choc on choc™

Lovingly handmade in Great Britain

Choc on Choc, a family-run chocolate business, was established in 2003 by Flo and her father, Kerr, who created handmade moulds to produce fun chocolate gifts. Realizing the potential of their product, they decided to differentiate themselves by introducing a layered chocolate technique, resulting in the birth of the company.

The company is located in Rode Village, close to Bath, and has assembled a team of chocolate experts around them. Kerr is in charge of creating the chocolate moulds from his design studio, while Flo handles the business side of things. Together, they continue to design the chocolates.

Choc on Choc takes pride in being a genuine British brand offering a unique selection of handmade chocolates. The company has grown on this foundation and continues to expand introducing new products on a regular basis.

100% Slave-free cocoa is only a dream until it's not. UP-UP is the world's first chocolate to be certified by NGO slavefreetrade.org. But they are more than a chocolate bar.

UP-UP is an idea. An idea that's surprisingly simple, but surprisingly rare. They make a chocolate bar that's cocoa is truly certified as slave free. Not self-certified, but by an independent organisation. slavefreetrade.org

By shining a light on every part of their supply chain, they know how people are treated, how they're paid. And they can be sure it's fair, it's honest. So, you can feel good when you unwrap a bar of their chocolate. Really, really good.

You should feel good about the chocolate you eat and those who help make it.

UP-UP is great chocolate. No downside.

In the world of chocolate, the industry norm is to purchase raw commodities from developing economies, cheaply, then immediately export before processing into couverture elsewhere. This approach means less jobs, less skills, and less local empowerment in the country of origin.

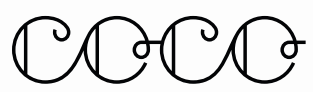

COCO is passionate about challenging industry norms. The making of its chocolate begins at origin before passionately transforming it in their seaside factory overlooking The Firth of Forth, just west of Edinburgh. As a result, more wealth remains within developing economies.

THE ART OF CHOCOLATE

Our founder, Gavin Cox, spent much of his younger years in the same place that all of our Cacao is lovingly grown; in South America. So when developing Cox&Co, he knew that to create the best tasting chocolate, above all else he had to use the best Cacao in the world, and it had to be produced as ethically as possible.

Working with business partners to develop not only the best flavour combinations, but also how to make this a bar of chocolate to feel good about, they decided to work with Casa Luker, an estate in Colombia. Casa Luker invests in their farmers, communities and has developed environmental farming methods, meaning that Gavin and Co could ensure all of their cacao was traceable and tasted incredible.

Who is Montezuma's? Helen and Simon fell in love as lawyers and left their jobs to travel South America. They camped on a cocoa plantation, ate lots of amazing chocolate and then had an idea! In 2000 they started Montezuma's Chocolates with a lovely shop in Brighton, hand making all the bars themselves. All using the best quality Ethical Cocoa sourced from plantations that meet their strict 'Trading Fairly Policy'. They opened a few more stores, started supplying some lovely shops and dreamt up endless chocolate creations! Their factory on the South coast grows and grows and they are well on their way to building 'Britain's Greatest Little Chocolate Company'.

The HAPPi brand is about great quality, healthier free from alternatives to popular indulgent treats and snacks.

All of our products are sustainably and ethically sourced and where possible packaged with the environment in mind, and ultimately TASTES GREAT.

The first range to launch is our HAPPi Oat Milk Chocolate bars and buttons. Made using single origin 47% Colombian cacao and oat milk powder, our lip smacking bars deliver an amazing smooth and creamy 'milk' chocolate mouthfeel but are 100% dairy free.

We buy our Cacao directly from farmers and growers with a full 'farm-to-bar' supply chain and make the bars in our own chocolate factory right here in the UK – so we know everything about our bars, including who grows our Cacao and who makes our bars and what they get paid. No child or slave labour here, guaranteed.

As well as being non-dairy, they are also free from gluten and soya, making them the perfect free from range. As we like to say, 'we've got all the Ooo without the Moo'

CHOCOLARDER

CRAFT CHOCOLATE MAKERS

Chocolarder is one of only a few independent bean-to-bar chocolate makers in Britain, begun by Mike Longman in 2011. Based in Cornwall, he produces fine quality, stone ground chocolate using organically grown beans from single estate, family owned plantations and just a handful of quality ingredients.

Sourcing with care, Mike buys cacao beans only from suppliers that guarantee fair prices for their growers and invest in their communities. His commitment to finding the best flavours from each new harvest is kept through small batch production and a range that changes with the season.

Doisy & Dam are the Willy Wonkas of plant-based chocolate. On a mission to prove that delicious chocolate can be made responsibly, they make a tasty range of sharing bags, gifting truffles, snack packs and bars. From melty-smooth dark chocolate and sea salt truffles wrapped in home compostable wrappers, through to crispy, crunchy chocolate covered peanuts, to rich, creamy nut butter cups, the whole Doisy & Dam range is Vegan Society certified, palm oil free, and made from ethically sourced cocoa and nothing artificial. Plus, from January 2022, all their packaging will be supermarket recyclable too. Founded by two best friends, Doisy & Dam is also a certified B Corp, a certification awarded to companies which meet the highest standards in social and environmental responsibility. Why? Because better ethics and better ingredients mean better (and Dam delicious) chocolate.

Super premium chocolate bars, crafted using cocoa sourced from remote volcanic islands.

Firetree Chocolate was founded in the UK by industry veterans David and Martyn, who understand that really good chocolate starts with the farmer and their families and finishes with a chocolate maker who understands that every single step of the process can shape the final mouth feel, aroma and taste of every bar. They're passionate about taste, provenance, cocoa pedigree, rarity, and their island farmers - who they know by name.

To create their rich volcanic chocolate, Firetree source all of their own cocoa from single estates on volcanic islands in the South Pacific - the ring of fire! The uniquely rich, porous soils create beans which yield a distinct depth and complexity and produce taste notes as unusual as truffles, mushrooms and walnut to honey, caramel and citrus.

OTHERLY®

OTHERLY is both a mindset and a place. It's the belief that differences and oddities should be celebrated. And OTHERLY have brought that belief to life in their fantastical world filled with bespoke characters, where no rule is followed, no logic can't be broken. And nothing is so perfect that it can't be tried another way. Bursting with possibility, activity, and harmony. This is what happens when everyone embraces their OTHERLY side and simply celebrates what makes them different.

There's the usual way of doing things. And then there's the other way. There's the straight road. Then there's that other path. You know the one. There's normal. And then there's "Hey, what about...?" We call it the OTHERLY way.

See most of those guys use cow's milk, we use oat. Yeah it's kinda unique... But we think it's our little differences and oddities that unite us.

How did i become a gourmet popcorn chef & connoisseur?

My love of popcorn began while taking regular trips to the USA, each time returning with flavoured popcorn as gifts for friends and family. Realising there was nothing quite like this in the UK, I wondered if I could make my own flavoured popcorn, but even better. I began by air-popping the corn and coating it in a smooth caramel made from fresh butter rather than what was the standard British way of popping it in an oil and sugar mix.

I then discovered that by using 100% natural ingredients and a unique "flavour-sequencing" process I could lock in flavours so that they flourished on the palate at different intervals as you're eating the popcorn. I took this further and created a range of exciting flavours, including savoury ones made from real cheese!

Honeycomb is a staple of the good old British traditional confectionery industry and one enjoyed by many a family generation gone by. The taste of slightly burnt toffee and smell of candy floss in cold fairgrounds is the basis of Yummycomb's unique 21st century products.

Only the finest Belgian chocolate is used to smother these delicious honeycomb selections and nothing, but 100% natural flavourings can make their way into these gluten free, vegetarian friendly, yummy treats.

YUMMA[®]

CANDY

Every business starts with a small idea. 2019 was the year our tiny seed was planted. Research, planning and taste-testing laid the foundations for something sweet that was to come. After brainstorming a multitude of names, logos and designs, Yumma Candy was born. Launching with our three OG products, Yumma Cups, Peachies and Coladas, the future was starting to look sweet.

After a string of successful market stall pop-ups across London, we found ourselves at the prestigious Old Spitalfields Market. Over the course of the summer season, we introduced the brand to locals and tourists alike, establishing a whole new customer base and proving the concept of Yumma Candy.

Peppersmith

Peppersmith makes epic tasting sugar free chewing gum, sweetened with 100% xylitol instead of sugar to keep teeth healthy. Co-founders Mike and Dan met at Innocent smoothies before starting out their own brand to challenge the conventional confectionery market which tended to be full of high sugar, low cost unhealthy stuff. 10 years on Peppersmith is still making amazing mints and gum which only use natural flavours and sweeteners, no aspartame and absolutely no animal derived junk making them suitable for vegans. Recently Peppersmith announced their gum as palm oil free, and they also removed all the plastic film from the outside of the little pocket packs.

REFRESHINGLY GOOD TREATS

OUR BESTSELLER

Milliways is a down-to-earth company creating out-of-this-world snacks. Two years ago, we discovered big brand chewing gum contained single-use plastic, so we took matters into our own hands and created our own Super Natural Gum. Made from eight plastic-free, plant-based ingredients, Milliways is biodegradable, so it breaks down like a piece of fruit, instead of living forever on earth as plastic waste. It's better for you, it's better for the planet and tastes as delicious as our packaging looks. Super Natural Gum is available in 4 flavours - Mighty Mint, Peppermint, Watermelon and Bubblemint.

PLASTIC FREE ♦ BIODEGRADABLE ♦ VEGAN ♦ PLANT POWERED ♦ SUGAR FREE

Chew on this!

Nuud is plant based, plastic free, biodegradable and sugar free chewing gum!

Did you know that regular chewing gum is a single-use plastic? Yep, just like plastic straws, bags and bottles, it will stick around to harm the planet. It's actually stuck to over 90% of urban paving stones in the UK and discarded gum often ends up in landfill or water systems, where it stays. For ever!

Nuud uses only plant based and plastic free ingredients including a sustainably harvested tree sap (instead of single-use plastic) making the gum completely biodegradable, just like a banana skin!

Nuud's plant based sweetener xylitol comes from the bark of birch and beech trees and is Oral Health Foundation approved to reduce tooth decay and can even help reverse the decay by helping to replace the minerals in tooth enamel.

OH MY GUM!

OH MY GUM! is chewing gum as it should be: plant-based, plastic-free, sugar-free and super-tasty. Taking chewing gum back to its plant-based roots by using chicle, a sustainably sourced tree sap, OMG! is biodegradable and therefore an eco-friendly alternative to mainstream chewing gum that is made with the same single-use plastic used to manufacture tyres and glue. Winners of both the Sustainable Food Awards 2021 and Great Taste Awards 2021, OMG! is sweetened with 100% plant-based tooth-friendly xylitol and is available in two natural flavours: a fresh mint and a spicy cinnamon. OMG! is packaged in chic, eye-catching and recyclable packets designed to be spill-proof and minimise waste.

The brand was launched by Londoner, Malak Ben-Hmeda, who wanted to create a stylish and sustainable plant-based chewing gum and bring exciting innovation to a stagnant category.

TRIBE was inspired by a 1,000 mile run across Eastern Europe which TRIBE founders, Guy, Rob and Tom, ran to fight human trafficking. Learning the importance of high-quality natural nutrition first-hand and seeing the lack of companies addressing that need, the co-founders quit their jobs and built TRIBE.

Fighting for freedom remains at the core of everything TRIBE do, with money from every sale donated to the TRIBE Freedom Foundation.

So far, £1.2 million has been raised, creating a life-changing impact for upwards of 700 survivors. TRIBE's mission it to lead a plant revolution and end modern slavery.

All TRIBE products are plant-based, gluten free, high protein and proudly made in the UK using high quality, minimal ingredients. Most importantly, they're absolutely delicious!

Tula Code champions the joy of optimal health. The brand's name, 'Tula', is derived from the Sanskrit word for 'balance' – a foundational element of good health that is echoed in both modern science and ancient wisdom. This principle asserts that any form of imbalance, whether in diet, physical activity, or emotional well-being, can lead to health challenges. Inspired by her Indian heritage, founder Monica Martini blends the traditions of Ayurveda and Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) with time-honoured ancestral practices. This fusion is at the core of Tula Code's 'whole-body-health' philosophy aimed at achieving a state of harmonious balance. The brand's delicious adaptogenic granola and functional mushroom chocolate barks exemplify this approach. Unique to the brand, every recipe combines six core nutritional principles: gluten and grain-free, vegan, no added sugars or seed oils, unprocessed, low carb, and rich in phytonutrients, ensuring a commitment to holistic well-being.

Another great brand that was discovered on a trip to Thailand by The Coconut Kitchen founders this time when they had just started their low carb journey.

These cookies are made from their favourite ingredient – Coconuts! They worked with the Keto Naturals to get the flavour just right and to bring a great tasting, Keto friendly snack to the UK market.

The wonders of coconuts never cease to amaze and these cookies are over 80% coconut and along with other simple ingredients, they are gently roasted and pressed into bite size biscuits serving up a solid dose of fat while remaining low carb.

1 in 4 people have digestive issues, but your gut is linked to so much more including the health of your heart, skin, brain and even your mental health and immunity. So given gut health is so important to health & wellbeing, why is information not readily available? And why are products confusing and expensive? The Gut Stuff was founded to change that.

While volunteering for Twin Research, twin sisters Alana & Lisa (former DJs The Mac Twins) became the 'chief guinea pigs' for medical research. They were jet propelled into a world of health and wellness, where they quickly realised how important the gut is to everyone, yet the information wasn't widely available. They founded The Gut Stuff to break down the science into digestible chunks, launching products so people have tasty, affordable options to live a good gut life!

