OLD CLUB, NEW DAWN

Sheffield FC has entered a pivotal moment in its 169 year story. The appointment of Jon McClure as chairman, confirmed at a packed press conference on 9 March, signals the most significant shift in the club's direction for a generation. McClure and his fellow investors in IAV Holdings have taken a significant minority stake, joining majority owner Jeremy Levine in a new partnership built on Sheffield identity, cultural ambition and realism.

McClure made clear this will not be a Hollywood fairytale. "This isn't Wrexham — the club itself is the superstar," he said, stressing sustainability, heritage and community as the backbone of the plan. The group's ambitions include strengthening both men's and women's football, developing new commercial activity and bringing the club back to a home inside Sheffield — with several locations now under active consideration. For a club founded in 1857, the next chapter begins not with fantasy, but with purpose.

Former Sheffield Telegraph sports editor Peter Markie dies

Tributes have been paid following the death of Peter Markie, a former sports editor of the Sheffield Telegraph and one of South Yorkshire’s most respected sports journalists. Markie died last week.

He played a major role in shaping sports coverage across the region, working as sports editor at both the Sheffield Telegraph and its sister paper, The Star. Across a long career in journalism, he reported on football, boxing, cricket and grassroots sport, and was widely admired for his news judgement, fairness and belief in the importance of local sport.

Markie later retired from his role as sports editor, leaving behind a legacy of high standards and strong newsroom leadership. Colleagues remember him as a demanding but supportive editor who took pride in mentoring younger journalists and championing school and amateur sport across Sheffield and South Yorkshire.

Following news of his death, tributes have been paid from across the sporting and media communities, reflecting the esteem in which he was held.

South Yorkshire Sport’s

Steve Birch said “When I was Publicity Officer for the Midweek Alliance Cricket League and before the days of submissions by emails, we used to have to post to or physically drop off our weekly report to the Star offices on York Street.

“Peter was a huge fan of the League and always insisted that the League was covered in the Sheffield Telegraph. He was so keen on the grassroots sports and being able to promote it. When I dropped off the report on a Tuesday, he would often drag me up to his desk and we’d sit and chat for ages about local sport.

“It was so sad when Peter and others such as Les Payne and Ian Vickers retired from the Star and Telegraph because the fall away in local sport activity afterwards caused so much damage to local and grassroots sports.

“When setting up South Yorkshire Sport it was to uphold the legacy of people such as Peter and carry on the work they did late last century and the first decade or so of this one.”

Condolences are extended to his family and friends.

Sheffield Flips for City's First Football Sculpture

Sheffield is preparing for a landmark moment tomorrow as the city unveils its first public football sculpture, "Heads or Tails," in what organisers describe as a historic celebration of Sheffield's unique place in the story of the global game.

The artwork will be revealed at 11.00 am on Friday, March 13 outside Leader House on Surrey Street (S1 2LH), with members of the public encouraged to arrive from 10.30 am to witness the occasion. The ceremony will be led by Oliver Coppard, Mayor of the South Yorkshire Mayoral Combined Authority, who will be joined by the Lord Mayor of Sheffield, the Master Cutler and other invited guests, underlining the civic significance of the event.

The sculpture, created by Sheffield-born artist David Westby and made by local craftspeople across the city, is a tribute to Westby's late brother, Martin Westby – a respected football historian whose work did much to highlight Sheffield's foundational role in shaping modern football. Members of the Westby family, including David, will also be present at the unveiling.

The artwork takes inspiration from one of the most unusual chapters in the early history of the FA Cup: the 1873 tie which Sheffield FC won on the toss of a coin, the only time a match in the competition has ever been decided in such a way. The coin, and the date it bears, also point toward a deeper story about Sheffield's resilience. In 1873 the city faced significant economic and environmental pressures, and the sculpture is intended not only as a nod to football folklore but as a symbol of how the community endured and overcame adversity.

Friday's unveiling marks the beginning of wider plans by Sheffield Home of Football to create a series of public artworks celebrating the city's football culture. The organisation believes Sheffield was the birthplace of the first true football culture – one which has ultimately shaped a sport followed today by more than five billion people – and argues that the game has the power to inspire not only sporting passion but also creativity across art, music, literature, dance and design. A spokesperson said the group was grateful for the Mayor's support and emphasised the importance of public attendance to reflect the "ground-breaking" nature of the event.

The unveiling takes place at a central location with good public transport links, and while parking is available nearby, organisers recommend travelling via bus or tram where possible. Anyone seeking further details can contact info@sheffieldhomeoffootball.org or visit sheffieldhomeoffootball.org. Organisers say Friday's ceremony is an opportunity for Sheffielders to see the city's newest visual landmark in all its glory, and to celebrate Sheffield's continuing identity as the Home of Football.

Reverend Jon Rocks Up as Chairman

Reverend and the Makers frontman Jon McClure has formally stepped into his role as chairman of Sheffield FC after the club introduced its new leadership structure during a press conference on 9 March.

McClure, alongside a consortium operating through IAV Holdings Ltd, set out a vision rooted in community identity, financial realism and respect for the club’s extraordinary heritage. The announcement, marks the beginning of a carefully constructed new era at the world’s oldest football club.

The new investment sees IAV Holdings Ltd take a significant minority stake, while Jeremy Levine remains the club’s majority shareholder. The consortium features McClure, music executive David Bianchi, property figure Andrew Ford, and public affairs specialist Alexis Krachai. Their arrival follows several previous attempts to bring new partners into the club; McClure himself disclosed that he originally tried to buy Sheffield FC in 2018 but walked away after being quoted a price he described as “silly”.

At the press conference, McClure emphasised repeatedly that Sheffield FC’s global importance must be handled with care.

“Sheffield is where modern football was born. This club carries the origin story of the world’s greatest game, and with that comes a fair amount of responsibility.”

He also set out from the very beginning to temper expectations, pushing back against Hollywood style transformations.

“I’m not Ryan Reynolds, and I’m not anywhere near that famous... the Wrexham thing is not how it’s really going to work. The club, in some ways, is the superstar.”

National reports highlighted McClure’s frustration with those who assume the club is about to embark on a rapid ascent or undertake a huge stadium project.

“You see people bandying ideas about like building a 15,000 seater stadium or doing a Wrexham — that tells me you don’t know what you’re talking about. That’s not what we’re trying to do here.”

Instead, the group stressed a model based on sustainability, practical ambition and a long term civic vision.

“It should live within its means and be sustainable — a second club for everyone in the South Yorkshire region, firstly, then maybe nationally.”

One major focus is finding a new home in Sheffield, with McClure confirming during the press conference and subsequent interviews that the group is examining “a bunch of places”. However, McClure stressed that no decision would be rushed and that any move must fit the club’s heritage and finances.

Another prominent theme was the development of the women’s team, which McClure believes offers greater expansion potential than the men’s side, given the structural limitations of the Northern Counties East League.

Reports noted McClure’s view that “the women’s team has exponential growth” potential, reflecting a national upward trend and offering opportunities the club intends to seize.

IAV’s broader roadmap also includes commercial expansion through eSports, a football festival, media, community programming and cultural output, mirroring the blend of football and creative industry expertise within the consortium.

Despite his profile, McClure has repeatedly stressed humility.

“Rock star comes in and does football club could be a car crash waiting to happen,” he said. “That’s why I’ve assembled a team of people who could help me do it.”

The consortium emphasised that Sheffield FC will not chase fantasies. Instead, it will aim to become a well run, sustainable, culturally rooted football institution reflective of its status as the world’s oldest club — a club that, in McClure’s words, “belongs not just to its community, but to the story of world football”.

Who Really Controls Sheffield FC?

Sheffield FC’s new era is underpinned by a clear and carefully structured ownership and governance model — a combination of historical continuity and newly introduced safeguards.

Majority Shareholder:

- Jeremy Levine remains the controlling shareholder, having purchased the club in 2022. Reports confirm he retains the dominant position even after IAV’s investment.

Significant Minority Stake:

- IAV Holdings Ltd now holds a sizeable minority share, granting influence but not control.
- The consortium’s stake expansion adds board representation without shifting majority control.

Board Composition:

- The board now includes Levine, his son Jack, and the four IAV directors: McClure, Bianchi, Ford and Krachai.
- This blended board ensures legacy oversight and new strategic leadership.

Strategic Governance Philosophy:

- McClure has repeatedly stated the importance of sustainability over hype, warning against unrealistic stadium speculation or Wrexham style expectations.
- He has emphasised that the model must reflect the limitations and opportunities inherent in non league football.

Operational Direction:

- The consortium is responsible for commercial growth, cultural projects, community programmes, and development of the women’s and men’s football operations.
- The majority shareholder retains overarching authority while empowering the IAV group to implement day to day strategic development.

Why this matters:

This structure ensures that Sheffield FC can

- attract fresh investment,
- execute modern commercial initiatives,
- strengthen football and community pathways, while still retaining long term stability under established majority control.

It also aligns with McClure’s public stance that the club must avoid speculative risk and instead build a credible, long horizon model.

IAV’s Role at Sheffield FC

IAV Holdings Ltd has purchased a significant minority stake in Sheffield FC, joining majority owner Jeremy Levine in a newly expanded leadership structure. The consortium comprises:

- Jon McClure – musician and now chairman
- David Bianchi – music executive and co founder of Various Artists Management
- Andrew Ford – local property businessman
- Alexis Krachai – managing director of Counter Context

IAV describes its mission as building cultural and sporting assets as real, sustainable organisations. At Sheffield FC, that translates to:

- Returning the club to a Sheffield based home
- Expanding commercial operations, including eSports and events
- Strengthening both men’s and women’s football
- Developing academy and community pathways
- Promoting the club’s global historic identity

McClure has clarified that IAV’s model is rooted in pragmatism, not spectacle: “This isn’t a Wrexham situation... we’re doing something different.”

