TREMONT
FLORAL

SINCE 1965

A vibrant collage of spring garden elements is presented through a hole in a piece of light brown, textured paper. The scene is set against a soft, light blue sky that transitions into a lush green lawn. In the foreground, several white daisies with yellow centers and bright yellow flowers are scattered across the grass. A large, detailed butterfly with blue and black wings is perched on a yellow flower on the left. Another butterfly with black and yellow wings is on a pink and white flower on the right. A ladybug is visible on the top edge of the paper hole, and another is on the grass. The overall composition is bright and cheerful, capturing the essence of a spring garden.
