Dear Valued Partner,

Every bold achievement starts with a bold vision, and at Cruise Planners – Land N Sea Trips, we bring that vision to life with transformative journeys that inspire, engage, and leave a lasting impact. Our passion lies in crafting extraordinary travel and event experiences that strengthen connections, re-energize teams, and celebrate success in ways that traditional settings cannot achieve.

In today's dynamic corporate landscape, businesses are constantly seeking groundbreaking strategies to inspire, re-engage, and drive their teams to new heights. Among the innovative approaches emerging is hosting a corporate conference, retreat, or incentive trip aboard a luxury cruise ship, which stands out as a truly transformative experience that redefines the traditional event setting.

Our expert team of travel and meeting planners handles every aspect of your event seamlessly, from concept to completion. Whether it's an executive retreat that sparks creativity and camaraderie or an incentive trip that rewards and motivates your top performers, we ensure every detail is flawlessly executed. This comprehensive support allows you to focus on what matters most—your people and your goals, giving you the confidence that your event is in capable hands.

With our innovative and exclusive CruiseTech IQ platform, we will take your event to the next level. Real-time itineraries, live engagement tools, and insightful analytics ensure that your event runs effortlessly while delivering measurable outcomes. It's an event innovation designed for connectivity, engagement, and success.

Partnering with Cruise Planners – Land N Sea Trips means gaining more than a planner; you gain a dedicated collaborator and an experienced team committed to making your vision a reality. Together, we create meaningful, results-driven experiences that resonate long after the journey ends.

Let's set sail on something extraordinary. I look forward to helping you design an event that inspires, connects, and elevates your team like never before.

Warm regards,

Keith Lefkof

From Concept to Completion
Cruise Planners Is Your In-House Meeting and Travel Expert!

Keith Lefkof, ECC, TAE Corporate Travel Consultant Founder – CruiseTechIQ

Keith Lefkof brings over two decades of multifaceted expertise to the travel industry and corporate America, seamlessly integrating a diverse background in hospitality management, corporate real estate, franchise consulting, and entrepreneurship. His extensive experience across these fields uniquely equips him to craft insightful, high-impact narratives, as demonstrated in his book Navigating Brand Success.

As the owner of a full-service travel agency and a proud franchisee of Cruise Planners—an internationally acclaimed, award-winning brand—Keith leverages the company's extensive global reach, industry-leading technology, and unparalleled expertise to create extraordinary experiences for his clients. From meticulously crafted family vacations to impactful corporate cruise conferences, Keith's commitment to service, value, and forward-thinking event design consistently sets him apart in the industry. Keith and his team of travel and meeting professionals utilize a personal touch in an innovative, collaborative, process-driven, and tech-savvy approach to memorable cruise events.

Keith sets sail on a groundbreaking literary journey with a transformative trilogy of B2B books, redefining the potential of Corporate Cruises for business success. His first title, Navigating Brand Success, reveals the secrets to crafting memorable brand experiences through immersive travel, guiding companies in strengthening their identity and impact. Following this, Corporate Conferences at Sea serves as a masterclass for hosting high-impact events in a unique, floating setting, transforming traditional gatherings into extraordinary experiences. Concluding the series, Cruise to Connect explores how the magic of the open sea fosters authentic connections and powerful networking opportunities. Rich with insights and behind-the-scenes expertise, Keith's trilogy is a must-read for those eager to harness the power of corporate cruises to elevate their brand and forge lasting connections.

Understanding the specific needs of the cruise conference industry, Keith is launching CruiseTech IQ, a pioneering event management platform leveraged by the award-winning Trippus event management company, which boasts over 25 years of industry experience designed to revolutionize the planning and execution of cruise events and conferences. CruiseTech IQ will set new benchmarks in collaboration, productivity, planning, attendee engagement, and overall event success.

Keith's commitment to learning and innovation is unwavering. He strengthens his community impact through active involvement with the International Franchise Association (IFA), Meeting Professionals International (MPI), and the Society for Incentive Travel Excellence (SITE), where he engages with industry leaders and leverages the resources of these influential organizations. Keith's commitment to learning and innovation enables him to provide clients with unparalleled expertise and forward-thinking perspectives, instilling confidence in his ability to adapt to industry changes.

