Celebrating Our Community: Join Mirabilis Collective

Mirabilis Collective brings together women musicians from multiple generations to celebrate diverse voices through chamber music. We perform music by female composers and songwriters, spanning medieval to modern from a range of musical genres.

We're grateful to our donors for their crucial support — you are instrumental in making our concerts possible. Thank you especially to UWA Conservatorium of Music for your belief and support.

Your support as a donor can help us continue this important work. For details, please talk to Stephanie or Tresna.
