CRRL-CON

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 12:00-4:00

A comic book convention at your library!

Welcome

There's something about watching the leaves return and the flowers bloom that makes anything seem possible. It's the season of new beginnings, and your public library is the perfect place to start yours!

Everyone can find their community at the Library. Whether you're into local history, health, or hands-on creating, there is a program for you. If you're a fan of comic books and superheroes, mark your calendar for the 12th annual CRRL-Con this April 18!

If you're looking for your next read, Library staff love talking about books. Ask for a recommendation in person or at librarypoint.org/my-librarian. And, please tell us what you're reading, too. If you need a little extra motivation, the Summer Reading challenge for all ages kicks off May 15 and rewards your progress.

If you prefer some quiet, reserve a privacy pod or study room (librarypoint.org/room-request) and enjoy some downtime. Be sure to check out an art show during your visit. You won't want to miss the 31st Annual Johnny P. Johnson Teen Art Show at Fredericksburg Branch; the talent of these high school students is truly amazing.

Whatever your goals are, stop by and see us. We can't wait to help you!

Rebecca