Hunter Back as Rosso Fight for Survival

Rossington Main have moved swiftly to reinforce their leadership team as the club battles to escape the NCEL Premier Division relegation zone, announcing the dramatic return of legendary former manager Ben Hunter in a joint management setup for the remainder of the season.

Currently sitting 19th and embroiled in a tense fight for survival, Main have endured a difficult campaign, prompting club officials to make decisive changes aimed at stabilising the team's fortunes. The club confirmed that Hunter—widely regarded as the most successful manager in Rossington Main's history—will join forces with current boss Greg Young in an attempt to reverse their poor form.

The shake up also includes the return of Mick Fraser as fitness coach, forming part of a refreshed backroom structure designed to bring renewed intensity and belief into a squad that has struggled to find consistency this season. Club chairman

Daniel Linstrum did not shy away from acknowledging the team's under-performance, stressing that immediate improvement is essential in the weeks ahead.

Hunter's comeback is being viewed as a major boost at Oxford Street. A Rossington native, he enjoyed significant success during his previous tenure and remains a hugely popular figure among supporters. His deep knowledge of the club's culture, players, and community is expected to be pivotal as Main enter the defining stretch of their campaign.

The challenge, however, is stark. With just 31 points from 31 games, Main find themselves only one place above the bottom, locked in a fierce scrap to avoid relegation. Every fixture from here on will be crucial. The club has emphasised that the entire community—players, staff, and supporters—must rally together if Rossington Main are to climb out of danger.

Attention now turns to the final seven league matches, a run that will ultimately determine whether this reshaped managerial team can salvage the season. The joint management arrangement between Hunter and Young is set to remain in place until season's end, at which point the club will review its long term direction.

For Rossington Main, the task is simple but daunting: rediscover form, rebuild confidence, and fight for every point. With Hunter back in the dugout, belief may be rising again—but survival is far from guaranteed.

S20 The Boundary: South Yorkshire’s Hidden Gem Sporting Facility

Continuing our series going behind the scenes of local clubs and organisations, Kyle Kennealey visits S20 The Boundary Indoor Cricket Centre and find out what’s available not only to cricketers but other sports as well.

Walking into S20 The Boundary in Holbrook a couple of weeks ago, it was hard not to be impressed by the facilities they have on offer.

Tucked away off the M1, located near Halfway Park & Ride, this venue was opened in January 2023 with an important aim. Cricket is a summer sport, but how can players keep developing out of season? Look no further than The Boundary, open all year round to all ages.

There’s perhaps no better person than Jimmy Pearson to run this facility, with his background in cricket allowing him to spot this gap in the market.

“It was more school sports halls, where you’re rolling the mats out yourself and taping them down at each end. Those facilities weren’t always there, and you could only book them in the evenings.”

The idea first came about in 2021, when the country was still recovering from the Covid 19 pandemic. Starting a project like this is a daunting task at any time, never mind in such an uncertain financial climate.

Trying to find the right venue, and one where it is easy enough to attract visitors, was the next challenge in matching Jimmy’s ambition. However, neither of those issues proved to be the setback that may have been expected at that time.

“It’s a big investment. Lighting and flooring were the big expenses, but I got the best that I could to make it the best facility around.

“It wasn’t easy to find a building this size. We looked around all different areas before this came up. It seemed to fit quite well, being on the South Yorkshire/Derbyshire border.

“It took a while. We got the property in July [2022], and then it was six months of cleaning, painting, and fitting it. It ran smoothly; we opened when we wanted to.”

Identifying a key demographic is always an important step for any business looking to open. But Jimmy was keen to emphasise that there is no age limit on anyone who wants to get into the sport.

“Our facility is available for clubs and individuals. It’s ideal for 5/6-year-olds, up to anyone as old as you like! We’ve got seven lanes, which turn into two indoor pitches, and we have the batfast lane.

“There are a few bits that I would change if I were to do it again, not that I’m planning to! We’re trying to consolidate at the moment, ahead of a quiet summer as players return to their clubs.”

While Jimmy may have considered changes in some places, the actual lanes themselves are immense. Fitted to international cricket standards with state-of-the-art equipment, they replicate County Cricket centres, which are integral for a smooth transition between venues.

With eight cricket lanes, a healthy 15 metre run-up allows bowlers plenty of space to perfect their technique. And the long lanes gives batters ample opportunity to make the same improvements to their form too. It’s no surprise then that this is one of the pieces of feedback that Jimmy has received:

“I’ve been told by people who are quite high up in cricket that it’s one of the best facilities around.”

Having a place that is open for such long hours does have its drawbacks, though. Particularly at the moment, during schools termtime, getting people through the doors has proved difficult to achieve. However, the fact that the venue can be transformed for different purposes helps to alleviate that issue.

“It can be quiet in the summer. All the nets can go back, and it can be turned into two pitches, whether that’s netball, two 5-a-side football pitches, or dodgeball.

“Outside of sports, I thought about hen and stag dos, or corporate event days. It’s just about trying to get it out there, to make people aware that we’re here.

“We’ve hosted a few charity events, including a 48h cricket-a-thon. If you make an inquiry, we’ll see what we can do to help!”

To do just that, any requests can be made by contacting info@s20theboundary.co.uk. In terms of cricket bookings, S20theboundary.co.uk is your place to go.

Jimmy is hoping that moving the shop downstairs will help to increase sales, with higher footfall as people enter the facilities. There has also been the addition of an online shop, which can be accessed at the following location: S20cricketshop.com.

NON LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Steels Blow Lead in Ten Man Shocker

STOCKSBRIDGE
PARK STEELS

ADAM ALLCROFT

There are games in a season that carry a little extra weight. The kind where the league table starts to loom large and every tackle, chance and mistake feels magnified. Stocksbridge Park Steels’ meeting with Morpeth Town at Bracken Moor was very much one of those afternoons.

In the end, the Steels were left with a frustrating 1–1 draw in what was billed as a genuine relegation six-pointer. It was the sort of result that neither side really wanted, and when the dust settled it was Stocksbridge who probably walked away feeling the more disappointed – especially given the circumstances.

Things could hardly have started better for the home side.

Inside the opening exchanges, a hopeful ball over the top caused immediate panic in the Morpeth defence. Tommy Marshall, alert as ever, reacted quickest and burst clear through on goal. Just as he looked set to bear down on the goalkeeper, Morpeth defender Jeff Henderson hauled him down just outside the area.

The decision was straightforward. Henderson was the last man, Marshall was clean through, and the referee didn’t hesitate in producing a straight red card. Morpeth were down to ten men almost before the game had properly got going, and suddenly the visitors were facing a very long afternoon in South Yorkshire.

With the extra man, the Steels quickly began to take control.

They moved the ball confidently and spent long spells camped inside the Morpeth half, forcing the visitors to defend deep and in numbers. The sense around Bracken Moor was that it might only be a matter of time before the breakthrough arrived.

One of the best chances of the first half fell to Kasper Williams. When a cross dropped invitingly into the box, the defender reacted sharply and sent a looping volley towards goal from close range. It looked destined to nestle in the net, but Morpeth goalkeeper Dan Langley somehow managed to claw it away with a brilliant reaction save that had more than a few people shaking their heads in disbelief.

Still, the pressure continued to build.

Eventually it told. A corner delivery caused chaos inside the Morpeth penalty area, with bodies flying everywhere as the ball ricocheted around. In the scramble, the ball found its way across the face of goal and Paul Iggulden managed to bundle it over the line from close range.

It certainly wasn’t the prettiest goal you’ll ever see, but in games like this nobody really cares about style points. The important thing was that the Steels were ahead – and with the visitors already down to ten men, it felt like they had the platform to take firm control of the match.

For the remainder of the first half, Stocksbridge continued to dominate possession and territory. Morpeth struggled to get out of their own half, clearing their lines whenever they could and trying to disrupt the rhythm of the game.

Yet despite the control, the Steels couldn’t quite find the second goal that might have put the game beyond doubt before the break.

As it turned out, that would prove to be important.

When the teams emerged for the second half, the dynamic of the game began to shift in a way that few inside Bracken Moor would have predicted.

Rather than building on their advantage, Stocksbridge started slowly and Morpeth – despite their numerical disadvantage – came out with far greater urgency. The visitors began to press higher up the pitch, showing the kind of determination you often see from a side with nothing to lose.

Gradually, they started to grow into the game.

That said, the Steels still had chances to settle things. The best opportunity fell to Tommy Marshall when a loose ball dropped kindly inside the box. The striker struck it cleanly enough, but once again Langley was equal to the task, producing another important save to keep Morpeth firmly in the contest.

At that stage, the sense was that if Stocksbridge could just find that second goal, the resistance would finally be broken.

Instead, the visitors began to sense a lifeline.

As the clock ticked down, Morpeth started to throw more balls into the danger area, looking for any opportunity to create chaos inside the Stocksbridge box. It wasn’t always pretty, but it was effective in keeping the Steels pinned back.

Then came the moment that changed everything.

A looping delivery into the penalty area found Nic Bollado, who managed to get just enough on his header to guide the ball into the bottom corner. For a split second there was silence around Bracken Moor, before the Morpeth players erupted in celebration.

Given the circumstances – ten men for almost the entire game – it felt like a massive moment for the visitors.

The final stages became increasingly scrappy as both sides searched for a late winner. Fouls began to interrupt the flow of the game, tempers bubbled away in a few challenges, and neither team could quite build the sustained pressure needed to grab a decisive goal.

In truth, the contest drifted towards its conclusion.

When the final whistle eventually arrived, it confirmed a result that ultimately helps neither side all that much in the battle at the wrong end of the table.