How did i become a gourmet popcorn chef & connoisseur?

My love of popcorn began while taking regular trips to the USA, each time returning with flavoured popcorn as gifts for friends and family. Realising there was nothing quite like this in the UK, I wondered if I could make my own flavoured popcorn, but even better. I began by air-popping the corn and coating it in a smooth caramel made from fresh butter rather than what was the standard British way of popping it in an oil and sugar mix.

I then discovered that by using 100% natural ingredients and a unique "flavour-sequencing" process I could lock in flavours so that they flourished on the palate at different intervals as you're eating the popcorn. I took this further and created a range of exciting flavours, including savoury ones made from real cheese!

CAMBROOK
EXTRAORDINARY NUTS

Cambrook are specialists at baking, seasoning and caramelising the best grades of nuts perfect for retail, hospitality, travel etc.

The savoury nuts are baked (not fried), either for salting or for seasoning with an original recipe of spices, herbs and flavours. We have refined this process over the years to bake consistently to a roast level where it brings out the best flavour in each variety of nut.

The caramelised nuts are carefully heated with honey and sugar and gently tumbled in traditional continental roasting pans. It takes the best ingredients, skill and timing to create the perfect caramelised nut: golden, subtly sweet, crunchy and totally irresistible.

Cambrook packs are now recyclable and with sizes from individual 45g packets to 1kg bulk bags, Cambrook have a range to suit all requirements.

Taking The Pea is a range of delicious, crunchy coated peas in the nation's favourite flavours: Wasabi, Cheesy & Onion, Sweet Chilli and Smoked Ham.

Made with British grown marrowfat peas and flavoured with natural ingredients, free from GMO's and artificial additives, these snacks are high in fibre, less than 100kcal per 25g pack and a great source of plant protein. They have more protein than crisps and popcorn and less fat than nuts.

The range is available in two sizes – 125g sharing bags and 25g on-the-go pod packs – and the characters and recyclable packs have been designed to create an eye-catching, stand-out product on the shelf. All four flavours are vegan-friendly.

Taking the Pea is a brand with a cheeky, fun personality and a tasty, convenient, yet nutritious product.

5TH SEASON

5th Season is a range of delicious and healthy fruit snacks for adults and kids on the go. Many of us don't have time to prepare strawberries and pineapple (and it gets messy in the bottom of your bag!), but these guys have taken all of the hassle out of it for us - it's fruit without the fuss. Using the latest freeze-drying process, the fruit retain it's shape, colour, zesty flavour and most importantly over 90% of the nutrients.

At less than 50 calories per pack, 1 of your 5 a day, vegan, & 100% fruit – it's the closest you'll get to fresh fruit in a convenient snack pack. And for every pack bought money is given back to the farming communities in Eastern Africa through their charitable partnership. It's the perfect way to enjoy fruit on-the-go...or even add to cereal, yoghurt or smoothies!

Outrageously Good, Dried Fruit Snacks

The early days of pitta chip production started in Sophie's kitchen in Hackney by making pitta chips for friends as a party beer snack before dinner. As they were going down so well she wanted everyone to try, so she stencilled the Soffle design on paper bags and filled up trays walking the streets of East London. Popping up at private views and music events strapped up with a tray and a money box for donations.

The nation loves cheese. Crowd-pleasing at a dinner party. Delicious under the grill. But a convenient snack? Hardly. Until now.

Say hello to Cheesies.

Cheesies is a crunchy popped cheese snack which is changing the way consumers eat cheese. The brand is the creation of two ex-innocent employees, David Folkman and Craig Jones, who aim to tap into the growth of mini and snacking cheese, one of the fastest growing subcategories.

Cheesies allows cheese to be enjoyed by consumers, on the go, perfect for every snacking moment. Removing the constraints of cheese being kept in the fridge, Cheesies is bringing something new to the category.

With just one ingredient (cheese), Cheesies contain no carbs, are naturally high in protein, are vegetarian and also gluten free. A great alternative to crisps and popcorn.

It's cheese but not as you know it.

Mister Free'd are on a mission to free snack lovers from GMOs and food additives by offering tortilla chips that are both healthy and delicious. It is all about natural, carefully selected ingredients and the perfect crunch, without compromising on taste. Their tortilla chips are perfect for every occasion - nibble them in the garden with a BBQ spread or get creative in the kitchen with loaded nachos, salads, or tofu "nuggets".

The company was founded with a passion for healthy eating made convenient. Their co-founder, David, is a coeliac and lactose intolerant and knows how difficult it is to find tasty snacks that also meet his dietary requirements. David's personal challenges inspired them to create tortilla chips that are accessible to people with similar dietary needs. They keep their ingredients list clean and short, only including those foods you can pronounce.

The team uses an ancient Aztec process called nixtamalization - a three-day cooking process - which gives their products an authentic texture, taste and aroma. Their tortilla chips are naturally gluten free, vegan friendly and contain no preservatives. All their ingredients are verified as coming from sustainable sources. While the Blanco Niño Tortilleria is based in Ireland, they owe their existence to the extraordinary people and history of Mexico. SERIOUS PIG

On one of many lost evenings George Rice and Johnny Bradshaw found themselves pondering a question - what would be the perfect and most delicious snack to accompany the recently ordered pint of real ale AND glass of red Bordeaux while powering the boys through to a late dinner? Several discarded packets of crisps, scratchings and nuts later - the boys agreed that something more 'serious' was required and the concept of a 'Posh Pepperami' was hatched. 'Serious Pig' was born the very next day!

Snaffling Pig believe that glorious things happen when you embrace your carnivorous side, so they have set out to make awesome flavoured pork crackling in celebration of the noble porker.

They use their unique, bold flavourings- from a tangy Salt & Vinegar or spicy Habanero, through to a sweet/salty Maple, to show how versatile this much-loved, but often underestimated, snack really is.

Two Farmers

HAND-COOKED CRISPS

Founders Sean Mason and Mark Green successfully launched the UK's first sustainable crisp brand, Two Farmers, in 2018. With a plastic-free and 100% compostable crisp packet, the award-winning, eco-friendly brand now produces up to 20,000 packets of crisps each day, reducing the amount of plastic packets out there that can typically take decades to decompose. Derived from three layers of sustainable cellulose plus plant-based and biodegradable ink and glues, the Two Farmers packets take between 26 and 38 weeks to decompose under home-composting conditions, breaking down into water, carbon dioxide and biomass.

Along with a plastic-free packet, keeping food miles low was just as important. Homegrown ingredients are used as much as possible, with potatoes never travelling more than 2 miles before leaving the production unit as crisps.

In addition, Two Farmers source the best local ingredients to create six delicious flavours that celebrate Herefordshire. These include Hereford Bullshot, Salt & Cider Vinegar, Lightly Salted, Hereford Hop Cheese & Onion, Herefordshire Sausage and Mustard, and Woodland Mushroom and Wild Garlic. These flavours support local producers such as Droitwich Salt, Charles Martell & Son cheesemakers and Tjudes rare-breed pork.

Imported by CK Food and Drinks Ltd, the same people that make The Coconut Kitchen range of Thai Sauces and pastes, these amazingly delicious, savoury banana crisps are wafer thin and come in 3 great flavours. They're also GLUTEN FREE, VEGAN, have no trans fats, are low in sodium, low in sugar, use only natural flavourings and contain no MSG or artificial preservatives.

They are hand cooked using Non-GMO "hom thong" bananas, otherwise known as the golden fragrant bananas, the bananas are picked and are cooked on the same day and because we use the young, green banana they are naturally low in sugar and have a amazing crispy texture. 10% of Banana Joe profits go towards supporting Fairtrade, small scale agriculture in Thailand.

It was back in 1969 when Manuel and Angeles Torres started to make and sell their artisan crisps from a small food truck on the outskirts of Barcelona. More than 45 years later, Patatas Fritas Torres, whilst still very much a family company, continues to thrive and expand, supplying their handcooked crisps throughout the globe.

Unique flavours such as Black Truffle, Iberian Ham and Extra Virgin Olive Oil and the exceptional quality of each crisp, hold the key behind the success of range. This, along with stylish and contemporary branding, allow the Torres crisps to stand out from the more mainstream crisp and snack brands.

PATATAS TORRES

50 YEARS PERFECTING THE PERFECT CRISP

The Good Crisp company, one of the fastest growing better for you snacking brands in the US, is now available in the UK! The inspiration for creating the perfect crisp emerged in 2014 when founder, Matt, was following a strict gluten free diet. He found that although the diet was treating him well, he was really missing his favourite snacks.

The diet inspired him to recreate the classic canister crisp, making it something he could eat without the junk. Making healthy crisps with better ingredients was a challenge, but Matt also wanted his daughters to eat them as well. They couldn't just be natural. They had to be exceptionally tasty as well.

The award-winning range is available in 4 delicious flavours: Original, Sour Cream & Onion, Sea Salt & Vinegar and Smoky BBQ. The range is available in 160g take-home tubes and 45g impulse tubes for on-the-go.

BAKERY

A HANDY HISTORY OF ARTISAN BISCUITS

We still bake by hand, as we always have done.
These are the hands of Paul Hoskins, our Head Baker, for so many years.

OPENING TIME

Our Bakery began in Ashbourne, around 100 years ago. It was named 'The Green Dragon, a nod to the Green Man, the historic inn with the longest pub sign in the world, and we have handled fist-fulls of pints since then.

FROM GREEN MAN TO BLACK VAN MAN

Over the years, our bakery steadily grew in popularity and so we made deliveries throughout the Derbyshire Peak District.

THROUGH THE MILL AND ENTER THE MILLER'S

As we drove, we frequently passed the millstones that feed the grain through they eye and break the grains open. Those stones were to become our symbol and their purpose – milling – was to lead to our adopting Miller's as the public-facing name of Artisan Biscuits.

AND EVER UPWARDS

By the 1970's, we had climbed, hand over hand, to the heights of Harrod's.

Nothing Has Ever Been Hand-Me Down

We gather only the best ingredients; and we heap them together generously.

Our Hands Have Been Full

We cradle the dough before we bake it, so that we can feel that the texture is just as we want it to be.

We Have Always Been at Hand

We watch carefully as each tray is filled.

We Were Fixed on the Job in Hand

(When we were not smiling at the camera.)

And Today the Hands are Still on Show.
And the smiles are still there.

MILLER'S®
BAKED BY HAND
PEAK DISTRICT ENGLAND

YOU ARE IN GOOD HANDS.

Artisan Biscuits has its name because the words Artisan, Artesano, Artigianale mean 'made with skill and care' in any language.

The bakery is based in Ashbourne, a market town in the Derbyshire Dales and it is long-standing.

Baking began there around 100 years ago now, and, while the world has changed dramatically in that time, how they bake has not changed that much.

They use only the best quality ingredients, which they add with a generous hand; and they sift, weigh, mix and work the dough the old-fashioned way.

Trays are placed by hand on racks, and racks are wheeled into ovens where the temperature, humidity and air flow are adjusted by the bakers. Each bake is checked by their watchful eyes, and each batch is tasted to ensure that it is just right – just as it always was.

The Drinks Bakery creates award winning savoury 'Drinks Biscuits' that are expertly flavour profiled to match great drinks such as craft beer, fine wines, whisky and of course gin. Founded in 2017 by Andy Murray (not that one) who travelled Europe in a campervan with his foodie-obsessed family every summer as a child, eating in bars and brasseries and inspired by visiting amazing food markets. Aperitif in his family home was like their religion! He started baking at 10, was a decent cook by 14 and wine qualified by 19. He's since owned restaurants, gastro pubs and a wine business.

Andy continues to eat and drink his way around the world, fuelling his desire to create a more thoughtful link between the worlds of craft, premium drinks and the common snack.

He passionately believes that every great drink deserves a great snack.

FRESH FLOUR COMPANY

We mill and make all our own products. This process is unique in the UK. We make high quality everyday wheat based products; the only pasta maker to achieve two great taste awards, the only noodle maker to mill their own flour, the only cracker maker to mill their own flour, the best digestive maker (2 stars) and our bran flakes are to die for. I started the business after studying for an MSc in sustainable food systems, and wanting to halt the climate breakdown I started a wheat based business buying grain from UK organic farmers and paying them a fair amount for their work to make this aim an urgent reality. This level of payment enables farmers to then turn their focus away from survival towards soil health and biodiversity increases... In the future we will have an employee owned collaborative network of city mills, connecting farmers to communities once again...

Easy Bean is a small, innovative food producer based in Somerset with its own in-house gluten free bakery and led by Christina ... Queen of the Bean.

During her time working in tropical agriculture, she became fascinated by pulses (beans, peas & lentils), the diverse varieties, uses in global cuisine and the health benefits for us and for the environment. On her return to the UK and as a keen cook and foodie she began her mission to create new and interesting ways to enjoy pulses and to give them the culinary status that they deserve.

Easy Bean produce two ranges; Chickpea Crispbread, handmade using chickpea flour and locally sourced butter and buttermilk, topped with toasted seeds.

Maclean's

— HIGHLAND BAKERY —

At Maclean's Highland Bakery they have recipes going back over a 100 years, these recipes have been handed down from generation to generation of the Maclean family.

Over this time many things have changed but there are some things the Maclean family will not change: quality of ingredients, quality of the finished product, eating quality, and flavour.

These values are adhered to by not taking short cuts in the baking process. They are proud to say they don't do things the cheapest way, or even the quickest way, but the RIGHT way. Paying attention to the little things really do produce delicious results in the finished bakery products.

