OF GRADUATION

The Office of the Registrar's Graduation Unit works closely with the Colleges to plan all graduation ceremonies.

Every year, Fiji National University organises two graduation ceremonies for students. The ceremonies are usually held in January and August. FNU's graduation celebrations are unique in that each College has its own ceremony, making each event personal and distinguished, as the graduates rightfully deserve.

LIBRARY

At Fiji National University, the library is an essential place for students to study. We give access to specialised student services and physical and virtual places for teaching, learning, and research within the University. We offer approaches to improve educational and research opportunities that support interaction with the University and the larger community. The FNU Libraries are made up of the Nasinu Campus Main Library and various College libraries across the nation. Through services, collections, and inter-library cooperation that enable access to information and knowledge, our library staff work whole-heartedly to give students, staff, and alumni exceptional support in locating and accessing resources.

FNU's libraries complement the University's curriculum, learning, teaching, and research needs by constantly expanding its collection and ensuring high-quality service delivery. To equip you with information literacy skills, the University conducts campus-wide training sessions on issues such as navigating e-databases, browsing and acquiring information, proper referencing to avoid plagiarism and the capacity to maintain communication.

Tutoring is also available in the library, as these are ideal spaces where students can receive peer support with their queries as it provides a calm and quiet environment that enhances their learning experience.

FNU libraries provide our on-campus and online students with a positive learning environment, which in turn enhances their overall student journey.

<https://www.fnu.ac.fj/agriculture-forestry-fisheries/>

The College of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry (CAFF) is located at the Koronivia Campus and has plans to expand its programmes and facilities to the West and Vanua Levu in the near future. The College has two Schools and eight Departments, offering nine technical and vocational education and training (TVET) programmes, four bachelor, four Masters (coursework and research) programmes, and the Ph.D. in Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry. The College is strongly engaged in community activities, including stakeholder contract research.

We currently have students from the Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, Papua New Guinea, Kiribati and Tuvalu undertaking our programmes. There is a plan to develop the College into a forestry training hub for the Region.

NOTABLE MENTIONS

The College produced the first Veterinary graduates in the South Pacific Islands in 2019, with most of them already engaged in the industry. Our Alumni, stretching to the Fiji College of Agriculture days, are contributing to the development of the primary industries in Fiji and across the South Pacific Islands.

We have staff and student exchange agreements with partner institutions such as the Hungarian University of Agriculture and Life Sciences; Charles Sturt University, Australia, and the Arava Centre, Israel. We are developing new agreements with other institutions. This provides our students a chance to explore a foreign educational system.

Post-COVID, the interest in the primary industries has increased and we are supporting local producers at the individual level to enhance productivity.

The College of Humanities and Education (CHE) offers various programmes, from Certificates to PhD-level. There are many hands-on practical assignments and group-work activities for students to learn to apply their skills in real-world situations. The College has three schools.

The College is continually modifying and reviewing its courses to keep up with industry and community needs. To provide more accessible learning, the College offers options for online and blended learning.

NOTABLE MENTIONS

The Department of Language & Literature has developed a short English course on Certificate of Attainment in English Language Skills, designed to develop the ability to communicate and write confidently in English. The development of this course was requested by the Ministry of Education, Heritage and Arts and primarily targets in-service school teachers.

The College works closely with various stakeholders to engage the students with industrial attachment. For example, the School of Communication, Language and Literature works closely with representatives of the Fijian Media industry so that our undergraduate Media & Journalism students can get first-hand experience in their field. The Hairdressing Department and School of Education practice the same industry collaboration approach.

CHE prioritises recycling and environmental improvement schemes and works with staff and students to green the FNU campuses and enhance the natural environment of our local communities. The staff are also actively involved in Saweni Beach clean-up campaigns and the Golden Age Home in Natabua

fnu.ac.fj/college-of-medicine/](https://www.fnu.ac.fj/college-of-medicine/)

The College of Medicine, Nursing, and Health Sciences (CMNHS) was formed by the merger of two of Fiji's oldest health and medical institutions, the Fiji School of Medicine and the Fiji School of Nursing. CMNHS provides a one-of-a-kind learning experience with renowned instructors in a multi-cultural setting.

The College aspires to achieve academic excellence and cutting-edge research and remains committed to producing graduates who are highly skilled, introspective, ethical, compassionate, and adaptable leaders committed to improving health outcomes, particularly for Pacific people.

Our graduates are now Doctors, Nurses, Midwives, Pharmacists, Physiotherapists, Dieticians, Health Inspectors, Managers in Health Services, Dentists, Dental Hygienists, Radiographers, and Medical Laboratory Technicians, amongst others.