For Morpeth, rescuing a point with ten men will have felt like a small victory. For Stocksbridge Park Steels, though, this will undoubtedly feel like two points that slipped through their fingers.

After playing against ten men for so long – and leading for much of the afternoon – it was a game they will feel they really should have put to bed.

Next up on Saturday is the long trip to Workington and another important six pointer against the team currently at the bottom of the league.

A Stalemate in West Yorkshire

HALLAM

IAN JONES

Hallam earned a steady away point with a 0–0 draw at Brighouse Town on Saturday in Northern Premier League Division One East, the stalemate unfolding at the Heffernan Utilities Stadium after a tense ninety minutes with little margin for error for either side.

The Countrymen started sharply, pinning the hosts back in the opening exchanges before the afternoon settled into a contest of territory and restarts rather than outright chances.

When Brighouse did break, Hallam were indebted to goalkeeper Hugo Warhurst, who produced a strong early save with his body on ten minutes and then claimed the loose ball decisively.

The visitors responded by forcing pressure from a set piece on sixteen minutes, the home keeper eventually smothering after a well worked corner routine. Those flashes framed a half in which Hallam largely controlled the pitch without finding the final action to put them ahead.

The best opening of the first period arrived just after the half hour. Kiyani Clayton surged into space and delivered an excellent cross to the near post for Brodie Litchfield, who met it on the move but lifted his finish over. The incident sparked tempers on the touchline and brought a booking for the home bench, a sign that the visitors’ pressure was beginning to bite.

Minutes later Litchfield again danced into the box and saw a goal bound effort blocked by a covering defender. Soon after, a flurry of cautions culminated in a heavy challenge on Clayton, Hallam’s forward dusting himself off to continue as the first half ebbed away still goalless.

The pattern barely shifted after the interval. Hallam’s back line kept distances tight in front of Warhurst, whose clean handling under crossed balls helped calm the closing stages, while the midfield recycled possession patiently in search of an opening that never quite materialised.

In the context of the table, the clean sheet and point are not insignificant. Brighouse remain trapped in the lower reaches, while Hallam hold station in mid table, level on 40 points in an increasingly congested pack. For Warhurst, a mainstay of the side in recent weeks and one of Hallam’s vice captains, it was a reward for concentration as much as shot stopping.

After the game, manager Craig Denton was disappointed “I didn’t think we deserved to win the game but we didn’t deserve to lose it. The league table said we should have won it and you can see they have lost a few players,. That is not being disrespectful but we knew they would fight and show desire and they did.

“We huffed and puffed a little bit. We created a couple of chances; Hugo (Warhurst) has made one good save from one shot on target but we just didn’t have that extra edge that we’ve had in recent games.”

Attention now turns to a pivotal home double at Sandygate that can turn a solid away day into a springboard. First up are Bridlington Town on Saturday, a true six pointer between near neighbours in the standings with both clubs locked on 40 points and jostling for a top half launch. The margins look thin: Hallam’s attack has created good moments even in tight games, and bridleing that promise to set piece delivery and second phase pressure could prove decisive against a Bridlington side whose results have fluctuated week to week.

Three days later, Newton Aycliffe make the midweek trip with the incentive of survival points; their league position keeps them within reach of those below, which tends to sharpen focus in these Tuesday night assignments

If Hallam can pair the defensive resilience shown at Brighouse with a touch more precision around the penalty area, this coming week offers a genuine opportunity. Four points from Bridlington and Newton Aycliffe would sustain momentum into the run in; six would turn a disciplined draw at the Heffernan Utilities Stadium into the foundation of a March surge.

Liversedge March On As Promotion Race Shifts

NORTHERN

MATT JONES

A busy weekend programme across the Macron Northern Counties East League brought significant movement in both divisions as clubs continued their push for promotion or battled to avoid being dragged into danger. The action began on Friday night, where Knaresborough Town produced an excellent second half display to defeat Champion 3-1.

After a goalless first half, Ben Gelder opened the scoring on the hour before Slater Barkham Barnes doubled the advantage. Chinedu Osadebe briefly gave Champion hope with an 83rd minute reply, but Aaron White struck in stoppage time to secure the points in front of 109 spectators.

Saturday's Premier Division fixtures saw leaders Liversedge claim an impressive 2-0 win away at second placed Beverley Town, with Antony Brown scoring twice early in the second half to silence the majority of a bumper crowd of 461. Victory leaves Liversedge 17 points clear and needing just 2 points from their 6 remaining fixtures to clinch the title and an immediate return to step 4 football in the Northern Premier League.

Barton Town edged a tight contest at Frickley Athletic thanks to Lewis Stephens' 65th minute goal, while Horbury Town and Handsworth played out a goalless draw in a match short on clear chances.

Parkgate and Thackley shared a 1-1 draw after first half goals from Shay Evans Booth and Luke Brooks, while Rossington Main overturned a half time deficit to beat Pickering Town 2-1. Souleymane Coulibaly had given Pickering an early lead, but Ross Hannah's penalty and a quickfire strike from Myron Gibbons turned the game on its head.

Sheffield continued their play off push with a 3-1 victory over Golcar United. Alfie Wilkinson put the visitors ahead, but Danny Edwards equalised before the break and Alex Hardwick took over in the second half, scoring twice to seal the win in front of 355 supporters. Tadcaster Albion also impressed on the road, coming from behind to defeat Wombwell Town 3-1 with goals from Oliver Green and William Marshall after Ollie Fearon had cancelled out Charlie Owen's early opener.

In Division One, top of the table Dearne & District delivered one of the standout performances of the weekend with a commanding 4-0 win at Armthorpe Welfare, all four goals coming before half time through Cian Guest, Adam Baskerville, Jamie Austin and Justin Circuit. Athersley Recreation were equally ruthless, sweeping aside Louth Town 5-0 with five different scorers contributing to a dominant display.

Brigg Town kept their promotion hopes alive with a narrow 1-0 win over Harrogate Railway Athletic thanks to Reece York's 77th minute strike, while Club Thorne Colliery produced a six goal demolition of Glasshoughton Welfare. Marc Newsham opened the scoring before Luke Williams netted twice, with Alex Peterson, Jordan Buckingham and Andrew Wright completing a comprehensive victory. Defeat ensures that Glasshoughton will finish in the relegation places, it's been a difficult season for one of the NCEL's founder members who have picked up just 10 points from 35 games and who are currently on a run of 23 games without a win.

Crowle Colts secured a solid 2-0 win over Maltby Main with first half goals from Henry Cook and Lee Ridley, while Goole AFC and Ilkley Town served up a nine goal thriller. Goole's 6-3 triumph included a hat trick from Nathan Perks—one from the penalty spot—alongside goals from Oliver McQuillin, Luis McCabe and Leon Mollan. Ilkley responded through an early own goal and a late brace from Dan Coates, but could not match Goole's firepower.

South Leeds earned a valuable 2-0 away win at Nostell Miners Welfare with second half goals from Tyler Polwarth and Reece Evans, while Selby Town left it late to overcome Appleby Frodingham 2-0 thanks to strikes from Harry Clapham and Jake Morrison. Wakefield AFC were in complete control during their 3-0 victory over Doncaster City, scoring all three goals inside the opening 34 minutes through Ethan Kachosa, Eliel Anku and Chris Salt.

Route One Rovers continued their strong form with a 3-0 win at Winterton Rangers, Reece Thompson scoring twice before Zak Khan added a late third. Worsbrough Bridge Athletic rounded off the weekend with a confident 3-0 victory over Leeds UFCA, with Jake Squires opening the scoring, a William Puffett own goal doubling the lead, and Keelan Grist converting a late penalty to complete the result.

A busy midweek in the Macron NCEL saw plenty of goals scored and some big results as the promotion and relegation battles come towards their conclusion. In the NCEL Premier Division on Tuesday, Bottesford Town produced one of the standout away performances of the night with a commanding 3-0 victory at Albion Sports. Jack McMenemy opened the scoring just before the half hour, with Okera Simmonds and Scott Matthews adding further goals before the interval to seal the points.

Golcar United also enjoyed a strong evening, defeating Rossington Main 3-0 in front of 321 supporters. Oliver Russon's early strike set the tone, and second half goals from George Doyle—who converted from the penalty spot—and Ashley Flynn ensured a comfortable home win.

Parkgate were denied all three points in agonising fashion as Horbury Town snatched a 90th minute equaliser. Shay Evans Booth had given Parkgate the lead midway through the second half, but Joseph Angell struck at the death to earn Horbury a share of the spoils.

In Division One, Harrogate Railway Athletic and Wakefield AFC played out a goalless draw in front of 185 spectators, with both sides unable to find a breakthrough despite periods of pressure.

Dearne & District continued their strong form with a 3-1 win at Nostell Miners Welfare. Charlie Austerfield's sixth minute opener for the hosts was cancelled out by Adam Baskerville soon after, before second half goals from Joshua Dacre and Jamie Austin secured the visitors' victory. Dearne now require eight points from their remaining six games to clinch the title.

Selby Town were held to a 1-1 draw by Crowle Colts. Harry Clapham put Selby ahead before half time, but Henry Cook struck on 70 minutes to ensure the points were shared.

Wednesday's Premier Division action saw Sheffield claim a convincing 3-0 win at Eccleshill United. Cameron Bedford struck twice inside the opening 23 minutes, and Alexander Hardwick added a third on the stroke of half time to complete a dominant first half display.

In Division One, Doncaster City impressed with a 4-0 home win over relegated Glasshoughton Welfare. Xavier Elkin Sheppard opened the scoring and later added a second, with Mick Jones and Jamie Purkiss also on target in a confident performance.

Armthorpe Welfare earned a 3-0 victory at Maltby Main, with Mikey Dunn scoring inside two minutes before late goals from Cole Patrick and Harry Sheperd wrapped up the result.

