AMAU Jr.

Vision

To be the leading online academy empowering young Muslims with a profound understanding of their beautiful religion, and equipping them with essential life-skills.

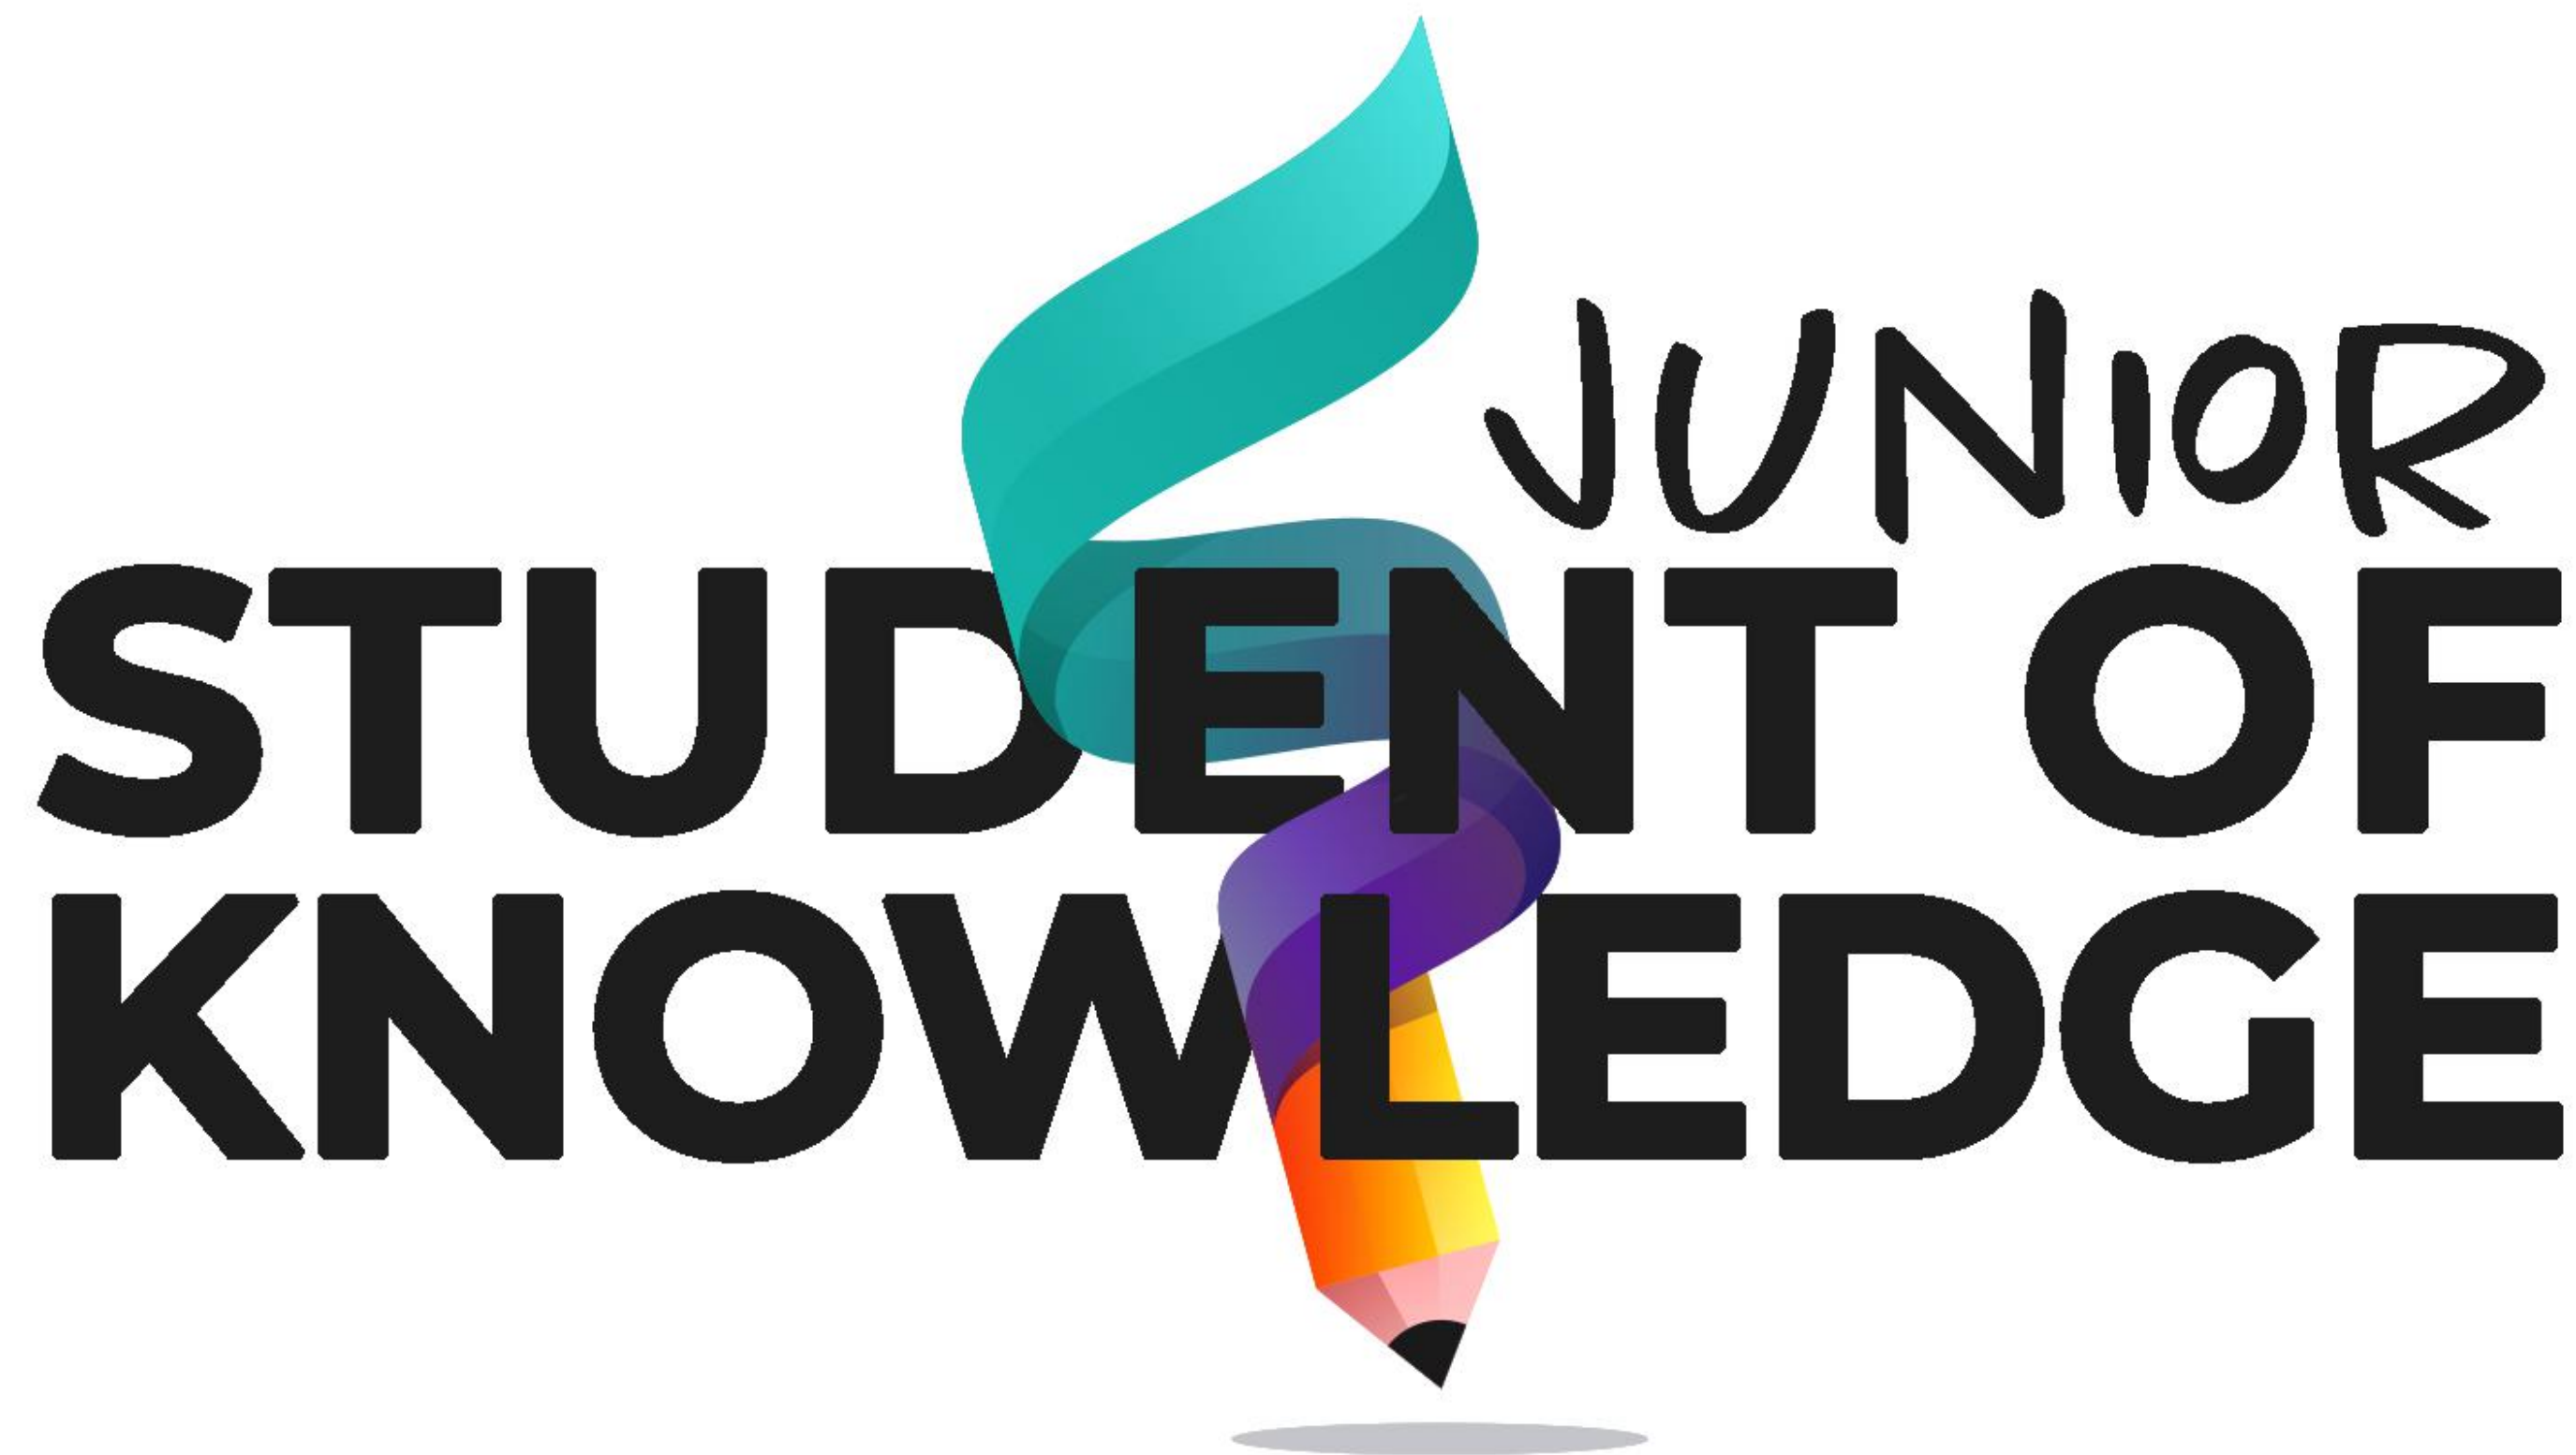

We strive to create a nurturing and secure environment where young minds can explore and embrace the teachings of Islam, fostering a strong sense of identity, compassion, and purpose. Our ultimate aim is to shape a generation of confident, knowledgeable, and socially responsible Muslim leaders who will positively impact their communities and the world at large.