NAKSHA

Not an ordinary meal kit

Food, travel and art collide with innovative, ambient recipe kit start-up Naksha - a glimpse into why the concept is experiencing serious customer uptake Naksha was created by Nisha Ramisetty and Sam Williams during the 2020 lockdown. Since then, the brand has scaled internationally, earned listings in some of the world's most iconic retailers, won awards, and launched over a dozen new products. Fusing chef-designed off-the-beaten track food, artistic packaging, and a passion for adventure, Naksha is proving that gastronomic wow-factor is fully compatible with flexibility and convenience in the world of home cooking.

The lockdowns that struck in spring 2020 and 2021 involved three big deprivations. Borders closed, restaurants shut, and shops slashed capacity. A footloose population with a love for food was home-bound, with no option to eat out and limited opportunity to buy groceries.

The situation bred frustration. But it also inspired dreams. Naksha originated in this moment. The idea – to create gourmet recipe kits inspired by extraordinary places – answered an urge for adventure that was thwarted by Covid-19. For many people, the chief obstacles to eating well at home were compounded by the pandemic: a lack of inspiration, the inconvenience and potential wastage of shopping for specialist ingredients, limited time, or all three. The concept met these challenges. Today, two years on, it continues to excite home cooks with all levels of experience.

First, the recipes are curated into geographical collections that spotlight regional cuisines through the chef collaborations, hand-drawn art by up-and-coming local artists and authentic recipes. Extensive research is conducted so that the customer doesn't have to. The pilot collection covered the Indian Ocean and included dishes from Sri Lanka, the Maldives, Yemen, Kenya, Mauritius and India. Subsequent collections have included dishes from the Caribbean (Jamaica, Cuba and Grenada), the Middle East (Lebanon, Turkey and the UAE), and Singapore. The Singapore Collection was developed with the Singapore Tourism Board and involved a Michelin star chef and a top Singaporean artist designing the recipe and creating the packaging.

Second, each kit contains perfect portions of hand-crafted whole ingredients including organic spice mixes, pastes, pulses, noodles, rice, flour blends and other specialist items. Cooks using Naksha kits sidestep the costly and wasteful process of ordering large quantities of ingredients. The model is like standard meal kit delivery services, but with an important and beneficial difference: perishable items are not included. Equipped with a Naksha kit, a customer must buy minimal fresh add-ons (meat, vegetables or both – the choice is theirs) to complete the dish. Nothing perishable is locked in, and kits last at room-temperature for a year. They are also fully vegan-friendly, as it is up to the user whether to add meat or not as well as gluten-free.

Finally, they provide easy recipes with a 30-minute average cooking time. Esoteric recipes are simplified into a handful of straightforward steps and mixes. Complex and forbidding food is accessible even to busy professionals, harried parents, and those with limited cooking experience.

The recipe kits have a ready market. The value of meal kit companies is forecast to grow by many billions of dollars in the next five years as the "on-demand economy" comes into equilibrium with growing consumer consciousness of the origins, story, and sustainability of home-cooked food. Demand for "world food" is also soaring as consumers become comfortable with a wider range of flavours and seek to move beyond the traditional 'international' fare of Indian, Chinese and Mexican cuisines. Retailers and shops worldwide are proactively looking for ways to innovate their ranges and bring diverse flavours and ingredients to their increasingly experimentally minded customers.

Naksha occupies a sweet spot in the sector. They are ambient, can retail on normal shelves and complement items in stores. At the same time, the product is just as convenient - and certainly more flexible - than delivered meal kits. There are no pricey subscriptions, no awkward delivery slots, and no mouldering onions at the back of the fridge. And the adventurous recipes set them apart.

Arranged into regional collections, Naksha's recipe kits give customers an immersive cooking experience encompassing great flavours, thoughtful storytelling, stunning packaging, and simple cooking methodology. Naksha's kits instead bring to life dishes from countries including Cuba (Ropa Vieja), Singapore (Lemak Cili Padi), Turkey (Dark chocolate fondant with Turkish coffee), Jamaica (Curried Goat) and Lebanon (Milk chocolate blondies with Lebanese tahini); meeting demand for international food which is growing rapidly in the UK.

In summer 2020, when Nisha and Sam were living in the UAE, supermarket chains Spinneys and Waitrose UAE announced an incubator for exceptional food startups. The brand pitched the idea and won a place in the prestigious programme. In June 2023, Naksha launched in the UK. The range is now available in Whole Foods Market, whose emphasis on quality is legendary; as well as in Harrods and Selfridges, whose eye for taste and style is iconic. They are also retailing in John Lewis, Fenwick, Not On the High Street and at dozens of discerning independent retailers around the country. In October 2023, Naksha won a gold and silver award at the Great British Food Awards. The brand also focuses on local supply chains and manufactures locally in the UK.

The modern customer cares about food and enjoys the fun learning through cooking. Naksha facilitates this. The word "Naksha" means "map" in Sanskrit, expressing the spirit of adventure embodied by the range and products. Naksha believes that cooking and eating should be fun, illuminating and tell a story. With Naksha, true exploration requires nothing more than a kitchen.

SPOON

Annie Morris wanted a better breakfast. Dissatisfied with the same old options she roped in her brother-in-law Jonny Shimmin to help with testing some business ideas and recipes.

Recipes were devised and a lengthy period of testing and learning started. Two years later, having run their own granola kitchen unit, sold fresh breakfast pots to many thousands of customers at stations, festivals and markets and with a successful appearance on the BBC TV programme, Dragons' Den, they were on the road to success.

Spoon Cereals gives everyone a good reason to jump out of bed in the morning. They're on a mission to make breakfast better: better tasting, better for you, better for the planet.

All their recipes are made in small batches for a fresher tasting granola. What's more, they are high in fibre, gluten free and vegan.

The company is working to becoming carbon neutral and a registered Bcorp.

RISE

Rise was born of a desire to improve porridge as we know it. Rise has redefined what porridge could taste like, and has reimagined what a porridge brand can look and feel like.

Oats on their own are boring. So they've blended them with dates, coconut and chia seeds to create a base mix known as 'Blitzed Grain Porridge'. They've created three flavours for all occasions - 'Banana & Peanut Butter' (The active one); 'Dark Chocolate & Sea Salt' (The indulgent one); 'Apple & Cinnamon' (The classic one).

Rise is also a brand with wider goals than just creating the best porridge product on the market. It uses its platform to help those who can't sustain themselves with adequate food. They work with charities that aim to eliminate food poverty.

Daniel, founder of Epic Oats is a serious breakfast and health enthusiast who realised there was a gap in the market for a truly creative and healthy snack which doesn't have to compromise on quality. So he set about developing a range of healthy and nutritious breakfast and snack options that will satisfy your cravings and fuel your body with deliciously clean ingredients in three quintessentially British flavours.

Apart from the incredible health credentials, the products stand out from the crowd with a fun and innovative topper, creating exciting textures and adding more flavour intensity. Why be boring when you can be epic?

Situated in the heart of the French Alps, 1883 have been producing the premium syrups for over 125 years. Using only Pure Cane Sugar and natural ingredients, 1883 produce one of the world's most extensive range. Like mixology, syrup is an art. The art of creating, inspiring and sharing unique and intensely ephemeral flavours.

And like any respectful art, we want it to benefit from our highest standards and savoir-faire. We honour above all our artists, our bartenders and baristas around the world who, through their inventiveness and skill, give life to this idea of infinite creativity, constantly renewed.

Each syrup in the 1883 range is produced according to our unique requirements. From the selection of the finest ingredients, to the search for their accurate representation, including their power and undisputed intensity, nothing is left to chance to offer a syrup of consistent quality and perfect balance.

An exceptional syrup made to the highest of standards.

Truth be told Tidy Tea has a history of producing awesome drinks – you could say they have been brought up on it! They would deliver milk straight from their own cows around the Lampeter area – the time when milk bottles could be recycled and the delivery van was electric!

As farmers they never set out to start their own company. It just seemed the natural progression from their passions; working with the land and with nature – not against it; passion for sustainable production systems and of course a Tidy cup of tea that gives farmers a fair price.

They have developed a lush range of tea blends, all packaging is compostable with individual pyramids both Plastic & GMO Free, all with the aim of ensuring a sustainable future for the next generation of tea lovers.

They are proud of what they have developed and hopefully you will be equally impressed. Be social and join them on their adventure #WeDoTea.

NEW

Our JP's story begins with Hanumanbux Kanoi, my great grandfather. A keen agriculturist, Hanumanbux helped pioneer the technique of planting tea by hand in India earning him the highest civilian order, the Padma Shri in 1965 for his outstanding contribution to trade and industry. It was here that the seed to the family tea legacy was planted which would go on to be passed down through the generations.

JP's ORIGINALS

As well as the prestigious tea gardens, Hanumanbux passed on his knowledge and zeal for cultivating tea. Like his father, my grandfather JP was a perfectionist, known for being extremely particular, especially when it came to his tea! Always hands-on when it came to managing quality, he dedicated his life to the gardens in Assam, India.

This passion, knowledge and quest for the perfect cup of tea has been passed down to me which has inspired this range of teas and infusions – all in honour of JP.

My name is Annabel Makin-Jones, I am a wife to my husband Chris and mother to my children Oscar and Jemima I have been running our family business on the outskirts of Leeds since 2004, not only am I a business woman but I am also a farmer, dedicated to producing the best Great Britain has to offer. I was involved with various farming enterprises throughout my younger years, from lambing to grading potatoes, and I am passionate about the British food industry.

We have been growing strawberries on the family farm for over 16 years and Annabel's Deliciously British was born when I established a clear gap in the market for a high quality, socially responsible brand in 2019.

Sustainable, environmentally friendly farming has been at the heart of our business for years, and embracing the wonky fruit that doesn't make it into our punnets not only adds an intensely fruity flavour to our jam and chutney, but also brings us towards zero-waste.

THEN & NOW

London Borough of Jam was established in 2011 by former pastry chef Lillie O'Brien. LBJ Jams & Marmalades are made in small batches and cooked for a shorter time than other brands, producing an honest, unadulterated flavour that is fruit driven rather than sugar driven. We use natural unrefined sugars and no commercial pectin's. LBJ adds some distinctive additions such as Bay Leaves, Cardamom & Hibiscus Flowers to enhance the fruit flavours which maintains natural, respectful combinations. Deluxe Jam at its best.

ENGLAND PRESERVES

Just a single spoonful of England Preserves, Strawberry days jam can set you on a dreamy reverie through the berry-rich fields and fragrance-filled kitchens of your past. They make all their preserves with the traditional domestic kitchen in mind, cooking locally-sourced fruit gently by hand to retain its flavour and colour for brighter, bolder jams.

Since beginning their business in 2001, England Preserves artisan jams have found their way from local farmers' market to premium retailer shelves to gourmet restaurant menus. They still make their jams by hand in Bermondsey, lovingly crafting the perfect collection of conserves for both scones, toast and cheese boards.

Nicola started Single Variety Co back in 2016 determined to make the very best tasting fruit preserves and chilli jams.

All of their products showcase just one single variety. The fruit and chillies are sourced directly from the farm, choosing the best tasting varieties for each jam. Then they are cooked in small batches for as short a time as possible to create the freshest and tastiest flavour.

A great addition to your shelves, once your customers try these jams they keep coming back for more!

the bit on the side®

It's a tasty affair

Produced in a small hamlet in Somerset The Bit on the Side is very pleased to be supplying a well-respected distributor in the same county.

There are 33 products in the range.
Somerset, UK

The Bit on the Side range of preserves was introduced in 2005. It is a wholly owned subsidiary of our mother brand Rose Farm.

Despite having a very successful brand Rose Farm, which has been making preserves for over 30 years, we felt that there was a niche in the market for a more contemporary preserve range incorporating some interesting flavour combinations. Whilst still being part of a family owned and still operated business.

All products are made by hand in open pans. No additives of colours or bleaching agents are used in the making of the products. No nasties just nice stuff.

The range was revamped in 2022 to streamline and modernise the brand. The clear labels show up the natural product and the fruit and vegetable pieces within. The new jar shape has also proved very popular.

Riza

Riza is a women-led business founded in 2018, in Athens, Greece.

Riza works to identify the rarest Greek products, and partner with the best local artisans, in order to deliver the highest-quality experience to their clients. They don't cut corners, and never settle for anything less than the best. Sustainability isn't a goal for Riza, it's a given. All of their products are crafted in small-batches, by local families, using traditional harvesting practices.

None of their products have any additives, chemicals or preservatives and none of our products are genetically modified or raised in simulated environments. Their products are harvested in remote regions in Greece, with respect to the environment and only use natural handling processes to limit their impact to our ecosystem.

Black Bee Honey is named after the British honey bee, which after nearly dying out, are slowly making a comeback. Each variety is single-source and British, supporting both our bees and their keepers. And when it comes to the honey, the mantra is 'the bees know best'. Once the honey is selected it's left well alone. Just like your favourite local honey, any impurities are simply filtered and the honey is jarred. Just as the bees intended.

Founders Chris & Paul met in an office 15 years ago, but their interest in beekeeping led them to London's rooftops and gardens where they cared for over a million bees. It was a life changing experience but they weren't content. In fact they were annoyed. Annoyed with all the tasteless honey they found on supermarket shelves. They wanted to share their love of honey straight from the hive with everyone, so Black Bee Honey was born.