Route One Rovers rounded off the midweek fixtures with a 4-1 win over Appleby Frodingham. Reece Thompson struck early, and a quick fire double from Zak Khan—scored in the 62nd and 63rd minutes—put Rovers firmly in control. Umar Alizahoor added a fourth before Bubacary Conteh Sameteh netted a consolation for the visitors.

Late Heartbreak as FCV Grace Dieu Punish Errors

UNITED

S YORKS SPORT

Dronfield Town were made to pay for two late defensive lapses as they fell to a 2-0 home defeat against FCV Grace Dieu.

Across a largely even first half, neither side could create many clear cut chances. Dronfield’s best moment before the interval came when Matty Ord fired over from the edge of the area after a promising move, while the visitors threatened only once when Cornelious Olajide-Oriowo lifted a close-range effort over the bar.

The match was played at a patient tempo, with both sides working hard off the ball, and Dronfield’s pressing unsettled Grace Dieu at times without quite yielding the breakthrough the home support hoped for.

After the break, the match grew more stretched, and Dronfield felt they should have had an advantage when Grace Dieu goalkeeper Lorcan Morrissey appeared to handle near the edge of his box, but neither official acted.

Town continued to probe for openings, with Sam Bebbington heading straight at Morrissey and Dan Shelbourne forcing another save from six yards. Substitute Luke Walker immediately added an aerial threat and almost produced a spectacular equaliser, sending an overhead kick narrowly wide from close range. Yet for all their positive moments, it was Dronfield who were punished for errors in the final quarter-hour.

On 77 minutes, a turnover in midfield allowed Grace Dieu to break swiftly, and Olajide-Oriowo’s driven shot found the net despite close attention. Just three minutes later, more uncertainty in defence gifted substitute Nathan Linden space to shoot, and his effort struck the post before crossing the line to make the game safe.

The 2-0 loss leaves Dronfield 13th in the latest league table, and with nine matches remaining, Chris Millington’s side now face a demanding trip to eighth placed Dunkirk which adds pressure to rediscover consistency before the run in.

Swallownest, meanwhile, endured their own frustrations during a challenging but eventful week, beginning with a 4-2 defeat away at Clifton All Whites on 7 March.

Clifton seized control early when Mylo Baker struck in the 11th minute, and although Swallownest attempted to respond with neat approach play, the hosts gained further momentum during a decisive second half spell.

Goals from Rierce Bertram on 58 minutes, Tyrone Burton on 61, and Connor Randall on 74 gave Clifton a commanding lead. Swallownest did show character to rally, with Alex Wilkinson pulling a goal back in the 55th minute and then scoring again deep in stoppage time, but despite his brace the visitors had been undone by the earlier defensive collapses. The official attendance was recorded as 71, and the defeat keeps Swallownest in 14th position.

Encouragingly for Swallownest, a stronger, more resilient performance followed just three days later in a 1-1 draw away at Pinxton, 10th placed Pinxtonstarted on the front foot, forcing Swallownest to defend deep for spells, and the hosts took a first half lead.

Yet Swallownest grew into the match, tightened defensively, and found increased control in midfield. Their persistence paid off when George Walker levelled the scoring, securing a valuable point and preventing back to back defeats. The attendance at Pinxton was noted as 64, and although a single point does not move Swallownest up the table, it does stabilise their form heading into a crucial period.

With both Dronfield and Swallownest entering the final nine games, the emphasis now turns to consistency and concentration. Dronfield must cut out the costly errors that have crept into their recent performances, while Swallownest will hope the determined showing at Pinxton is a sign of stronger weeks ahead. As the season tightens and margins grow thinner across the mid table positions, both South Yorkshire sides still have plenty to play for, and their ability to convert performances into points will determine how strongly they finish their campaigns.

Dodworth MWFC edged a thriller to reach the last four, winning 3-2 at Handsworth FC Reserves. Joshua Wharin and Aidan Askwith struck for the hosts, but Dodworth advanced thanks to Liam O'Brien's brace and a decisive finish from Harry Sagar.

Hepworth United powered through 4-0 against Barnsley Town, with Sam Thompson and Ryan Silvester both netting doubles. It was a clinical statement from a side sitting third in the Premier Division and chasing the leaders. Premier pacesetters Hemsworth Miners Welfare were emphatic 4-0 winners at Oughtibridge WMSC. Andy Horbury hit a double, with Ash Bell and Emmanuel Amissah also on target, underlining Hemsworth's status at the top of the table as they eye a league and cup haul.

Penistone Church Reserves completed the semi final lineup with a 4-1 success at Wombwell Main. Luke Fretwell, Alfie Broughton, Will Heath and Matty Jacobs did the damage before Kieran Hirst's consolation. Penistone's cup progress mirrors their strong league position in fourth, still in touch with the top three. Jubilee Sports then lit up the Premier programme by beating bottom placed Kiveton Park 4-1. Dan Brown-ing grabbed a brace, with further goals from Dan Bingley and Harry Walker; Ishmael Lammy replied for Kiveton, who remain in the bottom two.

Denaby Main edged Silkstone United 1-0 thanks to Marcus Edwards, keeping Denaby steady in mid table while Silkstone continue to glance over their shoulders near the drop zone.

In Division One, leaders Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 ground out a valuable 1-0 victory at North Gawber Colliery via an own goal to tighten their grip on promotion. Second placed Thorncliffe Villa drew 2-2 at Bentley Village — Aiden Davies and Michael Attard for Bentley; Gael Kianga and Farrell Cawthorne for Thorncliffe — while Royston FC cruised 4-0 past Dinnington Town Reserves as Ashley Mills fired a hat trick and Kyle Meteer added the fourth.

Swinton Athletic kept their top three push in range with a 5-3 triumph over Sheffield City FC, Dainton Armitage bagging a superb treble with support from E. Ardron and M. Moore; Toby Ponte's brace and a Regan Millard strike gave City late hope.

Division Two leaders Maltby Main Reserves were held 1-1 by Wombwell Main Reserves (Reece Reece; Simon Chadburn).

Second placed Dearne & District Development slipped 3-2 at Rotherham Town (Sam Dannatt, Zack Dearden, Chris Braders).

Third placed Swinton Athletic Reserves won 3-2 against North Gawber Colliery Reserves through Hayden Barnett, Brandon Harris and Scott Walsh, despite replies from Steve Bennett and Riley Senior.

Fourth placed Tusaale United hammered Sheffield Medics 5-0 as Malachi

Smith struck a hat trick, with Theo Peat and Pape Ibrahim Ndiaye also scoring. Elsecar Dynamos beat Caribbean Sports 2-1 (Rikki Watson, Jordan Roper; Tyler Sterling), and Denaby Main Development produced the day's biggest margin — a 6-0 demolition of Elsecar Main as Adam Winder hit three, with Luke Winder and Jack Cranswick (2) adding gloss.

Youdan FC and Middlewood shared a 3-3 draw: Harry Willmot (2) and Jack Jolley for Youdan; Fin Marsden, Bailey Kerrigan and Jac Leeson for Middlewood, who remain in the bottom two.

Nelson Five, Cups Spark Late Drama

ROTHERHAM SUNDAY
MARK PILLEY

AFC Lord Nelson lit up the Premier with a 5-2 win over Jack in Box. Marcus Brown and Jake Thompson scored before a Ben Harriott hat trick did the damage; Jack in Box remain close to the bottom two while Nelson climb away from trouble. Thorpe Hesley Village won 5-2 at Butchers Arms, with goals from Cody Benton, a McCaullie O'Connor brace, Blake Morley and Joe Yates; the hosts replied through two tidy finishes. It's a vital away result in THV's battle to steer clear of the drop.

In the Championship, leaders Whiston edged Maltby Main Haynook 3-2, with a brace from Chris Giblin and a Matthew Moore strike sealing the points after a spirited Haynook effort. Handsworth Inn stayed on their heels, beating FC Mailcoach 3-2 through George Simpson, Ben Shackshaft and Callum Stringfellow.

Division One saw promotion chasing Ecclesfield Blues defeat Beighton Magpies JFC 3-1 thanks to Joshua Smith's double and a Harrison Stenton goal; Ethan Hussain replied.

Manor Hotel beat The Colin 2-1 via Devon Stead and Stephen McDonnell, while Milldam and AFC Rotherham Spartans drew 2-2 (Lewis Clarke, Tyler Jackson; Kingsley Little, Chris Bradley). Leaders AFC Thirsty Flame were on cup duty but remain top of the table.

Division Two produced goals everywhere. Leaders The Park Hotel beat Bradgate 4-1 (Matthew Kellsall, Luke Carter, Brad Cresswell, Jack Bancroft).

Wickersley AFC hammered The Alma 5-1 with Sam Martin, Jay White (2), Randall Wood Noble and Jack Holt on target; Liam Latham scored for The Alma.

AFC Loca and Kilton United drew 3-3: Jayden Dennis, Harry Murphy and James Woodhouse for Loca; Ben Gray, Ryan Haigh and Joshua Stansbury for Kilton.

Hope Valley Tap edged Brinsworth FC 2-1 (Dominic McCloud, Taylor Somerset).

Division Three leaders Sheffield Spartans routed Stag United 7-2 thanks to Thomas Beck, Anthony Holmes, Chris Lewis, Brandon Moxon, Jahan Sherratt and James White, with Joe Creamer and Patrick Knowles replying for Stag.

The Woodman Woodlathes stayed in the chase by beating Steel City Whippets 4-1 (Frazer Appleyard, Daniel Ferens, Steven Hackleton, Nathan Hooper; Edward Woolfe).

Ravenfield Arms nicked it 4-3 at Winco-bank Rovers. Aston Athletic beat Ship Inn 5-1 as Daniel Jenkinson, Jordan Livett and a Liam Stenhouse hat trick did the business.

