"Mark" My Words... a message from Dawn Giganti for Mark Bouquet, Sr.

Hi everyone!

I feel like we went from winter to summer and skipped spring. However, I'm NOT complaining... I know that winter will be back before we know it. That being said, I'm enjoying summer! I hope you are having a wonderful summer, too.

Lots of awesome things happening this month... a special summer Anderson Tuftex and Shaw Floors sale, coupons to cut for August... Ugly Floor Contest, busy busy busy! Speaking of the Ugly Floor Contest, please make sure to check it out. You spoke and we listened! The voting is all about YOU... YOU pick the winner!!! We're also having a special drawing for referring someone to the Ugly Floor Contest. How often can you get away with telling your friend or family member that their floor is UGLY, help them possibly win a new floor and maybe even go out to dinner on us? You can't do that everyday... LOL! I'm looking forward to seeing all the entries.

Thank you for all of the birthday wishes last month! It really means a lot. I love hearing from everyone about the newsletter. I look forward to writing the newsletter every month. Definitely the best part of my job!

After celebrating my birthday last month, it made me realize that I'm coming up to my fifth year here at Creative Carpet & Flooring in September (September 22nd, 2014 to be exact!) I was talking with Tammy last week, and we both started talking about how Creative Carpet & Flooring is coming up on the big 30 next year. Can you believe it? Thirty years! That's quite a long time. It feels like I was just celebrating their 25th with them! How the time just flies.

Speaking of flying time... that's my warning sign. I tend to get over zealous, taking on too much and things start moving too quickly. The next thing I know, I'm missing out. Getting too wrapped up in what YOU think is important and gets you ahead in life will form a toxic combo in your soul that will suck the life right out of you. The most important thing you can do is stay grounded and make sure that you are spiritually and emotionally healthy. Don't attempt to manipulate His timing with your own expedited pace. Take it slowly and ENJOY LIFE - you'll be much more productive and happy this way!

Have a wonderful relaxing August & God Bless,

Dawn Giganti, Marketing & Administrative Assistant
Creative Carpet & Flooring

Simplify With A Yard Sale

You've probably collected quite a few treasures over the years if your family is anything like mine. As time goes on, it is so easy to gather all kinds of things that you probably will never need or use again. I usually get overwhelmed whenever I'm looking for an item and can't find it among the amount of stuff that my family owns. A great way to remedy this is a huge yard sale. Each family member goes through ALL their belongings and comes up with items that they can sell.

Having a yard sale is a fantastic way to simplify all the stuff that has collected in your home. Holding a family meeting is the first step to talk about possible reasons why house and life, in general, have gotten complicated and to this point. Work on ways to try to alleviate this from happening again. One idea would be to get rid of an item when you bring in a new one. After that discussion, choose a perfect weekend for the yard sale and get an idea of what kinds of things you might be able to sell. Having the entire family in on the planning and the reason for the yard sale is essential not only to make it a successful event but to prevent it from reoccurring too often.

Now comes the fun of weeding through all your possessions. Have the kids go through their room and their belongings on their own. Have them set aside items and clothes that they think would be good to sell in the yard sale. After you have gone through all your own things, look through all the things the kids selected for the yard sale just to make sure there isn't anything in there that shouldn't be. More than likely, you'll be looking through what they haven't selected! Once the family all has their items gathered to attempt to sell, you can begin pricing all your items for the yard sale.

Pricing, setting out all the items, running the sale... the entire process should all be done as a family. The yard sale will go better when everyone feels a sense of ownership about what is happening with the yard sale.

So, if you're looking for an awesome way to simplify your home and to do a fantastic family activity together, look no further than making a yard sale. It is a great way to build a relationship and to teach your children and yourself essential skills about living simply.

Celebrate Friendship Day 2019 on August 4, Sunday

Human beings are social creatures and have always valued the importance of friends in their lives. To celebrate this noble feeling, it was deemed fit to have a day dedicated to friends and friendship. Accordingly, the first Sunday of August was declared as a holiday in the US in honor of friends by a Proclamation made by US Congress in 1935. Since then, World Friendship Day is being celebrated every year on the first Sunday in the month of August.

Several other countries across the world joyfully accepted this beautiful idea of celebrating Friendship Day. And today, many countries celebrate the first Sunday of August as Friendship Day every year. Traditionally celebrating Friendship Day, people meet their friends and exchange cards and flowers to honor their friends. Many social and cultural organizations celebrate Friendship Day by hosting programs and get togethers.

It may be noted that some associations celebrate Friendship Day in an entirely different time of the year and with different customs. For instance,

- National Friendship Day is on the first Sunday in August.
- Women's Friendship Day is on the third Sunday in August
- International Friendship Month is February
- Old Friends, New Friends Week is the third week of May

However, what is remarkably the same is the idea behind the celebration of the day. Everywhere, people express love for their friends and cherish their presence in life.

Joan Fradella of Lakework, FL, has an active 7-year-old who hates school and homework. One day, he told his mother he wanted to be homeschooled. She asked him to think about a day at school versus a day home with her. After a few minutes, he muttered, "I think that would be torture."

Shannon Swindle of Harrisburg, PA, asked her 3-year-old son what his favorite thing about preschool was. He responded, "When you pick me up."
