2025 SPRING GUIDE

welcome

TO PARK CITIES PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

I want to welcome you to PCPC. We know there's a lot in this Spring Guide, but we hope it's more than a menu, more than a flood of information. We want to shepherd you toward being a healthy member or participant in the life of our church.

As you consider where the Lord is calling you to connect, abide, and extend, our hope is that you will:

- Join us regularly in corporate worship for all ages on Sundays at 8:00 a.m. (Chapel), 9:30 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. (Sanctuary).
- Find a community that makes the big church smaller and helps you become more like Jesus (see the "Connect" section in this guide).
- Find a way to serve the Lord inside or outside the walls of the church (see the "Extend" section in this guide).

Some of our people get involved in more than one smaller community, and some find more than one way to serve. It is not our desire that you would do everything, but that the Lord would lead you to a few things that help you connect, abide, and extend. If you can only do one thing, we hope that you'll prioritize the joy of worshipping the Lord together on Sunday morning.

– Mark Davis, Senior Pastor

Each SMC varies in size and reflects the unique character of what its members share in common, even as it extends an invitation to all—young and old, single and married, those with children and those without.

BEHOLD THE LAMB - SERMON SERIES

This spring, we invite you to join us on Sunday mornings as we continue in our sermons series from the Gospel of John called Behold the Lamb. We will soak in the Gospel account, meditating upon moments like the wedding in Cana, the seven I AM statements declared by Jesus, and the moment at the empty tomb where John looked inside and "saw and believed" that Jesus had risen (John 20:8). We encourage your faithfulness to worship with us each week and invite neighbors, family, and friends to join us. Each week's sermon will be posted on YouTube, Facebook, podcast, and pcpc.org for you to share with others.