Division Four saw AFC Sportsman fall 4-2 to Marquis (Kane Middleton, Wesley Harris; Joseph Torr, Luca Cronly 2 plus one more listed for Marquis), while third placed Wickersley THS beat Kiveton Park Reds 2-0 thanks to Josh

Dickinson and Joel Lascelles.

Parkgate and Inter Rother drew 4-4 (Khosh Ranyai, Jamie Rowlands, Sam Bell, Thomas Wroe for Parkgate), and Dinnington Dynamos stayed unbeaten at the top with a 7-3 victory over Middlewood Rovers JFC as Daniell Ashby, David Hull, a Reece Davis hat trick, Cameron McGrail and Nathan Lees all hit the net.

Laughton Common won 8-3 at Earl Grey (Daniel Mason, Finley Rowe, Euan Smith 3, Matthew Carter, Jayden Lynam, Jamie Tenwick Ford).

The Club Pot beat Crown Inn Newhill 4-2 with goals from Kazim Ditta, Charlie Crapper (2) and Harry Hobson; Owen Goddard and Charlie Cocking replied.

In the Brian Beeley

Cup, Joker won 1-0 at Harthill through Oliver Perry.

Langold Old Boys beat AFC Trades Rawmarsh 5-1 (David Alder Heaver, Ryan Parker 3, Aaron Redfern).

The Rig Dyke drew 1-1 with Lord Reresby and advanced 3-1 on penalties.

Thurcroft Hub lost 3-1 at home to AFP Pewter Pot despite an Alfie Eagle strike, with Justin Greenwood netting a hat trick for Pewter Pot.

In the Malcolm Gabbittas Memorial Trophy, Brinsworth Whitehill JFC beat AFC Thirsty Flame 3-0 thanks to Harry Rodgers, Charlie Wadsworth and Max Wadsworth.

RUSC85 The Travellers drew 1-1 with AFC Maltby and went through 5-4 on penalties.

Royal Earl will retain the title if they win their final two games after winning 2-1 at Boynton Sports. Johnno Williams hit a 30 yard free kick to put Earl ahead and Liam O'Brien made it 2-0 with a simple finish. Boynton did all they could to break the Earl defence and they finally did it late in the game with a Jake Gamban goal, but Earl saw the game out.

Stannington Village are now the only team that can deny Royal Earl the title after a 5-0 victory over Southey Social. They took the lead when a corner fell to Dan White and he volleyed high in the roof of the net. They doubled the lead before half-time when Sam Hackett crossed for Aemad Gador to rise well and head over the keeper.

On the hour Joel Purkiss' pass allowed sub Connor Platts to net his first and soon after the same pair combined again for Platts to tap home his second. Platts completed his hat-trick when a cross-field ball from Tom Staniland found Purkiss and he squared for Platts to score at the second attempt. Had it not been for Southey's keeper and MOM Rob Oxley making some outstanding saves the score would have been much more.

Relegation threatened Nailmakers moved further away from the drop with a 3-1 victory over a Woodman side now just one more result away from certain relegation. Nailmakers started very slow and couldn't really get a foot hold in the game then it went from bad to worse when a defensive mix up lead to Ryan Hall giving Woodman the lead. This gave Nailmakers the kick they needed and Andy Taylor get on the end of a cross to put the teams level at the break.

After the break Nailmakers had a change of shape which worked to their advantage and they took the lead with a Dan Beech header. Shortly after it was 3-1 when Jack Joyce nodded home from a scrabble in the box. Nailmakers kept the ball well to make sure Woodman couldn't get back into it.

Jubilee entertained neighbours Wadsley Bridge Sixers for a game which both sides were determined to win, but it was Sixers that came away with the points thanks to a single George Rudd strike. Jubilee started out of the traps fast and created plenty of chances, but couldn't make them count and Wadsley made them pay a great cross in was tapped home by Rudd. Jubilee rallied and created more and more chances but couldn't make them count and the same story continued into the second half but Sixers held firm to get the win.

Eckington kept up the chase for a top three finish by edging a tight game with former champions Chapeltown RBL 1-0. The decisive moment came midway through the first half when after a quick break forward the ball fell to the feet of Aiden Horspool and he rifled it home.

RBL pushed hard after the break and created several promising chances. Afonso Ferreira twice came closest to equalising, one effort rolled just wide of the post, while another was denied by a strong save from the Eckington goalkeeper. Morgan Cowell also had two good attempts in the second half as RBL increased the pressure in search of a leveller, but Eckington held firm. At the other end, Lewis Fox played a key role in keeping Chap RBL in the game, producing a number of impressive saves throughout the match to prevent Eckington from extending their lead. Despite the late pressure and several near misses, Chap RBL couldn't find the equaliser and Eckington held on to secure the win.

Leaders Hacken-

thorpe came away from promotion rivals AFC Wisewood with a narrow 3-2 victory. Hackenthorpe took the lead when Aston Thompson provided the pass for Chad Gibson tap in. They doubled their lead when a fast paced cross from Harrison Case found a sliding Xavier Dandrade at back post.

Wisewood came out second half with grit between their teeth and goals from Will Osgathorpe and Oliver Scott brought them level. With game on a knife edge it could have gone either way with game opening up and chances at both ends. None were taken until Kydn Gray found Nathan Hunt in space, and he in turn found Xavier Dandrade's dancing feet in an area with legs flying all over, but he composed himself and nestled the ball into bottom corner with his wrong foot for the winner.

Mosborough Reds moved up to third with a 3-1 victory over a Crookes that had a depleted squad. Goals from Harrison Barker, Ash Hotchin and Ben Dronfield in first half put Reds in control and although Crookes pulled one back through Oli McQuillin mid-way through second they couldn't breach the Reds defence again.

Brunsmear gained their second away win of the season in style with a 5-1 victory over Kelham Island. Gareth Murdoch did most of the damage with four goals along with one from Taylor Askham. Oliver Maltby netted one for Kelham mid-way through the second half, but never really looked like getting back into the game.

Baby Shark gained their best win of the season with a 5-1 victory over Cotts. First half goals from Jahmal Riley, Cole Whitham and Keiron Sykes-Tobin put Shark in control. Roma Myers and Dan Ramsey added two more after the break making Chris Salt's penalty for Cotts just a consolation.

Gym Bar Close Gap in Premier Thriller

MEXBOROUGH
SUNDAY

SHAUN BEST

Swinton Athletic moved joint top of Division One, following a 4-1 victory at home to Barnburgh WMC. The hosts ensured they had plenty in reserve, with three of their four goals coming from substitutes Matthew Bennett and a brace by Josh Stead. Joshua Bennett completed the Swinton scorers, with Paul Lund netting Barnburgh's reply. Elsewhere, two of the Division's chasing pack picked up victories on the road. Harley Norris struck the only goal for Highgate WMC in their 1-0 victory at Courtyard. Meanwhile, Max Kendall, Luke Morris and Simon Tierney helped Cross Keys Wath edge out Mexborough Knights 3-2. Cameron Flint and Keigan Beal got on the scoresheet for the Knights.

In the Division's other two games, New Mason Arms beat Mexborough Athletic 4-3, while Union Jack brushed Queens Head Hoyland aside 7-0. Gym Bar moved to within a point of the Premier Division summit after a 4-3 win at home to league leaders Swinton Ring O'Bells. Bayley Lowe and Rhys Plater each bagged a brace for the hosts. Joshua Laughton, Gage Parton and Scott Walsh replied for Ring O'Bells. Groves Social progressed in the Brian Hardeman Challenge Cup following a 6-1 victory over The Sly Fox. Liam Squires and Joe Setters both struck twice for Groves, with Matthew Ager and Jack Wesley completing the scoring for the home side. Aidan Oakley scored the Fox's solitary goal. Finally, Thomas Doherty and Triston Taylor were both at the double for White Hart Wadworth, who downed Denaby United 4-2 in the Steve Venables Memorial Trophy. Cobi Rushton scored both of Denaby's goals.

Six Goal Selston Seal Trophy Final Spot

CENTRAL MIDS

RICHARD LANE

A mixed bag of fixtures this week included matches in the Camper UK North and South divisions, Buckingham Insurance League Cup and Abacus Lighting Floodlit Cup.

The semi finals of the Floodlit Cup will, somewhat surprisingly, involve three reserve team, two from Division One. Mickleover Athletic made the 150 mile round trip to Scunthorpe to face Appleby Frodingham Reserves but returned unrewarded after the match went to penalties.

The match itself ended in a 2-2 draw, Rob Glynn and Adam Whomersley scoring for Frod, Dom Hurst and Asher Lester-Newton replying for the visitors, the resulting shootout went in favour of the hosts 3-2. At the opposite end of the league's catchment area, Stapenhill Reserves doubled Division One's representation in the last four as they eliminated Linby Colliery 2-1.

All three goals came in the first half, Joe Worth and Musa Jeng scoring for the home side, Ewan Gibson's goal for Linby not quite enough. Dinnington Town gained some recompense for last week's league defeat at Harworth Colliery with a 4-0 win putting them through to the semis. Tom Bishop struck twice in the opening quarter of an hour, Nathan Jessop putting the home side further ahead on 27 minutes before Mason Barlow sealed the win seven minutes after half time. The three winners will join Staveley Reserves in the semi finals.

The League Cup tie on Tuesday night ended in disappointment for Melbourne Dynamo as they lost 2-1 to visitors Holbrook Sports who took a two goal lead in the first half through Dylan Muir and Nathan Bennett. Regan Bickerton got one back for Dynamo, but they couldn't rustle up an equaliser.