Susan Yule started Hungry Squirrel in May 2017 from her home kitchen in Aberdeen after becoming intolerant to peanut butter and finding the alternative nut butters available on the supermarket shelves uninspiring. She wanted to provide her family with a nutritious spread that was not full of refined sugar and palm oil. Now in commercial premises, Susan produces a range of innovatively flavoured nut butters which are both healthy and delicious, plant based, suitable for vegans, are naturally gluten free and above all...

full of flavour! There is something for everyone and being such a versatile food product enables lots of opportunities for creating different recipes in cooking, baking or straight from the jar.

Pic's REALLY GOOD PEANUT BUTTER

TO DIVERSE

Established in 2007 and made in New Zealand. Pic's was created from the idea of making traditional great tasting peanut butter without all the nasty stuff added. We started as a small stall at the local farmers market in sunny Nelson and have grown to be the #1 selling/best-loved peanut butter in Australasia.

What sets us apart from other peanut butters is the fact that we use the highest quality, Australian grown Hi-Oleic peanuts, with no other weird junk added like sugar, palm oil, preservatives or emulsifiers.

Pic's is an expertly crafted and fresh roasted Peanut Butter that's premium, natural and has health benefits that no other peanut butter can offer. The Hi-Oleic peanuts offer vitamins, healthy acids, less saturated fats and the highest protein levels available in a peanut... which is just one of the many reasons why it tastes so bloody good and won so many awards.

Since the last century, Willem & Sara Maters have resided in the beautiful south Cambridgeshire countryside on a small holding with their own beehives, livestock and a wide range of organic fruit and vegetables. Their daughter Kate inherited this passion for healthy and natural living and decided to take this lifestyle beyond her family and children, and so, Maters and Co was founded upon these principles of raw, natural goodness of the highest quality.

We use glass jars as they are infinitely recyclable, use less energy in manufacturing and contain no chemicals that can leach into food. Our jars are branded with 22 carat gold and organic inks which are fired on at 580°C. Our labels and boxes are hot foiled with gold to compliment these jars for a superior finish.

We founded The Scottish Bee Company in 2017 with an aim to help the environment through tasty foods.

We started by giving bees to beefarmers across Scotland as there was no funding available to them. We increased bee numbers by 23 million and quickly learned of the many more types of pollinators that need our help.

This led us to starting our sister charity, Repollinate.org.uk. 10p from every unit goes to this charity that aims to increase pollination through education programmes and wildflower projects.

We've achieved multiple awards for our honey, the first ever BSI Kitemark for food provenance and are working hard to tackle the problem of honey fraud globally.

We will always be a business with the environment and people in mind. We only use recycled or recyclable packaging. We source ethical ingredients and we always strive to learn more and be our best in all of these areas.

AWARD WINNING PRESERVES & CONDIMENTS THAT KEEP YOUR CUSTOMERS COMING BACK

Preserving what's good since 1971.

The Driver family can trace their roots back to the mid 19th century, when they first started serving the local community with a grocery shop in the market town of Ibstock, then later in City of Leicester.

The family started producing pickles to sell in its shops around 1902 and the demand was such, that in 1906, Frederick Charles Driver established Driver's Pickle and Vinegar Company. Its main business centred around Pickled Onions and Malt Vinegar selling to local fishmongers and other grocery shops in and around Leicester.

GRAHAM'S have created a range of award winning mustards, and horseradish sauces.

GRAHAM'S Wholegrain Mustard is made from a combination of brown and yellow mustard seeds. All ingredients are carefully selected for their different qualities, with each adding to the sophisticated flavour.

3 Great Taste stars have proclaimed GRAHAM'S horseradish the best in the land. With each jar packed full of grated horseradish this is a great accompaniment for fish and meat alike.

GRAHAM'S Dijon Mustard won a silver medal at the World Mustard Awards in Nappa Valley, California. A potent Dijon mustard, it was commended for its kick and subtlety of flavours in the finish.

GRAHAM'S No. 4, already a Great Taste winner, is a brand new sauce with a great balance of fresh thyme, fragrant spices, and mustard. A sauce that dares to go where other mustards couldn't, No. 4 goes exceptionally well with lamb, roast chicken, and all things BBQ'd.

Forty years ago from the quaint, cosiness of our Toronto asian grocery store, we started making samosas for our customers. Delighted by the homemade and delicious flavours, before we knew it customers were ordering them in their hundreds for parties!

Returning to the UK in the 80's and fast forward to the present day and we've gone from making fresh samosas for our friends, family and customers in our Cardiff store to having a purpose-built samosa factory where the attention to detail and quality of ingredients are sustained by our commitment to ensuring our products have the authenticity and homemade flavours they did from our humble Toronto beginnings.

BOOM kitchen®

Introducing Boom Kitchen's award winning range of craft curry kits. Kits contain 3-4 building blocks of curry flavour including: stocks, spice blends, coconut and dried chillis. If you're not a confident cook their irreverent instructions hold your hand and insist you crack open a beer while you prep and cook in under 30 minutes. BUT you needn't follow the instructions. In fact the boys at Boom Kitchen® positively encourage you to go off piste, or abandon them altogether. Shred the instructions, stick them in the blender with lime juice and chillies and you've just made a fibrous side and inadvertently joined the craft curry revolution.

Ambient. GF. Vegan friendly. No additives or preservatives. Zero sugar & salt (added to taste by the curry curator).

The Coconut Kitchen started with a catering trailer in the seaside town of Abersoch, N Wales in 2006 with Head Chef Preechaya's passion to give people good quality Thai food. Following the success of the food trailer, in 2007 they moved to a 40 seater restaurant.

The restaurant proved so popular the tourists wanted to take the food back to their respective home towns across England and Wales. So in 2013 they launched their own sauces and curry pastes with the aim of the products being of such a high quality that their customers could re-create their restaurant dishes at home.

It proved a great success and they now have 5 Great taste awards and coupled with that the restaurant was also voted "Best Oriental Establishment in Wales" at the Food Award Wales in 2015 and 2016!

Take 4 sisters from Gujarat with a serious talent for making curry sauces, and throw in one of the UK's original street food truckers with a penchant for big flavour....and what do you get?

You get Swaadish, a six-strong range of deliciously vibrant, versatile, fast-to-cook curry sauces, four of which have Great Taste Awards. The word 'Swaadish' means 'tasty'. Just add vegetables, meat, fish, or tofu; stir for a few mins, and serve. Use as marinades for the BBQ, dip your chips into them or spread them on your toasties. They're good for vegans, are gluten free, contain zero nasties, and are a great way to use up leftovers. Made in small batches to ensure quality. This is craft curry.

Owner, Jez Felwick, aka The Bowler, burst onto the street food scene 10 years ago with his eye-catching grass-covered truck and brilliant meatball offering. Since then he's had book deals, fancy clients, TV and festival appearances. Meanwhile, four Gujarati sisters, Varsha, Shrila, Nisha and Munni were quietly making waves with their curry sauces, but were thinking about giving up...Jez was already addicted to the sauces so came on board to lead the spice resurgence.

The only growers of wasabi in the UK, The Wasabi Company offer a truly original range of condiments and sauces that blend the traditional with the exotic. Awarded 13 Great Taste Gold Stars, including two winners of the coveted 3 Gold Stars, this range has exploded onto the scene and is bang on trend with bold umami and original citrus flavours. Leading the pack are the only mayonnaise and mustard in the world made with freshly grated English wasabi. A family business happily growing watercress they took the decision to diversify in a radical way when they discovered wasabi had never before been grown in Europe. Specially adapted Victorian watercress beds on their Dorset and Hampshire farms run with mineral rich spring water where the wasabi thrives, until hand harvested and finely grated to deliver the rich, floral and pungent flavour of real wasabi.

See our spirits section for their latest launch – Wasabi Vodka! – with real English wasabi.

BETTER TASTING RICE

BETTER FOR THE PLANET

BETTER WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

We are an Eco Friendly Rice Company Brand, that strongly believes in reducing plastic waste and pollution on our planet. Hence all our rice is packaged in Brown recyclable Paper Bags.

We source rice from single estate farms that we know, and that share our love of keeping it 'real' and doing things right. One of the farms we work with is Aslam Farm Kamala Village, Gujrat, Pakistan. We learnt so much about the region and their farming heritage. Traditional farming has been at the heart of the Gujrat region for centuries, sustaining generations of farming communities. Aslam Farm is a family estate, they live, work, eat and do everything together, a shared sense of achievement – and we think this is one of the many reasons the quality of their rice is so high.

Made with wind, sea and thorns on the West Coast of Scotland, organically approved Blackthorn Salt is the ultimate transformative ingredient for today's kitchen. Mineral-rich, poignant and bittersweet, with a taste echoing sea, Blackthorn Salt enhances the flavours of any dish.

Blackthorn Salt has revived salt making in the area in an incredibly beautiful, sustainable and innovative way. Pure West Coast seawater is gathered and evaporated on the world's only working Thorn Tower. The concentrated liquid is further reduced in the Pan House, where the Salters draw off beautiful mineral rich sea salt crystals. The result is a sustainable and natural salt which tastes of the sea, but also has a deeper mellow sweetness that elevates flavours on the plate.

Acclaimed by the Scotland's National Chef as being by far the best salt he has ever used, multiple award-winning Blackthorn is rightly proud of its methods and unique taste.

Founded in 2017, the Dorset Sea Salt Company is a brand new start up company, supported by the Princes Trust. Helmed by Jethro, an obsessed sea salt fanatic. After reading about the historic and cultural relevance of salt production in Dorset, Jethro pondered how and why this local industry had vanished.

This idea affected him so immensely that he began to conceptualize, and envisage the revival of Dorset's local Sea Salt scene. Each small, treasure-like batch of sea salt they create takes devotion, care and love.

The DSSC value the human element of production, this is the only way they ensure a gourmet sea salt. Every stage of the production process is finely monitored and scrutinized, even though this can sometimes be slow, they hold strong the belief perfection cannot be hurried. Everything the Dorset sea salt company does is grounded in craftsmanship, locality, and quality.

sozyë

Your modern saucier, Sozyë, is the brainchild of our founder Jacob Thundil, who was on his own journey in trying to find kind and healthy alternatives without compromising on taste.

Finding limited options in the market, he used his experience and passion for food and innovation, he took it upon himself to create a range of allergen-free, sustainably-brewed, tasty sauces.

"While experimenting to make a vegetarian stock, the savoury notes from a particular Scottish seaweed reminded me of fermented soya.

This led me to carry out hundreds of kitchen trials to perfect the world's first British-made soya sauce alternative.

I am very happy with the results and hope you will support our mission to brew delicious sauces which are kind to the planet and to you" Jacob Thundil, Founder – Sozyë.

These high-quality heirloom beans are slow-cooked to perfection with a pinch of salt to bring out their natural flavour. Delightfully creamy and tender – they’re a true staple ingredient for any modern pantry.

Founder Amelia, whose love affair with beans began as a student in Spain, spent four years working with top London chefs in the sustainable food sector. This gave her an insight into how epic beans are for their environmental benefits and how versatile they are in the kitchen. They’re on a mission to make you obsessed with beans, and the number of inspiring recipes they continuously share on their instagram, followed by a devout community of “Bean Champs” helps this further. A great brand to stock for health-conscious foodies and sustainability focused customers.

eaten ALIVE

RAW FERMENTED FOODS

Eaten Alive is the product of two chefs who bonded over a shared passion for fermentation. Glyn and Pat spent 20 years in some of the country's best restaurants before working on an idea that revolved around fermentation, preservation and experimentation. Chasing new and exciting flavours, their vegetable ferments were being snapped up by restaurants and it soon became clear that they were onto something special.

Liberty Fields specialises in premium small batch products, made with apples grown in their Dorset orchards.

They began by producing the only British Apple Balsamic Vinegar to be made in the traditional Italian method (matured for 6 years in oak barrels).

Liberty Fields Dessert Cider (7%) is rich and full-bodied, the perfect partner to a plate of English cheese or pudding, and wonderful mixed to make a longer drink.

Porter's Perfection Vodka (40%) is made by blending the juice of heritage apples from the orchards with wheat grain spirit before distilling, then adding local spring water and botanicals. Subtly flavoured and creamily smooth, it is perfect over ice, with a good tonic or in cocktails.

The most recent addition to the range is Apple Syrup, Dorset's answer to maple syrup, with no added sugar or sulphites. Delicious on porridge, yoghurt or drizzled over ice-cream or pancakes.

Wild Island was set up in 2011 by Nuala Grandcourt to create delicious dressings using the best ingredients available to her on the Isle of Wight. With locally grown and cold pressed rapeseed oil as the base for many of their dressings, infused oils and marinades. They infuse whole fruits in to their vinegars and balsamics for several weeks to create an indulgent ingredient which is so good to marinade meat or fish, deglaze roasting pans, drizzle over salads or simply for dipping with fresh warm bread and chilli oil.

Built on an unwavering commitment to 100% organic, more sustainably sourced food, Biona started life around a kitchen table in London in 1992.

Organic pioneers Noel and Donata began experimenting with simple homemade granola, which they packed and sold in their pioneering organic shop, Windmill Wholefoods. It was so popular, they quickly outgrew their kitchen table and Biona was born.

Today, Biona's range has grown to over 500 organic products. Yet, their mission to create a healthier future for people and the planet, through providing delicious organic food, remains as strong as ever.

Biona's products are naturally grown on organic farms without the use of harmful chemicals and pesticides; this not only results in great tasting food but also protects the environment for future generations.

PASTIFICIO LIGUORI

Pastificio Liguori is one of the oldest pasta producers in Italy, its origins date back to 1795 in the hometown of Pasta (Gragnano). Liguori was the first pasta producer to obtain P.G.I. Certification.