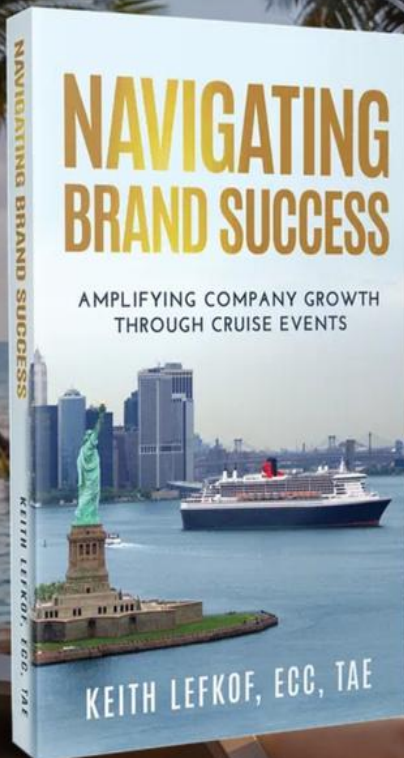

A graduate of Florida International University with a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management, Keith also serves as a board member for FIU's Hospitality Alumni Network, dedicating his time to supporting and guiding the next generation of hospitality professionals.

On a personal note, Keith lives in Boca Raton, FL, with his family and is an accomplished Ironman and Marathon finisher.

CRUISETECH IQ

Cruise Tech IQ leads the industry in providing specialized project and event management solutions tailored specifically for cruise conferences. Leveraged by the award-winning Trippus event management platform, which boasts over 25 years of industry experience, our technology is designed to be the ultimate Cruise Conference Planning Command Center.

At the helm of Cruise Tech IQ is our founder, Keith Lefkof, ECC, TAE, a seasoned travel advisor with Cruise Planners who not only specializes in corporate conferences at sea but is currently writing a trilogy of Cruise Retreat Books with the first book about corporate conferences at sea. This unique expertise and firsthand knowledge have profoundly shaped our platform, making it the premier choice for those aiming to create impactful and memorable cruise-based corporate events.

CruiseTech IQ, addresses the unique challenges of organizing events on cruise ships, emphasizing seamless integration, stakeholder collaboration, and unparalleled attendee experiences. Our services cater to a diverse clientele, including company organizers, travel advisors, and meeting planners, facilitating effective communication, robust task management, and efficient allocation of resources.

Understanding the dynamic nature of events at sea, Cruise Tech IQ's technology suite includes a custom-branded website, automated registration processes, mobile apps for personalized attendee engagement, and real-time adjustments to schedules and logistics. This ensures every conference is smoothly executed with minimal disruptions, ensuring maximum satisfaction for all participants.

Our task management tools are particularly adept at addressing the logistical challenges posed by cruise ships, assisting in the precise scheduling of activities, allocation of meeting spaces and AV equipment, and clear assignment of responsibilities. These tools are indispensable for maintaining order and timeliness in the constantly moving and confined spaces of a ship.

Attendees benefit from our platform's mobile apps, which provide access to personalized agendas, real-time notifications about sessions or venue changes, and digital interaction with other participants and speakers. This engagement level not only enhances their experience but also fosters greater involvement with the conference's offerings.

Real-time coordination tools provided by Cruise Tech IQ prove crucial during the event, allowing for swift modifications in response to unexpected changes such as weather conditions or technical difficulties. These features help maintain a professional and enjoyable atmosphere throughout the conference.

At Cruise Tech IQ, we are committed to elevating the cruise conference experience, making it more efficient, enjoyable, and impactful for everyone involved. We empower organizers to exceed the expectations of their attendees, creating memorable and effective events that resonate well beyond their conclusion. Whether you are orchestrating your inaugural cruise conference or seeking to refine your event management strategy, Cruise Tech IQ is your reliable partner in overcoming the challenges of cruise event planning.

CUSTOMIZED MEETING SERVICES

Meeting Services Our number one goal is to make your event an outstanding success. In order to accomplish that, we pay close attention to detail and ensure everything is just perfect. We will be onboard to ensure everything runs seamlessly. Meeting Rooms Over the past several years, new era ships come with multiple function rooms and meeting facilities, and each generation of ships adds more and more. The cruise lines are responding to increased demand for meetings, conferences, conventions and workshops at sea. From a small board of directors meeting to a grand awards presentation on a rotating stage, purpose-built conference rooms and theaters are now a reality aboard most of the newer vessels. Some even offer video walls, interactive TV's and appropriate space for small trade shows.

We can organize general sessions with multiple breakout rooms, gala awards receptions, formal banquets, sit-down dinners-on-deck with video screen presentations and live entertainment. Some ships are better equipped than others, but with the right ship and adequate planning, most anything can be done. Ship selection is the key – and we're the know how to do it.