More reserve sides featured in the only Premier North midweek fixture, Rossington Main and Worksop Town's second strings drawing 1-1, the point more valuable to bottom of the table Rossington for whom Noah Kilcoyne was the scorer, Elliott Probert with the goal for the Tigers.

The two Premier South fixtures kept the fight for top spot alive. Borrowwash Victoria won their first match of 2026 to keep their grip on third spot, Oscar Supple the scorer of the 38th minute goal which turned out to be the only one in their game against Holbrook St Michaels. To their great credit Mansfield Hosier Mills keep going against the odds. They had another rough 90 minutes on Wednesday night, not helped by two late red cards.

Visitors Selston took three points and six goals home with them. They were three up at half time, Josh Smith, Tom Batterham and Nick Hynes the scorers. Leighton Bowering added a fourth on the hour, Archie Hawkins coming off the bench to mark his debut with the last two goals.

The two Friday night matches ended with two of the top five picking up three points with another suffering a setback. Harworth Colliery were left disappointed, as Burngreave United continued their impressive run, two second half goals giving them a 2-0 win at Scrooby Road. Will Palmer put them in front three minutes after the break, Abdulrahman Asad with the second on 56 minutes.

Brodsworth Main maintained their position at the top of the table with a 3-1 defeat of a makeshift Glapwell side who suffered a whole list of misfortunes including two players turning up at Brodsworth.

In a scrappy game Joe Smith was quick off the mark with a 5th minute opener for Brodsworth. Evan Palmer levelled the scores on 24 but it took only three minutes for Callum Verhees to restore the visitors' lead. The result was in the balance until five minutes from time when the prolific Callum Stockton settled matters. Kinsley Boys are still well placed, just behind the top two but with games in hand on both. They narrowly defeated Worksop Town Reserves 2-1 with the free scoring Lucas Stubbs striking on 28 minutes, Kyle Rose with the second just six minutes later.

Dinnington sent a reminder to their rivals, hammering Teversal 6-1. That man Jordan Turner was again on form, with four of the goals, opening his account on 11 minutes and following it up three minutes before half time. The goals began to flow in the second half, Josh Stead adding number three on 50 minutes before Turner completed his hat trick from the penalty spot three minutes before the hour followed by his fourth and one from Mason Barlow to complete the half dozen, Josh Parfitt getting a consolation for Tevie six minutes from time. Staveley Reserves coasted to a 5-0 win against AFC Bentley. A Sam Davies hat trick and one each for Tom Phipps and Isaac Wileman were more than enough to take the points.

A single second half goal for Ben Davies was sufficient to give Elite the edge over SJR Worksop. Ollerton Town couldn't have left it any later to snatch the points from AFC Phoenix, the winner coming in the final minute of added time. The visitors went in front on 18 minutes with a well struck long range effort from Danny Briggs, Ollerton's George Slack levelling the scores in the 36th minute, only for Raul Ciaboata to re-establish the lead for Phoenix just four minutes later. The hosts equalised again seven minutes into the second half, Harvey Limb the scorer. That's how it stayed until Slack became the local hero deep into added time.

Melbourne Dynamo overcame their League Cup disappointment, Blidworth Welfare paying the price as they sank to an 8-0 home defeat. The goals were shared between six players, Jake Peverley and Tyler Withers getting two apiece, Jack Goodband, Jack Griffiths, Regan Bickerton and Isaac Gosling with one each. Derby Singh Brothers staged a second half comeback to claim a point at Mickleover Athletic who took a 3-1 half time lead with two goals from Jamie Laird and one for Kyle Clamp, Tyler Johal replying for Singhs. The visitors pulled it round after the interval, Johal getting his second and Immanuel Freeman also finding the net.

The teams at the lower end of the table had a much better day on Saturday, Mansfield Hosier Mills picked up their first point since mid-November, pulling off a 2-2 draw with Holbrook St Michaels thanks to Dean Webster-Smith and Fynn Marshall whose goals were matched by Nduoha Chikala and Rich Hanslow.

Fellow strugglers Mickleover Reserves have looked a side with a lot more confidence in recent matches and had another promising ninety minutes at Cromford where, despite a spirited fightback, they were narrowly beaten 3-2. After an early red card the home side went into the lead with a Stu Baker goal. A Scott Taylor double saw Cromford sitting pretty, but Mickleover showed some fight, Dylan Buckley-Moore and Juste Ngette reducing the deficit to one and giving the hosts some nervous moments.

Two second half goals were enough for Linby Colliery to take the points from their home match with Holbrook Sports. Harry Thorne headed home a Louis Fazal cross for the first on 58 minutes, Zach Hamilton firing the second from the edge of the area twelve minutes from time.

FC Sunnyhill took on Mickleover RBL winning by the odd goal in five. Two Kaylan Anderson goals and one from Lewis Benjamin shaded it for Sunnyhill, Dean Oliver and Jordan Lee taking the Legion close. One goal was sufficient to separate Gresley Rovers Reserves and Bakewell Town, Gresley's Stevie Savage ensuring the points stayed at home.

Borrowwash Victoria capped a much more encouraging week, progressing in the Buckingham Insurance League Cup with a 3-1 win against Wirksworth Ivanhoe who went in front with a 27th minute goal from Tom Mellor. Andy Boateng equalised eight minutes later, the match settled by two goals in the space of two minutes, Ethan Watson putting Vics in front on 75 minutes, Jacob Hawksworth making sure shortly afterwards.

Graham Street joined them as they ended Stapenhill Reserves' credible bid to dominate the two senior cup competitions, the final score 5-2. Marcus Thomas put Prims in front in the fifth minute, Blaise Duruaku doubling the lead on 17. Will Baker halved the lead three minutes before half time. That was how it stayed until the 72nd minute when Duruaku got his second, followed two minutes later by a fourth from Tristan Elson. Alex Seale turned the screw five minutes from time but Stapenhill had the last word, Musa Jeng scoring in the dying seconds.

Congratulations to Selston who will contest the Notts FA Senior Trophy Final after beating Notts Senior League outfit AC United 4-1. A straight red for an opposing player in the 26th minute was punished almost immediately, Selston taking the lead minutes later, Alex Hardman with a half volley from twelve yards. Seven minutes later a 25 yard rocket from Elliott Bland provided a bit of a cushion for the second half. Tom Batterham made it three on the hour before their opponents pulled one back on 77 minutes. An extraordinary lengthy period of added time gave Jordan Black the opportunity to extend the lead and complete a convincing victory.

The Handsworth Derby at Olivers Mount went the way of Handsworth FC Blacks. 2 for Archie Stothard, 2 for Shaylan Ali and one for Leo Coughlan gave Blacks an impressive 5-1 win over their hosts Handsworth FC Ambers who replied through Kye Smedley.

In the other Premier Division game Brunsmeer Athletic had a comfortable 6-1 home win over Dodworth Miners Welfare who to be fair to them have been struggling with a sickness bug running though the Team in the build up to the match. Vincent McKinney with two, Liam Farnsworth with two, Joshua Booth and Sonny Owens for Athletic. Archie Ryan replied for Welfare.

Plenty of goals around in Division One this weekend. Abbey Lane go top of the league with a thumping 11-1 away win at hapless Worksop Town Yellows who are still looking for their first win of the season. Luke Bissett with four, Jeffrey Nweke-Ifediba with a hat-trick, Komi Koko with two, Dylan Johal and Jake Speirs for the league leaders.

Dinnington Town beat Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 4-2 at home. Harry Fountain with two, Freddie Fowler and Finlay Deakin for Town, with a Samuel Eades double Rose's reply.

Penistone Church had a great home win over Worksop Boys.

Three nil up at half time they went on to win 5-1. Kai Caley with two, Jack Cartwright, Luke Fretwell and Caiden Gyte for Church. Blake Morris with Worksop Boys reply.

Staveley Miners Welfare Blues had a comfortable 5-0 home win over Kitlocker FC. Man of the match Theo Hill with a double, Jack Lenton, Noah Walker and an own goal scorers for the Blues.

In the other Division One game Athersley Recreation came away from Bracken Moor with a 4-2 win over Stocksbridge Park Steels Blues. Eromosele Ovienloba with two, Riley Senior and Morgan Sida for Athersley. Harris Morfitt and Jack Bright replied for Steels.

There was drama at both ends of the FA Women's National League Division One North last Sunday and with a third (in number of games) of the season still to play, doubtless plenty more drama to come before the final set of fixtures on 26th April.

Doncaster Rovers Belles remain in the higher of the two relegation places, but a much improved second half display saw them rescue a potentially precious point at home to Stockport County who had forged a 2-0 interval advantage thanks to a brace by Emily Bradshaw once the game reached the half hour mark. Having won 6-1 when the teams met back in September County had looked on course to complete a comfortable double.

Maisie Everitt reduced the arrears several minutes after the break and Jasmine Saxton levelled matters just before the hour. It was the first time this season Belles had salvaged any reward after trailing in a League game. Manager Dylan Wimbury was much happier with the second half, but knows Belles will need to produce such form over a full 90 minutes in their remaining games (rather than just in the second half when chasing the game as was the case several times prior to his arrival).

Bradshaw is among the players striving to finish as the division's top scorer. In League goals only she is currently one behind Bianca Owens (13 goals) of Norton & Stockton Ancients. When Cup games are added, Bradshaw is now ahead with a 17 goal tally.

In contrast, Belles went into the game with just 11 League goals to their credit and seven of those came in their two wins over York City. Their post match tally of 13 goals is the joint lowest in the Division with York who are one point ahead of Belles in what is a three team battle to avoid being relegated along with bottom team Blackburn Rovers who are not yet mathematically down, but would need maximum points from their five remaining games to stand any chance of staying up.