Slow Drying at low temperature ensures that the pasta preserves its colour, scent, nutritional value and the taste of wheat. The traditional bronze dies give the pasta a rough surface that catches the sauce and enhances its flavour.

FRESH FLOUR COMPANY

We mill and make all our own products. This process is unique in the UK. We make high quality everyday wheat based products; the only pasta maker to achieve two great taste awards, the only noodle maker to mill their own flour, the only cracker maker to mill their own flour, the best digestive maker (2 stars) and our bran flakes are to die for... I started the business after studying for an MSc in sustainable food systems, and wanting to halt the climate breakdown I started a wheat based business buying grain from UK organic farmers and paying them a fair amount for their work to make this aim an urgent reality. This level of payment enables farmers to then turn their focus away from survival towards soil health and biodiversity increases... In the future we will have an employee owned collaborative network of city mills, connecting farmers to communities once again...

David and Peri met in Roma Ciampino Airport in 1985 and discovered a common passion for holistic wellbeing, sustainable agriculture and Italian food.

Within a few years they launched a small batch of premium Lunao Extra Virgin Olive Oil, produced on their Southern Tuscan farm, and began searching the country for other speciality producers who shared their enthusiasm for real, artisanal Italian food.

What makes our brand different?

Every single one of our products is from a specialist, innovative producer, who uses higher quality ingredients and production methods than any other maker we've found in Italy, resulting in what we're confident is the most delicious, authentic range of Italian food on the market.

Italians identify strongly with their local, regional foods and we like to think that it took us impassioned and dedicated outsiders to see the bigger picture and select the best of the best from all over Italy's wildly rich landscape and culinary heritage.

Over 30 years on, we source all over Italy, from artisan pioneers who make truly delicious food, with simple, clean ingredients.

Miniml: Natural & Zero Waste Cleaning, Laundry & Personal Care Products

Hey, lovely readers! Picture this: a world where clean homes and a clean planet go hand in hand without the hefty price tag. Sounds good, right? Well, get a load of this: Miniml is pioneering green chemistry right here in the UK and supplies over 3,000 independent health food, farm shop, and wholefood stores across the UK. It all started in 2020 when Emma and Scott were refilling their cleaning products from their local health food store. They realised that the container they were refilling from was simply being recycled.

Determined to make a change, they took matters into their own hands, developing formulations in their kitchen and scaling up production in their garage using a 200L drum and a paint mixer. They began selling their own product to the same health food store and took back the empty containers to clean and reuse. Fast forward 3 years, and they now manufacture over half a million litres a month from their state-of-the-art factory in the Yorkshire Dales.

Natural + Sustainable Ingredients

At Miniml, they're firm believers that it's what's on the inside that truly counts. They carefully select their ingredients with the environment in mind, aiming for 'miniml' impact. All their formulations proudly wear the badges of Vegan, Cruelty-Free, and Sulphate-Free, because, let's face it, kindness to the planet and its creatures is just the Miniml way. They're not just cleaning; they're pioneering green chemistry, and the journey doesn't stop there. They're constantly tweaking and tinkering, always on the lookout to make their products even better. Because at Miniml, they're not just passionate about cleaning – they're passionate about cleaning up their act for a greener, happier planet.

Powered by Essential Oils

Unleash the power as you spray, wipe, and conquer grime, transforming your space into a sanctuary of freshness. It's not just cleaning; it's miniml's signature blend of effectiveness and delight, all wrapped up in eco-friendly goodness. Embrace the power of nature, where every spray is a step towards a cleaner, happier home powered by the essence of essential oils. Get ready to elevate your cleaning game with miniml – because clean should smell like a breath of fresh air.

Reusable Packaging – Zero Single Use Plastic!

Yep, you heard it right – zero single-use plastic. At Miniml, they have designed an infinitely reusable packaging process designed to combat plastic waste at every stage of the supply chain. Their refill containers are designed to be returned to Miniml HQ to be cleaned and re-used again and again...and again!

SPRUCE

Spruce is an award-winning ethical homeware brand on a mission to end single-use plastic and toxic indoor air pollution. Their range of single-use plastic-free refillable cleaning products are made with non-toxic, ethically sourced ingredients and organic essential oils. Developed by scientists to be highly effective against mess without the need for harsh chemicals.

Founder Mahira was inspired to launch the brand after a decade-long journey with health and fertility concerns. While attempting to cut toxins out of her life and take care of her health holistically, she realised that we unknowingly inhale and ingest toxic chemicals and microplastics from so many of our everyday products. Not to mention the staggering plastic waste created.

The female-founded B Corp makes choosing the eco-friendly, ethical, and safe option hassle-free. Get your aluminium eternity bottles once and then you can refill endlessly at home with plastic-free concentrated cleaning refills and water from your tap.

SHOWER BLOCKS®

Do a solid for your skin and the planet.

At the end of 2019 Neil started to feel frustrated at the number of plastic bottles he was getting through in the shower. On average each person uses 10-14 bottles of gel a year.

That doesn't sound too much when you just look at your own little pile, but imagine what that pile looks like through your immediate family, then your street, your city... and then the whole of the UK. Unfathomable, right?

NEW

He tried to find a suitable plastic free option that was both plastic and fuff-free and was met with drying soap bars and frustrating refillables... and so, after a whole lot of testing, SHOWER BLOCKS was born.

SHOWER BLOCKS are bubbly, hydrating and totally plastic free alternatives to shower gel, here to remove single use plastics from showers all over the UK.

PÄRLA

LIFESTYLE // 228

Our journey began with a simple question: How can we contribute to a healthier planet while promoting excellent oral health? The answer lies in our revolutionary toothpaste tablets – an eco-friendly alternative to traditional toothpaste that allows you to smile with confidence, knowing you’re making a positive impact on the environment.

Through harnessing the latest science and technology we aim to set a new standard in sustainability and wellness for all.

Toothpaste should protect people’s smiles – without harming the environment or those who depend upon it. Our plan is to radically transform what we use to clean our teeth. By making one #onesmallchange in what we use to clean our teeth, we can protect the future – for us, for the animals, for the ocean and for our planet. We founded PÄRLA, having learnt a lot about the science behind dental care.

...FOR THE CONSCIOUS CONSUMER

LiveCoco was created to stop needless plastic entering our beautiful oceans. The oral care industry creates thousands of tonnes of plastic every year and based on studies, 91% of plastic is not recycled. This means that literally thousands of tonnes of plastic are polluting our delicate eco-system. They could not sit idly by and watch this happen.

They started by creating their Recyclable Brush Head because your Electric Toothbrush Heads are not recyclable via your local recycling system. No matter the colour of them. Shocking, I know! Common recycling systems are simply not setup to do the job. They don't have the expertise nor the inclination. After much R&D, they created their own Closed-Loop Recycling system.

After solving this problem, they branched out to other oral care products, like toothpaste tablets, floss, interdental brushes & many more products for the home too.

They have been featured in magazines like Country & Town House, won awards & were also featured on "This Morning" with Holly & Phil. They are quickly becoming the one-stop shop for easy sustainable swaps.

SETT

The team at SETT is passionate about protecting both our skin and the oceans - naturally. Founded in 2018 by an avid surfer, the company remains proud of its surfing heritage and creates mineral sunscreens that not only provide great protection from the sun but don't harm the oceans. Plus, they feel and smell great, rub in smoothly and don't leave a heavy white cast on the skin.

Know the difference between chemical and mineral sunscreens? Chemical sunscreens sink into the skin to work, and these chemicals are what harms coral reefs and aquatic life and cause skin irritation. Mineral sunscreens create a protective layer on top of the skin to deflect the sun's rays away.

By using 100% mineral UV filters in their sunscreens, SETT products are completely reef and ocean safe as well as kind to sensitive skin. What's not to love?

ARCTIC POWER BERRIES

Arctic Power Berries are proudly presented by the Founders, Anna and Eve, two best friends who grew up in Finnish Lapland. While living in London they missed the tasty, nutritious berries from the Arctic forests, that they were used to picking from their backyards. Therefore, they initially started bringing those delicious berries for themselves, and after doing so for a while, decided to share them with others too.

What started from a spontaneous idea, with zero start-up budget and a huge passion, has now resulted in much more, and their nutrient-packed, space-saving and convenient berry powders have found their way into customers' hearts and breakfast bowls, while turning them vibrantly colourful and bursting them with tons of berry goodness!

Apart from being delicious, their berry powders also follow sustainable values. They prevent food waste, reduce carbon emissions (1/10 of the space is required in transit) and reduce the need of pointless plastic packaging to be used.

SPRÛCE

Spruce is a natural water enhancer designed to bring water to life. Spruce believes hydration should be a pleasure, not a chore, and have produced a product good for both customer and planet.

Spruce has three flavours, each jam-packed with goodness. Spruce is sugar free, all natural, made with real fruits and a bespoke vitamin blend, including Vitamin D, C, and B12. Packed in small home compostable sachets, mix with water for a tasty and nutritious drink.

Spruce is the first plastic-free water enhancer to launch in Europe. And unlike cordials and pre-made flavoured waters, Spruce isn't shipping huge amounts of water (and therefore carbon) from source to customer. This is a new model, and one that puts the planet first.

Jonny, Spruce's founder, had the idea of Spruce when he grew tired of the sugary, plastic-laden and adolescent products on the market. He thought the category needed a sprucing.

The team at Goodrays got together around a shared respect for a super natural plant. No other plant in history has turned the energy of the sun into quite as many useful and important things that support and sustain human life and wellbeing on the planet.

Founder of Goodrays, Eoin Keenan, has spent the last decade dedicating his work to understanding CBD and the world's most misunderstood plant. CBD is proven to benefit human beings in multiple ways including relief from anxiety, increased mental focus and the improvement of sleep, while simultaneously helping ease physical pain, inflammation and muscle fatigue.

Goodrays' best-selling premium CBD range has market leading doses of Colorado-grown CBD. Choose from a range of deliciously flavoured sparkling 30mg CBD Drinks or stock up on their mixed flavoured 25mg CBD Gummies, perfect for on-the-go natural relaxation.

THE BATH ALCHEMIST®

The Bath Alchemist Apple Cider Vinegar Wellness Tonics are handcrafted in small batches in the city of Bath. The fermentation process creates a premium Apple Cider Vinegar that resonates with the growing demand for natural, high quality artisanal products that constitute part of a healthy diet and lifestyle. They are a blend of simple and fresh ingredients: turmeric, ginger, habanero pepper, onion, garlic, rosemary, cloves, orange zest, black peppercorns, juniper berries, star anise and horseradish; all infused for twelve weeks in organic Apple Cider Vinegar with 'The Mother'. The live and unfiltered vinegars are not heat treated or pasteurised therefore keeping the enzymes happy, not only adding great flavour but a whole lot of natural goodness.

They can be used in a variety of ways; as a dietary supplement, as an additive to recipes and as a healthy alternative to alcoholic drinks especially when combined with tonic and soda water.

W'ZIS?

Unashamedly different dog treats, made from plants (not from postmen); a meat free, 100% natural dog treat, shaped, licked and sniffed all the way from Brighton — colourful and shapely, with no dull, brown, bone-shaped treats insight. Available in three doggo friendly flavours; Lamp Post & Chips, Postman & Roast, Slipper & Biscuit.

You say, “what’s this,” we write it W'ZIS, the name for a treat that our pooches already know.

Most dog brands follow the aesthetic of the baby-food aisle - smelly, bone shaped and beige. We struggle to believe people would purchase them for their beloved pets if there was something better. So for you and our dogs, we promise a new experience — a treat that plays to all our senses.

NON-ALCOHOLIC DRINKS

SAICHO SPARKLING TEA

Saicho: Redefining Celebration with Non-Alcoholic Sparkling Tea

In the world of premium non-alcoholic beverages, Saicho emerges as a beacon of sophistication and innovation. Founded by Natalie and Charlie Winkworth-Smith, Saicho is a luxurious non-alcoholic tea brand that seamlessly marries the essence of two distinguished tea cultures, delivering a refined and premium alternative for those seeking an elevated non-alcoholic experience.

Since its launch, Saicho has been welcomed by numerous renowned sommeliers, hoteliers, high-end restaurants and luxury retailers around the world, praised for its quality and versatility.

A Journey Rooted in Tradition

The name Saicho pays homage to a revered Japanese monk who, in 805, introduced tea seeds to Japan, laying the foundation for the country's tea culture. Inspired by this rich heritage, Saicho Sparkling Tea aims to redefine tea drinking culture with a range of single-origin, cold-brewed, sparkling teas. The founders, Charlie and Natalie, fuelled by their passion for food and drink, embarked on a two-year journey of meticulous sampling and experimentation, resulting in the creation of Saicho's first three teas.

Natalie, co-founder of Saicho, shares the reason behind creating the brand: "The catalyst for creating Saicho was my alcohol intolerance and the constant feeling of missing out on a complete dining experience. I drew inspiration from my heritage, where I had grown up enjoying tea alongside meals and understanding its vast range of flavours and depth that could enhance the dining experience."

Champagne-Like Teas: Elevating the Non-Alcoholic Experience

While wine has traditionally dominated the realm of food pairing, Saicho challenges this norm by showcasing the remarkable similarities between tea and wine. Much like wine, Saicho's selection of sparkling tea mirrors the diversity found in wine, allowing enthusiasts to explore a rich tapestry of tastes - from delicate floral notes to complex and robust profiles. By drawing this parallel, Saicho aims to broaden the horizons of tea appreciation and redefine the concept of pairing with food.

