La stoffa dei sogni

it — Il sentimento che voglio esprimere con questo breve testo, è un senso di gratitudine profonda per le tante persone che hanno creduto, difeso, sostenuto la fragile idea di un sogno.

Il sogno di creare e produrre divani ispirati dal fascino di una parola: libertà. Ho sempre immaginato che le nostre case sono molto simili al teatro: esse sono il luogo dove recitiamo la nostra esistenza e le scenografie che creiamo parlano di noi e raccontano di ciò che ci piace.

La casa è un organismo vivente: come la conchiglia che protegge e custodisce la sua perla, ma che contemporaneamente per nutrirsi lascia filtrare l'acqua del mare, così la nostra casa difende la nostra intimità, ma è aperta ai cambiamenti naturali o desiderati che si manifestano nel corso della vita. Da questi pensieri nasce il sogno che ci ha guidato nel dare sostanza al nostro lavoro: progettare arredi flessibili, arrendevoli alle esigenze attraverso gesti facili e umani per definire nuove esperienze di relax creativo e creare con loro una relazione come in una storia d'amore.

E non poteva che essere la continua ricerca della bellezza e dell'armonia, la stoffa su cui avvolgere il nostro sogno: materiali, colori, morbidezze, curve inedite, per unire nel progetto le virtù funzionali del design con l'universo della poesia e delle emozioni. “Siamo fatti della stessa stoffa di cui sono fatti i sogni” scriveva Shakespeare nel quarto atto della Tempesta.

Questa stoffa impalpabile è la nostra umanità più profonda che ci distingue dalle macchine e definisce il lato umano delle nostre case e dei nostri arredi. Le immagini che seguono raccontano questo viaggio ispirato dal sogno di produrre qualcosa di buono, autentico e felice.

en — The feeling I want to express with this short text is one of deep gratitude for the many people who have believed in, defended, and supported the fragile idea of a dream.

The dream of creating and producing sofas inspired by the allure of one word: freedom. I have always imagined our homes to be much like a theater: they are the place where we perform our lives, and the sets we create speak about us and reflect what we love.

The home is a living organism: like a shell that protects and holds its pearl, while still allowing seawater to filter through to nourish itself, our home protects our intimacy, yet remains open to the natural or desired changes that unfold throughout a lifetime. From these reflections a dream was born that shaped and inspired our work: designing flexible furniture, yielding to needs through simple, human gestures in order to define new experiences of creative relaxation and build a relationship with them—just like a love story.

Amelia Pegorin

The continuous pursuit of beauty and harmony became the natural foundation for shaping our dream: materials, colors, softness, and novel curves, to unite in the project the functional virtues of design with the universe of poetry and emotion. “We are such stuff as dreams are made on,” wrote Shakespeare in the fourth act of The Tempest.

This intangible fabric is our deepest humanity, which sets us apart from machines and defines the human side of our homes and our furnishings. The images that follow tell the story of this journey, inspired by the dream of creating something good, authentic, and joyful.