What is the need for AMAU Jr?

In a rapidly evolving world, the need for a strong foundation in religious education has never been more crucial. As parents, educators, and guardians, we understand the challenges of safeguarding our children from harmful content and ideologies that are prevalent in today's digital landscape.

AMAU Jr was born out of the necessity to counteract this growing concern, and provide a safe haven where young Muslims can learn about their faith with confidence, free from harmful content, advertisements or unwanted distractions.

We recognise that the internet and social media expose our children to an overwhelming amount of information, including content that may not align with traditional Islamic values. AMAU Jr seeks to fill this void by offering a carefully curated curriculum, ensuring children have access to accurate, authentic, and age-appropriate Islamic teachings, free from any misleading or harmful influences.

How it Works

At AMAU Jr, we have designed a seamless learning experience to empower young minds with the knowledge they need of their beautiful religion. The program is structured to cater for students of different proficiency levels, ensuring a personalised and relatable journey every step of the way.

BEGINNER LEVEL

Available Immediately

Our Beginner level classes are already available on the student portal, allowing all of our students to embark on their educational journey right away. These classes provide a solid foundation in Islamic teachings, guiding students on essential principles in their religion.

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

Begins October 2023

For those seeking to further expand their knowledge, Intermediate level classes will commence in October 2023. These classes build upon the foundation laid in the Beginner level and are taught live, allowing students to interact with their teacher in real-time. As this is a long-term program, these classes will continue even after the Advanced level classes begin.

ADVANCED LEVEL

Begins January 2024

The Advanced level classes, taught exclusively by Ustadh Abdulrahman Hassan, will be available on the portal from January 2024. These classes offer a comprehensive exploration of advanced Islamic subjects, catering to students who are seeking in-depth knowledge of the religion of Islam. They are perfect for those who aspire to become committed students of knowledge for the rest of their lives.