Blackburn who have had an eventful, but for the wrong reasons, season after dropping down from the second tier due to funding issues showed that games in the Division are not always the formality the table may hint at. They were 1-0 up at the interval at home to title chasing Leeds United who levelled midway through the second half, but needed two stoppage time goals to clinch maximum points to move them level on points with leaders Huddersfield Town.

Leeds had enough of the game to have won comfortably against Chester-Le-Street Town a week earlier, but conceded two goals against the overall balance of play in an eventual 3-2 win.

Those Leeds games are relevant to Belles who were due to host Leeds on Wednesday this midweek (the weather at least looking kindly enough to avoid a repeat of the February postponement). Interestingly, while Leeds are the Division's second highest scorers with 36 goals, their goals have been spread with no player on more than 5.

Belles travel to Blackburn this Sunday and host Chester-Le-Street (two points ahead of Belles after last Sunday's games) at the end of March and maximum points from these games would go a long way in their quest for survival.

Sheffield FC finally played their first home game of 2026 when they hosted Northampton Town in Division One Midlands. The visitors, who were runners up last season, but are now more concerned at avoiding the drop this term, almost secured a point, but Tilly Hallas-Potts scored in the last ten minutes to keep Sheffield unbeaten at home where they have 16 points from six games.

Barnsley Women travelled to Kidderminster Harriers another team who are battling to stay up. Barnsley won 4-0 when the teams met earlier in the season and they came close to repeating that scoreline. Ocean Rolandsen's goal separated the pair at the interval with Freya Walton and Tanya Fozzard on target in the second half to complete a 3-0 win.

That was Barnsley's fourth clean sheet away from home (equalling that of Boldmere St Michaels) and their seventh in the Division this season. Apart from the three games where they conceded five times, Barnsley's defence has not been breached more than once in any of the other 14 games.

It was definitely not unlucky 13 for Grimsby Town Academy who stretched their 100% record in the East Midlands Women's Regional League Division One North to 13 games to clinch the title with three games to spare.

They won 4-1 at Dronfield Town, the only team who could have possibly pipped them, but that would have required Dronfield gaining maximum points from all their remaining games and Grimsby themselves ending the season with a trio of defeats!

Grimsby's 4-1 victory was their narrowest away success of the season. Maia Taylor netted what proved Dronfield's consolation to reduce a 3-0 half time deficit.

Brunsmeer Athletic games continue to be a rich source of goals in the North East Women's Regional League Premier Division where they are 8th (of 11). Bradie Wild netted both Brunsmeer's goals in their 4-2 home defeat to Wallsend BC. With the division reduced from the notional 12 to 11 because of a withdrawal, one relegation place has already been filled and the other is all but filled by Sunderland West End who are currently on minus two points, 14 points less than Brunsmeer.

The Southern Division title race is wide open after Handsworth replaced Leeds Modernians as leaders following the pair's encounter at Oliver's Mount.

Leeds arrived in top spot with a 100% record from their nine games, but left having dropped to second, a point behind Handsworth who have played a game more. Dani Pinder and Abby Watkinson were the scorers in an impressive display by Handsworth who increased their unbeaten home record to five games and their current unbeaten League run to six games which have yielded 16 points.

There is not a great deal to separate the two teams who meet in the return fixture at the end of March.

Rossington Main hit back from 1-0 down at the interval to win 5-2 at bottom team York City Development thanks to goals by Lauren Breen 2, Sarah Black, Kaitlyn Darley and Lily Robinson. It was the third time Rossington have netted five goals in what is their debut season in the Division.

Millmoor Juniors, who lost 2-1 at Lower Hopton, remain two points clear of York who occupy the sole automatic relegation spot (due to two teams having dropped out of the division).

Stocksbridge Park Steels made it 12 wins from 13 games in their quest for the Sheffield & Hallamshire Women & Girls League Division One title with Gemma Harte 2 and Anna Davis on the mark in a 3-1 victory at Frickley Athletic who are fourth.

YP Women remain five points behind Stocksbridge from level games, but the pair are now level when it comes to goal difference (48) after YP recorded the division's biggest win of the season, 14-0 at home to bottom team Kiveton Park. Both Talia Brammah and Emily Fowler bagged hat tricks with Charlotte Bennehan 2, Kelsey Spink-Robinson 2, Fran Brown, Heidi O'Reilly, Daisy Oxley and an own goal adding to the woes of Kiveton who have yet to gain a point.

Staveley Miners Welfare boast the Division's only unbeaten record. Brooke Emmerson netted the game's only goal in their win at Rotherham United Under-21s. On paper Staveley have the potential to be in the title mix, but a backlog of fixtures is their biggest obstacle. However, the outcome of the home and away meetings against each of the current top three will be key.

Also winning 1-0 away were Oughtibridge War Memorial, Laura Cain on target for maximum points at Sheffield United Community. Holly Jary-Mappin was the scorer for Handsworth Reserves in their 1-1 draw at Huddersfield Town Under-23s.

Barnsley FC Ladies continued their march towards the Division Two title, winning 1-0 at Sheffield Wednesday Reserves to make it 40 points from 15 games as they stay 11 points clear. Lily Holt netted the game's only goal on 34 minutes.

Barnsley enjoyed plenty of possession and created a high number of chances, but had to settle for scoring just the once. They struck the woodwork either side of the goal in the first half, while home keeper Kirsty Johnson commanded her goal with distinction against a team who have scored goals almost at will in several games this season.

The two teams immediately below Barnsley started level on 26 points and it was Brinsworth Whitehill who claimed the points with victory by the odd goal in seven over hosts Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves. Gabi Green, Amy Horner, Madison Lee and Millie Lee were on target for Brinsworth who have scored at least twice in every game. Heidi Astle, Jessica Cox and Jasmine Kerfoot netted the home goals.

Penistone Church drew 0-0 at home to So-crates. It was Penistone's second such scoreline this season and the fourth overall in the Division where games without a goal have proved very rare over the years.

In contrast, Isabel Castleton 2 and Chloe Wade were on target for Millmoor Juniors Reserves who drew 3-3 at home to SJR Worksop Development.

In the meeting of the bottom two, Rossington Main Reserves opened up a ten point gap over Edenthorpe thanks to a 2-1 home win which lifted them to a point behind Dearne & District. Millie Guest scored both for Rossington with Louisa Dixon on target for Edenthorpe.

Charnock Ridgeway, for whom Georgia Skitt was on target, missed the chance to regain top spot in Division Three when they lost 2-1 at Kiveton Park Reserves whose goals were scored by Mikayla Harper and Sophie Ibberson.

Lauren Carr was the consolation scorer for Scawthorpe Scorpions in their 5-1 defeat at Chesterfield Town, while it was the same for Anna Greenham of Sheffield Wednesday Development who lost 5-1 at Swallownest Miners Welfare.

The top three in Division Four all won. Leaders Brampton United stretched the division's sole unbeaten record to 14 games thanks to a 5-1 home victory over Wombwell Town. Ellie Martin bagged a hat trick along with singles by Bobbie Tonks and Shannon Workman for Brampton with Jo Marfleet the consolation scorer for Wombwell.

Second place Frickley Athletic 2nd XI won 2-1 at Sheffield Medics, while Barlborough were 3-1 home winners over Bramley Sunnyside for whom Olivia Miller scored the only goal of the second half.

FURD, Football Unites, Racism Divides recorded a 5-0 home win over bottom team Rotherham Town thanks to a hat trick from Jo-dean Wadsworth along with singles by Katie Paling and Ursula Talalaj. Courage FC won 3-2 at West End Terriers.

The British Universities and Colleges Sports season is in its closing stages. The Northern Tier 2 Division 2A had a title decider as its final game with table topping Sheffield Hallam 1s at home to Lancaster 1s (two points behind) this midweek.

Hallam went into the winner takes all finale on the back of a 10-1 home victory over Liverpool 2s. Molly Firth bagged a hat trick for Hallam with a brace by each of Annie Davidson, Jemima Jarvis and Amber Sewell, plus a single by Lucy Graham racking up the double figure score.

Xana Sved was on target for Hallam 2s who lost 3-1 to York 1s whose win clinched the Northern Tier 3 Division 3B title with a game to spare. Hallam 3s were 4-1 winners over Liverpool Hope 1s thanks to goals from Alex Aylward, Liv Colley, Mia Jervis and Lily Sergeant.

University of Sheffield 1s were 3-1 home winners over Leeds University 2s thanks to goals from Livvi Bennett, Tilly Brown and Emily Pritchard. Lia Lucas, Daisy Moore and Phoebe Wilars were on target for the 2s in their 3-2 win at Leeds Beckett 3s.

Hooper Hat Trick Seals Away Rampage

CALLUM ROBINSON

Sheffield made it back to back away victories on Saturday, overcoming a chaotic week of selection trouble to beat Rossendale 36-26 and secure a hugely valuable bonus point win in National 2 North. This rearranged fixture – one of those wiped out by January’s freeze – came straight after the Macclesfield postponement and last week’s strong showing at Billingham, and it delivered another healthy dose of momentum for the visitors.

The build up had been messy. Prop Alex Reid was ruled out early in the week, with fellow props Jake Hicklin and George Rogers following him onto the unavailable list later on, while longer term injuries to Archie Crapper, Cammy Catleugh and Jack Hedley already had the squad stretched. The solution was to raid the second team before their own trip to Wath, bringing in props Aaron Lonsdale and Alex Keeton and utility back Lewis Taylor – all stepping in without hesitation.

Despite travelling uphill in the first half, Sheffield started sharply. Pressure earned a lineout inside the 22, the drive drew in defenders, and the ball was swept wide for Chris Hooper to finish well, Callum Posa converting for 7-0. Rossendale hit back through the evergreen John Leota out wide, but Sheffield answered immediately. Alex Fawdry stole a lineout to launch an attack that ended with hooker Will Archer crashing over, and moments later Felix Crapper added a third as Sheffield took control at 19-5 after half an hour.

