WELCOME

Welcome to this special Pesach Magazine, dedicated to celebrating our signature luxury Pesach experience in Switzerland. At STARGUEST, we believe Pesach should be a time of freedom, joy, and family – all embraced within an atmosphere of true five-star environment.

For over a century, the Wagner-Kahn family has been synonymous with exceptional kosher hospitality. Since 1896, our family tradition has been built on uncompromising standards of kashrut, service, and elegance. Today, that heritage continues with STARGUEST, bringing generations of knowledge, care, and expertise to create a Pesach unlike any other.

This year, we are delighted to host Pesach 2026 at the Kempinski Palace Engelberg. Nestled in the majestic Swiss Alps, just one hour from Zurich, the Kempinski Palace combines breathtaking mountain scenery with timeless grandeur. Here, our guests will enjoy world-class kosher cuisine, fantastic activities, and the warmth of a family Yom Tov.

I look forward to welcoming you and your family to Engelberg for an unforgettable Pesach in the heart of Switzerland.

Best regards,

THE DESTINATION

Nestled in a picturesque mountain valley just 25 km south of Lake Lucerne, Engelberg offers an unparalleled winter escape at an altitude of around 1000 meters. This charming alpine village combines pristine natural beauty with exhilarating outdoor adventures, making it a must-visit for snow enthusiasts and nature lovers alike.

The highlight of your Engelberg experience is Mount Titlis, where you can push your limits on the famous Titlis Cliff Walk, the highest suspension bridge in Europe. Suspended at a breathtaking 3,000 meters above sea level, this thrilling experience offers stunning panoramic views and an unforgettable adrenaline rush.

Whether you're skiing down powdery slopes, exploring serene hiking trails, or simply taking in the majestic alpine scenery, Engelberg promises a winter getaway like no other.

SWITZERLAND

ABOVE BEYOND

FLY TO “THE TOP OF EUROPE”

STARGUEST.com

SWITZERLAND

We made a last-minute dream come true with a visit to the "Top of Europe"—the Jungfrauoch summit, renowned as Europe's highest train station. Located at an elevation of 3,463 meters (11,362 feet), this iconic destination is a highlight of any Swiss adventure.

While the traditional journey takes 2.5 hours by train and cable car, we elevated the experience by arranging a helicopter transfer, reducing the travel time to just 20 minutes. To make it even more seamless, we secured a nearby landing spot with special permission from a local farmer.

Delivering extraordinary experiences like these is what we do best—ensuring every moment is unforgettable.

A LEGACY OF JEWISH HOSPITALITY

LIKE FATHER LIKE SON

As a young boy, Meir Wagner escaped the horrors of the Holocaust, finding refuge in Israel. There, he graduated from the prestigious Ponivez Yeshiva before joining the Israeli Army, where he at one stage even served as the Chief Rabbi of Gaza.

The roots of the Wagner-Kahn family's hospitality legacy trace back to 1926, when Arieh's great-grandmother founded the Silberhorn Hotel in Grindelwald, Switzerland. Arieh's grandfather, Paul Kahn, later managed the hotel, elevating it into the most prestigious kosher establishment in Switzerland. Continuing this legacy, Ruth and Meir Wagner took over the hotel, managing it for another 25 years and upholding its reputation for excellence and Jewish hospitality.

Known for his charisma and influential global network, Meir Wagner used his connections to bridge gaps between governments, secure the release of political prisoners in Russia, and advocate with major pharmaceutical companies to provide lifesaving medicine for a soldier in need.

His ability to leverage relationships for impactful causes exemplified his dedication to serving others and making a difference on a global scale.

Meir Wagner's story is not only one of survival but also one of building, giving back, and saving lives. His contributions to Jewish hospitality and his tireless efforts to help others leave an enduring legacy that continues to inspire his family. Arieh Wagner proudly continues this tradition, as these photos beautifully illustrate.