A Spectrum of Flavors:

Intricate and nuanced, Saicho's sparkling tea offers an array of flavours, reminiscent of the diverse profiles found in wine. With Saicho, tea and wine lovers can explore a unique flavour journey, selecting the perfect sparkling tea to harmonise with any culinary creation

Terroir:

Just as wine encapsulates the essence of its terroir, Saicho's single-origin sparkling teas capture the distinct character of each tea-growing region. From the foothills of the Himalayas to the mountains of Fuding in Fujian province, the range showcases the diverse craftsmanship of teas from around the globe.

Astringency and Tannins:

Similar to fine wine, Saicho's sparkling teas feature tannins that contribute to a delightful astringency, enhancing texture and mouthfeel. The meticulous cold brewing process ensures a well-rounded and delightful astringency, enriching the overall tasting experience.

Charlie, co-founder of Saicho explains the vision behind Saicho's production process: "When designing the production process for Saicho, I had a clear vision: to create a champagne-like mouthfeel and taste experience that would challenge preconceived notions of tea flavours. We achieve this through our carefully developed production technique, that extracts the intricate flavours of the tea while minimising bitterness. Our selection of single origin teas has been a meticulous and mindful process, celebrating the major tea-producing regions of the world and showcasing the diverse range of flavours they offer."

The Range: A Symphony of Flavors

Saicho's range encompasses three distinct expressions: Darjeeling, Jasmine, and Hojicha. Each single-origin tea celebrating the varietal, time of harvest, terroir, altitude, and processing methods unique to each region.

The tea is cold brewed for up to 24 hours, to extract the most delicate and complex flavours. They are then finely balanced with a hint of sweetness, using grape juice and a dash of acidity, finally sparkling the drink to enhance the flavour of the tea. Resulting in a clean yet complex flavour profile.

Darjeeling:

A black tea grown in the foothills of the Himalayas, India. With notes of mandarin, ginger, and wood spice, Darjeeling pairs impeccably with grilled meats or rich pasta dishes.

Hojicha:

Originating from the pacific coast of Japan, Saicho's Hojicha is a roasted second flush Sencha green tea. Its rich umami flavour with notes of nori seaweed and roasted hazelnut makes it an ideal companion for sushi or mushroom risotto.

Jasmine:

Grown in the mountains of Fuding in Fujian province, China, Saicho's Jasmine tea is a delicate blend with notes of apple sherbet, lychee, and vanilla. Perfect for pairing with spicy Asian salads and creamy desserts, it also serves as a refreshing aperitif.

Saicho believes in celebrating quality ingredients and as such use a clean and transparent production method. Proudly producing a refreshing tea that is vegan friendly, sulphite free, low calorie and with no added artificial sweeteners or preservatives.

Awards: A Testament to Excellence

In 2023, Saicho's entire range of sparkling teas received recognition from the Guild of Fine Food, with each product earning a Great Taste Award. Saicho Darjeeling Sparkling Tea secured a 1-star award, while Saicho Jasmine Sparkling Tea and Saicho Hojicha Sparkling Tea achieved the prestigious 3-star award, a distinction held by only 1.8% of products entered.

Charlie, co-founder of Saicho, expresses the significance of these awards: "This is a fantastic milestone for the brand, recognizing our commitment to producing the finest quality sparkling teas. These awards are well-recognized and trusted by consumers across the globe and support our mission to provide consumers with a quality experience of the non-alcoholic category."

The Great Taste Awards attest to the exceptional craftsmanship and flavour of Saicho's Sparkling Teas. Judges describe them as unique, delightful, and complex, with each tea offering a distinct and memorable experience.

In a world where non-alcoholic options are increasingly in demand, Saicho stands as a testament to the artistry of tea-making, providing a non-alcoholic alternative that rivals the complexity and sophistication of fine wines and champagnes. Elevate your non-alcoholic experience with Saicho.

Inspired by his experiences on the ocean, founder Jamie Douglas-Hamilton, conducted extensive global research to find the most effective hydration solution in the world. It was in Japan that he first discovered ionised water - a well-known water product that was widely consumed in the country for its myriad benefits and approved by the Ministry of Health in the 1960s. Jamie endeavoured to bring this innovative product to the European market and the rest, as they say, is history."

"Turns out, 50% of Brits don't like drinking plain water - who knew!? We wanted that 50% to know that we're 100% here for them!

We also heard their complaints about having to choose between the flavour they wanted and the benefit they wanted. So we thought, "What if every can gave you the same, wide ranging benefits?"

"The Watkins family have farmed at Heartsease, in mid-Wales since 1903. It was soon after joining the family firm that William Watkins discovered that he had a source of delicious natural spring water on their land, and this was the trigger to diversify the business into bottled water based products.

In 1990 Radnor Hills was born, producing a whole range of soft drinks including pure spring water, flavoured waters, premium adult pressés and healthy children's school drinks. Stuart and Georgina knew about the benefits of Magnesium. They've been involved in Magnesium for nearly 20 years, mostly because of having 4 children and helping support their own stress and mental wellbeing!

Dr. David Thomas (their father-in-law/father) is a well-known nutritionist. He completed a study entitled 'A Study on the mineral depletion of the foods available to us as a nation between 1940 and 2002'. It highlighted that in some food groups, Magnesium, had depleted by more than 60%.

OH MG

During the pandemic, Stuart read about a Nationwide Study by the Mental Health Foundation in 2018 that highlighted that over 80% of women and nearly 70% of men had experienced stress to such a degree, it had left them feeling unable to cope. This was before the pandemic and cost of living crisis.

Stuart thought: 'OMG! Why don't we produce a drink called OHMG and bring Magnesium to the mass market'.

JUNO

Bemuse has reimagined Britain's oldest fermented drink, creating the curiously modern effervescent honey wine – unique award-winning non-alcoholic blends for the modern consumer to savour. The core of our business is honey bees. We choose to elevate honey: raw honey, the original elixir of life, traditionally used in mead, reimagined without alcohol, to create a wholly different 21st-century drink: dry with notable acidity and compelling complexity, yet fermented (as is mead) with honey, yeast, hops and water and amplified with a judicious blend of herbs. The raw honey's character, aroma and taste reflects its terroir, the forage the honeybee pollinators gather and preserves the honey's beneficial nutrients. There are four expertly crafted flavours to elevate any occasion. Best served chilled in a champagne flute as an excellent alternative to sparkling wine.

SHŌZU

SHŌZU are yuzu based sparkling prebiotics. They provide the nourishment probiotics require. Each can contains 7% raw yuzu juice, 5g of Orafiti® chicory root inulin and 3% organic apple cider vinegar. 7% raw yuzu juice? That's 23ml per can. Extreme. In a superior way. Probiotics are specialty fibres that can survive the journey down our digestive tract without getting absorbed away. They then provide nourishment for probiotics, the 'good bacteria' defending our gut. We love our kimchi, kefir yoghurt and kombucha because they're rich in probiotics. So why not sustain them to their fullest potential?

CLASSIC FLAVOURS FOR MODERN TASTES

Available in 1 litre cartons.

Founded by Patrick and Karen O’Flaherty, Pip Organic is a family brand with a true belief in working with nature. They began making 100% pure organic juices from a small stall in London’s Borough Market. A whole heap of juicing and a couple of kids later Pip Organic was born, with a mission to create organic and sustainable food & drink for the whole family to enjoy. Everything made at Pip Organic is certified by the Soil Association, which is the UK’s leading certifier for organic standards. Every harvest, Pip work closely with organic farmers to select the tastiest, most nutritious fruit varieties they can find at just the right time, so that their ‘piptastic’ juices are blended to perfection. Travelling from farm to family, Pip’s products are so crammed with 100% organic goodness, there is just no room for nasties or compromise...

KAYTEA

-COLD BREW ICE TEA-

The story begins with our founder, Kevin, who's lived in Asia and North America, where tea cultures varied from traditional ceremonies to adventurous bubble tea. Moving to London, the capital of tea, Kevin loved the old cuppa, but thought the flavours could use a twist and started experimenting with unconventional blends with bolder flavours. KAYTEA now carries a range of low calorie and real-infused organic ice tea, made with only sustainably sourced wholesome ingredients. The drinks are produced across the UK using a pioneering cold brew process, and are packaged in recyclable and eye-catching glass and cans with playful branding.

Made from the highest quality ingredients Nix & Kix are soft drinks that are high in flavour and low in calories. The gentle kick from cayenne means that they can get away with a much lower sugar content than other soft drinks without adding artificial sweeteners. The drinks are all below the sugar tax threshold and vegan friendly. The small London based company has already won a number of awards and celebrity fans for it's current range. Proving that it's recipe of pairing unusual yet refreshing flavour combinations with a gentle kick is filling a gap in a mostly boring and unhealthy category

Punchy make delicious soft drinks with grown up flavours.

Their journey began with the belief that the best drinks can transport you somewhere else for a moment.

In a world of sugary, eco-destructive and unadventurous drinks, they thought it was time for something better. So, they began a mission to make better drinks, mixing concoctions at home that reminded them of good times with friends.

Each drink is a ticket back to a special time. Often to places where you have salty hair and sand between your toes, or to carefree times with great food, music, and friends.

Punchy has made a promise early on to never cut corners. Their drinks are always natural, low in sugar, low calorie, vegan friendly and gluten-free. So you can afford to sip carefree. They also donate a percentage of all our sales to charities dedicated to protecting our environment.

Craft brewed, traditional, organic kombucha, alive with culture.

Equinox Organic Kombucha are one of the founding producers of traditional kombucha in the UK. Inspired by a trip to Asia in 2012 the Equinox founders started to brew the fermented tea drink with health benefits when they returned to Yorkshire. What started out with 4 flavours, made in their kitchen and sold at local markets and festivals, rapidly progressed to a factory site in Hebden Bridge, West Yorkshire.

The mission at Equinox has not changed from the start, to produce only the very best organic, sustainable kombucha that's a refreshing and healthy drink for every day.

#EveryDrinkDoesGood

Gusto ORGANIC

Gusto Organic was born in 1990 in the Portobello Road kitchen of Craig Sams, founder of Green & Black's chocolate and Whole Earth Food. Craig created a natural energy drink, Gusto Original, powered by Amazon guarana, cola nut and a 14th Century Taoist blend of Chinese herbs for stimulation and wellbeing. Gusto Original remains the perfect antidote to big brand synthetic energy drinks. Spin forward to 2018 and the Gusto range includes 5 premium soft drinks and two organic energy drinks.

The ethos is Fairtrade and organic certified and always free from refined sugar. Ingredients provenance is everything, from organic blood oranges grown on the volcanic slopes of Mount Etna to colas spiked with Fairtrade Madagascan vanilla, the Gusto range gives adults a delicious, complex, unashamedly premium alternative to alcohol or more child focused soft drinks.

NEW PRODUCT

Dalston's, a hand-crafted drinks brand based in East London, was started in 2012 by former chef Duncan O'Brien with the support of a £5,000 Government-backed Start Up Loan, after he noticed the growing demand for quality soda!

per 100ml, containing 50% less sugar than leading competitors. The business first started selling drinks in Dalston nightclub 'Passing Clouds', and has since seen incremental growth. In line with this growth the business has also purchased a new factory in London's Mile End to accommodate its growing sales.

Somerset, UK

The brand's Cola and Ginger Beer variants fall beneath the sugar tax threshold of five grams

Belvoir fruit farms

Naturally lovely drinks

Belvoir Fruit Farms nestles deep in the English countryside in the Vale of Belvoir, where they've been making fruit cordials and presses since 1984. Renowned for their elderflower drinks, they still use the same elderflower recipe. Originally, all the elderflowers were handpicked from bushes growing around the founders Lord and Lady John Manners' garden.

The whole family helped to make the first batch of elderflower cordial, chopping the lemons and stirring the syrup. Today, demand is so high that Belvoir calls on the local community to help with the harvest, picking flowers from their own 90 acres of orchards and from hedgerows in the surrounding countryside.

Soda Folk are a range of American based soft drinks that are produced in the UK from Colorado born Ken Graham. Ken moved to the UK in 2012 and with his love of soft drinks came up with a non-artificial root beer and cream soda (unlike so many other American soft drinks) that were accessible for the UK drinks market. Popular with the American dining chains across the UK, Soda Folk has brought back the nostalgia of Cream Soda and Root Beer across the UK.

We're a small family business without institutional investors snapping at us to cut costs so we can afford to brew in a traditional way with nutritious ingredients. We're not forced to add processed sweeteners like Stevia/Erythritol or use marketing shizzle to cover any misgivings. This allows us to experiment and play until we create honest drinks that speak for themselves - full of flavour, body and goodness.

NAVAS

PREMIUM BOTANICAL MIXERS

Navas went on a journey to fashion a new style of premium mixer. They asked many of the top craft gin distillers across the South West what they needed to let their creations shine, to make better drinks. What was asked for was a tonic that did not conceal their carefully distilled botanicals but one that gracefully brought them to life.

They listened, they experimented, they tasted. Navas crafted a tonic from 7 separate citrus botanicals, two types of cinchona, all blended with the purest Cornish Spring Water. Navas Original is a truly illuminating tonic, winner of two gold medal from Taste of the West.

The Pickle House

The Pickle House was established at the beginning of 2014 by Florence in Hackney, London. Having first been introduced to the idea of drinking pickle juice whilst in New York, she wanted to create a recipe that was specifically made to enjoy with cocktails and juices. Florence then spent many months developing the Original Pickle Juice recipe which she brews for twelve weeks with a blend of vinegar, sliced cucumbers, turmeric and spices to create a flavour that is both sweet and savoury.

