I turned 45 this year. To commemorate the occasion, I offer "agimat," a humble working collection of archetypal images that has crossed my path. Symbols that have bridged the distance of space & expanded my notion of time. They're a mix of the new and the familiar, making themselves seen in a new light and lens. They have been a source of curiosity, connection and strength. I hope they resonate with you. Keep it in your shelves, use it as fire starters, do what you will. This is all to say... grateful to be in your orbit and wish you rest & power in our continued voyage around the sun.