NOTABLE MENTIONS

Our College has a diverse blend of Fijian and Pacific students from Tonga, Samoa, Federated States of Micronesia, Tokelau, Tuvalu, Papua New Guinea, Vanuatu, Solomon Islands and East Timor, to name a few.

Our students continue to serve our communities by implementing projects in their individual practical-based courses. The College is committed to its vision of being the premier health education provider, workforce training and health research institution in Fiji and the Region.

The College of Engineering, Science, and Technology (CEST) is dedicated to assisting the nation's economic and social development by providing relevant, high-quality education and training and applied research with a beneficial societal impact. Engineers and scientists, with their ingenious and creative abilities, play critical roles in our increasingly complicated modern world.

The students are mentored by motivated academics eager to pass on their knowledge to the next generation. This implies that students are surrounded by people keen to test their intellectual limits and learn from one another. Our programmes have expanded significantly throughout time, but we've never lost sight of our primary goal: to prepare our graduates for highly successful professions.

The majority of the FNU campuses offer CEST programmes. The labs, facilities, spacious student rooms, and multidisciplinary learning places were all designed with our principles in mind. The College enjoys a multi-cultural environment since students and faculty members come from various countries and areas.

NOTABLE MENTION

The College understands how important it is for our programs to be internationally accredited and benchmarked. Engineering New Zealand (ENZ) is now pursuing international accreditation of the Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) programs in Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering, as well as related Diploma programs.

FNU has always been my first choice as the Engineering courses are both theory and practical components. I love the hands-on learning experience and versatile nature in which the TVET courses are offered at FNU.

The College's current focus is on its five strategic priorities of enhancing research, continuous learning and teaching innovation, enriching industry/stakeholder engagement, acquiring international accreditations, and building international links.

CBHTS offers various programmes ranging from Certificate to Ph.D. levels. Our graduates are employed in tourism, banking, finance, human resources, business management and many other work sectors.

The College continues to enjoy its accreditation and approvals from agencies like CPA Australia, the Board of Legal Education, and the Fiji Institute of Accountants. It is also working to obtain accreditation from other bodies like Charted Accountant Australia and New Zealand (CAANZ) and World Customs Organisation.

NOTABLE MENTIONS

At the learning and teaching front, CBHTS began its implementation of Assurance of Learning (AoL), which saw the first-year students receive effective learning services through enhanced learning and teaching approach.

CBHTS is also building international links by appointing many international academics as adjunct professors for research supervision and teaching and hosting international visiting scholars at the College.

FMA

FIJI MARITIME ACADEMY

Do you wish to pursue a career as a Seafarer,
Marine Engineer or a
Ship Captain?

<https://www.fnu.ac.fj/fiji-maritime-academy/>

FMA is the country's only maritime training institution and welcomes local and regional students.

The major goal of FMA's programmes is to provide Preparatory Courses for Seafarers to qualify for the Maritime Safety Authority of Fiji's (MSAF) Certificate of Competency (COC) examination. FMA also conducts all mandatory safety courses for seafarers working onboard vessels.

The Academy develops programmes in accordance with the International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification, and Watchkeeping for Seafarers (STCW), as amended, and syllabi recommended by the International Maritime Organization (IMO) Model Courses in order to meet international standards in seafarer training.

The Academy awards students a Diploma in either Nautical Science or Marine Engineering. Graduates then pursue a career as a Deck Officer or Engineer, starting as Class III Watchkeeper. If students have seatime on a foreign-going vessel over 3000 GT for deck officer and a 750kw engine capacity for Engineers, they can progress to Class I Management Level.

NATIONAL TRAINING AND PRODUCTIVITY CENTRE

Do you have a passion to work in a skillful and productive workforce?

<https://www.fnu.ac.fj/ntpc/>

The National Training and Productivity Centre (NTPC) is the leading organisation in providing skills training to the industries in Fiji. Offering more than 600 courses each year, NTPC aspires to deliver the right skills with right motivation, to continuously build a healthy and productive workforce that is competitive globally.

The training programmes offered by NTPC is ISO9001 compliant. This ensures that NTPC remains customer-focused and continually improves its training packages and related services to meet and exceed customer requirements.

The technical programmes offered at NTPC consists of 70 percent practical learning and 30 percent theory. Students are kept abreast of Fiji's industrial practices.

NTPC has over 20 years of experience in delivering international franchised qualifications in Fiji. This allows our graduates to gain superior recognition locally and in Australia and New Zealand.

NTPC continues to run successful skills training short courses and in-house skills training to suit the dynamic of Fiji's vibrant industries.