Flexible Learning Options

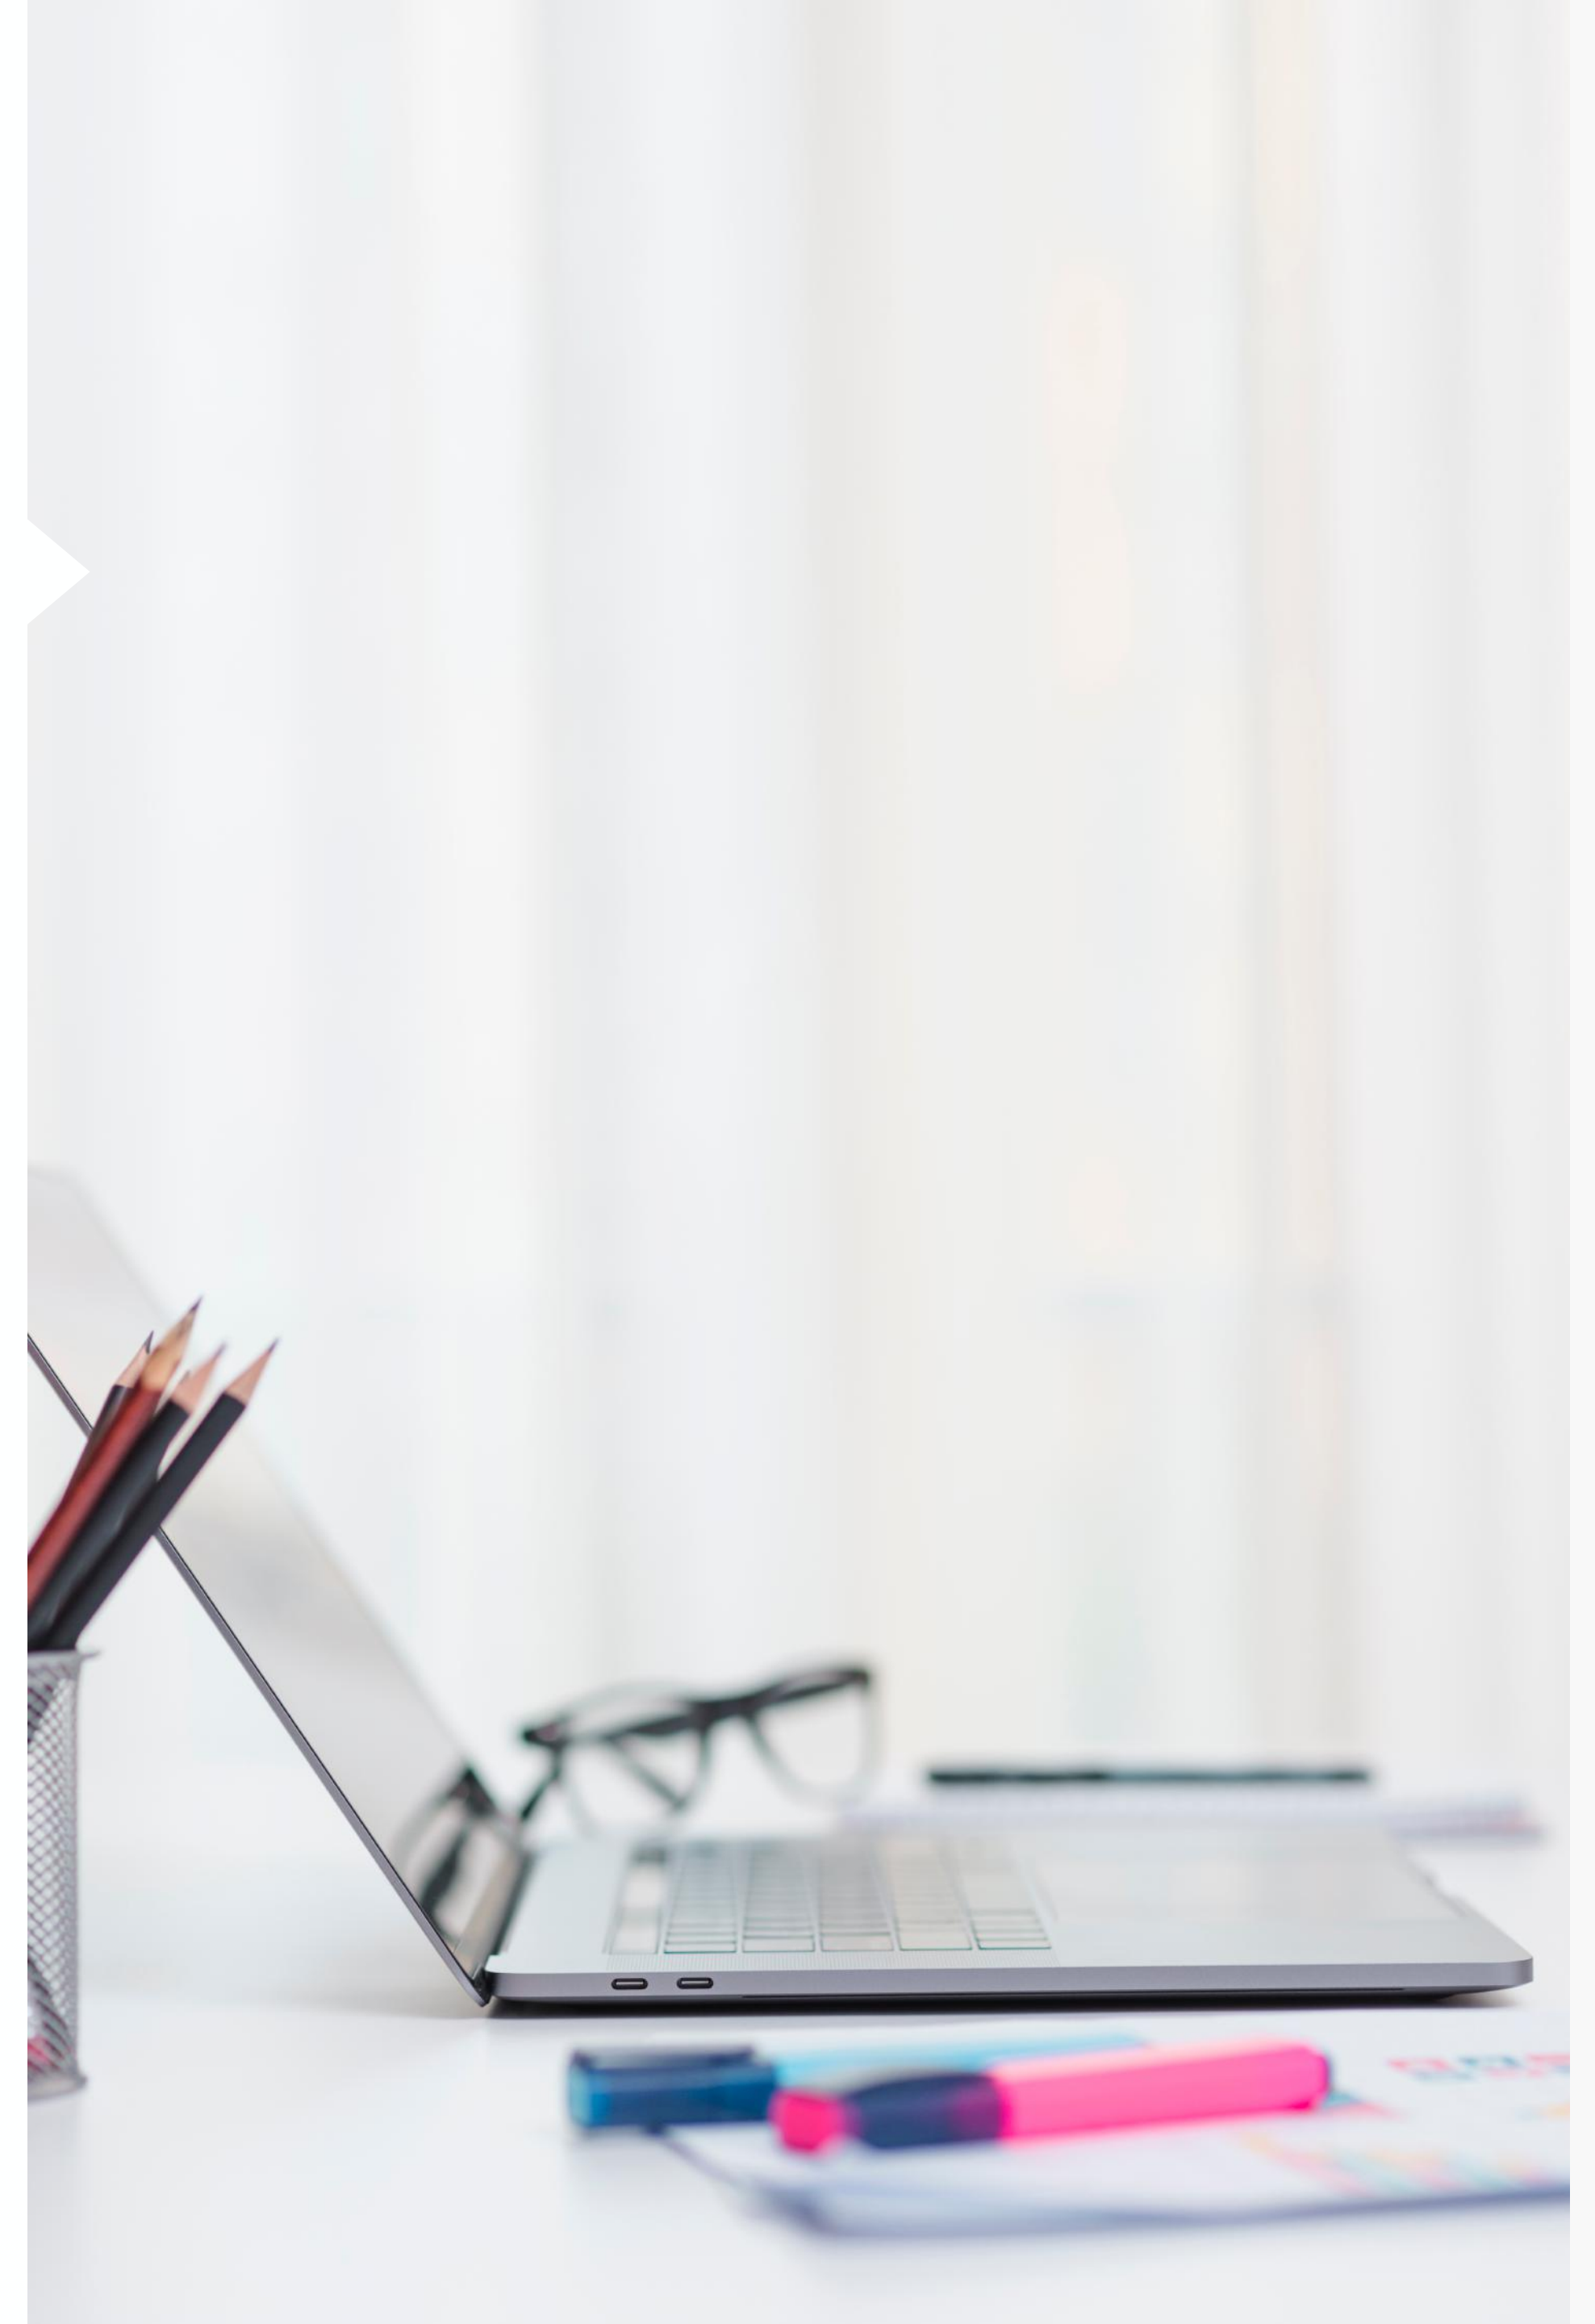

All students will receive access to all classes and all levels, providing them with the flexibility to choose the level that best suits their knowledge and learning goals. With our flexible approach, students have the option to study all three levels - Beginner, Intermediate and Advanced - at the same time. Alternatively, they can choose to focus on a single level or even two levels, depending on their availability and commitment.

Live Interaction

A new live lesson every single week.

After an initial period of self-paced learning during the Beginner level of each pathway, lessons at the Intermediate level will be conducted live, ensuring that learners can grasp the nuances of Islamic knowledge and etiquettes effectively. These sessions will not only impart Islamic knowledge, but also enable our students to witness the passion and dedication of our instructors first-hand, inspiring them to become enthusiastic seekers of knowledge themselves. As for the Advanced level, we expect any students who are opting for this level to be able to manage their own time as they undertake another self-study part of the curriculum.

In order to ensure sustained motivation and diversity in their studies, students will access one live lesson every single week - and each week will be dedicated to a different pathway. Recordings of each session will also be made available for those who are unable to attend live.

We also want our students to understand and act upon the speech of Allah; a life-long goal of every Muslim, both young and old. Ustadh Abdulrahman Hassan and his children will be on-hand to provide basic tafseer lessons, slowly imparting the beauty and wisdom contained within these verses.

Your child will learn about the stories of the Prophets, the moral teachings, and the profound messages embedded in The Qur'an. They are encouraged to reflect on the Qur'anic teachings and apply them in their daily lives, fostering a deeper understanding of their faith.

“I wish I knew the Arabic language!” - says every Muslim adult. Give your child the best head-start to life, and remove decades of pain and regret, by allowing them to learn the Arabic language in their early years.