Inspired by the sights, sounds and smells of the glorious stretch of Devon coastline where they live, Wine Bar owners Sarah & Geoff Yates have created a delicious alcohol-free drink which doesn't compromise on taste or experience. Bursting with natural coastal botanicals, including sea kelp, samphire and juniper, each flavour is individually extracted using centuries old techniques and blended together after distillation.

The result is a truly refreshing and complex, non-alcoholic drink with its own identity. Serve as a Sea & T in a large glass on the rocks with a squeeze of citrus topped up with a premium tonic, or as a spritz with fresh lime juice and . Be it for an evening, a week or for a lifetime Sea Arch really is more beautiful without.

 THE ALCOHOL-FREE DRINK WITH A BITE

GIMBER is an organic concentrate based on the finest, Peruvian ginger, Italian lemon juice, and a secret blend of herbs and spices. It is hugely versatile and can be enjoyed with crisp sparkling water, with hot water, in cocktails and mocktails, and in recipes.

GIMBER was founded in 2018 by Dimitri, a contemporary art enthusiast and animation series producer. He regularly attended events where he was served either alcoholic drinks, or dreadful soft drinks. So, he took it upon himself to make a great alcohol free alternative. GIMBER.

Peruvian ginger is the best ginger in the world! Gingerol in ginger is truly magical. It's anti-inflammatory, an antioxidant, and can reduce nausea. All this, and no preservatives, additives, nor anything artificial.

71 Brewing Co was established in Dundee, Scotland in 2016, the city's first active brewery in over 50 years. Based in the former ironworks towering out of the heart of an area known as 'Hell's Half Acre' the brewery building formed a major part of the mighty Blackness iron foundry.

Brewing a core range of crisp lagers and hazy pale ales, 71 Brewing also craft distinctive, locally sourced, fruit sour beers and small batch seasonal specials that complement their core ranges.

The Brewery is currently on a journey to becoming fully carbon neutral certified by 2025.

Inspired by local brewing traditions and the vibrant US craft beer scene, Magic Rock Brewing is the culmination of a lifelong passion for beer. Richard Burhouse (aided by head brewer Stuart Ross) started the brewery in 2011 in an old out-building of the family business (an importer of crystals and natural gifts) in Huddersfield, West Yorkshire. The brewery has since expanded to house a 50hl production facility and onsite taproom, Magic Rock Tap, with an additional bar opening in Holmfirth, West Yorkshire in Winter 2019. Alongside a distinctive core range, they produce an ever-changing line up of idiosyncratic beers with an innovative quality-driven approach. Their 'Same but Different' beers utilise modern brewing techniques to deliver a range of beers that are diverse, approachable and full flavoured.

Jiddler's Tipple is an award-winning beer brand launched by Jacob Liddle (The Jiddler) in October 2019. After home brewing for years in Turnpike Lane, North London, he decided to turn his passion into a business. Since launching, he has been working with a brewery in South London to help scale his homebrew operation.

The beers are brewed to be perfectly balanced and delicious, despite being a bit lower in abv (3.8%). The beers are also dressed in personally selected vintage shirt patterns from The Jiddler's wardrobe. This means they're as easy on the eyes as they are on the taste buds!

Why vintage shirts? When creating the labels, Jacob was wondering what to use for the designs. Then it clicked - he had a wardrobe full of awesome designs! In this way, Jiddler's Tipple is a marriage of Jacob's two great passions - beer and vintage shirts!

The team over at Small Beer Brew Co. believe in great tasting beer for any occasion, which is why they specialise in brewing classic beer styles below 2.8%.

Small Beer's constant innovation, of brewing beer to a sociable strength, doesn't stop at using the finest ingredients to focus on flavour maximisation over alcohol creation. They also brew incredibly sustainably, running the only known dry floor brewery in the UK, which has allowed them to cut the typical amount of water required to brew one pint of beer from 8-10 pints of water to just 1 1/2.

Two Farmers

NEW

Along with a plastic-free packet, keeping food miles low was just as important. Homegrown ingredients are used as much as possible, with potatoes never travelling more than 2 miles before leaving the production unit as crisps.

In addition, Two Farmers source the best local ingredients to create six delicious flavours that celebrate Herefordshire. These include Hereford Bullshot, Salt & Cider Vinegar, Lightly Salted, Hereford Hop Cheese & Onion, Herefordshire Sausage and Mustard, and Woodland Mushroom and Wild Garlic. These flavours support local producers such as Droitwich Salt, Charles Martell & Son cheesemakers and Tudges rare-breed pork.

TÍOS[®]

HARD TEA

Tea and cocktail in one. Tios Drinks is a unique award-winning hard tea, in other words, a sparkling alcoholic tea-based drink made with brewed organic white tea, premium spirits and all natural ingredients.

Founded by two sisters and their partner during the first lockdown, Tios is inspired by our family, our travels, and a love for tea and cocktails. The name inspiration comes from the Spanish 'Tíos' meaning 'uncles' and is in honour of the sisters' family tradition of Margarita night, started off by their aunt and uncle.

All drinks are low in calories with no added sugar, 4.4% ABV and vegan, served in 250ml recyclable cans. There are three different flavours: Hard Tea Mojito, Hard Tea Margarita and Hard Tea Light & Stormy – all tea-based twists on three popular cocktails.

Whitebox

The creativity continued and Whitebox has now launched into the market with a line-up of 9 canned cocktails. Expect delicious, world class cocktails, captivating designs and a fresh perspective on what's typically a very formulaic category. Co founder Alex Lawrence said: "Wherever you are, take a look in your nearest store, you'll see formulaic brands doing cocktails by numbers. We are doing the opposite. Each cocktail is unique and excellent, and the passion we have for making excellent drinks comes through in every detail."

In 2020, the team at Whitebox set out to make the best possible canned Negroni they could, and later that year launched their "Pocket Negroni". Made with premium ingredients and featuring a cute, cheeky negroni character on its design, the can quickly gained cult status.

EXQUISITE PREMIUM LOW & NO ALCOHOL COCKTAILS

MIXED TO PERFECTION WITH PREMIUM INGREDIENTS BY AWARD-WINNING MIXOLOGISTS

BLOODY DRINKS

Harry and Will from Bloody Drinks are Bloody obsessed with Bloody Marys. For years they thought about nothing but how to get the best version of this beautifully complex drink into a can, and keep it tasting as fresh as if it was mixed in front of you. Eventually, using cocktail bar quality ingredients, the best canning techniques, and zero compromise on the punchy flavours they love, they bloody cracked it.

The brand launched in Christmas 2019 exclusively with Selfridges, where it was immediately their best selling canned RTD. Since then it's picked up a raft of premium on and off trade stockists (from The Oystermen, Observer Best Restaurant 2019, to the legendary Partridges in Chelsea), as well as a listing with a major grocer. It's even been labelled the UK's best canned cocktail in category round ups by both The Independent and The Evening Standard. Bloody Mary lovers, rejoice.

TAIL FEATHER

Tail Feather's founder Simon is a chef by trade who worked in many high end establishments in the UK before venturing off to work on yachts. This is where he stumbled across his first espresso martini in the Notorious Skullduggery Cafe in Antigua many moons ago.

Now, being a father and living back in the UK, yachting is something of the past, but his love and passion for a good espresso martini still remains!

So came the idea to create a really high end product that brings quality, consistency, simplicity, and excellent taste every single time, whilst also being quick and easy to make, to ensure minimum effort and maximum enjoyment!

It took nearly a year to source all of the ingredients and to create the perfect recipe from scratch. Only the finest, natural ingredients, sustainably sourced and organic where possible are being used in this beautifully balanced cocktail!

Pinkster is a premium gin infused with fresh raspberries grown locally to the company's Cambridge HQ. Founder Stephen Marsh didn't set out make a pink drink, it's just that after working his way through an entire fruit bowl, he found raspberry delivered the best flavour. But it was always his intention to develop a gin that could accompany food, which is where the gentle flavour profile of Pinkster kicks in. Deliciously dry with a hint of fruit and an exceptionally smooth finish, Pinkster makes a refreshingly different G&T especially when served with a sprig of fresh, well-spanked mint.

AGREEABLY BRITISH GIN

Best of all, the inebriated raspberries are recycled as Boozy Berries. There's even an accompanying ginspired cookbook with suggestions such as Boozy Berries Trifle and Venison With Raspberry and Bitter Chocolate Sauce.

Not forgetting Gin Jam, a mildly alcoholic preserve guaranteed to put the tipple in your teatime.

BRIGHTON GIN

Brighton Gin was born of a passion for gin, and a passion for the place where they live and play – They wanted to create a gin that embodies the Spirit of Brighton: unusual, playful and fiercely independent.

It started back in 2012 with months of experimentation with different ingredients, combinations, distilling techniques and approaches, and more than one or two accidents along the way (but they lived to tell the tale!) and lots of trying out recipes on their fellow gin-loving friends until they finally hit the perfect blend.

True to their founding principles, each bottle is carefully washed and filled by hand, they stick each label on and dip every one in wax themselves: no factory production lines in site. They also keep their carbon footprint down by delivering in Brighton and Hove on their specially adapted gin bike – that's a lot of huffing and puffing up some of those hills!

6 O'clock Gin is a range of strikingly smooth artisan gins, handcrafted in small batches, using traditional skills and only the best natural ingredients.

Over 30 years ago, the founders started making delicious fruity liqueurs using fruit grown in their farm. They sold them with some considerable success. The first incarnation of the gin recipe was created as a base for their delightful Sloe Gin.

Some years later, guided by their expertise in liqueurs, they set about perfecting the gin recipe. The wonderful flavour of 6 O'clock Gin emerged through experimentation: carefully selected botanicals, precisely balanced for a refreshingly clean taste.

The signature smoothness that defines their gin flows from their unique 'double sphere' copper pot still. The spirit has prolonged contact with copper during distillation and only the pure heart of each run makes the cut. Together this creates the strikingly smooth 6 O'clock experience for you to enjoy.

FAITH & SONS

MANCHESTER - ENGLAND

When Filipe brought his family over to England from Portugal it was truly a step into the unknown, a leap of faith. This is from where the name Faith & Sons derives. By fortunate coincidence, the F&S monogram also represents his initials, Filipe Sousa.

Filipe learnt to distil in Germany with Klaus Hagmann. This meant that, together with learning how to produce meaningful and honest spirits, he also learnt the importance of German precision.

The Ribble Valley Gin Co, founded by Justine & Luke, produce small batch gin in their distillery based in Lancashire.

The distillery is a stone-outhouse, built in 1888 and was originally used as a "piggery", with it having so much history and standing for over 130 years, we have kept most of the original features.

Our 120 litre still enables us to distill our gins using both maceration and vapour infusion methods with our chosen botanicals, giving each gin a smooth and distinctive finish. With just the two of us we are fully hands on through the whole process from development to distilling, to bottling & labelling.

We have a range of award-winning gins, all of our gins have been created to reflect the natural beauty of the British countryside, each gin has its own unique character & story but collectively they all have the distinctive Ribble Valley Gin taste.

Crafted in Aldeburgh, between the sea and the salt marshes, Fishers gin infuses local herbs and coastal botanicals, capturing the wild and forgotten flavours of the British Isles. Fishers founder, Andrew Heald, whose family has lived in Aldeburgh for many generations, was inspired to create a gin that reflects the power of the sea and the beauty of the wind-swept landscape that surrounds this majestic old fishing town. Botanicals are foraged locally and sourced from remote stretches of the British coastline, paying tribute to the maritime history of these islands."

ROSE & TWIG

Inspired by the beautiful flora of Aotearoa, Rose & Twig created a gin that looks as stunning as it tastes. Distilled with 6 different botanicals, including wild juniper, coriander seed, nutmeg, angelica, orris root, citrus peel combined with natural flavours, each gin represents some of New Zealand's most sought after flavours.

Rose & Twig Pomegranate: A round and creamy taste naturally flavoured with pomegranate's distinct bitter sweet notes, layered with a floral juniper & a hint of cherry.

Rose & Twig Blood Orange: A strong, zesty citrus aroma mixed with juicy bittersweet blood oranges and balanced with strong juniper.

Rose & Twig Blueberry: A perfectly balanced combination of sweet woody floral aroma and jammy dark berry flavour that delicately balances the Juniper nose of the gin. The addition of Butterfly Pea gives a delightful colour change when mixed with your favourite tonic.

TARQUIN'S

- CORNISH DRY GIN -

Nestled on a windswept hilltop overlooking the wild north Cornish coastline, Southwestern Distillery (Cornwall's first distillery to be opened in over 100 years) is true throwback to the traditional techniques of old-school distilling and craftsmanship.

Established in 2012 by Tarquin Leadbetter, back when he was merely 23 years old and completely self-taught, Southwestern Distillery handcrafts multi award-winning spirits in tiny batches using flame-fired copper pot stills.

Every bottle that leaves the distillery has been individually hand labelled, waxed, stamped, signed and given batch tasting notes.

When Tarquin puts "handcrafted in Cornwall" on his bottle, he really does mean it.

Distilled with the power and flavour of our fresh English wasabi, this vodka captures the true flavour and fire of wasabi. Made with real wasabi and nothing else, the flavour is bold and fresh, the pungent heat sweet and powerful.

Tasting notes:

A long-lasting character examination of the essence of fresh wasabi. Bold brassica flavours of mustard and radish brood enticingly under the sweetness and light of the volatile fire of wasabi as it rises, shines and ascends to the nose with high notes of star anise and pepper.