National Apprenticeship Training Scheme

The scheme aims to develop a more skilful Fijian workforce that delivers long-term benefits for our nation and international competitiveness. The Scheme is a tripartite agreement between the apprentice, employer and NTPC. The apprentices are monitored and trained by a competent personnel from the industry for three to four years. It allows the individual (apprentice) to be paid as employees while they learn on the job, and simultaneously study for academic awards on a part-time basis at the University.

The Apprenticeship Scheme is one of the most significant skills development programme in Fiji, and its contribution to national growth has been invaluable.

The Apprenticeship Scheme is an investment for employers to develop a robust pool of qualified talent, ultimately investing in business success. When companies have ready access to potential employees who possess the specialized skills necessary to succeed, they gain the ability to develop a workforce that will drive enhanced productivity, reliability, safety and quality.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS (SDGS)

The Fiji National University (FNU) is committed to achieving the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDGs) through its learning, teaching and research.

The SDGs aim to address 17 key global issues that are interconnected, many of which are relevant to the core operations of the University.

SDG Goal 4, which highlights the need for quality education, also aligns with the institution aim to be the premier national University providing quality and relevant higher education, technical and vocational education and training, research and development in Fiji.

As a testament to the University's commitment to Sustainability, FNU was ranked for the first time in the Times Higher Education (THE) 2022 Impact rankings that measure an institution's research, outreach, teaching and stewardship against the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). FNU was one of 1,525 institutions across 110 countries/regions worldwide to participate in the impact rankings for 2022. The Impact rankings measure how an institution's research, stewardship, outreach and teaching deliver against the UN SDGs – a blueprint to achieving a better and more sustainable future for all.

Below are several Goals achieved or addressed by FNU in various ways:

The Fiji National University's (FNU), College of Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences' (CMNHS) conducted waste management, health, and sanitation training with selected villagers through the Watershed Interventions for Systems Health (WISH) Fiji project. A multi-sectoral project, WISH is the first of its kind for Fiji, and is funded primarily by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade's Indo-Pacific Centre for Health Security. The funding was secured in 2018 by the University of Sydney, which has partnered with FNU in the delivery of this project. The three-day training at the Nataleira Eco Lodge consisted of about 70 participants from Matacula, Matacauau, Navunisole, Nakorovou, Davetalevu, Nakalawaca and Deepwater settlements from the Namalata district.

Eleven students from Fiji National University's (FNU) Fiji Maritime Academy (FMA) have found employment with Swire Shipping Pte Ltd. Headquartered in Singapore with local branch offices in Suva and Lautoka, Swire Shipping is a leading provider of specialist customer solutions for a wide range of cargo and aims to provide a full suite of land and ocean solutions to its customers. The Fijian students were selected from a group of 16 candidates who had to undergo an assessment with the shipping company.

The Fiji National University (FNU) signed a Workplace Experience Programme Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the national airline carrier, Fiji Airways. The partnership paves the way for FNU students to undertake on-the-job training with Fiji's national carrier as per the university's curriculum requirements. The agreement is aligned towards the University's Pillar One Education for Employability as outlined in the FNU Strategic Plan 2021-2026.

Twelve students from the Fiji National University's (FNU) College of Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences (CMNHS) were part of the Climate Change Simulation Conference in collaboration with the Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU). APRU is a non-profit network of about 60 universities in the Asia-Pacific, with the Secretariat based in Hong Kong. The APRU Student Global Climate Change Simulation is a role-playing exercise in which students will form multi-country, multidisciplinary teams to play the role of delegates to the UN Climate Change Negotiations.

As Fiji's national university, FNU provides holistic and relevant learning, with programmes undergoing regular review in consultation with industry partners and international higher education institutions to ensure it meets local and global standards.

FNU promotes gender equality and inclusion in our learning and teaching and encourage more women to study and excel in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) and other traditionally male-dominated fields of work. One such avenue of promoting this is through the University's National Apprenticeship Scheme under the National Training and Productivity entre (NTPC). Apprentice Afiel Alisha Khan is one such student challenging to break stereotypes and smash the glass ceiling. Khan works in a challenging environment that necessitates electrical skills as an Electrical Engineering (Fitter Mechanic) apprentice at Vatukoula Gold Mines Limited. According to the apprentice, women should not be afraid to apply for male-dominated jobs as times have changed and females have proven to be as capable as their male counterparts in all areas of work.

13 CLIMATE ACTION

Fiji National University (FNU) alumna Cema Olimaipa Talei is passionate about safeguarding and preserving our planet for future generations, hence she is encouraging more individuals to take a proactive role in advocating and combatting the impacts of climate change. Talei, a Bachelor of Civil Engineering graduate was part of the Yadrava na Vanua team that won the Space for Planet Earth Challenge, receiving a $42,000 grant to continue research on carbon sequestration – a process of capturing and storing atmospheric carbon dioxide that seeks to reduce the amount of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere. The goal of the Challenge was to use space technologies to find new and innovative solutions to address climate change issues in New Zealand, Australia, and the Pacific Islands.

