Welcome from NMAA Executive Director

Sally Marquez
NMAA
Executive Director

I was recently watching a news story entitled, “It is the way the game is supposed to be played so, why is it such a big deal?” The story took place in June of 2016 at the Indiana State Baseball Championships, during which a player from the winning team went onto the mound to console the losing pitcher, who was laying on the ground visibly upset, rather than embarking in a celebration with his teammates.

At the end of the story, the newscaster made a point to say, “The actions of the player reflected on the coaches and the parents of the kid. Somebody is doing something very right.” Adults in the player’s life, leading by example.

When the newscast finished, I pondered about why the story made the news. I was happy that the actions of the boys made national headlines, but saddened that acts of sportsmanship are not the norm. The realization that stories like this are highlighted because they are seen as something special and extraordinary was disheartening to me.

Throughout this year, the NMAA and our member schools are focusing on the importance of sportsmanship by coaches, players and spectators. When you attend a game as a spectator, remember that you too are setting an example for the kids on the court or field and for the individuals around you. Remember that it takes just one person to make a difference and the way you act can set an example for your community.

Be mindful of the example you set in whichever role you play in interscholastic athletics – as a coach, a parent, a player or a spectator. Be POSITIVE and support your team, without being negative towards opponents or contest officials. We need to all be a part of changing the culture of interscholastic athletics so that doing what is right is no longer newsworthy. Competing with Class should be the rule, not the exception.

Let us all band together and lead by example. Show the youth of today that sportsmanship matters. Show our student-athletes the proper way to win and lose. Show our “leaders of tomorrow” that their character far outweighs their performance. In New Mexico, our news story should always read, “It is the way the game is supposed to be played so, why is it such a big deal?” In New Mexico, let good sportsmanship and positive behavior always be the norm.

Sincerely,

Sally Marquez
NMAA Executive Director

Legend of Track & Field Carla Garrett

When it comes to track and field athletes who have come out of New Mexico, Carla Garrett is one of the more accomplished athletes the state has ever produced. Multi-sport athlete? Check! State record holder? Check, check! National champion? Check! Olympian? Check!

Garrett was a standout for Santa Fe High School who went on to become a 10-time All-American in track and field at the University of Arizona. In 1989, she was the NCAA national champion in the shot put during the indoor season and the shot put and discus champ in the outdoor season. Garrett was also a member of the 1991 and 1993 USA team that competed at the World Track and Field Championships, as well as a member of the 1992 United States Olympic team. In addition to her accolades on the track, Garrett was a USA weightlifting champion from 1991-94 and a two-time silver medalist in the World Weightlifting Championships. She has been inducted into four Halls of Fame since her athletic career ended.

Over 30 years later, Garrett still holds two New Mexico state records in track and field. Her shot put toss of 50'25" in 1984 is still tops among New Mexico high schoolers and no one has even come close to her 1983 record of 162'0" in the discus. Garrett was first introduced to track and field by accident. "I was playing basketball, my #1 sport, and the track coach at my junior high school walked through the gym and asked me if I'd ever thrown before," recalled Garrett. "I had no idea what she meant and I said 'yeah.' I thought she meant throw a ball. She meant a discus and shot. I wasn't really interested, but a couple of my friends were going to do track so I decided to go out for track. I started to win and it was like, 'Wow, ok, let me keep doing this if I keep winning.'"

She won plenty.

As a high schooler, Garrett was recruited by several top programs. Florida, Arizona State, UCLA and many others wanted Garrett to compete for them. Ultimately she decided on the University of Arizona. "The track coach who recruited me, Meg Ritchie, was a discus thrower," said Garrett. "She was the only recruiter who talked to me about winning. She said, 'Your first year, you will qualify for nationals and finish in the top 12. By your junior year, you will win a national championship and, your senior year, you will come back to defend it.' She was the one person who told me I would win a national championship."

And her coach was right.

Garrett was a three-time national champion and 10-time All American. At one time, she held the PAC-10 record in the discus. Garrett also became the first woman at the University of Arizona to ever win a PAC-10 championship. "Meg (her former coach) was the first to win the indoor and outdoor shot and the outdoor discus, I was the second one to ever do it."

After college, Garrett wanted to continue throwing. She was 5th and 7th in the 1988 Olympic Trials. From 1991-93, Garrett was one of the top athletes in the country. She was competing in both track & field and Olympic style weightlifting.

In 1991, she won the U.S. Nationals in the super heavyweight class in weightlifting. In 1992, she made the United States Olympic team and in 1993, she competed in the World Championships in both sports again. "Those years of 1991, 1992 and 1993, you would be hard pressed to find someone else with a better run," Garrett said.

She continued to compete nationally for a couple of years and then invested her efforts into becoming a strength coach. She helped her teams at Arizona (women's basketball, softball, volleyball and men's basketball) to three NCAA Division I championships. From 2015-2018, Garrett was the strength and conditioning coach at the University of New Mexico. She is currently a strength and conditioning coach at Pima Community College in Tucson, AZ.

Here is more from our conversation with Carla Garrett.

What do you remember most about competing in track in high school?

It was probably winning the state championship in a medley relay team my junior year in 1983. I won seven state titles, but the relay meant the most. I will always talk about that one. They thought nobody of my size could run and proving them wrong was spectacular! I could always run, but to showcase that in the state meet meant a lot. I also ran the 100m race my senior year in high school. I made the finals, but I was last.

You still hold the state record in the shot put (50'1/4") and discus (162'0"). Do you think those records will be broken?

Like any record, it's meant to be broken. Like any record holder, you hope it doesn't get broken. If you look at high school throwers now, those numbers are still competitive. It will be difficult for someone from New Mexico to break those. That's why the relays were so important to me. I was so much better in those throwing events; it wasn't as competitive. To me, the relay was a challenge.

What did you enjoy most about competing in track?

I enjoy the friendships I made. I grew up with a lot of the girls I competed with and competed against. The relationships I had in high school were some of the best in my life.

What is your greatest moment as a strength coach?

I have two. First is winning the national championship with the University of Arizona softball team in 2001; it was arguably my greatest possible performance as a coach. Second is in 2013, my high school football team I worked with won the state championship and also ranked in the top 25 in the country.

If you could coach a sport you never had the opportunity to coach, what would that sport be?

That would be basketball hands down. I loved basketball! If you ask everyone I grew up with, they would tell you I was a better basketball player than a discus thrower. I played as much as I could on every court in Santa Fe. When I got older, track paid the bills, but basketball was my love.

What accomplishments are you most proud of?

Obviously, making the Olympic team - that's something I cherish because of how I made the team. I was in sixth place at the trials, I was the final thrower. I moved from sixth to second on my last throw.

What kind of experience was the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona?

I always say when I initially made the team, it was like scratching a lottery ticket and every number kept winning and winning and that's how I felt. All the work I put in paid off. It was one of the best moments of my life! I remember looking up to the stands and seeing my mom and my coach holding hands, I cried. My performance was poor. I was just so excited to be there, I finished 22nd, that's why I was so disappointed in not making the team in '96.

What would you like to say to young coaches/young student athletes?

I think if you have a young athlete who's going to throw, you need to let them know you're not going to get any of the glamour. You throw because you love to throw, not because you're going to get accolades. You might not even be on the track sometimes when you train. You do it because you love it and want to compete; you don't do it for advertising.

We would like to congratulate Carla Garrett on a fantastic career and being selected as the 2019 Legend of the Track!
