A large, stylized letter 'A' composed of a dense grid of black dots. A small, multi-pointed starburst graphic is positioned near the top right of the letter.

The starting point of this collection is a Maurice Renoma exhibition. Throughout his prism and a selection of photographs, videos and vintage and contemporary pieces he retraced six decades of fashion. The mark this exhibition left on the designer combined with Sunday Life's timeless elegance, make of this new collection a moving synergy. The graphic and unexpected cuts convey the designer's desire to freeze and internalize this moment!

A large, stylized letter 'W' composed of a dense grid of black dots. A small, multi-pointed starburst graphic is positioned near the bottom right of the letter.

A duality is reprinted throughout a play of fabrics and color contrast. Deep and enticing velvets, alongside double-sided jacquards, are adorned with gold-en-stinged ornaments in contrast. A surprising and enameled touch of lace interweaves with sequins and glitter.

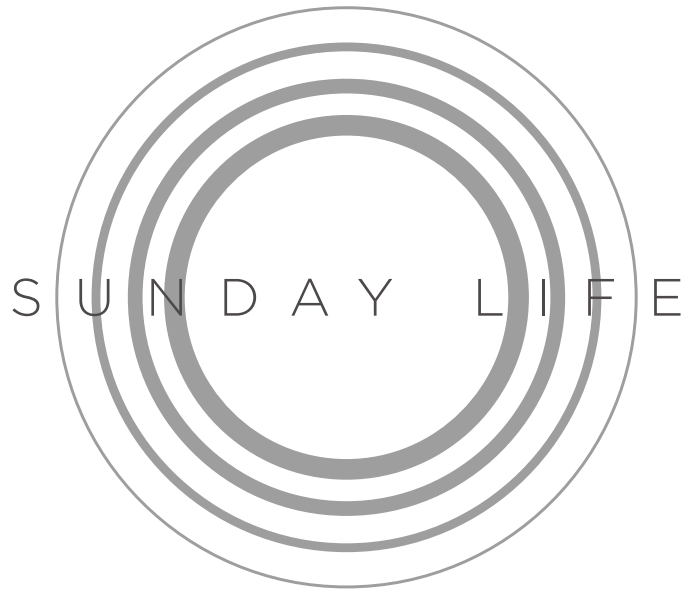

A large, stylized letter 'Z' composed of a dense grid of black dots.

The classic and timeless cuts impart a touch of sensuality and femininity. Wool and baby alpaca associations dress the sculptural and defined shoulders, giving them a soft touch, freeing the expression of body movement. A paradox of nearly theatrical drapes and plisées, endowed with a poetical lightness. Sunday Life's essence - transparency and flowiness, is here underlined in a brilliant duality of large and body fitting cuts.

A large, stylized number '4' composed of a dense grid of black dots. A small, multi-pointed starburst graphic is positioned near the top left of the number.

The color choice gives light to the universe the designer created. A symphony of feelings, adorned with pink-toned peaches and brownish grays. Velvet blues coexist with a camïeu of kakis and beiges in order to give life to an eternalized moment.

The desire to create something palpable out of the emotions, the moment, the sparkle, comes to life through a romanticized and splendid power-dressing.
