The finely striped thread texture is sophisticated and impressive in equal measure, and the elegant soothing colours of creamy white with shades of beige, blue, brown and grey provide a whole host of co-ordinating design options.

This collection also incorporates a touch of glamour with metallic effects in gold and silver adding an elegant shimmer and a perfect finishing touch.

The best part is that all of the wallcoverings in this collection can be applied easily and seamlessly, thanks to a new, extremely hard-wearing and impact-resistant surface.
