A Jamestown High School production of

A LITTLE MORE HOMEWORK

a musical revue about purpose, rebellion, love and acceptance

Just over a year ago, theaters across the world went dark. Sets were left unpainted. Costumes unsewn. Songs unsung. Our show, Once Upon a Mattress, was one of the many that suffered this fate. And for a time, the possibility of putting on a show this year felt out of reach. Yet here we are. This show is being performed by kids who have been deprived of the chance to participate in many normal school activities for the past year. They're eager to get back out there to make music and memories together, in whatever form that takes. Tonight's show may not have the same bells and whistles we are accustomed to, but it does have heart.

When the time came to choose songs for this musical revue, I was excited, but also overwhelmed. How am I going to choose JUST 18-20 songs from the entire Broadway repertoire!? It's so vast and there are so many great songs to choose from that I didn't know where to begin. I decided I needed some sort of theme to help narrow my choices down. Then the idea came to me: all the songs I chose should be representative of the teenage experience. Oftentimes, high school aged students are cast in roles with which they have little to no connection. How does a 15-year-old embody the life of a 50-year-old with 5 children?! I guess the short answer is "acting", but this time around I wanted to give the cast a more immediate connection. Throughout this show, they will be performing music that they can really relate to. Each song has been carefully chosen to reflect their day-to-day life: the ideas of growth and finding your purpose; moments of rebellion and angst; young and innocent love; and finally, acceptance and hope.

I would like to thank everyone for joining us for this performance of A Little More Homework, a show that I hope—especially after this past year—lets our phenomenal cast be teenagers a little while longer.

Hungry Like The Wolf, Peter Pan, Guys and Dolls, JCC Newsies, The Drowsy Chaperone, JCC West Side Story, The Producers, and Once Upon A Mattress. Holly is a member of the JHS A Cappella Choir, Madrigal Singers, and National Honor Society. She is also involved in many extracurricular activities and sports such as: JHS Varsity Soccer, Frewsburg Soccer Club, JHS Varsity Indoor/Outdoor track and field, as well as competitive gymnastics for fourteen years. Holland has studied privately with Marjorie Switala for five years and has participated in NYSSMA Solo Festival. In addition, Holly has acquired a contract with MTM Agency for modeling and acting to pursue further opportunities. Upon graduation, Holland will be heading to the heart of the industry to obtain a degree in the Fine Arts for Film and Television Acting. She would like to thank all past and present mentors, teachers, family, and friends for their continued support along the way. Holland's participation in the JHS theatre program has given her lasting memories and paved the path for her future. She encourages everyone to cherish every moment as someday, the curtain will close and we will all take our last bow.

Olivia Kubera, daughter of Rebecca and Kyle Kubera, is a sophomore at Jamestown High School. This is her first production at JHS. Olivia's past performances include being the "Star To Be" in Washington Middle Schools Annie Jr, 2019. Olivia is a part of the JHS Mixed Chorus & A Cappella Choir. She would like to thank her parents, grandparents, siblings, and extended family & friends for their endless support.

Jaidan Lutgen, daughter of Jason Lutgen and Nadia Lutgen, is a freshman here at JHS, and is involved in many activities, including Winterguard, Marching Band, Chorus, and Student Council, where she serves as the president of the ninth grade class. This is her first production with the theater team, but she has really enjoyed her time with the cast and crew and learning the skills of the stage.

Sydney Maggio, daughter of Mary and Chris Maggio, is a freshman at Jamestown High School. This is her first musical production at JHS. Sydney was involved in the Persell Middle School production of Shrek Jr. the Musical as Mama Bear. She is involved in Mixed Chorus and successfully auditioned to become a part of JHS A Cappella Choir in the fall. She is thrilled to be involved in 'A Little More Homework'.

Adrianna McSkimming is a freshman at Jamestown High School. This is her first musical production at JHS. Previously she has performed in the cast of the musical Frozen and other productions put on by the Lucille Ball Little Theater. Adrianna is a member of JHS Marching Band and Mixed Chorus. Adrianna would like to congratulate everyone who worked so hard to make this musical a success.

Abrielle Monaghan is a freshman at Jamestown High School. She is very excited for the opportunity to be part of her first JHS production this year and is looking forward to future opportunities to perform. Her past credits include, Shrek Jr as a Duloc Performer. Abrielle is currently a member of the morning announcements, mixed chorus, and is excited to be accepted into the JHS A Cappella Choir for next year. Even with the pandemic, this experience has been very fun for her and she's looking forward to making more memories.

Jazmyn Norrod, daughter of Michael and Stephanie Norrod, is a freshmen at Jamestown High School. She has performed in 3 musicals in middle school: Peter Pan Jr., Annie Jr. and Wizard of Oz Jr. She is very excited to start her high school journey and grateful to be a part of the musical this year.

Chrissy Rose Panteli is the daughter of Pantelis and Linda Panteli of Jamestown. She is back at JHS after graduating in 2020 to gain more work experience. She is very excited to perform as a dancer and in the chorus of, "A Little More Homework", as this is her first musical. Chrissy has been dancing for the past 14 years. She studies Hip Hop with Tiffany Wakeley and Greek Dances with the Yassou Festival Dancers. She has been playing violin for the past 8 years, most recently with Nina Karbacka. Chrissy Rose is a member of the JHS Mixed Chorus and St Nicholas Orthodox Church choir. She also participates in many sports with Special Olympics. After music, her second love is animals. She has been a volunteer at the Chautauqua County Humane Society for the past 6 years and currently does work study at Dog Moms. She plans to have a career working with animals.

Abigail Roof, daughter of Lyle and Wendy Roof, is a senior at JHS. This is her fourth production with JHS. Her past performances include: Guys and Dolls (Mission Member), The Drowsy Chaperone (Mrs. Tottendale), and Once Upon a Mattress (Lady Lucille). Abigail participates in the JHS A Cappella Choir, as well as Concert Band and Marching Band. Next year, she will study Childhood Inclusive Education at SUNY Fredonia. She would like to thank the directors and cast of the musical for making her time at JHS so great, and wishes them all the best in years to come.

McKenna Schneider is a freshman at Jamestown High School. She is involved in the JHS Marching Band, as a trombone player, and is also a part of Mixed Chorus. Her past performances include: Shrek (Gingy), To Kill a Mockingbird (Scout), and Frozen (cast). McKenna wants to thank all of the people who put in so much work to make this musical happen during such a weird year.

Isaac Sinatra is a 9th grader at Jamestown High School. He has performed many shows in the past, starting with "It's a Wonderful Life". Isaac went on to do local performances of "Shrek Jr The Musical," "Newsies," "Alice in Wonderland," "Frozen Jr." and "West Side Story." He looks forward to his next performance and can't wait to get back on the stage.

House Rules

Children:

As a courtesy to fellow audience members, please remove disruptive children from the house during performances.

Latecomers:

Will be seated by an usher during an appropriate break in the show.

Cell Phones:

Please turn off cell phones and beepers before entering the theatre. Patrons anticipating emergency call (physicians) should set cell phones and beepers on vibrate so as not to disturb other audience members.

Food:

Food and/or beverages are not permitted in the house.

Fire Notice:

The lighted exit sign nearest the seat you occupy is the shortest route to exit the theatre. In the event of fire or other emergency where evacuation is necessary, quickly walk to that exit. DO NOT RUN.

No Smoking:

Smoking is not allowed anywhere inside the building.

Fragrances:

Please be aware that many people are sensitive or allergic to perfumes or other fragrances.

The videotaping or other video or audio recording of this production is strictly forbidden.