FNU has also implemented various sustainability schemes to achieve its Environmental Sustainability objectives as part of the University Strategic Plan 2021-2026. The University has implemented the three Rs concept – reduce, reuse and recycling, to address its waste management process on campus. As the national institution, FNU strives to lead by example. This initiative is also aligned to our Sustainability Plan 2021-2026 and emphasises our commitment to this issue. We aim to incorporate greener measures in all aspects of our learning & teaching, and operations. Tree planting exercises were also held at various FNU campuses throughout the year.

15 LIFE ON LAND

There is a need to nurture more stewards who can protect and conserve the natural environment. These sentiments were expressed by the Fiji National University's (FNU) College of Agriculture and Fisheries and Forestry (CAFF) PhD scholar, Tiraon Taioti. Taioti is pursuing his PhD studies after securing a scholarship under the Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research (ACIAR) Pacific Agriculture Scholarship and Support – Climate Change (PASS-CR) program. Taioti is currently pursuing research on the Contribution of Agroforestry Towards Rural Livelihoods and Forest Restoration, which is part of a project led by Professor Helen Wallace of Griffith University in Australia.

HIGHER DEGREES BY RESEARCH

Since research and innovation are critical to Fiji National University's (FNU's) aspirations in knowledge creation and knowledge exchange as a regionally relevant and globally competitive University, FNU has targeted research with real-world impact as a key pillar of the 2021-2026 FNU strategic plan.

FNU offers higher degree by research (HDR) programs at the levels of Masters by Research and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) across all of the University's disciplines: 1) Health and Wellbeing; 2) Agriculture; 3) Computer Science and Artificial Intelligence; 4) Science, Engineering and Climate Change; 5) Education, Social Science, Arts and Humanities; 6) Business and Economics.

Given the global importance and significance of sustainability and a regional response to the climate emergency, FNU has targeted sustainability research with a particular focus on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs).

As an FNU HDR student, you will play a key role in driving the ambitious research agenda of the University. We welcome and look forward to your contributions.

Extra Information

The general minimum entry requirements include particular threshold marks and subject requirements. Quota based programmes are those where due to the nature of specialisation, limited places are available in a course or programme to accommodate the number of applicants. For such programmes, the number of admissions shall be controlled. This applies to College of Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences programmes, Certificate IV in Aircraft Engineering (Avionics and Mechanical Engineering), Diploma and Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) in the following majors: Civil, Electrical and Mechanical and Certificate III in Commercial Agriculture.

For all programmes, the University reserves the right to set threshold marks and subject requirements. This information shall be available from Colleges and Academic Office or link provided: <http://programmes.fnu.ac.fj/programmes/>

TVET Pasifika

FNU's TVET Pasifika brand draws on the collective strength and expertise of FNU's constituent units – its five academic colleges, the National Training and Productivity Centre, and the Fiji Maritime Academy – and embodies the FNU ethos of working closely with industries to provide education for employability.

TVET Pasifika provides a one-stop-shop where prospective students can browse, research and enrol into programmes at FNU that boost their employability and fulfil their personal and professional aspirations.

It offers students, employers and partners an incomparable choice of programmes, all designed to maximise employability, productivity and entrepreneurship.

Our facilities and equipment are benchmarked against international best practice, and our courses are achieving international accreditation.

TVET Pasifika is committed to supporting the post pandemic recovery in Fiji and across the Pacific.

Why TVET at FNU?

FNU has a successful track-record of delivering high-quality, industry-relevant technical and vocational education and training (TVET) in all disciplines and aligned to every major employment sector.

Our TVET teachers have real-world industry experience and the right academic qualifications to produce the best graduates.

TVET education at FNU provides individuals with skill sets for lifelong employability. TVET provides employers with a highly-skilled workforce needed to compete and succeed nationally and regionally and globally as well.

FNU TVET Alumni who were trained according to international requirements have secured employment around the world. Our Alumni have also become successful employers.

TVET Education at FNU provides the following benefits:

- ▶ Students are workforce-ready due to specialised skills set.
- ▶ Students attain practical experience in real work situations through the industry attachments.
- ▶ Students learn in a hands-on environment, as 70% of learning is practical-based.
- ▶ Students are able to join the workforce sooner as the course duration ranges from one-two years.
- ▶ TVET graduates have successful career opportunities locally and regionally.
- ▶ FNU TVET courses are cost-efficient due to subsidised tuition.
- ▶ The high demand for FNU TVET courses regionally provides opportunities for employment in Australia and New Zealand.
