PROJECT EXPEDITION

We are thrilled to announce our exciting new partnership, the first within Classic Vacations' new booking engine. This collaboration pairs the expertise and resources of two renowned global travel companies by bolstering Classic's attractive portfolio of highly curated hotels, air travel, and transportation with exceptional tours and activities.

Project Expedition brings an extensive network of experiences, with new options added weekly from top-rated in-destination partners. Travel Advisors can now integrate world-class excursions, tours, day passes, multi-day trips, private and group attractions, and ticketed events into their client's itineraries directly through Classic Vacations.
