My live magnet printing experience creates a unique photo moment right inside your event, giving guests something engaging to do while also giving them something special to take home. It becomes an easy, natural focal point that adds excitement without adding stress for you as the host.

Guests can either upload their own photos or step in front of a styled backdrop where I capture candid, natural, joy-filled images throughout your event. Everything is kept relaxed and effortless so it blends into the flow of your celebration rather than interrupting it.

How It Works

1. We Set the Scene

We arrive early to set up and style your magnet station so it feels like a natural part of your event—not a vendor booth. Whether it's a backdrop, portrait space, or table display, everything is designed to match your celebration. All we need is access to a standard outlet for on-site printing.

2. We Capture the Moments

Guests can step in for quick portraits or group photos, while we also capture candid moments throughout your celebration—laughter, hugs, dancing, and everything in between. It's a mix of posed keepsakes and natural, in-the-moment photography.

3. We Print Memories Live

As the moments unfold, we transform select images into premium photo magnets printed on site beautiful little keepsakes your guests can hold, display, and take home that same day.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do you take the photos yourself?

Yes—and no. Guests can either upload their own photos, or I can take them on-site using a styled backdrop and candid coverage throughout your home or event space. I then curate and print the images in real time as premium photo magnets for guests to take home the same day.

What kind of photos do you capture?

A mix of candid and lightly guided moments. I capture natural interactions as your guests celebrate in your home, along with simple portrait-style photos when it makes sense—by a backdrop, in good lighting, or in natural gathering spaces. The goal is to keep everything feeling easy and natural, not staged or formal.

How do guests receive their magnets?

Guests are photographed during your event, and their images are processed and printed live on-site. They can pick up their finished magnets during the celebration—no waiting, no shipping, and nothing required after the event.

How many guests can you accommodate?

Each package is based on time rather than a strict guest count. The 1-hour experience works well for smaller home gatherings or focused moments like cake time or arrivals, while the 2-hour experience is ideal for more relaxed, steady guest flow throughout a home celebration.

Do you need anything from our home/Event Space?

Yes—just a standard electrical outlet and a small space such as a table or corner area for the magnet station. I bring everything needed for setup, including all equipment and styling elements. If the event is outdoors or space is limited, I can adapt the setup accordingly.

When do you take the photos?

I photograph guests throughout your celebration as they naturally gather, mingle, and enjoy the event—typically during arrival, conversation, gift opening, cake time, or casual group moments in your home.

Your guests deserve a favor they'll actually treasure.
