My God, I am yours for time and eternity.
Teach me to cast myself entirely with a lively, unlimited confidence in your compassionate, tender pity.

Grant, O most merciful Redeemer, that whatever you ordain or permit may be acceptable to me.

nothing delight me but the hope of coming to the possession of You, my God and my all, in your everlasting kingdom.

JENNIE BARANCZYK, MS

Head Coach, Women's Basketball, University of Oklahoma

Jennie Baranczyk serves as head coach of the University of Oklahoma women's basketball team, where she has quickly established one of the nation's most competitive and respected programs. A three-time National Coach of the Year finalist and the 2024 Big 12 Coach of the Year, she has led Oklahoma to five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including Sweet 16 runs in 2025 and 2026.

A native of Iowa and a graduate of Dowling Catholic High School, Baranczyk was a standout student-athlete at the University of Iowa before beginning her coaching career. She spent nine seasons at Drake University, where she built a championship-caliber program and earned multiple Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honors. Known for her energy, leadership, and commitment to developing student-athletes both on and off the court, she has earned national recognition for her impact on the game.

Baranczyk's connection to Mercy College is both personal and meaningful, as she is the daughter of Joyce and Terry Lillis, whose transformational gift established the Joyce E. Lillis School of Nursing.

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

JOYCE E. LILLIS, MSN AND TERRANCE J. LILLIS, MS

Joyce E. and Terrance (Terry) J. Lillis are distinguished philanthropists whose lives and careers reflect a deep commitment to advancing education, faith, and healthcare. Joyce built an extraordinary career in nursing spanning more than four decades, beginning as a staff nurse at Kossuth County Hospital and later serving as a public health administrator for the Iowa County Public Health Agency. After relocating to Des Moines, she joined MercyOne Des Moines Medical Center while earning her Master of Science in Nursing from Drake University, ultimately serving in a variety of leadership roles across MercyOne. In 1999, she was named director of Mercy Home Care, where she led and supported more than 100 healthcare professionals, ensuring the delivery of high-quality, compassionate care.

Throughout her career, Joyce was widely recognized for excellence in nursing leadership, including being named one of Iowa's 100 Great Nurses. Even in retirement, she remains actively engaged in advancing healthcare through volunteer service and ongoing advocacy for nursing education.

Terry began his career as an educator, coach, and veteran, demonstrating an early commitment to mentorship and leadership that has continued through his philanthropic and community engagement efforts alongside Joyce. He joined Principal Financial Group in 1982, holding various leadership roles before being named Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Retirement and Investment Services. After a distinguished 35-year career, he retired from Principal Financial Group in 2017.

Together, the Lillis' have made an indelible impact on Mercy College of Health Sciences through their leadership and generosity. Their transformational gift established the Joyce E. Lillis School of Nursing, expanding opportunities for students and strengthening the College's ability to address critical workforce needs across Iowa. Their philanthropy also includes the creation of the Joyce E. Lillis Endowed Nursing Scholarship and longstanding service to the College, including Joyce's role as Mercy College Board Chair.

Joyce and Terry Lillis embody the mission and values of Mercy through their unwavering dedication to education, compassionate healthcare, and faith. In recognition of their profound contributions and enduring legacy, Mercy College of Health Sciences proudly confers upon them the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

NURSING RECOGNITIONS & AWARDS

PINNING

The tradition of graduates receiving a pin commemorates the completion of students' formal nursing coursework and the beginning of their professional careers as nurses. It is an important milestone in every nurse's journey and symbolizes the hard work and dedication shown as students in their classrooms and in their clinical experiences. The Mercy College Nursing Pin unites all graduating nurses with those who have come before them and serves as a reminder of their time at Mercy College of Health Sciences, as well as their lifelong commitment to serve their patients with the College's Core Values.

Spring 2026 nursing degree candidates will receive nursing pins as they cross the Commencement stage. Fall 2025 graduates received their pins prior to today's ceremony. Summer 2026 degree candidates will receive their pins upon completion of their degree requirements at a ceremony this summer.

DAISY AWARD

The DAISY (Diseases Attacking the Immune System) Foundation was established in memory of Patrick Barnes, who passed away in late 1999 following a long hospital stay. In Patrick's honor, the Foundation established The DAISY Award, which recognizes extraordinary nurses for their compassionate care toward their patients. In 2010, the Foundation also established the DAISY Award for Extraordinary Nursing Faculty to honor the contributions faculty make to the future of the nursing profession.

TRADITIONS OF COMMENCEMENT EXERCISE

TRADITIONS OF ACADEMIA

Many of the traditions surrounding academic ceremonies—such as inaugurations and commencements—can be traced back to the Middle Ages, when universities were first formed. Gowns and regalia, for example, were common forms of dress for academics during the era. Today, participants wear colorful gowns, cords, and stoles to signify their alma maters and highest degrees received. The current traditions of academic garb and similar symbols reflect the continuity and strength of higher education in today's culture. Two symbols particularly important to Mercy College of Health Sciences are the Mace and Presidential Chain of Office, both of which are displayed in the Office of the President throughout the academic year.

TRADITIONS OF THE CHAIN OF OFFICE

The tradition of a chain of office goes back to the civic life of communities during the Middle Ages. Upon his investiture, the new mayor of a town was given a chain of medallions. Each medallion represented the individual guilds of the town, linked together and working for the welfare of the community. In medieval universities, the chief official—or rector magnificus—held authority similar to that of the mayor in civil society. Thus, he, too, was honored with a chain of office. Rather than the guild medallions, however, the academic chain of office consisted of the insignia of all of the colleges of the university.

Today, Mercy College of Health Sciences' Presidential Chain of Office represents a similar unity of departments and programs. The medallion at the end of the Chain of Office is the Mercy College Seal, the unifying emblem which embodies the history and foundation of the College. Open book medals spaced along the length of the Chain are engraved with the Core Values of the institution: knowledge, reverence, integrity, compassion, and excellence

TRADITIONS OF THE MACE

Maces were clubs used primarily by medieval military officers during times of war. In more peaceful times, the mace came to represent the power of leadership and the pride of nations. Colleges and universities have adopted this symbol for their own purposes, using the mace in important ceremonies and institutional installations. It is carried at academic processions not only to bring an authority to ceremonial occasions, but also to symbolize the unity of vision and pride of purpose in the institution.
