Amsterdam

Journey from Basel to Amsterdam along the legendary Rhine, passing charming villages, vineyard-covered landscapes, and historic cities. From Strasbourg to Cologne, experience a seamless blend of culture, scenery, and relaxed cruising.

DAY 1

Basel

Embarkation and Welcome Aboard

At the meeting point of Switzerland, Germany, and France, your journey begins in a region where cultures blend seamlessly and landscapes set the stage for what lies ahead. Take time to settle in and soak in the atmosphere before stepping onboard. As evening falls, an elegant welcome dinner sets the tone for the days to come—an invitation to unwind, indulge in fine cuisine, and savor the anticipation of the remarkable journey ahead.

DAY 2

Strasbourg

Exploring the Charm of Strasbourg

Strasbourg welcomes you with its unique blend of French flair and German heritage. Stroll through its charming old town, admire the soaring cathedral, and discover its rich history on a guided tour. Later, experience the city from the water as you glide along its canals. Alternatively, venture deep into the Black Forest, where cascading waterfalls, traditional craftsmanship, and regional cuisine create an authentic and memorable escape.

DAY 3

Speyer & Mannheim

A Day of History and Heritage

Begin your day in Speyer, one of Germany's oldest towns, where history reveals itself at every turn. Stroll through its charming streets and soak in the atmosphere of this storied destination, perhaps pausing to enjoy a taste of the region's iconic pretzel.

In the afternoon, continue to Heidelberg, where a romantic old town sits beneath a majestic castle overlooking the Neckar River. For those seeking a more active experience, a walk along the Philosopher's Path offers sweeping views and a memorable perspective of this timeless city.

DAY 4

Rüdesheim & Koblenz

Wine, Music, and Scenic River Views

Arrive in the charming town of Rüdesheim, famous for its wine-making traditions. Enjoy a guided tour to the Mechanical Music Cabinet Museum or venture into the nearby vineyards for a wine tasting, ending with a stroll down the lively Drosselgasse.

In the afternoon, cruise through the stunning Upper Middle Rhine Valley, passing medieval castles and the legendary Lorelei Rock. Later, arrive in Koblenz, where you can explore the historic center and take a cable car to Ehrenbreitstein Fortress for panoramic views of the Rhine and Moselle.

DAY 5

Koblenz & Rudesheim

Along the Moselle

The journey continues along the gentle curves of the Moselle River, where terraced vineyards cascade down rolling hills and storybook landscapes unfold at every turn. This quieter stretch of the journey offers a sense of calm, with picturesque scenery that feels both timeless and beautifully preserved.

In Cochem, a guided walk brings the town's charm to life, from its half-timbered houses and inviting squares to the impressive Reichsburg Castle overlooking the valley. For wine enthusiasts, the region offers memorable tastings at local vineyards—whether among the vines or within historic cellars—featuring the Moselle's renowned Rieslings and distinctive varietals.

DAY 6

Cologne

Cathedrals and Kölsch in Cologne

Arrive in the bustling city of Cologne, where history and modern life blend seamlessly. Begin your exploration with a visit to the magnificent Cologne Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that dominates the skyline. This Gothic masterpiece, with its soaring twin spires and intricate stained glass, is one of Europe's most impressive churches. A guided tour of the old town will reveal Cologne's rich heritage, with charming streets, Roman ruins, and vibrant public squares.

After soaking in the sights, get a taste of Cologne's local culture with a Kölsch beer tasting. This light, refreshing beer is a source of pride for locals and is best enjoyed in one of the city's traditional brewpubs. Chat with fellow travelers or locals over a glass, experiencing a cherished part of Cologne's social scene. By afternoon, return to the ship and enjoy a relaxing cruise, reflecting on the lively atmosphere of this historic yet dynamic city.

DAY 7

Amsterdam

Canals and Dutch Charm

Arriving in Amsterdam, experience the city from its most iconic perspective—the water. A scenic canal cruise reveals elegant façades, historic bridges, and vibrant neighborhoods, offering a unique glimpse into the character of this captivating capital.

In the afternoon, choose between an active exploration of the peaceful Waterland countryside by E-bike or a visit to Zaanse Schans, where windmills, traditional crafts, and regional specialties bring Dutch heritage to life. In the evening, return onboard to celebrate your journey with a festive gala dinner—an elegant conclusion to your Rhine experience.