Rossendale, battling at the foot of the table, found a response before the break, a converted try dragging the score back to 19-12 and giving the second half a very different feel. Three minutes after the restart, they were level, Jack Lightbown forcing his way over and Finley Rogers converting for 19-19.

But Sheffield steadied themselves, reclaimed field position through a run of penalties, and struck again when Hooper coolly finished out wide for the bonus point try. When Rossendale overthrew a defensive lineout, Noah Cowan’s clever chip forced a five metre opportunity, and the maul delivered once more, replacement hooker Rhodri Campbell dotting down for 29-19.

With Rossendale’s scrum and lineout beginning to creak, Sheffield kept their foot down. Hooper – sharp, dangerous and clinical all afternoon – cut through for his hat trick try just after the hour, with Posa adding the extras for 36-19 and putting daylight between the sides. Rossendale mounted a late surge and earned a bonus point try through replacement prop Saba Asatiani, but Sheffield saw out the closing stages confidently and never looked likely to let the win slip.

It was a performance built on grit, adaptability and ruthless finishing – none more so than from Hooper, who delivered the kind of statement display that away wins are built on.

After that hard fought victory, Sheffield are back on the road again this weekend with a third straight away fixture, travelling to Scunthorpe on Saturday (3pm, Heslam Park) in National 2 North. We have yet to face them this season because of the run of postponements, and the last meeting at Heslam Park came back in November 2021 during our Midlands Premier promotion campaign, when Scunthorpe edged a tight contest 14-10.

The hosts sit 12th with four wins from 19 and only a single point separating them from Hull and Rossendale beneath, and they pushed Sheffield Tigers all the way last weekend in a narrow 25-21 defeat. With the pressure on them to climb clear of trouble and Sheffield hunting a third straight away win, it has all the makings of a tough, physical contest on a notoriously combative surface.

If Sheffield bring the same accuracy around the set piece and keep supplying the back three as sharply as they did at Rossendale, they’ll travel with confidence that there are more points waiting in Lincolnshire.

Sheffield Win Keeps National League Hopes Alive

SHEFFIELD
HOCKEY CLUB
ANDY PETTIGREW

Sheffield HC's women's 1st team took a giant step towards to national league safety last Saturday when they beat fellow-Yorkshire strugglers Wakefield. Both sides languish in the two relegation spots at the bottom of the EHL Women's Conference North league table. Both teams had four points with Sheffield one place above Wakefield on goal difference.

This contest was the proverbial six-pointer and a draw similar to the 0-0 results back in early November would benefit neither team. At the start of the match both teams had four points and Wakefield were in bottom place, with Sheffield one place higher on goal difference. Third from bottom were Didsbury Northern were on eight points and above them Kirkby Stephen are safe from relegation on 14 points.

Sheffield got the perfect start to this crucial match when early pressure in the first quarter led to a penalty corner goal when Kath Hughes thumped the ball home into the far corner. 1-0 Sheffield. Wakefield rallied and attacked the Sheffield goal late in the quarter winning three penalty corners but they were unable to score as the on-form Sheffield defence negated each attempt on goal.

Kath Hughes

In the second quarter Sheffield determination put the pressure back on Wakefield's defence and following a combination of well-structured and breakaway attacks Alex Buskwood prodded home Sheffield's second goal early in the quarter. 2-0 Sheffield.

After half-time the game really got going as both teams fought hard with good attacks at both ends of the pitch. Wakefield's Claire Higginson scored an open-play goal in the 41st minute, and Wakefield were well and truly back in the game. Play became fast and furious with the score at 2-1 in Sheffield's favour and with Wakefield in the ascendant, Sheffield's efficient defence had to work hard to stem Wakefield's pressure.

The game had just moved into its fourth and last quarter when with the keeper beaten Hana Jokhi make a crucial save with her stick on the goal line. Soon after that Wakefield did score when Lexi Ramshay equalized for them. Then almost immediately Sheffield won a penalty stroke when an aerial ball hit a Wakefield defender's head on the goal line.

Sheffield's penalty stroke taker Hana Jokhi stepped up with hoping to score Sheffield third goal. Unfortunately, with a rare miss it was not to be as Jokhi's flick narrowly raced past the outside of the right-hand post.

With the vocal 100-strong Sheffield crowd roaring their team on Sheffield reacted to the missed penalty stroke with determined and furious attacks. In the 57th minute Sheffield pressure paid with the award of two penalty corner's one-after-other one minute after the missed penalty stroke. As if to atone for her earlier miss team top-scorer Hana Jokhi stepped up and smashed the ball home to restore Sheffield's very deserved lead.

After this Sheffield managed the game well breaking down dispirited Wakefield's few attacks and controlled the game ending with Sheffield's 3-2 victory. Sheffield's path to national league safety continues next week when they travel to Kirkby Stephen in another must win game. When these sides met back in November at Abbeydale SC Sheffield lost 1-0 to their Cumbrian cousins in a match that Sheffield should have won.

Kirkby Stephen held off the early Sheffield attacks and three minutes before half-time Kirkby youngster Martha Bainbridge scored the only goal of the game.

Sheffield won twelve penalty corner during the course of the game and would expect, possibly, to score one in every four. This was one of those matches that was lost despite having all the pressure.

Kirkby Stephen need a win from their remaining three matches to ensure safety and from their perspective beating Sheffield would not only ensure their survival but make sure that Sheffield could not catch them. Only Didsbury Northern sandwiched between Kirkby Stephen and Sheffield would have an outside chance of catching them, even then they would be level on points and it would be down to goal difference to see who stays up.

Should Sheffield win they would move up to ten points and require that third place Fylde win or draw against Didsbury Northern next Saturday for Sheffield to move up one place out of the two relegation slots.

If all of that happens the way Sheffield want there are still two matches left for it all change again.

On the 21st of March Sheffield play Durham University 2 at Abbeydale Park and even though Durham are in fourth place in the league a Sheffield win or draw could be enough to keep Sheffield up.

EHL Conference North fourth place Sheffield Men's 1st team travelled away to third place Lincoln-based Lindum.

It only took seven minutes for Sheffield's Chris Carter to score the first of his two penalty corners during this 2-2 Draw. Lindum equalized one minute later when Thomas Jones scored in open play and they took the lead on 28 minutes. After the break Chris Carter scored his and the team's second penalty corner and the game ended in a 2-2 draw.

Carter is now the team's leading goal scorer on nine goals (one penalty stroke and eight penalty corners), closely followed by both Cameron Hallowses and Harry Faulkner on 7 goals each.

Next Sunday (14:00 on Sunday 15 March) Doncaster come to Abbeydale SC for the ultimate local South Yorkshire derby. The teams met in Doncaster on 9th November when they drew 1-1.

Doncaster currently sit one place below in Sheffield in 5th position, but they recently drew 1-1 against bottom place Oxtun and lost 3-2 at home to Lindum while Sheffield are on a ten-match unbeaten run having drawn with top three teams above them in the table. The pundits fancy a Sheffield win!

Last Sunday the club had two teams playing in EH Championship matches.

The Men's 2nd team, already promoted to the Area Premier Division had a quarter-final match against probably soon to be promoted to the National League Sheffield University Bankers. Bankers won 4-0.

At the same time Sheffield over-45 women's team travelled to Liverpool to play against Isle of Man team Manx B in the EH Women's Masters Vase - Manx won 1-0.

Five Trophies Up For Grabs On Finals Day

Football and basketball finals are taking shape and on Saturday, March 21 sees the SFSS Football Cup Finals taking place, with five trophies up for grabs.

The Year 7, 8, 9, 10 and sixth form finals take centre stage at Warminster Road Playing Fields at 10 am, which for many readers will present positive memories of playing school football on Saturday mornings, meeting at the bus station and making your own way across the city to compete against local city rivals and then reading the results later in the Green un.

Nowadays, schools tend to play their fixtures after school rather than the weekend, competing in school leagues and the big knockout competitions. With 33 secondary schools the path to the final can be a challenge and as the draws are made for each round, there are always cup shocks and surprises.

Teams have to be well organised and informed to ensure they are prepared for the knock out matches. Without key players and availability many schools have seen their chances of reaching the final curtailed. For other schools the target is to reach a round further than the year before and hope for a good draw, a home draw and their favoured pitch with favourable conditions.

Looking at the upcoming finals only two of the current holders have survived. Tapton who won the year 7 trophy last season have had an incredible season and this final will be just be the first of theirs as last week they qualified for the National Final after beating Northampton School for Boys.

More to come on that superb extra time victory. High Storrs will be their opponents and will hold no fear as they have actually beaten their opponents earlier in the year in the league, the only team to beat them. This should be an exciting close match with the outcome unpredictable.

At Year 8, the Sheffield United Shield is at stake, which has been played for since 1907. Last year winners Bradfield were knocked out in the early stages so a new name on the cup this year. Tapton, who were last year 7 winners will have confidence they can do it again, with another high scoring cup run this year. They will play the winners of King Egberts or Ecclesfield, no strangers to finals day. They will be relishing the opportunity to compete against the holders and challenge for their crown.

At Year 9 Meadowhead have had a comfortable passage to the final and are waiting for the winners of the Bradfield & Westfield semi final. Bradfield were last year's winners and have been beaten by Meadowhead already this year in the national cup, so another tight competitive game is in store.

At year 10, the current holders King Egberts remain in the semi final but have to overcome Handsworth in their match for the honour of playing Silverdale or Mercia in the final.

The sixth form final sees Meadowhead School, current Clegg Shield holders against a strong Silverdale side, who are desperate to see the trophy back in their cabinet next year.

All finals will start at 10, with the presentation of medals and trophies, from 11.30 am at the pavilion. Entry £ for adults £1 for children.