ANGELS' NECTAR

BLENDED MALT SCOTCH WHISKY

Angels' Nectar Blended Malt Scotch Whisky. Blended by Angels, Shared with Friends
Inspired by the Angels' share (that's the colourful name given to the whisky lost to evaporation during maturation), Angels' Nectar Blended Malt Scotch Whiskies are vibrant and fresh, and bottled at natural colour. The First Edition (or Original) Angels' Nectar, has been carefully created from a selection of Speyside and Highland malt whiskies and bottled at 40% Vol. It is smooth and sweet with hints of apple pie on the nose, followed by heather honey and lemon on the taste.

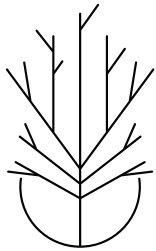

The Rich Peat Edition of Angels' Nectar, has been bottled at the higher strength of 46% from a selection of Highland malts. The Rich Peat Edition oozes a welcoming peat smoke, which is followed by a subtle sweetness akin to toffee apples and dark chocolate. With its innovative label design, Angels' Nectar presents a much-loved story from whisky folklore in a contemporary fashion.

In September 2015 the buildings on our fruit farm burnt down. This event was a catalyst that motivated us to start Burning Barn Rum.

The fire gave us the inspiration for our flavours. We cold smoke our smoked rum with wood from apple trees planted over 30 years ago on our farm. The spices in our spiced rum are whole and roasted, by hand, on site. Our Honey & Rum Liqueur, inspired by what's around us is just pure golden rum blended with English honey from our own hives and organic blossom honey.

WINE COLLECTION

A Fresh Approach to Wine...

Vineyard Productions began as a simple idea, a dream really, by Master of Wine Liam Steevenson, to make wine, to roll his sleeves up, to have a go at production from beginning to end.

In the Roussillon, twenty minutes into the hills above Perpignan, he shook hands with a local winemaking family who had farmed vineyards for seven generations and borrowed a corner of their cellar. He bought two barrels, removed their tops and with enough grapes to make 100 litres of wine, filled them to the top and got his hands dirty. As yeast found grape sugar, fermentation warmed skin and an idea become reality, the winemaking journey had begun.

Success in the Roussillon provoked another opportunity in Catalonia, this time with white Grenache, again a long way from a street lamp.

Vineyard Productions was not supposed to be a company, it was not supposed to grow beyond those early two barrels. It has however, and is now a collection of projects around the world, that start with the same intrinsic idea, and yet collectively have become more...

Collaborative in expertise...

There are two Masters of Wine in our team and one in training. We have two fully integrated winemakers and three part-time oenologists, plus a team of marketing experts and designers who bring in a wealth of consumer and market knowledge.

Almost all of our projects take place in small cellars, with family winemakers who have long worked alone, made decisions based on those made before, often unaffected by the winemaking world around them. To bring in expertise from around the world is fascinating, it allows a Sauvignon producer in New Zealand to work with a white Grenache producer in Catalonia, Spain, a sparkling wine producer in England to share thoughts with someone who has faced similar or sometimes completely opposite obstacles in India.

We are not 'flying winemakers'. There is no uniformity of style, no collected brand plan. Every story begins in at its source, every winemaking decision is made locally. The wines are always true to themselves, however allowing interaction, human conversation and a breeding of ideas that is fundamental to our business ethics and vital to what we try and achieve.

The Uncommon makes wine. Really good English Wine in cans and they go where no glass has gone before. Buoyed by the UK's latest global sparkling wine accolades, founders Henry Connell and Alex Thraves escaped their 9 to 5s to create and grow a truly unique, contemporary English wine brand of the highest EU quality that is both convenient and fun.

The Uncommon work with a number of sustainable farmers across the south of England to grow and hand pick the fruit; a winemaker to crush, press and ferment the grapes and a canner to break new ground.

THE UNCOMMON WINE OF ENGLAND

After 18 months of hard graft and a hugely successful nationwide launch, The Uncommon is very proud to be the first producers of canned wine in the UK.

The 2018 English harvest will be one for the history books. The Uncommon wines this year include a dry, lightly sparkling Bacchus and a lightly sparkling Pinot Noir Rosé.

Immortelle, Cotes de Roussillon

Immortelle is a wine-making project by Master of Wine Liam Steevenson, however it not a wine that was ever designed to reflect him, but much more the remarkable region from which it comes. It is a wine of outstanding quality produced within the Roussillon, in the foothills of the Pyrénées. Although the wine varies from vintage to vintage, dependent on conditions, it is a wine that always combines freshness and vitality, a characteristic which stems from the soil and the climate. The soil is granitic and poor. The climate is hard and extreme, combining the heat of the Southern sun with the cold and rain of the mountains at a height of between 350 and 600 metres, and the effects of the Tramontane wind. The vineyard sites are primarily in Tautavel and Latour de France are principally composed of extremely old vines, many over 100 years old, and planted with Carignan, Syrah, Mourvedre and Grenache Noir.

La Pélerine

Bordeaux is a city of long-standing importance within France. A city rich in its history, its grandeur and its culture, Bordeaux's heritage has evolved with two centuries of architecture transforming it into the UNESCO site that it is today. With vines first planted in Roman times, the creation of this beautiful city solidified Bordeaux's position centre stage of the wine world.

Flora & Fauna, Southern France

Flora & Fauna reflects the ambitions of two winemaking friends, Master of Wine Liam Steevenson and Oenologist Pierrick Harang.

Both fanatical about the wines of the Midi, the wines of France that touch the Mediterranean, they are also very keen to protect the regions native habitat and make from sustainable vineyards that tell the story of place and invest back into the local community.

Flora & Fauna is a new range that tells the story of the Languedoc through some balanced and well made wines.

El Garbi 2018

A dissertation on Priorat when sitting his MW exams, landed Liam Steevenson in Priorat, a region in the heart of Catalonia for a summer. The red wines of that region enthralled, but a thirst for white was quenched by some incredible white Grenache from the little known Terra Alta region up above. A spark was ignited, an ambition to make wine there born...

Terra Alta sits in the most southern D.O. in the Catalonia region of northern Spain. The vineyards are at high altitude, and had long been forgotten, abandoned like in the neighbouring region of Priorat. The renaissance has been slower to come, however only isolation prevented the world from seeing the potential of this incredible land.

The El Garbi project was Liam's long term ambition to tell the story of this historic winemaking region. The Garbi is the Arab wind that blows Terra Alta and therefore our vineyards play a vital role in ventilating the canopy and bringing warmth to the high altitude sites.

Blank Canvas

Matt Thomson has worked over fifty vintages in numerous wine regions around the world. In Matt's words: "Blank Canvas represents my story as a winemaker. It is an endeavour that is entirely my own expression of winemaking, is from my own funding, and is exclusively my risk." The 'Blank Canvas' is the vineyard and the variety, the winery the brush and palette (no pun intended) at the winemaker's disposal, all the while defined by the scientific grounding Matt laid at university and has built upon over the past 25 years. With partner Sophie Parker-Thomson, the aim is to break some rules with the Blank Canvas wines, but they feel that in order to break the rules, you need to know them. This is what sets the Blank Canvas wines apart.

DE LOACH

VINEYARDS

Established in 1973 by Cecil De Loach, a firefighter from San Francisco, De Loach was purchased by Burgundian Jean-Claude Boisset in 2003. His son Jean-Charles Boisset saw the similarities of the Russian River Valley with his native Burgundy and the potential that the region held for producing fine Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

One of his first decisions having acquired the estate was to convert the seven hectares of vineyard surrounding the winery to biodynamic farming. Winemaker Brian Maloney works alongside consultant winemaker Greg La Follette (formerly at Flowers on the Sonoma Coast). Greg's appointment marked the start of a return to De Loach's previously excellent form and emphasis on high-quality, small-hot winemaking. The 'Heritage Collection' range offers superb value and quality for Californian wines. De Loach's Russian River Valley fruit is supplemented by grapes sourced from like-minded growers in selected premium areas of California, particularly the Central Coast.

BODEGA GARZÓN

URUGUAY

Bodega Garzón is a family-owned winery in Maldonado on the Atlantic coast in southern Uruguay. They pioneered viticulture in this area over 10 years ago and have since become the standard-bearer for premium wines from Uruguay. In 2007, owner Alejandro Bulgheroni invited consultant winemaker Alberto Antonini to visit his 700-hectare olive farm. Following proper analysis of the soil and conditions, it became clear that this site had huge potential to produce premium wines. Over the past 10 years, the hills have been developed in to 1,150 individual plots of around 0.2 hectares in size, each plot carefully chosen for a specific variety according to its soil and microclimate. In November 2018, Garzón's pioneering status was recognised by Wine Enthusiast with the 'New World Winery of the Year' award.

Founded in 1972, Bodegas LAN lies in the heart of Rioja Alta. The name LAN comes from the initials of the three provinces of the Rioja Designation of Origin: Logroño, Álava and Navarra. María Barúa has been the head winemaker and technical director since 2002, and brings both scientific expertise (with an academic background in chemistry in addition to her oenology degree) and local knowledge (having been born and raised in Rioja). Together with her young and energetic team, María focuses on using the latest advances in winemaking to 'express the virtues of the land'. The estate farms its Tempranillo, Mazuelo, Graciano and Garnacha vineyards sustainably. The vines are divided into plots of different soils, grape varieties and aspects so that each can be handpicked at perfect ripeness. In the winery, there is a rigorous selection process to ensure that only perfect bunches are used.

CLOS DES FOUS

The 'Fous' ('crazy men') consist of Pedro Parra, the viticulturalist, winemakers François Massoc and Paco Leyton, and Albert Cussen, who looks after the business. The name 'Clos des Fous' refers to the 12 years that both Pedro and François spent studying and working in Burgundy, as well as their 'craziness' in crossing the traditional Chilean vineyard boundaries to source grapes from those in the more extreme conditions further south and east. Pedro is the person credited with discovering many of the top vineyard sites across Chile, as well as revolutionising the way in which iconic wineries plant and manage their vineyards. The key to this has been to move the plantings away from the fertile plains and up the slopes into the Andean and Coastal ranges, where the rockier soils result in lower vine vigour and deeper roots, which Pedro believes gives better balance and more finesse to the wines.

innocent bystander

YARRA VALLEY

Innocent Bystander's reputation has been built upon the style of their regional and varietal wines, which reflect the soil, climate and topography of the cool Yarra Valley. The Yarra Valley has a wine history that dates back well over 100 years and the combination of cool mountainside vineyards and warmer, valley floor sites provide the diversity and complexity of flavours and aromas seen in the Innocent Bystander's wines.

Owned by one of Australia's leading family-owned wine companies, Brown Brothers, the Yarra Valley fruit is harvested and immediately transported to their winery in Milawa, Northern Victoria. Here the winemaking team process the grapes in their 'Kindergarten Winery', specially designed for small batches and different winemaking techniques for minimal intervention.

The winemaking philosophy is simple, take the grapes harvested and let their exceptional qualities mature through careful nurturing.

Kaikenes are wild geese, native to Patagonia, that fly across the Andes between Chile and Argentina. In the same way, legendary Chilean winemaker Aurelio Montes crossed the Andes to make wines in Mendoza. Aurelio saw the enormous potential of the region for premium viticulture and, after several exploratory trips, founded the Kaiken winery in 2002.

His aim was simple: to make great wines in Mendoza and, in doing so, to show the best of both sides of the Andes. The estate vineyards are situated in the heart of Mendoza and further south in the Uco Valley, where many premium producers are now sourcing their fruit. The focus is primarily on Malbec and Cabernet Sauvignon, a variety that was almost forgotten in the region as Malbec's popularity continued to soar over the past decade. As a result of Kaiken's protection, there are now several old vine Cabernet Sauvignon vineyards in Mendoza.

The Mandrarossa wines come from a selection of the best sites from Cantine Settesoli's 6,000 hectares of vineyard, situated in southwestern Sicily and planted with 32 different grape varieties. First produced in 1999, Mandrarossa was conceived after the diverse soils of the vineyards were mapped, enabling the winemakers to focus on what were then ranked their best sites.

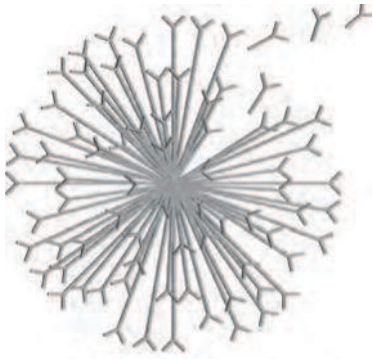

Under the leadership of co-operative president Giuseppe Bursi, consultant winemaker Alberto Antonini has sought to improve viticulture, which in turn has resulted in better wines. Working with soil specialist Pedro Parro and head winemaker Mimmo De Gregorio, Alberto has selected 500 hectares of vineyard, from 160 growers, to produce the Mandrarossa wines. These vineyards are situated close to the sea, where intense sunlight, moderating sea breezes, mild temperatures, multiple elevations and a myriad of different soil types combine to give the sort of grapes that Mimmo and Alberto are looking for.

Dandelion Vineyards

wish you were here...

Dandelion Vineyards is the venture of self-titled 'typist' Zar Brooks and his winemaking wife Elena, with wines made from the Barossa and Eden Valleys, Fleurieu, the Adelaide Hills and McLaren Vale. Nick Stock, one of Australia's leading journalists, has described Dandelion as follows: "Brooks has teamed up with his winemaking wife Elena, a woman whose talents are outweighed only by her tolerance, in an exciting new venture called Dandelion Vineyards.

The approach is remarkably simple and sees Elena making wine from a suite of beautiful old vineyards across that blessed curve that runs from the Barossa,