DAY 8

Amsterdam

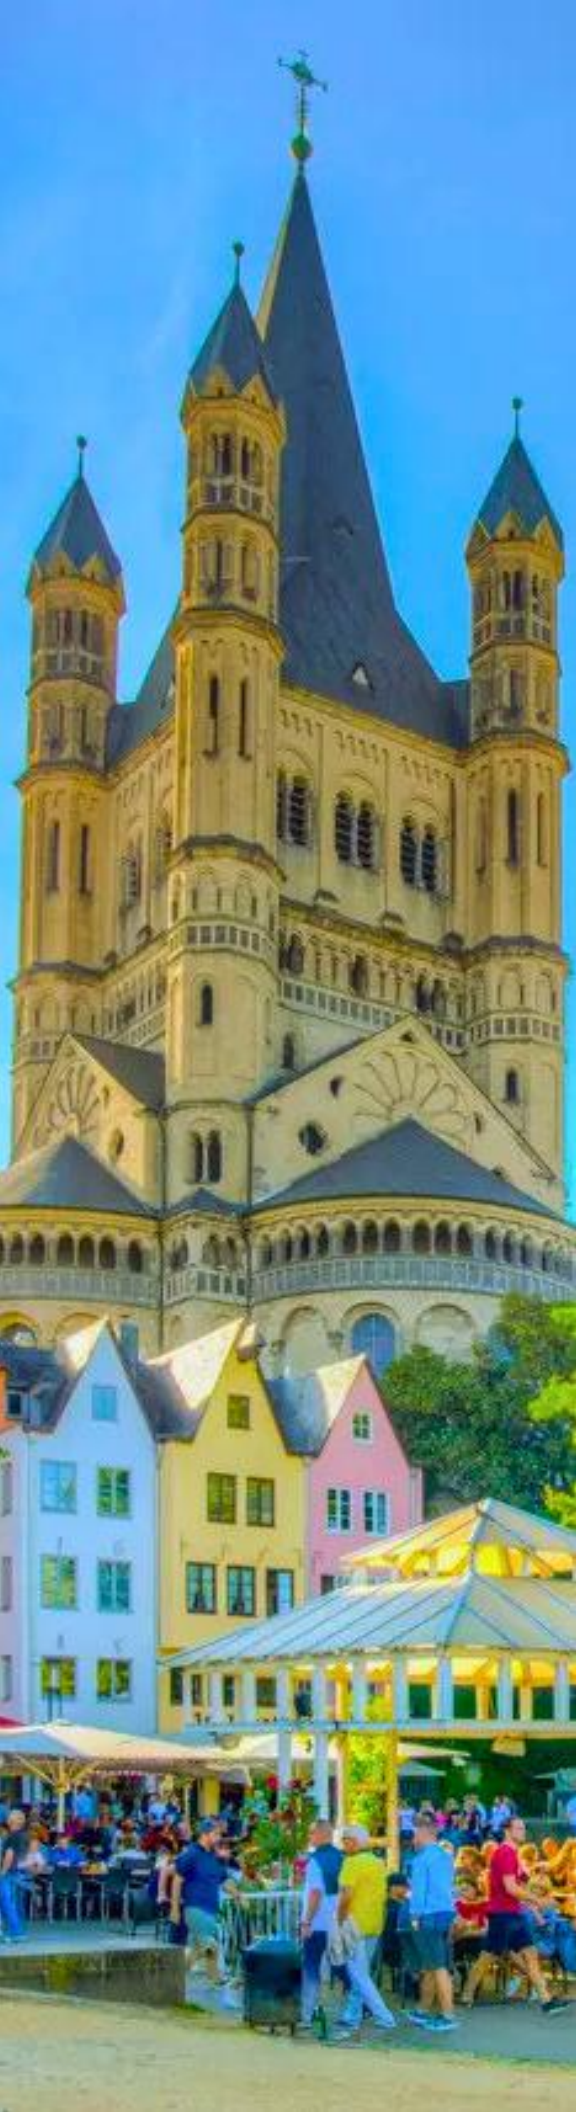

Farewell to the Rhine

After a final breakfast on board, take a moment to enjoy the last views of the river as your journey comes to a close. It's a quiet time to reflect on the landscapes, cities, and experiences that have shaped your days along the Rhine.

Disembark with lasting memories of this remarkable journey through the heart of Europe—where each destination, each moment, and each view has created a story to carry with you long after you return home.
